

Doctor

Chapter 1471

“Dean Yang, I want to sit in on the consultation!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran spoke up.

“Huh?”

Dean Yang suddenly froze, followed by a busy voice.

“You’re an honorary expert of the hospital, I’m afraid sitting in the clinic is a bit inappropriate .....”

“Dean, the so-called honorary expert is just the hospital’s recognition of me, but if I’m not even fit to sit in the clinic because of this honorary expert, then am I still a qualified doctor?”

Before Dean Yang could finish his words, he was interrupted by Lin Ran going.

“The so-called doctor is benevolent, shouldn’t those who practice medicine stand up for their patients when they need it the most, and treat them equally regardless of their status?”

“Nowadays, it’s about differentiating between doctors, isn’t that ridiculous?”

Lin Ran’s words seemed like a bolt from the blue, causing Dean Yang to stand frozen in place for a long time.

All along, in his mind, a good doctor had to see the more difficult diseases, otherwise it was a waste of medical resources.

But this was also relative. If the emergency department was so busy, but the so-called honorary expert professor was sitting in his office drinking tea, could he still be called a doctor with a benevolent heart?

I’m afraid it’s a doctor’s heart for money!

“Hey!”

Dean Yang suddenly sighed with a slap on the head.

“After living most of my life, I actually failed to understand this truth, Lin Ran you have taught me a lesson again today!”

“I dare not! I just can’t bear the thought of having nothing to do myself, while there are so many people here who are in desperate need of medical attention!”

“I wonder what you would like to do, Dean Yang?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Of course it’s no problem, go and arrange it immediately!”

Dean Yang said busily.

“Yes!”

Immediately, other accompanying doctors went to make the arrangements.

A mere ten minutes later, a sitting table had been erected in the emergency department, and the nurse next to it even shouted.

“Those in the back of the queue go over there for consultation, this temporary sitter is our hospital’s honorary specialist Dr. Lin!”

“Yes, yes, this is our Dr. Lin Ran, those at the back can go where the queue is!”

Under the nurse’s shout, someone soon came towards Lin Ran’s side.

Only at this moment, the consultation table Lin Ran made did look a little too shabby, with only an empty table, and a nurse standing next to it, and no other equipment at all.

Although he was an honorary specialist, how many people would pay attention to the number of specialists in the hospital?

Therefore, for this Lin Ran in front of him, almost no one knew him.

“What kind of expert is an honorary specialist?”

A boss also looked at Lin Ran, a little worried.

“Yes! This expert of yours, can you do it? My old man’s illness and not ordinary!”

Another old man next to him also spoke up.

“Please don’t worry, I’ll definitely keep an eye on you!”

Lin Ran laughed, this was somewhat like the first time he sat in the Temperance Hospital, making him miss the old days a little.

“I’m afraid I can’t rest assured, you’re not too old to see this baby, it’s almost like my grandson, I’m a bit hairy inside!”

The old man spoke up.

Lin Ran could not help but laugh when he saw that the old man still had the dialect on.

“Don’t worry, I’m a fast doctor, let’s try it for a minute, okay? It won’t take you long!”

“One minute? You’re kidding, you don’t even know who I am in one minute! How can you see a doctor?”

The old man was even more disbelieving now.

Lin Ran was a bit helpless, he didn’t think he would have the chance to sit in on a consultation for once and end up in such an embarrassing situation.

“Hey hey get out of the way! What are you guys doing? Waiting in line without seeing a doctor, delaying time isn’t it!”

At this moment, the voice of an old lady came from the back of the crowd, followed by an old lady dragging a young lad to squeeze over.

“What’s your hurry? This doctor is so young, we have to ask questions, in case the level is not good!”

The old man said in an accent.

“Who are you saying is not up to scratch? Do you know who he is? If you don’t trust me, I won’t. Come and see my son first!”

The old lady said and pulled her son out.

“You know him?”

The old man asked in confusion.

“Mom, you know him? He’s not as young as I am, right, and he’s going to see me? Don’t show me a disease again if I’m not sick!”

The young man on the side also asked in some confusion.

“You don’t even know who he is, and you still come to the Temperance Hospital to see a doctor?”

The old lady laughed.

Lin Ran also looked a little puzzled, listening to this, it was as if this old lady knew herself, but she didn’t even seem to have an impression of him.

“Listen up, I’ll tell you! This Dr. Lin Ran, back then, was a little miracle doctor at Temperance Hospital, and this matter was only known to those who had seen patients here four or five years ago!”

“It just so happens that my partner was seen by him back then, and ever since he was seen, he has not had a relapse since a pair of medicines were administered!”

“It’s a pity that when I came back after being sick several times, the little miracle doctor was no longer working here, but I never thought that my son would catch up with him!”

Said the old lady, who was busy looking towards Lin Ran and pleading.

“Doctor Lin, you must take a good look at this illness of my son today, it’s been years, I’m worried as a mother!”

“Don’t worry, I will take a good look!”

Lin Ran was busy laughing, he didn’t expect that his embarrassing situation of having no one believe him when he opened his clinic would be resolved by this old lady.

“Tell me what is uncomfortable?”

Lin Ran asked as he looked at the youth in front of him.

The youth was in his early thirties, a little older than himself, wearing a T-shirt and flip-flops, and his face was bearded and scrubbed, looking a little unkempt.

The most off key thing was that his eyes were somewhat dull, and at this moment, seeing Lin Ran staring at him, he was actually a little flustered.

“It’s nothing serious, just that I’m often dizzy and my legs are numb, I’ve been to many hospitals and I’ve been prescribed medicine but I’m not getting better!”

The youth said.

Lin Ran smiled blandly at his words and looked at the old lady and said.

“He doesn’t need to be treated for this illness!”

“Huh?”

As soon as Lin Ran said this, not only the old lady, but also the others at the side, the trust they had just mentioned to Lin Ran was instantly gone.

“Why?”

The old lady asked busily.

Lin Ran smiled lightly and said.

“Because it’s not a disease for him, it’s laziness!”

With that, he saw Lin Ran wave his palm, and instantly a silver needle was directly inserted into the back of the youth’s waist.

The youth shouted “Ah” in pain and ran away.

The pain was just like being chainsawed. The pain was so intense that he couldn’t stop.

The youth ran around the emergency department for almost ten minutes before Lin Ran waved his hand and pulled out the silver needles on his back.

However, looking at the youth at this time, he was covered in sweat, his body shirt was soaked through, and his whole body was sitting on the floor just panting heavily.

“You .... What have you ..... Did ..... you do to me? What did you do?”

The youth questioned.

Lin Ran, however, smiled blandly and said.

“Look are you still dizzy and your legs are numb?”

The youth was stunned and busily rubbed his legs, took two deep breaths and really wasn’t experiencing leg numbness and dizziness.

“Hey! I was dizzy even when I went upstairs before, but this time I’ve been running for so long and I’m fine!”

The youth said in confusion and helplessness.

Lin Ran laughed at the situation and said.

“You’re such an adult, don’t be so unkempt all day long, besides exercise more don’t hold it in at home, you’re getting lazy even if you’re not sick!”

Chapter 1472

“A divine doctor!”

The youth looked at Lin Ran with worship in his eyes.

“I’ll go back and promise to exercise more, why not be lazy too!”

The youth said firmly, but the old lady on the side had anger in her eyes.

“Good for you, you say every day that you are dizzy and your legs are numb, but it turns out that you are lazy, I let you be lazy! I let you be lazy!”

The old lady said she had already taken off her shoes and went after the youth.

“If you had been like this earlier, I would have been cured earlier!”

The youth shouted as he ran.

“You’re still blaming me for this illness!”

The old lady followed suit and chased after him.

Lin Ran looked at this scene and laughed a little helplessly, not expecting that he would run into this kind of thing right after opening a clinic.

But no matter what, the old lady’s fuss had made the crowd understand herself.

No, soon the people behind them started to approach Lin Ran one after another to start seeing patients.

“Come on, let’s go and help too!”

On the side, Song Nuan and the others smiled and looked at each other, and then they also walked up to give Lin Ran a hand.

Lin Ran’s speed in seeing patients was so fast that with his current realm, everyone standing in front of him didn’t even need to ask much before Lin Ran could tell at a glance what the other person’s problem was.

Earlier, Dean Yang had even had a nurse assigned to Lin Ran.

But when Lin Ran really started seeing patients, one nurse was simply too busy.

After Lin Ran saw a patient, he would just say the solution, what medicine to grab and how to take it!

Before the nurse’s even finished shuffling the prescriptions, he would already start looking at the next one.

Luckily, he then had the help of Song Nuan and the four girls, which was before him to keep up with the speed at which he saw the patients.

Just one hour, that’s right one hour.

He had finished seeing all the patients in the emergency department.

In normal times, these patients were the number of people that the entire hospital had to see in a full day.

“Little friend Lin Ran is really no less than he was then!”

Looking at Lin Ran as he walked over, Dean Yang couldn't help but laugh.

If any hospital had a talent like Lin Ran, the speed of improving performance would be secondary, but most importantly, it would be a living signboard.

“Dean Yang, that's all for today, I'll come back tomorrow and if there's nothing else, I think I'll be sitting here in the future!”

Lin Ran said.

“You're serious?”

Dean Yang was visibly stunned, even Qin Bing and the others were stunned.

“Seriously!”

Lin Ran nodded his head.

“Good! That's great! I'll go arrange it right now!”

Dean Yang said and turned around to coordinate the arrangements.

And with a smile, Lin Ran then took Song Nundu and the others to bid farewell to Liu Wenjuan and the others and left the hospital.

“Do you really want to sit here?”

On the way back, Qin Bing was busy asking, she was very uneasy, Lin Ran was actually not in a good position right now, outside the Mysterious Alliance Dragon Family and the Fey Demons were all watching him, he should be cultivating and improving himself right now! But now he was the one who had to go sit in the hospital.

“I know what you're worried about!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“At my level, sitting in the clinic is actually a kind of cultivation!”

“Sitting in a clinic is a kind of cultivation?”

Qin Bing didn't understand, but when she saw how serious Lin Ran was, she didn't say anything more.

“Then I'll come with tomorrow, I have nothing to do at home anyway!”

“We'll come along too!”

Song Nuan and the three girls also spoke up.

Lin Ran smiled and nodded.

When he returned home, Lin Ran went to the roof alone. At this time, the sky was dark and as he looked at the stars that appeared above the sky, Lin Ran suddenly felt a touch.

“The stars in the sky, each one of them seems like a kind of dao, and it is time for me to set my own dao!”

Lin Ran looked at the brightest star above the sky, and his divine sense converged inwardly to his body.

“Have you thought about it?”

The pillow’s voice suddenly rang out.

“Master, the Dao is very important, you’ve only been out for a day, have you really thought about it? Should we wait a little longer?”

Qing Zi also popped up and asked worriedly.

“No need!”

Lin Ran laughed, at this moment he looked at the ball of light next to the little golden man in front of him with determination in his eyes.

“But!”

Qing Zi was about to say something else, but Lin Ran suddenly spoke up.

“I know that you’re worried that I’m being too hasty, but wait for me to say a few words, and if you still think my choice is wrong after listening to it, it’s not too late to say something then!”

“Mm!”

Qing Zi nodded at his words.

Lin Ran looked towards the ball of light in front of him and spoke.

“I grew up without parents, my grandmother was my only family, and she was the only groom in the village at the time!”

“Later, I lost my heart when I was about to graduate from university and was dumped by Zhao Yu, at that time I even felt like the sky had collapsed!”

“It was my ancestor, who appeared to give me my heritage, that made me pick myself up again and believe once again that poverty can be changed in this world!”

“Then later, with my ancestor’s inheritance, I met Pillow Book and made my way through the world with him until today!”

“At certain times, I even felt that I was already very strong, but whether it was in the Fey Demon Domain or after I came back, the fight with Fire Elder and the terrifying Extreme Realm of the Fey Demons seemed like a sharp sword hanging over my head, constantly reminding me that I was still too weak!”

“I need to get stronger!”

Qing Zi and Pillow Book both listened quietly without interrupting.

“I don’t know when I started, but I seem to be on a path that is always in pursuit of being stronger, and it seems like there is no end to this path!”

“Indeed, I have become much stronger in the Fey Demon Realm, but looking back I realize that I seem to be on the verge of losing my true heart!”

Lin Ran said with frustration in his eyes.

“It wasn’t until today, when I returned to Temperance Hospital, as if I saw myself back then, that I realised! It seems that I am really close to losing my true heart!”

“My ancestor once said, “A healer’s heart is benevolent, never forget the original heart! Let me practice medicine and help the world!”

“But look at what I’ve been doing these past three or four years. I’m pursuing strength, not the benevolent heart of a healer!”

Lin Ran said and sighed.

“Ai! No matter what, I can’t deny that I’ve had a deep connection to the practice of medicine since I was a child myself, from my grandmother to me going to Tamkang University, until I finally received my ancestor’s legacy! It all seemed to foreshadow that I would start out from the path of medicine!”

“And I will not forget my own promise to my ancestors, under the red flag, that I am a doctor! A doctor who needs to rush in and save the lives of the sick when they need it!”

“This is my life! More than that, it is my Dao! My Lin Ran’s path! It is the way of medicine!”

Lin Ran said with determination in his eyes as he looked towards the white ball of light in front of him and gently lifted his finger.

“Before I make a choice, you can tell me what you think!”

Lin Ran suddenly asked Qing Zi.

“Me!”

Qing Zi was silent.

“Kid! In my opinion, you don’t need to hesitate, you can choose the path of healing!”

The Pillow Book suddenly spoke up.

“Why? There are millions of Great Dao, even the Sword Dao is better than the Medical Dao, right?”

Qing Zi was busy asking from the side.

They both came from the Immortal World, their eyesight was naturally high, and they had seen a lot of Dao, but at this moment, the two people’s opinions were divided.

“Listen to a few words from me as well, and you’ll be clear on why I’ll let Lin Ran stick to his medical dao!”

The pillow book laughed.

Chapter 1473

“The Immortal World! It is a big world, back then the Immortal Emperor was born in the Immortal World and wandered in all directions before finally achieving the Immortal position!”

“After the Immortal Emperor made me, I carried his memories, why do you think I’m called the Pillow Book?”

The pillow book has memories.

“These few today, I looked over the immortal emperor when he was young and sent down a question, a question that perhaps the entire immortal world knows, but never pays attention to a question!”

“That is the choice of the Dao!”

“There are millions of great dao in the immortal world, and hundreds of millions of small dao!”

“On Earth there is even a legend that Nuwa has five dao of one hundred thousand and eight thousand, so it is clear that there are very many dao!”

“Then a problem arises, and that problem is the geographical nature of the problem!”

Pillow Book Truth continued after a moment of thought.

People who live in the Immortal World can learn about the existence of the Dao through various means from the time they are born and start to understand, and later, after they have worshipped the mountain discipline, they can even be guided by their master’s explanation and know that there are numerous attained Dao in the Immortal World.

They can choose the Dao that suits them according to their own circumstances, preferences and even personalities.

Some choose the Dao of the Sword in order to get revenge as quickly as possible! The Dao of the Sword and other such paths of attack and destruction.

And there are those who are peaceful by nature and play in the mountains, who may choose the relatively weaker path of freedom, and so on.

But they at least have the right to choose, but do people like those born in places like Earth?

“Back then, when the Immortal Emperor had not yet achieved the Immortal position, he broke into a small world where the cycle of heavenly principles had not even produced a complete Dao!”

“They only had war there, endless war, resulting in over ninety percent of the people there cultivating the Way of War!”

“But it is in this kind of place where even the Dao is incomplete that Immortal Emperors are all but a brother!”

“Qing Zi you should have heard of him too! He was the first fierce general beside the Immortal Emperor later on, the God of War, Tuoba Mang!”

“He? Is he from the Small World?”

Qing Zi was visibly stunned at his words.

“That’s right!”

The Pillow Book nodded.

“There are many more examples of this, back when Immortal Emperors achieved the Immortal position and obstructed the Great War, at least half of them in the Immortal Emperor camp were born in the Small World!”

“Do you think their Dao is strong?”

“I do!”

Qing Zi was silent.

“That’s right! There are countless Immortal World Dao, but that’s the Immortal World, so if Lin Ran has the conditions it’s naturally safest to choose his Dao after he arrives in the Immortal World!”

“But all the same, someone like him who has almost no chance of going to the Immortal Realm in his lifetime, would he never choose his own dao?”

The Pillow Book said as he looked towards Lin Ran.

“Kid, I, Pillowside Book, have never lied to you, this choice today is about your future cultivation path, so think it over yourself!”

“The only thing I can remind you of is that the Dao is not strong or weak! It all depends on the hearts of the people!”

“To put it bluntly, in front of the Immortal World, there is no difference between you and those who live in the Small World, and Earth’s Dao is also incomplete!”

“It’s just that Earth’s Dao has evolved a lot, and compared to the small world, you at least have a choice, but the people of the small world, they have no choice at all!”

“Having said all this, to sum it up, it’s one sentence!”

“The Tao is not strong or weak, it all depends on the hearts of the people. In the words of Fatty, there is no strongest profession, only the strongest player! If you charge money, you’re a bully! If you don’t charge, you can only shout 666!”

“You...”

Lin Ran was a little speechless.

Originally, the pillow talk was quite heady, so how did Fatty’s words suddenly appear, what a big bummer.

“Master, even though I don’t deal with this rogue book, I agree with him this time!”

“Master, you have an extraordinary destiny, and you have even obtained both the pillow book and my two immortal and divine weapons from the immortal world, your future achievements will definitely not be low, so if you want to choose the medical path, we will also try our best to help you!”

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded, and suddenly he remembered a question and asked the pillow book.

“Do you know what kind of Dao the Nine Heavenly Mysteries are?”

“The Nine Heavens Xuan Nui?”

The Pillow Book sniffed at his words in a daze before saying.

“The Origin Dao is the Dao of Healing, and later on, tens of thousands of other dao have been enlightened one after another, but these are a bit far to talk to you now, after all, you are not even at the Extreme Realm!”

“I know!”

Lin Ran nodded, the determination in his eyes becoming even stronger.

All of his ancestors were medical dao, so what else did he need to think about?

“The path of healing! It is the Dao that I, Lin Ran, was destined to follow!”

With that, Lin Ran’s raised finger gently tapped towards the white ball of light.

The next moment, a ray of white light shot out and instantly entered the white ball of light only.

“Weng!”

The entire divine sense space suddenly trembled.

Following this, Lin Ran saw that the white ball of light, which seemed to have sensed his will, actually slowly changed.

The original white ball of light quickly squeezed and actually turned into a four-square object, and after a few moments, the details were fully formed.

Lin Ran saw with a start that the four-square thing was actually a book!

“A pharmacopoeia! This Dao Seed has actually turned into a book!”

There was surprise in Lin Ran’s eyes, this was something he hadn’t expected either.

“Bang bang bang!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was lost in thought as he looked at it, a chunk actually began to fall off the cover of that book, followed by two large words that actually surfaced.

“Medical Dao!”

“I Cao!”

Seeing these two words, the pillow book was instantly unimpressed.

“You kid got lucky!”

“Huh?”

Lin Ran was a little baffled, not knowing what it meant.

“This is the fucking Tao of Medicine, pure and simple! Holy crap!”

The Pillow Book couldn't help but curse.

“It's the path of healing I chose! Did something go wrong?”

Lin Ran was even more bewildered.

“No master, what he said about the path of healing is different from what you think!”

Qing Zi was busy explaining.

It turned out that the Dao of Healing was a great path in the pillow book's words.

Just like the Sword Dao and the Blade Dao, it was a general term for this one great dao.

But when it came down to each individual specifically, the Dao was all different in a thousand ways.

To take the simplest example, Lin Ran's ancestor, the Nine Heavenly Xuan Nui, although she also practised the Dao of Medicine, the Dao she perceived was not the pure Dao of Medicine, but the Dao of Xuan Yang Medicine.

This is why she gave Lin Ran the Xuan Yang Pill Canon!

And her sister, Jiu You Nui, had also received her ancestor's inheritance, the Xuan Yang Pharmacopoeia, but the Dao she herself had perceived? But it was the Xuan Yin Pill Canon!

This was inseparable from her origin from the Nine Mysteries and her icy personality.

“Originally I just thought you could sense something, the way of using medicine, the way of seeing patients, but it turns out that kid has directly sensed a medical dao! You're fucking open!”

The Pillow Book said in anger.

Lin Ran was so confused, he was only following his heart when he came to his senses, so he didn't know that the word “medical dao” would come out directly.

However, he could hear that the medical path seemed to be as strong as the sword path and the knife path, both belonging to the Great Dao.

“Ai! This is trouble, I don't know if you're too lucky or too unlucky, nice to be in real trouble!”

Pillow Book sighed, and Qing Zi on the side also had a slight frown.

Chapter 1474

“What do you mean? Shouldn’t you guys be happy for me that I’ve enlightened the Dao?”

Lin Ran wondered, he had clearly sensed the great dao of healing, how come instead the two people still looked unhappy?

“Master, you don’t know that this Dao ..... It ..... It’s too difficult!”

Qing Zi said helplessly.

It turned out that the so-called great dao was a kind of dao that contained countless small dao.

For example, if one wanted to enlighten the Dao of Medicine that Lin Ran was practicing, one would have to enlighten the entire Dao before it was considered complete.

But this enlightenment is only the beginning, because this Dao contains so many dao, to take the simplest example.

Even if Lin Ran had understood his own Dao, he still had to understand the Dao of Poison in order to complete it, and these two are only the most basic Dao of medicine.

These two are only the most basic dao of medicine. Other dao such as the dao of healing, the dao of herbal medicine and so on, all of these also need to be understood by Lin Ran in order to make this dao complete.

Otherwise, this Dao could never be cultivated to perfection, and at most it could only be called enlightened.

It is like a big tree with many branches, Lin Ran has already walked on the highest branch of the tree, and when he walks up to the top he can be called enlightened.

But there are many other branches of the tree that Lin Ran has not walked on, so he cannot call it complete.

If he wanted to enlighten the entire Dao into perfection, he would need to enlighten every other Dao that was contained in each branch of the tree.

“This Dao of Medicine is so vast and profound that even the Nine Heavenly Mystic Maidens have not perfected it in the entire Immortal Realm, otherwise the inheritance she passes on to you would inevitably be the Dao of Medicine, not the Xuan Yang Pill Canon!”

The Pillow Book spoke.

“And even in the Immortal Realm, not many people have perfected the Dao of the Sword and the Dao of the Sword, the Dao with the largest number of practitioners, and only the Immortal Emperor, when he attained the Immortal position, enlightened himself to the perfection of the Dao of the Sword!”

“Kid! Although this medical path of yours is strong the path is wide, but in the end it is too difficult to reach the end!”

“You can’t say that either, perhaps it’s just that we haven’t discovered the potential of our master?”

Qing Zi said.

“Moreover, the Dao on Earth is not complete, I’m afraid that the Way of Saving People and the Way of Herbs have not yet evolved, so if Master can enlighten himself about the Dao of Medicine, at least on Earth he will be considered a small success!”

“And what if we reach the Immortal World?”

The Pillow Book suddenly said.

“To the Immortal Realm?”

Qing Zi froze at once.

“Let me put it to you this way, kid, if your medical dao is enlightened, you can walk across the Earth! But when you get to the Immortal Realm you can only be considered one of the many cultivating this kind of comparative excellence!”

“Because many people in the Immortal World have enlightened their Dao, but true perfection is almost impossible!”

The pillow said.

“Is consummation that difficult?”

Lin Ran listened in a cloud of confusion.

It seemed like he had sensed a very strong dao, but this dao would be extremely difficult to cultivate in the end.

“It’s hard! It’s hard!”

The pillow said, while pointing to the book on the Dao of Healing in front of Lin Ran.

“You watch it!”

As soon as the words were spoken, a golden book actually appeared next to the book again.

The book emitted a golden light was actually a smudge of the same as his own Dao of Healing Dao seed.

“This is what I have deduced, it will clearly show you the process of the Dao of Healing from the beginning of cultivation to the final consummation!”

The pillow book said.

At the same time, the golden book turned white, and then a golden light began to slowly emerge.

The whole book soon turned golden, followed by the cover slowly opening, and the whole book turned from closed to slightly open and closed.

After another moment, the book, which was slightly open and closed, completely unfolded and emitted a dazzling golden light.

After another ten minutes or so, strands of seven-coloured haze only began to emerge from the golden book.

The seven-coloured haze quickly wrapped around the book and eventually turned into a bead only the size of a fist.

The bead hovered next to the golden villain of his own divine sense and looked very beautiful.

“See clearly? This last bead is the state of the Dao Seed of the Healing Dao after its true completion.

“And the golden light appearing on the clerk only proves that you have started on the right path, the books half-opening means that you have crossed into the half-step extreme realm!”

“It is only when the books are fully opened that you have crossed over into the Extreme Realm!”

“And by this point, you’ve almost crossed over to the pinnacle of the Earth-only healing path,? But to cultivate medicine into a perfect Dao pearl, you must travel to the Immortal Realm!”

“Let’s not say for the moment that there is no way to get there, even if you get to the Immortal Realm, it will take a long time, even a lifetime of exhaustion,? before you can completely cultivate the One Path to perfection!”

“So, you still have a long, long road ahead of you!”

“Whew!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but sigh as he listened, feeling like his head was about to explode.

He looked towards the pillow book and Qing Zi and said.

“This medical path is hard right?”

“Mm!”

The two nodded their heads.

“You guys don’t have much confidence in me either, do you?”

Lin Ran continued to ask.

“Mm!”

The two nodded again.

“You guys think I’ll fail, don’t you?”

“Mmm!”

The two nodded again.

Lin Ran, however, smiled bitterly and said.

“So, do I have a choice?”

The two didn’t nod this time, but instead shook their heads.

“That’s not it!”

Lin Ran said.

“Since I don’t even have a choice, what the hell are you guys sighing over there!”

“Even if I fail in the end, in the end it’s still me who will die, so the big deal for you guys is to change your masters!”

“No master, we’re not...”

Qing Zi was busy explaining.

Lin Ran, however, interrupted her with a wave of his hand.

“I know you guys are worried about me, but what I want to tell you is that I’m now just like Tuohu Mang who came out of that small world, I have no choice, my Dao Seed has determined that I have to take the path of healing!”

“So just put your mind at ease and do it and be done with it!”

“A Dao is a Dao! It’s just a dao, it’s still bigger than the sky?”

“I’m not even afraid! What are you guys afraid of!”

“Good point, kid!”

Pillow Book not only clapped his hands at his words.

“You have this kind of heart and mind, at least you have succeeded in half of it, the rest Master Shu and your Aunt Zi will definitely help you!”

Pillow Book said.

“Fuck off!”

Lin Ran scolded without a good word.

“Rascal Book you’re looking for death aren’t you, you’re Master Book, I’m only Aunt Purple so what else do I have to call you! ”

Qing Zi also turned her head to look at the pillow book.

“Shouldn’t we call it?”

Pillow Book said with a straight face.

“I think you have itchy skin and want to exchange!”

Qing Zi was so angry that she raised her fist towards Pillow Book and punched it.

“Kid! Master Book I’m not going to bullshit you, this stinking bitch is domestic violence again!”

Pillow Book said and ran.

“Stop right there, you? Say it clearly, who domestic violence you! You bastard talk to take advantage of me, I’m not your daughter-in-law! Go find your bow!”

Qing Zi shouted as she gave chase.

Lin Ran listened helplessly from the sidelines again, what was this all about, how could they be talking and the two of them were even at each other's throats.

"It's just that if you're not enemies, you won't get together!"

Lin Ran laughed indifferently, then his divine sense left his body.

Chapter 1475

Only when his divine sense left his body did Lin Ran notice that the sky outside was actually already bright.

Unknowingly, he had actually been cultivating for the whole night.

After getting up and washing up and going downstairs, Lin Ran immediately saw that the four women were sitting around the dining table eating, while there were two empty seats to the side, but one of them had obviously already been used.

"Where's Linran? Gone to the back of the mountain again?"

Lin Ran asked.

"Mmm! She said she was going to go and observe mourning for her master!"

Song Nuan said, with worry in her eyes.

"She hasn't eaten much lately, do you want to go take a look?"

"No need!"

Lin Ran shook his head and sat down in his seat.

"I'm clear about Ling Sa's strength, what she lacks now isn't food, but her mindset! The Long Family destroyed the Plum Blossom Sect, this is a hurdle in her heart, she must be allowed to get through it on her own,? Otherwise it will become a demon in her heart!"

Lin Ran said as he wrote out a list and handed it to Yu Chang who was standing by.

"Find the Grand Elder, no matter how much it costs you have to buy back the things on it and make burning incense to put in Ling Sa's room, it will keep her from going off the rails!"

"Good!"

Yu Chang nodded, and whirled and walked out with the list.

"After we finish eating, we'll leave for the Temperance Hospital!"

Lin Ran said, and then without further ado, he began to eat.

Half an hour later, Lin Ran arrived at the hospital with the four women.

The hospital was also very well prepared and had directly vacated an office for Lin Ran in the emergency department for him to use for consultation.

However, Lin Ran refused.

“My sitting time is not fixed, I may have to leave at any time, one desk is enough!”

“Yes!”

They did not dare to disobey Lin Ran’s request and had to carry out the table from yesterday as Lin Ran had wanted.

Just like yesterday, Lin Ran began to sit in the clinic, while Song Nuan and the four girls and a small nurse assigned to help with the prescriptions, and the day seemed to return to its usual calm.

But at this moment, in a corner not far away, the current owner of the Western Medicine Department, Simon, was quietly watching this scene.

If what Lin Ran brought him yesterday was a collapse of his worldview, then today was a shock.

Lin Ran’s every move was not at all like an honorary expert. What kind of honorary expert sat in front of a shabby table in the emergency room to see a patient.

Even he, Ximen, asked himself if he had made it to the position of honorary expert, he would not be able to pull himself up to see a patient here.

But it was just Lin Ran who could.

It was also at this moment that Simon seemed to have discovered the difference between himself and Lin Ran, a difference not only in medical skills, but also in being a human being.

Ximen stood in place for a long time, until a nurse called out to him from the side, and only then did he leave.

Time always flies when sitting in the clinic, and in the blink of an eye, a month had passed.

And during this month, Lin Ran’s name as the little miracle doctor also resounded throughout Temperance City again after a gap of five years.

And everyone knew that no matter who you were, if you sought treatment from Lin Ran, you had to queue up, even if you were Song Yujiang!

That’s right, once during this month, Song Yujiang came to see Lin Ran on purpose, but he also ended up queuing up for half a day before he finally spoke to Lin Ran.

He was naturally very happy about Lin Ran’s return, but he also knew something through Song Nuan that Lin Ran would not stay in Tanjiang City for long.

During that time, Lin Ran also went to see the two siblings, Lin Hong and Lin Qiu, and also went to look for the oldest Liu Chen and the others in the imperial capital.

He even went to see the oldest three, Wang Yi, and everything seemed to have returned to the life of the past.

Every day Lin Ran drove the four girls to work during the day and went back after work to have dinner and chat with friends, life seemed to be going very comfortably.

The days had all calmed down too.

And Wang Yifeng, who left to look for Xiao Cui, didn't come back, not even a phone call, and I don't know if this guy found Xiao Cui or not.

Or maybe he was already married to Xiao Cui.

Every time he thought of him, Lin Ran couldn't help but smile, the crowd did have a lot less fun without him around.

Long Ya had also returned home under the arrangement of the Grand Elder, only that she had promised to return soon, but a month had passed without seeing anyone.

Perhaps Long Xu wanted her to stay within the clan, after all, the Long family had now split into two factions, and Long Ya was walking outside, and Long Xu was worried that Long Yu would deal with her.

Lin Ran didn't think much about it and continued to live an ordinary life.

Every day, he went to the Temperance Hospital to sit at the clinic, while cultivating his Dao.

Time passed day by day, autumn turned to winter and five months had passed in the blink of an eye, a full six and a half months had passed since Lin Ran had returned to Tanjiang.

During these six months, Lin Ran had sat in the clinic every day, rain or shine, and now the Dao seed of the medical dao within him was enveloped in golden light.

According to the meaning of the previous pillow book, he had already started to enter the Dao in the medical dao.

If he wanted to make a breakthrough next and have the Dao Seed of the Medical Dao slightly opened, he would have to break through to the half-step Extreme Realm.

It was just that above this realm, Lin Ran had never felt the opportunity come, he had only had occasional epiphanies, but had never caught that ray of opportunity.

In the city of Temperance in winter, the snow was heavy and a hard suit was lost.

Zhao Yu also seemed to have let go of the barrier in her heart against Lin Ran, and once took her little girl to Lin Ran for a visit.

Xu Yuan left Lin Ran this Xu's orphan, shouting Zhao Yu's mother, so that Lin Ran looked touched.

If Zhao Yu hadn't dumped himself back then, after all these years, I'm afraid the little girl in front of him would have called out to her father.

It was a pity that everything had changed completely that summer.

The little girl was very pretty and even looked a bit like Xu Yuan, after all, both of them were from the Xu family.

Lin then came to have the time to go to the little world of pillow books, to offer incense to Xu Yuan and to sweep her grave.

Everything seemed so peaceful and calm that people seemed to forget about the lurking threats.

.....

Otherworldly Demon Realm, Extreme Realm Space.

After half a year of silence, the foreign devil sitting on his black throne only finally opened his eyes again.

He looked up at the arrow tower in the distance, which at this time, emitted a hazy white light that wrapped up the entire tower.

In front of the arrow tower, five of the nine grids were still lit up, while the last four grids were still grey.

“Lord Alien Demon, all the preparations have been completed!”

Suddenly, there was a ripple in space next to him, followed by the Ghost King and the Sanyuan Daoist, and even Yue Bei Shan who had actually appeared out of thin air.

“Six months! Very good! It has been completed ahead of schedule!”

The foreign devil had excitement and anticipation in his eyes.

“Pass on the order! Prepare for a full-scale war! Remember my words, attack and kill at all costs, only attack and kill! Not take over the city!”

The foreign devil spoke up and shouted.

“Yes!”

The three of them nodded respectfully, and immediately their figures disappeared into this Extreme Realm space.

A few moments later, the Skywolf Domain, which had been quiet for a full half year, finally welcomed the attack of the Fey Devils.

And at that moment, at the Mysterious Alliance headquarters.

“Report! Three Elders, all of the battle domains are being attacked by the Fey Devils at the same time!”

“Report! Elders, the Heavenly Wolf Domain’s enemies are attacking very fiercely, requesting support!”

“Report! Elders, or Purgatory the enemy is attacking too fiercely, requesting support!”

.....

A stream of news came through, and the three Fire Elders’ faces changed greatly at the same time.

Elder Fire even opened his mouth directly and shouted.

“Transfer the troops over! Get the Dragon Family involved as well! This time, the foreign devils might have to set off the final showdown!”

“Yes!”

The general at his side immediately went down to make arrangements at the word.

Chapter 1476

On this day, Lin Ran was still sitting in the emergency department of Tamkang Hospital, but at this time, there were no patients in the emergency department, and some nurses were just busy caring for the existing patients.

It couldn't be helped that Lin Ran's efficiency in seeing patients was simply staggering, and the six months he had been here were the easiest six months for the doctors and nurses at Temperance Hospital, not to mention getting to and from work on time, some of them even appeared to only be able to stare at work.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran frowned slightly and stood up from in front of the sitting desk.

At this moment, he actually felt a pang of heart palpitations.

"Something big is happening!"

Lin Ran said secretly in his heart.

Ever since he had chosen the Dao of Healing and cultivated a golden glow on the Dao Seed of Healing only, his sense of danger had become increasingly keen.

At this moment, Lin Ran knew that a great trouble must have befallen him.

"I have to go now!"

Lin Ran sighed in his heart and looked up at the emergency department where he had stayed for a full six months.

"What's wrong with Dr. Lin?"

The little nurse who had been with Lin Ran for half a year was busy walking over.

She had never seen Lin Ran look so grave in these six months.

"Go tell the owner of the emergency department that I have to go!"

Lin Ran said.

"No need, the director said you can leave anytime if you need anything, the hospital has enough medical power now!"

The little nurse laughed.

Lin Ran smiled lightly and looked at her, actually making her a little nervous for a moment.

In the past six months, Lin Ran hadn't even looked at her with his eyes staring straight at her like he was doing now.

This little nurse was very pretty, but she was as transparent as if she had been around Lin Ran for half a year, making her doubt in her mind that she had become ugly.

At this moment, when she saw Lin Ran staring at her, she couldn't help but blush.

"I mean, I won't be coming tomorrow either!"

"Huh?"

The little nurse was stunned, and before she could react, Lin Ran had already turned around and walked towards the door.

"Meanwhile, tell Dean Yang that I'm leaving! When I'll be back is still unknown!"

As the words fell, Lin Ran's figure had already disappeared at the entrance of the emergency department.

"This .... That's gone?"

The little nurse muttered, with loss in her eyes,? But a moment later she went to inform the director and Dean Yang as Lin Ran had instructed.

.....

However, Lin Ran, had just left Temperance Hospital when the door of a black Hummer opened at the entrance, followed by the Grand Elder respectfully stepping down from the car.

"Pavilion Master!"

"You felt it too!"

Lin Ran asked indifferently.

"Mmm! And have gotten the information!"

The Grand Elder said.

"Get in the car and talk!"

Lin Ran got straight into the car, and the Grand Elder hurried to follow.

Today, all four of Song Nuan's daughters were resting at home, as the hospital had fewer patients, and they hadn't been tagging along for the next two months.

And at this time in the car, the Grand Elder looked grave and spoke.

"Just received information that the foreign devils have started another war."

"What's the situation?"

Lin Ran asked, he knew that the foreign devil wouldn't stop so easily, he had fought with the Fire Elder and the others for so many years before when he was only half-step to the Extreme Realm, now that he had crossed over to the Extreme Realm, I'm afraid that even if the three Wind Elders intended to compromise, he wouldn't agree so easily.

"It's very bad!"

The Eldest Elder said.

“The intelligence is now coming back once an hour, and before I came over, I had already received news three times that the foreign devils were attacking very fiercely!”

“They called for war at first, the Mystic Alliance had resisted hard for three months before, and they weren’t afraid of the foreign devils, so they answered the call!”

“But once they exchanged blows, they found that the people on the Other Demons’ side were simply as desperate as they were desperate to kill, and the war was extremely fierce!”

Lin Ran frowned at his words.

This was indeed not like the style of the Fey Devils.

The Fey Demon Realm was just a realm, even if the Pillow Book had once said that? The Other Demon Realm was most likely a small world.

But Lin Ran was clear that the people of the Other Demon Realm were too few, and even if they reproduced their own offspring population would never be comparable to the Mystic Alliance.

With so many enemies and so few people, the Fey Devils were still so crazy, this was simply asking for death.

After all, the people he was able to turn were only a minority, most of them were very loyal to the Mystic Alliance.

So the more fierce the battle was, the first to lose was bound to be the side of the foreign devil.

But now the foreign devils did it anyway!

“Before I came out, the Fey Devils once waged a three-month war you remember right!”

Lin Ran suddenly asked.

“Right!”

The Grand Elder was busy saying.

“The intensity of the scale of that three months, how does it compare to this time?”

Lin Ran asked.

“It’s going to be stronger this time!”

The Grand Elder frowned and said.

“Three months of war, half a year of truce, and this time it’s even more fierce! What exactly does the foreign devil want? What kind of conspiracy does he have!”

Lin Ran muttered to himself in his heart.

Such a perverse engagement strategy was too bizarre, there must be a demon when things go wrong, I’m afraid that the foreign devil really has some untold conspiracy for doing so.

“Your uncle has arranged for all of Chao Heavenly Pavilion’s people to be withdrawn to Temperance City, I’m afraid that this time the foreign devil is going to set off the final showdown!”

Lin Ran spoke.

“Yes!”

The Grand Elder nodded his head.

Ever since it was first discovered that Lin Ran was the Chao Heavenly Pavilion’s Pavilion Master, the Chao Heavenly Pavilion had been preparing to move its headquarters, and at this moment, when Lin Ran gave the order, it naturally acted very quickly.

“If a great war comes, no one will be able to do it alone, and Temperance City is our last line!”

Lin Ran said.

“The Grand Elder nodded his head!”

Soon the car returned to Panglong Mountain.

And to Lin Ran’s surprise, at this moment inside the manor, Yu Chang was standing side by side with Wolf Ba and Cold Cut Old Cat Ah Zhan as well as Li Ba, as if he had known that Lin Ran would return.

“Boss! Yu Chang has spoken to us, I’m afraid something big has happened!”

Leng Chop was the first to speak up.

“Hm!”

Lin Ran nodded, but before he could open his mouth to explain what was going on, a figure suddenly walked over from behind.

“Brother Lin Ran, it looks like our vacation is over!”

Turning his head to look, the words that came out of his mouth were none other than Li Sheng.

“You feel it too?”

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

“Mmm! That’s why I came over!”

Li Sheng laughed, he had really rested enough in the past few months at home with his father, and this time he rushed over with the feeling of danger.

“Mmm!”

Lin Ran nodded, Li Sheng smiled, and then he also stood aside.

“Pavilion Master! News has just come in that Miss Long Ya will also be able to arrive in an hour!”

Suddenly, the Grand Elder next to him came over and said.

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, and was quickly relieved.

Apparently this time, even Long Ya had been sensed by the great battle.

As expected, an hour later, Long Ya appeared in the courtyard, only at this moment, she looked clearly in a much better mood and her entire aura had become more composed.

But what surprised Lin Ran was that there were two old men following beside Long Ya.

“I haven’t met Lin Ran yet!”

Long Ya turned her head and said.

The two old men bowed respectfully.

“Greetings, Pavilion Master Lin!”

“And you are?”

Lin Ran looked at the two men with some confusion, it wasn’t that he knew these two men.

“They are Eldest Elder Long and Second Elder Long, both of whom are my father’s personal experts, and both have strength in the middle stage of the Dan Making Scripture!”

Long Ya said.

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, mid Dan-making realm? This strength was already on the verge of being comparable to the Four Great Domain Kings of the Fey Demon Domain,? When did the Long family have such power!

Chapter 1477

At the beginning, Lin Ran’s strength had only barely reached the peak of the Dan-making realm after he had taken the Immortal Emperor Pill,? But at this moment, Long Ya had actually returned with two strong people at the middle stage of the Dan Creation Realm.

“It was my father’s intention!”

Long Ya said.

“This time back father and I talked a lot about it, and I only just found out that the original Long family is very strong, and people of the strength of Elder Long Da and Elder Long Er are as many as ten just from what my father took away, and I’m afraid that the ones left over at Long Yu will only be more!”

“What?”

Lin Ran’s face instantly turned a few shades more ugly at his words.

“Then, are there any people from the God Creation Realm over at Long Yu?”

Lin Ran asked busily, this was a very serious issue.

The Mystic Alliance did not believe in itself, but Lin Ran knew very well in his heart that the Long family and the Yue family were the traitors.

If Long Yu still held a few strong God Creation Realm practitioners in his hands, then once the fight came to an end and he led his people to turn against him, it would instantly affect the direction of the entire battlefield.

This move was really ruthless enough!

“There are! But there are only two of them!”

Long Ya said, while she flipped her palm and a white bead surfaced, enveloping Lin Ran and herself.

“Don’t mind if you do, I have to be a little more careful when it comes to the Dragon Family’s heritage!”

“Mhmm!”

Lin Ran nodded, he understood Long Ya’s feelings at the moment and didn’t mind.

“The truth is that the Dragon Family’s heritage isn’t worse than the Mysterious Alliance, it’s just the distribution of strength that’s worse!”

Long Ya started to say.

“Although the Mysterious Alliance has a deep base, he is the direct opponent of the Fey Demon, so there is a problem that I’m sure you have noticed, and that is that the Mysterious Alliance has no other God Creation Realm powerhouses apart from the three Wind Elders, and even the Dan Creation Realm is pitifully small!”

“Right!”

Lin Ran nodded his head, he had indeed discovered this problem.

“That’s because the Fey Devils target the Mysterious Alliance very much, as long as they reach the Dan Creation Realm they will specifically target them, and those who reach the God Creation Realm will even practice sneak attacks and beheadings and so on! To stop the Mysterious Alliance from having any more top-notch powerhouses! It’s just a pity that you’re an exception and they didn’t suppress you!”

“Unlike our Dragon Family, we chose to avoid the world in the last war, of course that’s what every Dragon Family member thought!”

“It’s just a pity that no one knew that the original Dragon Family head, the ancestor of the lineage that would be Long Yu, actually secretly participated in the Great War as well, and as a traitor!”

“However, most of the strength of the Dragon Family was preserved, before my father left with his own lineage, the Dragon Family had two people from the God Creation Realm, twenty people out of the Dan Creation Realm, and even more below that!”

“So our Dragon Family is no match for the Mystic Alliance in terms of top strength, but our mid-level strength is even stronger than the Mystic Alliance!”

Long Ya said proudly.

“It’s just a pity that the Dragon Family is now in tatters!”

With that, Long Ya fetched out a letter and handed it to Lin Ran.

“This is what my father asked me to give to you, he knew about the matter of going to the Fey Demon Domain and said that something would express his stance!”

“Mhm!”

Lin Ran nodded and then typed it open.

Only to see that the letter read.

“Little friend Lin Ran, by the time you read this letter, I, Long Xu, will already be in seclusion with my clan, don’t blame me for being greedy, our Dragon Family needs someone to carry on the legacy, Long Yu inherited the will of his ancestors and wants to help the foreign devils, this is not the will of our Dragon Family, so I can only withdraw!”

“Long Ya came back these six months often towards going back to you, I didn’t even agree, you must be wondering why she went back in the end!”

“That’s because she forced herself to death, and I, as a father, really had no choice!”

“I could tell that she liked you a lot! Even loved you!”

“I’m not picky about you as a father either, but I know you’re surrounded by women, men! Especially a good one like you, I shouldn’t have said anything!”

“But as a father, I must say a few words, please don’t be negative to her, if one day in the future you don’t love her anymore, give her this piece of dragon attachment and let her first drop of essence blood on it, no matter the end of the world, I will pick her up and bring her back!”

“All people have the day to be parents, I hope you can understand the last request as a father!”

“Lastly, Long Da and Long Er are nearing the end of their lives, and they can’t bear the thought of the Long family’s reputation being ruined by Long Yu, so I’ve asked them to accompany Xiao Ya out, with a big war coming up I hope they can fight for a final statement for the Long family!”

“Not everyone in the Long family is like Long Yu! If there is a future, the Dragon Family will surely not go into hiding again and will stand with justice!”

“I’m so sorry! This time the Dragon Family didn’t have a choice! I don’t have a choice either! I must keep the Dragon Family alive!”

“May you win! The Dragon Void’s absolute pen!”

After reading the letter, Lin Ran’s heart was filled with emotions, he could feel the deep love that Long Xu had for his daughter, even if he hadn’t become a father yet!

“Have you read this letter?”

Lin Ran took out the dragon talisman inside the envelope.

“Haven’t read it!”

Long Ya said as she did.

“Take a look, besides put this away, I will never let you use it in your life!”

Lin Ran said, while handing the Dragon Talisman to Long Ya.

“Ah?”

Long Ya was a little bewildered as she took the dragon talisman, and when she finished reading the envelope, her entire body had burst into tears.

Lin Ran reached out and swept Long Ya into his arms, comforting her.

“You have chosen me, I will not fail you! In this great battle, either we live, or we die together!”

“Mmm!”

Long Ya nodded, with tears in her eyes.

“Weng!”

A moment later the formation that enveloped the two disappeared, and Long Ya’s normal face returned.

Lin Ran noticed that by now, the four women, Song Nuan, and Ling Sa had all walked over.

He swept his gaze over the people present and was overcome with emotion in his heart.

Without realising it, he actually already had so many friends, loved ones and lovers.

A great war was approaching, what he had to do was not only to survive, but also to ensure that all these people closest to him, lived!

“Gentlemen! I’m sure you’ve all sensed it! That’s right! I can tell you that the demons have started a great war!”

“The great war between the Fey Demon Realm and the Mystic Alliance has begun, perhaps this is just a test, but perhaps it is the beginning of a decisive battle, we have no time to choose, we must deal with it as a decisive battle!”

“Before that, Li Sheng I need you to ask you a question! Are you going back to the Mystic Alliance to stay with the Li family, or are you following me!”

“Where am I now?”

Li Sheng looked at Lin Ran and smiled.

“I know!”

Lin Ran nodded, he had known Li Sheng until today and knew his character very well.

“Good! I’ll tell everyone our countermeasures below!”

Lin Ran swept his gaze across the crowd and spoke.

“Chao Heavenly Pavilion! The Grand Elder takes orders!”

“Present!”

The Grand Elder said respectfully.

“You lead the Chao Heavenly Pavilion to set up a sealing formation around Temperance City, so that if the Mysterious Alliance is unable to fend off the foreign devils, we must also protect Temperance City!”

“Yes!”

The Grand Elder nodded his head respectfully.

Lin Ran then swept his gaze over the crowd and continued.

“Perhaps you may think that I, Lin Ran, am too selfish and only consider the lives of the people of Temperance City and nothing else!”

“I can only tell you that my Lin Ran’s abilities are limited, and I am only one person, so in the nick of time I can only choose to protect the people who are most important to me! I’m sorry!”

Chapter 1478

“Song Nuan Qiqi Su Rou!”

Lin Ran turned his head to look at the three.

“You three, take charge of calling back all of Liu Chen and the others who are still in the Imperial Capital and stay in Temperance City for the time being!”

“Mhmm!”

The three of them nodded their heads.

“Qin Bing! You are responsible for docking with the Eighth Elder and organizing the Chao Heavenly Pavilion’s medical team as soon as possible, ready to treat the injured!”

“Good!”

Qin Bing nodded his head.

“Cold Chopped Old Cat A Battle!”

“Present!”

The three men said respectfully.

“You guys dock with the Grand Elder and access the Chao Heavenly Pavilion’s intelligence system, you must find accurate information about the engagement!” |

“Yes!”

The three nodded their heads.

“Yu Chang and Wolf Ba!”

“Boss!”

The two men looked at Lin Ran.

“You are responsible for the safety of Coiling Dragon Mountain! No cultivator shall be allowed near Coiling Dragon Mountain!”

“Yes!”

The two men said respectfully.

Finally, Lin Ran turned his head to look at the two elders, Long Ya and Long Da Long Er, at the side.

“Please also ask the two elders to protect Long Ya and help Yu Chang and the others guard Coiling Dragon Mountain when necessary! You all know the current situation, I can’t take part in the battle, so we can only wait, but I promise that I will definitely help your lineage of Dragon Family to right their names once they have in the future!”

“Many thanks!”

Long Da and Long Er bowed respectfully.

Long Ya, on the other hand, had determination in her eyes, the Dragon Family had carried too much, and likewise she sat as a young man of this generation of the Dragon Family, and wanted to prove too much.

“During the Great War, everyone is not allowed to leave without permission!”

Lin Ran once again looked at the crowd, and finally looked at Ling Sa.

“Especially you! Don’t let me worry, the enemy will be destroyed sooner or later, and none of the division’s revenge will be missed!”

“I understand!”

Ling Sa nodded, there were tears in her eyes, the killing intent in her heart was the greatest, she could not wait to rush out and kill all the Dragon family members led by Long Yu, but she knew that now was not the time.

“Alright, go your separate ways!”

Lin Ran finally said.

The crowd went down to make arrangements as Lin Ran had instructed before.

Lin Ran this was leading the Grand Elder and Leng Zhan and the others to the side.

“What are your orders, Pavilion Master?”

The Eldest Elder asked busily.

“Everyone has returned, but that dead fatty hasn’t returned yet, so send someone to investigate where he has gone as soon as possible!”

Lin Ran said.

“Court Master Fang Xin, when Wang Yifeng left earlier, he said he was going to go, he could definitely find out in an hour at most!”

The Grand Elder said, and then went to make arrangements.

Only then did Lin Ran look at the three of them, Leng Zhan.

“This great battle is unusual, you guys are not strong? Make sure to protect yourselves!”

“Yes!”

There was excitement in the three men’s eyes.

“Go!”

The three Leng Zhan soon left as well.

Lin Ran arrived on the roof of the villa alone and looked at the dark clouds above the sky, his heart was depressed.

“This weather, it’s just like your mood, but don’t put too much pressure on yourself, the time of the great war is also the time for heroes to rise!”

Pillowbook smiled and comforted.

Lin Ran smiled bitterly at his words, however.

“I don’t want to be a hero, I just want to protect my loved ones!”

“One will be a hero, it’s easier to be a selfish person!”

“Haha! Can you? If you could, you wouldn’t have blockaded the entire Temperance City! You still can’t cut your losses!”

The pillow sighed.

“Tamagawa City is where I grew up, I love this land so much!”

Lin Ran laughed.

Soon an hour had passed.

The Grand Elder also quickly sent back information.

Only this time it wore back two, one of which was from Wang Yi’s life, while the other was about the war.

“That dead fatty ignore him for now?!”

Lin Ran laughed, while opening the intelligence on the war matter.

After reading it for a while, his brow furrowed.

It had only been a mere two hours since he had returned to Pan Long Mountain from the hospital.

However, within these two hours, the encounter between the Fey Demon Realm and the Mysterious Alliance had been fought to a standstill.

It was as if the people on the Other Demon's side were all desperate, attacking like mad, and some realms had even broken through the defending city!

However, they were not occupying the city, but were stationed outside it, as if they were deliberately waiting for the Mysterious Alliance to send someone over.

"What exactly do the foreign devils want?"

Lin Ran's brows furrowed as he watched.

Attacking and killing without occupying the city, waiting for the Mysterious Alliance to send someone, this didn't seem to be about invasion at all, it was simply about killing!

Lin Ran's heart seized up as he watched.

Not understanding the enemy's intentions was the most terrifying thing!

Without intent, you wouldn't know how to respond, and could passively follow the enemy's rhythm.

But at the same time, this also had certain advantages for the Mysterious Alliance.

The more people of the foreign devils were lost, the easier the engagement would be down the road, and it might be possible to survive until the foreign devils' side collapsed completely.

"Forget it, let's wait and see!"

Lin Ran said, before opening Wang Yifeng's intelligence.

However, of course, after seeing this intelligence, the entire person's face became even more ugly.

Only to see that the request report read.

"Wang Yifei is now in the vicinity of the fishing village, but the person has disappeared and is suspected to have been captured by the Long Qian of the Long Family, and at the same time, the movement of Xiao Cui has also been found, and it seems that Long Qian's people are capturing her!"

A simple sentence, but Lin Ran's entire face turned cold.

The Long family's people dared to touch Wang Yi's life, this was definitely a big taboo for Lin Ran in time.

"Weng!"

Lin Ran's divine sense instantly diffused out and enveloped the entire Coiling Dragon Mountain.

"Ling Sa go out with me! Everyone else guard Coiling Dragon Mountain!"

A voice rang out clearly in everyone's ears.

Following this a red light had rushed up into the sky, it was none other than Ling Sa.

"Go!"

Lin Ran shouted, and Ton also rushed out of Coiling Dragon Mountain with Ling Sa in tow.

"What's wrong?"

Song Nuan and the others hurriedly ran over, but they only saw the Grand Elder on the side, but Lin Ran and Ling Sa had disappeared.

The four of them were the most worried about Lin Ran, after all, Ling Sa could still go out with Lin Ran, but the four of them simply did not have the strength to do so, they were all worried, Lin Ran went out this time and did not know when he would return.

“Don’t worry, he’s gone to find Wang Yifeng!”

The Eldest Elder spoke up and explained, then showed the information to the four women.

Seeing that Wang Yifeng had been captured by the people of the Long Family, they couldn’t help but be worried.

Looking at the dark clouds in the sky, the four women’s hearts seized up.

“Make sure you come back safely!”

Song Nuan said secretly in her heart.

.....

However, at this time, Lin Ran and Ling Sa had already rushed out of Temperance City towards the south.

Although the people had already left Panglong Mountain, news about Wang Yifeng’s life was coming in a steady stream.

The fishing village, a small village located very close to the Refining Fire Domain, was somewhat similar to Wu Zhen.

Following the route provided by the Grand Elder, Lin Ran and Ling Sa rushed directly to Wu Zhen, and then went directly to the fishing village by the teleportation array there.

And along the way, Lin Ran finally learnt why Wang Yifeng had been captured by the Dragon Family’s Long Qian.

It turned out that Wang Yifeng had indeed found Xiao Cui.

But for reasons unknown, this Long Qian of the Long family actually took a liking to Xiao Cui too.

As a result, he and Wang Yifeng were at loggerheads.

Chapter 1479

Wang Yifei’s strength is not weak nowadays, especially after he and Lin Ran went to the Otherworldly Demon Realm, and his strength has soared, so naturally he beat up Long Qian fiercely.

But later on, Long Qian used some kind of tactics to capture Wang Yifei, but there was a delay in catching Xiao Cui.

“Xiao Cui should be an ordinary person, right? How could Long Qian not catch her?”

All along the way, Ling Sa was puzzled.

“I don’t know, but we’ll know when we get to the fishing village!”

Lin Ran did not frown tightly, at this time he was only worried about the safety of Wang Yifeng.

.....

Two hours later, Lin Ran and Ling Sa had appeared in the middle of the fishing village.

With Lin Ran’s strength today, two hours was enough for him to go to many places, not to mention the teleportation array.

The fishing village was said to be a village, but it was actually a town just like Wu Zhen.

Because of its proximity to the Refining Fire Domain, the people in this town were either all powerful or rich.

“Where are we going now?”

Looking at the dark fishing village, Ling Sa asked with a frown.

“Find a five-storey building!”

Lin Ran said.

He had seen the power of a five-storey building back in Wuzhen, so he thought that this five-storey building would also be found in the fishing village.

As expected, Lin Ran and Ling Sa soon found the five-storey building in a place near the back of the mountain in the fishing village.

After paying the money and entering the building, Ling Sa was even more puzzled.

“Aren’t we going to find Wang Yifeng? What’s the point of coming here?”

“To buy information!”

Lin Ran said.

He quickly found the staff here with Ling Sa, and was then taken to a secret room.

The operator behind the five floors seemed to Lin Ran to be most likely the Mysterious Alliance.

So there was almost no information that couldn’t be bought here, depending on whether the price was right.

“What kind of information would you two like to buy?”

Soon, a figure wearing a black robe walked in, his entire body hidden under the black robe, and his figure could not be seen clearly.

“Of Wang Yi’s life!”

Lin Ran spoke, while taking out a bank card.

“His information isn’t cheap, there are three of them here, one million for each!”

The old man wasn't polite and offered directly.

"Say it!"

Lin Ran didn't hesitate in the slightest and spoke directly.

"Very fast!"

The old man smiled blandly, picked up his bank card and handed it to his men at the side, who took the card and left, obviously going to swipe it.

And the old man opened his mouth and laughed.

"This one, yesterday morning, Wang Yifeng and a little cui named came to travel to the fishing village and accidentally messed with Long Qian of the Long family!"

"Long Qian took a fancy to Xiao Cui, Wang Yifeng beat up Long Qian, Long Qian held a grudge and drugged Wang Yifeng and locked him up! Took him away!"

"Well, that's number one!"

The old man laughed.

"And that's the end of it?"

Ling Sa on the side was speechless as she listened, this was too easy, and the information provided by the Grand Elder before was just about the same as this!

This was too much of a loss for a million spent.

"No harm in that!"

Lin Ran waved his hand, gesturing for the old man to continue.

"Right, this second one!"

"Last night, Wang Yifeng came here and posted a bounty! It reads, find someone to take Xiao Cui away to Temperance City, with a reward of five million dollars! This bounty order has currently been picked up by someone!"

"The person who took the order? Who is it?"

Lin Ran asked with a frown.

The old man hesitated a little at his words, but after a moment he said.

"Fine, since you're so quick to pay for three messages of information at once, I'll consider this receiver of the leader's information a gift to you!"

"This receiver, his name is Feng Qianli! He's a famous lightning expert in the fishing village, and he doesn't deal with Long Qian, that's why he took this order!"

Lin Ran nodded at his words and then said.

"What about the third one!"

“The third one, that would be even more exciting!”

The old man laughed.

“This third one is also the one we just got ten minutes ago, and it’s exactly about Wang Yifeng, this girlfriend Xiao Cui!”

Saying that, the old man took the card sent back by one of his men and handed it to Lin Ran as he continued.

“Just ten minutes ago, Wang Yifei’s girlfriend, Xiao Cui, and the receiver, Feng Qianli, appeared in the mountain range three thousand miles north of the fishing village, and there were people from the Longqian Sect chasing behind them!”

“Many thanks!”

Lin Ran smiled and directly picked up his bank card, turned around and left!

“Take your time and don’t see me off!”

The old man laughed and swirled out of the way.

Lin Ran took Ling Sa and chased after him without looking back in the direction where Xiao Cui was.

“We’re not looking for Wang Yifeng first?”

Ling Sa asked as she followed Lin Ran.

“That fatty has thick skin and flesh, so he won’t die for now, but if Xiao Cui dies, then he’ll basically only have half a life left!”

Lin Ran said.

Lindsay spat out her tongue at her words, understanding what Lin Ran meant.

For a person like Wang Yifeng, the more frustrated he was, the more his desire to live would be fuelled, but if something happened to Xiao Cui, then he would basically only be left with half a life.

This was somewhat similar to Lin Ran’s temperament, otherwise the two wouldn’t have stunk together and become life and death brothers.

“So what’s the deal with the receiver?”

As she hurried along, Linran asked.

This was the first time she had ever heard of a collar catcher.

“It’s not hard to understand, every warring realm will have many business opportunities, the Mystic Alliance is still setting up five floors here, let alone ordinary people!”

“There are many people in the cultivation world, and countless casual cultivators, not everyone is supported by a division, and these people want to cultivate, so they can only find ways to make money, hence this release order and receiver!”

Lin Ran explained.

Lin Ran smiled and instantly understood.

.....

And just as the two of them were rushing towards the mountain range, at this moment, they were on the mountain range three thousand miles outside the fishing village.

"I can't, I can't run anymore, you'd better carry me!"

A young woman gasped for breath, she was very pretty, but it was unbelievable that she appeared here at that moment.

"I knew you couldn't run, but you had to run by yourself! Come on!"

A man in night clothes next to her said helplessly.

"Hey! I have a boyfriend, it's embarrassing to have you on my back!"

The woman said disgruntled.

"What time is it, if you keep dawdling, you'll have to change boyfriends completely if you're caught by Long Qian's men!"

The man said in no good humour.

"Get lost! Even if I die, I won't let that bastard Long Qian have his way!"

The woman was fierce.

"Fine! If you don't go, Long Qian's men will be here!"

The man urged.

"How far is it to Temperance City?"

The woman asked helplessly.

"How far is it? We've only gone less than a tenth of that!"

"Huh?"

The woman almost didn't faint at that.

"Your boyfriend too, Temperance City is so far away, how come he brought you here on a trip! This business is a fucking loss!"

The man whined.

But soon his face changed.

"Get up here, they're coming!"

"Yes!"

Without further ado, the woman plonked herself directly on the man's back.

The man's feet shot up and his whole body was like a gust of wind, rushing out towards the front.

"You can't get away, Feng Qianli! Release the arrows!"

Suddenly a voice rang out from behind, and at once several to black shadows rushed out, a handful of arrows shot out quickly straight at Feng Qianli.

Chapter 1480

"Hide!"

Cui on the back saw this and was busy shouting.

"Woe is me!"

Feng Qianli said, "Even if he was good at lightness, his flexibility would be affected by carrying a person on his back, let alone dodging the arrows behind him.

"Whoosh!"

Soon, an arrow shot at him, and Feng Qianli was unable to dodge it, so the arrow grazed his arm, and a bloodstain immediately emerged.

"It's over!"

Feng Qianli's heart immediately sank.

He was so good at light skills that Long Qian's men couldn't catch up with him and turned to arrows, so it definitely wouldn't be ordinary arrows.

Otherwise, even if they wounded themselves, it would be useless.

And the one that could really leave himself behind would definitely be an arrow with poison, or at least the same kind as the one Wang Yi had hit, where the true qi in his body was blocked.

"Shit!"

Feng Qianli couldn't help but curse.

As expected, he soon felt that something was wrong.

His own mobilization of true qi within his body became more and more trapped which, that feeling was like being deep in the mud, unable to mobilize his true qi.

"It's over!"

Feng Qianli had despair in his eyes, and almost simultaneously his and Xiao Cui's figures fell to the ground and rolled out.

"Ah!"

Xiao Cui let out a scream and rolled towards a large thorn in front of her, if she crashed into it she would be instantly disfigured!

Fortunately, Feng Qianli's quick eyes and quick hands pulled her back in time, and this did not have any terrible consequences.

However, at this moment, the people sent by Long Qian from behind had already arrived, and soon dozens of figures appeared and surrounded Xiao Cui and Feng Qianli.

"Run! Why aren't you running!"

As soon as they surrounded them, the black-clad man in the lead rushed at Feng Qianli and kicked him around.

"Can't you fucking run? How dare you go against our Dragon Family, you're looking for death!"

The man in black ripped the mask off his face, revealing a pair of thieving eyes and two moustaches.

"Eight-character beard, you don't have to be a fucking fool with me, if there's a next time I'll fucking kill you, you son of a bitch!"

Feng Qianli said disdainfully.

"You'll fucking kill me! I'll kill you right now!"

The eight-legged beard said disdainfully, greeting him with another blow from his too-foot.

"Stop fighting! What the hell do you want!"

On the side, Xiao Cui was so scared that tears came out of her eyes.

Before this, she had never experienced any of this at all, and didn't even know that there were actually people in this world who could fly.

It was only when they ran into Long Qian that Wang Yifeng showed his true strength, only to be unexpectedly assassinated by Long Qian.

What had happened in the past two days had simply turned her world view upside down.

"Shut the hell up! Bitch, if it wasn't for you, why the hell would I have come all this way in the middle of the night to chase you!"

The eight-legged beard said angrily.

"Go! Rack her up for me and give her to Boss Long back later!"

"Yes!"

Someone next to him immediately stepped forward and set Xiao Cui up.

"Boss, what about him?"

Suddenly, someone pointed at Feng Qianli and asked.

"Him? You're still fucking asking me what to do? You've been working against Boss Long for so long and you still need to ask me? Of course I'll fucking kill him!"

The eight-letter beard said in a bad mood.

“Yes!”

That man was also terrified and immediately led his men towards Feng Qianli.

Feng Qianli was lying on the ground, with reluctance in his eyes, he had followed his master since he was a child, but his master was killed by the people of the Dragon Family.

He and his master both belonged to the scattered cultivators and had no sect at all, so they were like ants compared to the huge Dragon Family.

In order to avenge his master’s death, he had attacked the Dragon Family and had become a thorn in their side.

Now that he had fallen into the hands of the Long family, there was nothing left in his eyes but resentment, for he knew that as long as he fell into the hands of the Long family, there would be absolutely no way to live.

“Do it!”

The eight-letter beard urged.

And at that moment, those few men had already arrived in front of Feng Qianli.

Feng Qianli reluctantly closed his eyes, waiting for his final end.

“Die!”

The henchman raised the cold dagger in his hand and slashed towards Feng Qianli’s neck.

“No!”

Xiao Cui shouted, yet her shouting was to no avail.

She watched as the dagger slashed towards Feng Qianli’s neck.

At the last moment she could not even resist closing her eyes, not having the courage to look on.

However, after waiting for a moment, the imagined muffled grunt and news of the man’s success did not come.

Instead, there came the sound of a surprised eight-legged beard.

“What the hell are you doing? Move your hand!”

Looking at his own men frozen in place, the dagger was even pressed against Feng Qianli’s neck, but it just wouldn’t slide down with force, the eight-character beard also frowned.

“Go and see what’s going on!”

Bazihu urged.

Immediately, one of his men ran over and tapped that man’s shoulder.

The next moment, however, the man’s whole body stiffened and he fell to the side with a thud.

“Boss! He’s ..... He’s dead!”

The man exclaimed.

Only then did the eight-character beard notice that the man he had sent before had blood coming out from his neck.

“What’s going on!”

The eight-character beard also tensed up at once, who had killed his men, why did he not even sense it at all, he didn’t even see a human figure.

“Bang Bang!”

“Ah.”

“Ah!”

Suddenly two muffled sounds came, and Bazi Hu was busy turning his head to look, only to see the two men who were originally holding Xiao Cui, their two arms had actually been chopped off at the same time.

Fresh blood was bubbling out, very oozing.

“Ah!”

Xiao Cui also got off one, turned around and was about to leave.

But just at that moment, a white hand was on her shoulder.

Xiao Cui was so frightened that she was busy turning her head, followed by the sight of a woman standing behind her at some point.

“You ..... Who are you!”

Xiao Cui looked at the other party with panic in her eyes.

“Wang Yifeng’s friend!”

Lingsha said indifferently, followed by a cold flash of red longsword in her hand, and immediately those two men were lifeless.

“You ..... Who are you, Ju ..... How dare you make an enemy of us, we are from the Dragon Family!”

The eight-character beard was busy bringing out the Dragon Family, trying to scare the other party.

However, he never dreamed that he was scaring none other than Ling Sa, who had a deep blood feud with the Dragon Family.

“Ask for the address, I’ll be waiting for someone over there!”

A youth’s voice rang out indifferently, and the next moment a gust of wind swept in, directly taking Xiao Cui and Feng Qianli away from the place.

A cold aura flooded Lin Ran's eyes, and the fiery red longsword in her hand was already aimed at preparing the eight-character beard.

Lin Ran did not come over, apparently allowing Ling Sa to solve it herself, her grudge with the Long family was too deep, and it was not good for Lin Ran to intervene at this time.

.....

Not far away in a clearing, Lin Ran sent a strand of true qi into Feng Qianli's body, and soon the latter woke up.

"You saved me?"

Feng Qianli looked at Lin Ran with caution.

"It was just a casual act, besides you also saved Xiao Cui!"

Lin Ran said indifferently.

"Who the hell are you?"

Feng Qianli asked.

"Lin Ran!"

Lin Ran said indifferently.

"You're Lin Ran?"

Xiao Cui on the side heard this but was instantly surprised.
