

Divorce 2015

Chapter 2015 can you return my love to me

Fang Xiao first sent Fang Chen back to the special school and repeatedly told her brother not to go with strangers in the future. She said that other than her and the school's teachers, no one else should be trusted because those people could not be trusted.

"What about brother-in-law?" Fang Chen heard Fang Xiao's words and frowned. She could not help but ask, "brother-in-law can't be trusted too?"

"He can't be your brother-in-law," Fang Xiao whispered to Fang Chen to correct his understanding. "Chen Chen, you don't have a brother-in-law yet. In the future, if one day you really have a brother-in-law, I will bring him to tell you."

"Oh," Fang Chen said angrily like a child. "But, I like him so much. I think he is very suitable to be my brother-in-law."

In a certain large general hospital in the suburbs of Binhai, outside the gynecology and obstetrics operating theater, Dongfang Yunheng smoked one cigarette after another at the end of the corridor. In just twenty minutes, there were already four or five cigarette butts under his feet.

He did not expect that Gu Chenchen would actually give her a fatal blow, and even penetrate her lower abdomen directly.

He had always thought that Gu Chenchen would kidnap Fang Chen and use Fang Chen to force him to marry her, just like Du Caiwei did. He wanted him to use marriage in exchange for Fang Chen's freedom.

In fact, he had already expected that Gu Chenchen would kidnap Fang Chen, so he specially arranged for Wu Jianping to keep an eye on Fang Chen. Just as he expected, Gu Chenchen did kidnap Fang Chen.

Actually, Gu Chenchen kidnapped Fang Chen and had people watch over him. Outside the abandoned factory building, there were all his men. As long as Gu Chenchen touched Fang Chen, Wu Jianping's men would rush in.

Fortunately, Gu Chenchen did not touch Fang Chen. He was still thinking that Gu Chenchen was not a kidnapper after all. Compared to Du Caiwei, Gu Chenchen was still much inferior.

However, at this moment, he realized that Gu Chenchen was not inferior to Du Caiwei. On the contrary, Gu Chenchen was better than Du Caiwei. Gu Chenchen must have known that she was surrounded by his men, which was why he used such an extreme method.

On the way to the hospital, Gu Chenchen lay in his arms with a pale face. Her face was full of sweat and tears. She looked at him with the most desperate eyes.

"She said, Yun Heng, I know you don't love me, and I know I can't catch you with this child, so I'll return your child to you. Can you return the love I've given you for so many years to me?"

He said nothing. He just hugged her tightly and looked at the dagger in her abdomen. Thinking of the sharp tip of the dagger in the body of the baby in her belly, his heart actually began to tremble.

It was only a few kilometers from the abandoned factory to the hospital in the town. It was not even ten minutes' drive, but he felt that it was extremely long, so long that he could not hold on any longer.

It was not easy for the car to stop. When they finally arrived at the hospital, the car door was pulled open from the outside. The doctors and nurses in the hospital were already prepared. When they saw him carrying Gu Chenchen down, they immediately came forward to welcome him.

He placed Gu Chenchen on the moving bed, but Gu Chenchen held tightly onto the clothes on his arm. Then, she said in an extremely miserable voice, "Yun Heng, if... if I can't make it, please give my corneas to Fang Xiao... remember to give my corneas to Fang Xiao..."

Chapter 2016. Three days later, he went to Singapore

At that moment, his heart was struck by a heavy blow. If he used to deal with and detest Gu Chenchen more, then at this moment, he was really touched, and even... ..

He personally sent Gu Chenchen to the door of the operating theater. When he saw that the operating theater was tightly closed, his heart could not help but become nervous, and even inexplicably afraid and terrified.

He did not know what he was afraid of, nor did he know what he was afraid of. In short, he could not settle down, so he could only go to the end of the corridor and smoke non-stop.

After he finished the sixth cigarette, he was about to take out a cigarette from his pocket to smoke the seventh cigarette when he heard footsteps behind him. He immediately turned around and realized that Wu Jianping had already walked up to him.

"Mrs. Gu is here!" Just as Wu Jianping's voice fell, an earth-shattering and sorrowful cry came from the door of the operating theater.

After Fang Xiao sent her younger brother, Fang Chen, back to the special school, she went straight back to the company's dormitory. She did not care about which hospital Dongfang Yunheng sent Gu Chenchen to. She felt that it was not something that she needed to care about.

A week had passed in the blink of an eye since the day Gu Chenchen had stabbed herself in the stomach with a dagger. Dongfang Yunheng did not appear in her dormitory anymore. At the same time, he did not make a call. It was as if he had disappeared into thin air.

Of course, she knew that Dongfang Yunheng had not disappeared. It was just that he would never return to her side. Regardless of whether he really loved her or not, it did not matter anymore. Gu Chenchen's love for Dongfang Yunheng had already gone deep into her bones.

Qiu Yitang had not come to disturb her ever since he had saved her from the mountains in northern Guangdong. This made her secretly relieved. She hoped that from now on, Qiu Yitang would completely forget about her. He would never remember her as his so-called ex-wife.

After she returned, everything returned to normal. Her work continued. A large order was placed by a client in Singapore. It seemed that there was a new batch of products for sale in China.

“Fang Xiao, get ready. We will go to Singapore in three days,” the general manager said to her. “You are in charge of this order. Singapore also requires you to go there personally.”

Three days later, when they went to Singapore, Fang Xiao started to get busy because this order was very important to the company. At the same time, it was her first time directly discussing cooperation with a client. In the past, it was usually in the form of a single or online email exchange.

Actually, she would not be going to Singapore for long. The general manager said that it would take at least three to five days, or at most eight to ten days, so she did not need to bring too much luggage. She only needed to bring two or three sets of clothes and her daily necessities.

She knew that she did not need to bring too many things. She was thinking of going on a long trip. No matter what, she had to inform her younger brother. At the same time, she had to inform the special school that in the future, anyone other than her should not ask Fang Chen to come out to meet her.

From the fact that Gu Chenchen had easily taken Fang Chen away, she clearly realized that Fang Chen was indeed very simple. He would believe anything that people said. Although he had long become an adult.. However, a person’s IQ was still like that of a five-or six-year-old child. He did not have the basic ability to recognize people.

She thought of meeting her younger brother before going to Singapore and having dinner together, so she asked for leave in the afternoon. Because she had to fly to Singapore tomorrow and had nothing to do in the afternoon, her request for leave was immediately approved.
