

Doctor

Chapter 1611

“Weng!”

A trembling sound instantly rang out, as if to give it something to do in response, at the same time as the trembling sound rang out.

Only to see a white dot rapidly appear in the vast void.

This white dot appeared very suddenly, at first only the size of a grain of rice.

But then, as if a cannonball had exploded, it rapidly expanded, and in just under a minute, a huge ball of white light shone out from the vast expanse of empty space.

The white light swept out in all directions, instantly illuminating the vast emptiness where it was located directly.

At this moment, countless stars dimmed, as if they were paying homage to it.

“Bang!”

A loud sound followed before it arrived belatedly.

The sound rang out, only to see countless places in the vast void being swept away by a terrifying force, the heat radiating out ripples that even made everything around them look somewhat ethereal and illusory.

Countless rubble and debris were instantly melted into pieces by the scorching heat.

Only something with a white mist was being blasted out as if it were a cannonball.

No one knew what it was, but could only see that the white mist was trailing a long tail, as if it was water vapour left behind after the ice had been vaporised directly by the heat.

It could also have been left behind after going too fast and rubbing against the resistance in the void.

At this point, speculation was actually unimportant because at this moment, several cracks had already appeared on the main body of which white mist, and it was obvious that the thing could no longer bear the double attack of the huge explosion and the high temperature, and would crack at any moment.

“Ka-chow!”

Finally, the thing still couldn't resist, and it burst open with a crunching sound.

But almost at the same time, a golden light quickly flew out from inside, directly enveloping the thing inside again.

“You fucking hold on!”

Pillow shouted angrily at this point.

That golden light was really him striking.

“I’d like to! But when is this explosion going to end!”

Lin Ran was covered in blood and rags, his entire body curled up in the golden light, holding the Chaos Stone in his hand firmly over his chest for fear of losing it.

“How should I know! Hold on! It will always pass!”

The pillow spoke.

However, this time, before Lin Ran could reply, there was a “click” and the layer of golden light that enveloped the two bodies shattered instantly.

Terrifying power instantly swept towards Lin Ran.

“Roll!”

Lin Ran knew that the pillow’s tactic had been broken, and now he could only rely on himself until the end.

“Scuff!”

The Condensing Frost Sword swung out, and instantly the seven-coloured sword shadows that roamed the sky wove into a large net.

“Eh?”

Lin Ran’s face suddenly looked startled as the Condensing Frost Sword in his hand suddenly charged out on its own.

It followed behind that huge web of seven-coloured swords and met it towards the front as well.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

The seven-coloured sword net was charged by the force from behind and instantly came to a halt! The Condensing Frost Sword stabbed at the seven-coloured sword net only with one stroke.

“Weng!”

Lin Ran instantly heard a buzzing sound, while he saw that the ripples formed by the huge explosion of power behind him were actually toppled out in an arc.

The terrifying power that had originally appeared to radiate? At this moment there was actually a gaping hole where he was.

And this gap was the one that his own weapon, the Condensing Frost Sword, had toppled out of.

“Kid! I’m afraid that this sword of yours has already gained a hint of spiritual intelligence!”

Seeing this scene, Pillow Book couldn’t help but cover his chest and said.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran was also very emotional in his heart as he looked at the Frost Condensation Sword in the distance.

However, it was far from over.

The Frost Condensation Sword that was topped with a seven-coloured sword net gradually began to tremble throughout its entire body.

At the same time, Lin Ran frowned and saw that the originally invulnerable Frost Condensing Sword was actually bowed by the tremendous force at this moment.

The angle grew larger and larger as it grew older, eventually even toppling the entire blade of the Condensing Frost Sword into a ninety degree bow.

“No!”

Lin Ran’s heart was filled with shock as he watched, if this continued the Condensing Frost Sword would break.

However, perhaps it was in response to the Pillow Book’s pressed words that the Frost Condensing Sword did not retreat.

It just held straight ahead, and at one point there was an audible “click”, and sure enough! The frost sword had broken.

“Bang!”

In an instant, the seven-coloured sword net broke. A terrifying force swept through the hilt of the remaining Frost Condensation Sword and came straight at Lin Lin.

“Kid, do something!”

Seeing the explosive power sweeping in from behind again, Pillowbook was completely anxious.

However, at this moment, Lin Ran looked incredibly calm as he firmly clutched the Chaos Stone in his arms and lifted his hand to bring the hilt of the Frost Condensation Sword flying backwards with the help of it.

Looking at the hilt of the sword, he smiled bitterly and said.

“Good brother, it was hard work I know you did your best!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, Lin Ran was instantly swept in by a terrifying force, his entire body was like a stone in a violent storm, drifting with the waves without direction.

All the way over, Lin Ran had actually known that when the Chaos World Worm exploded itself, no one could resist.

Even the pillow could not.

What was the Chaos World Worm, that was something that was bred from Chaos Qi and Chaos Origin.

Its self-explosion could be seen as a clearing of this world’s self.

How could anyone possibly resist the master’s self-explosion of it, even if Lin Ran was good enough to do so?

“Master, it seems that you really are going to be right!”

The last thing Lin Ran thought of before he lost consciousness was surprisingly the Chaos Immortal.

If he were to know that he still went and chose to seek death after acquiring his Chaos Devouring Technique, I was afraid that he would really crawl out of his grave.

Darkness, Lin Ran was still eventually engulfed by the endless darkness.

Before he passed out, he vaguely sensed that someone had taken the Chaos Stone and the remains of the Chaos Immortal tied behind him.

Only at this point, he no longer had the energy to consider this.

He did not know how long had passed, and in this vast emptiness, there was no concept of time, much less space.

If you were here and couldn't find a reference point, you wouldn't even know whether you were standing in the void or upside down in the void.

Because no matter what, you will always be surrounded by a sea of stars and your body will never have the feeling of gravity.

Luckily, the vast void at this time was not without a reference point, there was a white storm passage like a silver dragon, not far away.

Not far from this storm passage, there was even a huge white skeleton floating in the vast emptiness.

That's right, the white remains were left behind by the Chaos World Worm.

The white remains floated in the vast void, as if a giant dragon had fallen,? Only a dragon-shaped white skeleton was left behind.

If Lin Ran were here at this moment, he was afraid that he would be too stunned to speak.

“I'm afraid this kid is the only person in the world, including the entire Immortal World, who has seen the remains of the Chaos World Worm!”

In a ball of golden light, the pillow laughed and laughed to himself as Lin Ran's body was wrapped in it.

“Hey! Was it really worth it?”

Looking at Lin Ran, who was covered in blood, Pillow Book sighed helplessly and rushed towards a boulder in the distance.

The boulder was only the size of a basketball court, but it was polished in all directions, and was actually like the top of a stone table, floating quietly in the void.

Chapter 1612

“Where is this?”

In the endless darkness, Lin Ran slowly opened his eyes.

He felt unusually weak, and it was extremely difficult to even try to do anything to get up.

But there was no one around to help him, so he could only grit his teeth and stand up on his own.

“My body?”

Lin Ran looked at his body, and he realised that he had no body, as if he was just a soul body at this moment.

“That’s?”

Lin Ran didn’t have time to feel shocked because at this moment an even more shocking scene appeared in front of him.

All he could see was that in the endless darkness, there were two clusters of light, one white and one green.

The cyan mass of light was at the bottom and the white mass of light was at the top, and both masses of light were slowly rotating, only in two diametrically opposed directions.

Lin Ran saw that the blue light mass only had several huge cracks on it.

Every now and then a lot of green light would shoot out from the cracks and eventually be captured by the white light mass, which was then swallowed up.

Lin Ran looked bewildered, not knowing what this meant, but at this point he didn’t know what was wrong with him, he didn’t even want to explore anymore, he was too tired.

He just stared blankly at these two balls of light in front of him, as if he wanted time to freeze in this moment.

However, God would not go along with his wish after all.

“Ka-ching.”

Suddenly, the green ball of light split in two in an instant, splitting in the middle.

At the same time, before Lin Ran could see clearly, he could faintly hear someone calling out his name.

“Lin Ran! Lin Ran!”

“Be strong, you boy! Wake up quickly!”

At this moment, Lin Ran felt that he was suddenly very congested and could not help but dryly cough twice.

“Cough!”

On the next one, he felt his consciousness being ripped away by something.

When he was opening his eyes, all he saw was a golden glow, and the pillow book standing by the side.

“Where am I?”

Lin Ran asked as he took a deep breath and looked at the pillow book.

“Where else could I be,? The vast emptiness!”

The Pillowside Book said without a smile, seeing that Lin Ran had woken up, it was also finally relieved.

Lin Ran felt severe pain all over his body, and he didn't know how many bones had been broken, the true Qi of the healing dao in his body had not automatically repaired his body when he was unconscious earlier, which was very surprising to him.

After mobilising his entire body's true qi to repair the broken bones, Lin Ran froze in the next moment.

He hurriedly looked within himself, and upon this glance, his entire body directly froze in place.

“You found it too!”

The pillow beside him seemed to have discovered something long ago, and at this moment, he spoke somewhat helplessly.

“If you find out, learn to accept it, it's not really a desperate situation for you, at least you still have time to think of a solution, and even if you think of a solution it's right in front of you!”

The pillow said as he flipped his hand over and took out the Chaos Stone that was emitting purple light and handed it to Lin Ran.

Lin Ran took the Chaos Stone, his entire body still looking very mute.

What he had just seen when he looked inside was none other than the scene he had seen earlier when he was still unconscious.

The Dantian Vortex inside his body was cracked!

The Dantian Vortex, that was the root of a cultivator, without the Dantian Vortex, all that awaited him was his gradually dwindling strength, or even death.

After a cultivator's Dantian was destroyed, he often did not live for more than a few years, and some did not even live for a few months.

This is not only because the dantian is the root of a cultivator.

It is also because a cultivator's body structure is already different from that of an ordinary person.

Even if the Dantian vortex is retained a little, the cultivator may live for a few years.

But when the Dantian vortex is really completely shattered, all that awaits him is death.

The sense of Dao would allow this person to easily feel the presence of true qi around him, but the Dantian vortex in his body would not be able to absorb it at all, and the cultivator would gradually explode with the hidden physical problems that he had accumulated over the years and scared.

When he was a cultivator, he could easily cure these illnesses with his true qi, but once he was without his dantian vortex, then he was no different from a piece of paper in terms of vulnerability.

“When did this start!”

Lin Ran asked as he turned his head to look at the pillow book.

“Three months ago! From the time you obtained the Chaos Stone until today, you’ve been in a coma for three whole months!”

The Pillow Book said.

“Three months!”

Lin Ran’s heart was shocked, to him he only felt like he had slept, but three months had already passed in the blink of an eye.

“With your body, it won’t be a problem to live for ten or eight years without using your true qi, but you won’t be able to be cultivating!”

“With the use of true qi, you will live for another month at most!”

“If you use Chaos True Qi, you only have ten minutes!”

The pillow book looked at Lin Ran and spoke his potential situation straight out.

Lin Ran, however, didn’t seem to care,? He glanced around before saying.

“This shouldn’t be far from where we left before, where’s Qing Zi? Let’s go find her and save the others first!”

Lin Ran saw the storm vortex not far away and knew that it should have been Pillow Book who had brought him back, after all, he was the only one who could have brought him back here when the previous explosion was so powerful that he was unconscious.

“Don’t you get it?”

Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran with a rare gaze on his face.

“Understand what? All I know is that I’ve already got the Chaos Stone, and the priority now is to go and save people!”

Lin Ran said anxiously.

“And then what? Save them and you die yourself?”

The Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran.

“Can I save the people first!”

Lin Ran said through clenched teeth.

“I can’t!”

The Pillow Book refused outright without even thinking about it.

“I can well understand your desire to save them, but can you listen to me first!”

The Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran and said at length.

“Speak!”

Lin Ran forced down the anxiety in his heart.

“Have you thought about it, even if you save them and them, but when you really get to the Immortal Realm, will they be able to live well?”

“The Immortal Realm, that is a crueler existence than Earth, no one will treat them special just because they are beautiful women, and no one will treat them as guests just because they are your brothers Lin Ran!”

“In the Immortal World, it’s always strength that speaks!”

Said the Pillow Book with a sigh and continued.

“Earth is technically considered a small world, and you don’t even start as high as the people in the Immortal World when you get there!”

“Do you still want to save them and let them go to the Immortal World to break in?”

“Have you thought about it, you saving them now to them might just be a few days later before they die!”

“But you’re different, you’re highly talented, if you make it to the Immortal World alive, at least you’ll have something to look forward to in the future!”

The pillow said a lot in one breath.

Lin Ran, however, had already understood what he meant.

“How can I save myself? My dantian is already shattered, it’s a matter of time before I die, how can I save myself!”

“You have it!”

The pillow pointed at the Chaos Stone in Lin Ran’s hand.

“As long as you swallow it whole, the power of the Chaos Origin is enough to repair your dantian vortex, and your strength will even skyrocket by a large margin!”

“But if you bring the Chaos Stone to save them, then you will inevitably die yourself, you will have to swallow at least two thirds of this Chaos Stone to pull you back from the brink of death!”

Chapter 1613

“Or, you can choose to save only a few of them who are most important to you!”

“That’s enough!”

As soon as the pillow’s words finished, Lin Ran chided him outright.

“The people who are most important to me, and a few more? Then tell me, who is the most important to me? Is it Song Nuan or Qin Bing, is it Su Rou or Qi Qi, is it Wang Yifeng or Li Sheng?”

“If there was one more of these people today, you! Would you want me to save you or not?”

The pillow was silent, but a moment later he spoke.

“I know that I am not you, so I consider things without regard for your feelings, but you must be clear that the onlooker is the one who is in charge!”

“As cruel as what I say is, it’s the only choice you have at the moment, either save yourself or save someone else! It’s either that or be selective and save both!”

“There’s no selectivity, and besides, I have to make more choices than that!”

Lin Ran looked at the pillow book.

“What do you mean?”

The pillow side book looked at Lin Ran with a slight frown.

“What do I mean, you should know very well! The Immortal Realm, not everyone has more than to go there!”

“Wang Kun is in the Immortal Realm, I, Lin Ran, naturally want to go, and you want to go home naturally want to go back! Including Qing Zi!”

“But have you guys asked Song Nuan and the girls? Do they want to go to the Immortal World?”

“Do you have a choice?”

The Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran and questioned.

“Why don’t you have a choice? The whirling storm passage hasn’t disappeared yet!”

Lin Ran pointed to the whirling storm passage in the distance.

“We can follow it over, why can’t we go back against it!”

“You’re crazy! There’s never been a precedent for a vortex passage to go backwards!”

The pillow chided.

“Then I’ll set that precedent!”

There was determination in Lin Ran’s eyes.

The Pillow Book was silent, and it was only after a full half an hour that the Pillow Book spoke.

“There’s no point in you saying this now, if you don’t make the choice of who to save, in your current condition, you won’t last long enough to return to Earth!”

“Even if this vortex allows you to go backwards, your strength won’t last to the end!”

“How will we know if we don’t try!”

Lin Ran said, then he looked to the pillow book and said firmly.

“Other people’s dao follows their strength, but my Lin Ran’s dao follows my heart! There’s no way I’m going to go against my conscience and save myself or selectively save a few people!”

“They all died because of me, and if I were to live on my own, I would rather be buried with that!”

“Tell me where Qing Zi is! When I save them, I will send them back to Earth, and I will accompany you on your journey to the Immortal World! If I die on the way, at least you and Qing Zi can still go back!”

“Do you have to do that?”

The pillow looked at Lin Ran, looking very distressed.

“You know me, no one can force me to do something against my conscience!”

Lin Ran said firmly.

The pillow-side book looked at Lin Ran for a long time without speaking, and eventually it sighed helplessly.

“Ai! I knew you would be like this!”

Saying that, it pointed to the ground and said.

“Qing Zi is in there, call her out yourself!”

Lin Ran sniffed and looked at his feet, only then did he realise that he had actually been lying on this flat as jade stone.

“This is the boulder we left before, only to be worn down to this by the Chaos World Worm’s self-explosion, if it wasn’t for Qing Zi’s forbidden protection, I’m afraid this last piece of stone would have been lost!”

The Pillow Book explained.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, not saying anything more, and immediately sat down on his knees to sense his divine sense.

Sure enough, a layer of ripples soon appeared on the entire stone.

And then the ripples flickered rapidly, and finally the Qiankun Purple Qi Vial burst out from within.

“Master.”

Qing Zi quickly appeared, except that at this moment, she looked unusually weak.

“Are you alright!”

Lin Ran asked with a slight apology.

“Fine, casting a forbidden spell and the explosion of that thing earlier shocked me a bit, I’ll be fine after I turn back and sleep for a while!”

Qing Zi laughed, looking unconcerned.

“Master you?”

Suddenly, Qing Zi's face changed, he noticed that Lin Ran's aura was actually slowly weakening, although the magnitude was small, but that feeling was that it was weakening every now and then.

"I'm fine, just let them out!"

Lin Ran said.

"Mm!"

When Qing Zi saw that Lin Ran was unwilling to say more, she stopped talking nonsense and directly released Song Nuan and the others.

Looking at the crowd lying side by side in front of him, Lin Ran had anticipation in his eyes.

As long as the Chaos Stone was fed to the crowd, they could be revived.

Thinking of this, Lin Ran did not delay and directly took the Chaos Stone, raised his hand and broke off a small piece, passing it towards the nearest Song Nuan's mouth.

"Ranzi!"

Seeing this scene, Pillow Book couldn't help but speak up.

"My mind is made up!"

Without raising his head to look at the pillow-side book, Lin Ran lowered his head and replied back before putting the Chaos Stone into Song Nuan's mouth.

"Ai!"

Seeing this scene, Pillowside Book finally couldn't help but sigh, before turning his head away from Lin Ran.

A whole Chaos Stone was only the size of a fist, and after Song Nuan, Qin Bing, Luo Qiqi, Su Rou, and Li Ba Xiao Cui had taken them one by one, there was only a small half of it left.

Lin Ran got up and handed this remaining small half to the pillow book.

"You can give it to them to use!"

Being in the vast void, Pillow-side Book's small world could not be opened, so Lin Ran could only let him take the remaining Chaos Stones to Wang Yifeng and the others.

"Mhmm!"

Pillowside Book nodded, and immediately gave the remaining Chaos Stones to Wang Yifeng and the others to take.

"You can eat this last piece! It won't save you, but at least it will keep you alive for a while longer!"

Soon, Pillow Book handed it over with the last piece.

Lin Ran smiled and was just about to take it when he suddenly remembered something and spoke.

"Has Yue Beishan eaten?"

“You still care about him?”

The pillow looked at Lin Ran a little angry.

“He’s a person of the foreign devil, do you still want to save him?”

“But he’s also a life!”

Lin Ran said.

“This last Chaos Stone, how much longer can I live if I eat it? But if I give it to him to eat, it’s a human life!”

“You!”

The Pillow Book looked at Lin Ran, and for a moment, he didn’t know how to persuade him.

“I’m a doctor, have you forgotten?”

Lin Ran laughed bitterly.

“Ai!”

The pillow side book was really unable to speak, and with a heavy sigh, he still took this last Chaos Stone to Yue Bei Shan.

“Alright, it’s all taken for them as you wanted!”

A moment later the pillow said somewhat angrily.

Lin Ran looked at him and smiled, he knew how Pillow Side Book was, so naturally he wouldn’t take this as a lie to himself.

“How long will it take for them to wake up?”

Lin Ran asked as he looked at Song Nuan and the others.

“I don’t know, a month if it’s fast, maybe a few years if it’s slow! The injuries they suffered earlier weren’t serious, I don’t feel that the longest will be more than a year!”

The Pillow Book said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, before looking at Qing Zi.

“Put them away, tell me when you can’t hold on any longer and I’ll use the chains to tie them to me!”

“Mhmm!”

Qing Zi nodded, her eyes were also a little red, she had already learned through her pillow book that Lin Ran’s dantian had been destroyed, and she feared that her life expectancy was not long.

“What’s next, what are your plans?”

The pillow side book looked at Lin Ran and asked, the person had been saved, at this point it was Lin Ran who had to find a way to leave as soon as possible, as it was possible that at any moment he would die in this vast void.

“I don’t have any plans, go home! Or go to the immortal world!”

Lin Ran looked ahead at the busy void and said indifferently.

Chapter 1614

“Easy for you to say, how are you going to get in when the entrance you broke open earlier has long since healed by now, I’m afraid?”

The pillow said from the side.

Given Lin Ran’s current condition? I’m afraid that even if he broke open the whirlpool passage, he himself would soon die outright due to excessive consumption of his true qi.

“Or else I’ll make a move!”

The pillow suddenly said.

“No need!”

Lin Ran, however, shook his head.

He also knew the situation of Pillow Scribe, he had already struck once with all his might when he was facing the Chaos World Worm explosion before, he must be weak at this point as well, and if he struck again he was afraid that he would also fall into a deep sleep.

“If there’s no way to return to Earth, we still have to rely on you to take us to the Immortal World, so I’ll do this matter of breaking through the vortex myself!”

Lin Ran said.

“But you!”

The pillow was about to say something else, but Lin Ran waved his hand.

“Don’t worry, I won’t joke with my life, I won’t be foolish enough to send them to their deaths without getting them out of here safely!”

“Then what’s your solution?”

The Pillow Book asked Lin Ran.

Lin Ran, however, did not speak, but instead looked up at the vast void in the distance.

There was nothing but countless seas of stars in this void, and if there really was, the only thing left was a stormy vortex like a silver dragon, and the remains of the Chaos Worldworm that had exploded itself into what was left.

“You were thinking!”

The Pillowman suddenly thought of something.

“Exactly! Use everything to the fullest!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Kid, you’ll smash right through the entire storm passage if you do that!”

Pillowman warned.

“So what, the passage will still repair itself anyway, and I only need a split second to do so!”

Lin Ran said.

“You’re still crazy enough!”

The pillow said helplessly.

That’s right, Lin Ran’s solution was to use the remains of this Chaos World Worm and use it to smash the Chaos Tunnel open.

The remains of this Chaos Worldworm were extremely strong, otherwise it wouldn’t have survived its self-destruction.

Moreover, looking at the outline, I was afraid that when the Chaos Worldworm had exploded itself before, all of its flesh and blood had burst open, and this skeleton had all been left intact.

Having thought of a solution, Lin Ran immediately didn’t delay and led Qing Zi and the pillow book towards the Chaos Worldworm’s remains in the distance.

When Lin Ran touched his palm to the Chaos World Worm’s remains, a familiar sensation sprang up.

“This is what the Lava Lizard Chief did!”

Lin Ran exclaimed.

The remains of this Chaos Worldworm actually felt like the same texture of the stone formed from the light that had shot out of the Lava Lizard Chief’s head before.

Only the remains were obviously stronger, and Lin Ran touched his arm, which at this point was no longer covered in stone, but remembering that special ability of the lava lizard leader from before, Lin Ran couldn’t help but feel that the species in the world were only peculiar.

“I wonder what the origin of the group that Master encountered back then was!”

Lin Ran lamented.

“You mean that group of people who used Chaos True Qi?”

The Pillow Book asked.

“Mm!”

Lin Ran nodded.

The Chaos Immortal had once said that the reason he had concentrated on the Chaos Devouring Technique was because he had come across a group in the void back then, all of whom used Chaos Qi to cultivate and were incredibly powerful.

When he compared the Lava Lizards and Chaos World Worms he had seen earlier, Lin Ran could not help but feel the vastness of this vast void and his own insignificance.

Even though the Immortal World was dazzling, it was probably just a speck of dust in this vast emptiness.

No one knew who had created this void, and he didn't even know who had created the Immortal World!

"Well, thinking about this now is like an ant looking at an elephant, it's a bit out of your depth!"

"Whether I can survive or not is unknown!"

Lin Ran laughed to himself, and then he stopped talking nonsense as his divine sense quickly radiated out to firmly tug at the corner of this Chaos World Worm's remains.

In order to avoid using his true qi to drain his life force as much as possible, Lin Ran also chose to use his divine sense.

After all, using his divine sense had no effect on his true qi consumption, and he could preserve as much strength as possible.

"Arise!"

Lin Ran let out a roar, and immediately charged in the direction of the whirlpool passage.

The remains of the Chaos World Worm that was being pulled by his divine sense behind him was actually being pulled by him slowly.

"I'll help you!"

The Pillow Book laughed, and immediately a ray of golden light shot out instantly also attached itself to the Chaos World Worm's remains.

The two strands of power pulled, and instantly the Chaos Worldworm's remains speed increased significantly.

"Go!"

Lin Ran greeted, and together with Pillow Book, they rushed towards the distant whirling storm passage.

The vast emptiness was endless, and with no debris or debris blocking the way over, the speed of the Chaos Worldworm's remains increased greatly.

With the eventual pull of Lin Ran and the pillow, the Chaos Worldworm's remains had reached a speed similar to his own movement before reaching the storm passage.

"It's coming!"

Pillowbook busily warned, and Lin Ran nodded his head.

In a whirlwind, they saw the remains of the Chaos Worldworm, smashing straight towards the whirlpool passage.

“Rumble!”

The two collided,? A truly terrifying wave of power erupted in an instant.

The next moment, Lin Ran was surprised to see that the previously unbeatable storm vortex was unable to do anything to this Chaos Worldworm’s remains, and was directly smashed out of a gap by the latter.

Countless storm debris danced around the gap, tearing a black gap in the surrounding void.

This black slit was so powerful that it actually sucked the remains of the Chaos Worldworm through.

“Bang!”

In an instant, one of the pointed bones of the Chaos Worldworm’s remains located at the forefront was actually instantly strangled to pieces.

“Holy shit!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but burst out a foul mouth at the sight.

The remains that even the storm vortex was helpless against were actually being churned to pieces by this black rift at this moment.

“This word black rift is extremely terrifying, no one can come out alive if they fall in, hurry up and leave!”

Pillow Book reminded.

Lin Ran nodded at that moment without delay, he rushed towards the gap in the storm vortex.

The remains of the Chaos World Worm were so huge that the thick local black cracks behind them could not be churned up for a while, and the two warps actually stalled.

Lin Ran took this opportunity to dash straight through the black rift, and then his breath filled around him to block the stirring storm, and he instantly rushed to the gap in the passage.

With a slight discernment of direction, he whirled and drilled in towards the retrograde passage.

The moment he entered the passage, the entire wreckage at the back made a loud “rumble” and then directly shattered.

The entire wreckage instantly shattered into pieces and flew in towards the black rift.

Lin Ran stood at the entrance of the passage and took one last look at the black crack.

But with this one glance, Lin Ran’s entire body froze.

It was as if his entire body had been struck by lightning, and he stood still for a long time.

“What’s wrong?”

The Pillow Book busily asked.

Lin Ran, however, trembled all over and said in shock.

“Don’t you see? Inside that black crack, there’s a pair of eyes!”

Chapter 1615

“Don’t talk nonsense, there are no eyes, that black crevice is a zone of death, no one who has gone in has ever come out alive! How can there be eyes!”

The pillow said.

“But I really saw it!”

Lin Ran said, and at that moment, as he was looking, the black crack had completely closed.

Lin Ran recalled.

“I just saw very clearly that the eyes inside that black crack were red, like two streams of blood in the darkness!”

“Impossible! How could there be anyone in that place, did you see it wrong!”

The pillow said.

Lin Ran shook his head.

“It’s absolutely impossible to be wrong, there were clearly eyes in those red eyes! The moment he was staring at me just now, it was as if my whole body was frozen!”

Lin Ran said, the feeling he felt at that moment just now was exceptionally clear and asked himself if he could definitely not be mistaken.

“Alright, whether there is or not he can’t get out anyway, let’s hurry up and go, if we don’t leave this storm passage will be healed again in a moment!”

The pillow book was busy reminding.

Lin Ran nodded, knowing that this was not the time to discuss these things, and immediately drilled in towards the storm passage.

It didn’t seem like a long journey, but when Lin Ran actually entered the storm vortex, he realised that his forehead had already seen sweat.

This would never have been possible on a normal day.

“Well?”

Pillowbook also noticed this and was busy asking.

“It’s fine, it’s just consumed some power!”

Lin Ran said.

Inside this storm vortex, it wasn't something that the power of divine sense could easily sway, and trying to travel against the grain here, Lin Ran could say that he was consuming true qi all the time, which was undoubtedly very serious for his life force flow.

"Hold on tight! The longer you delay the weaker you command!"

The pillow reminded.

"Hm!"

Lin Ran nodded, and as soon as he wiped the beads of sweat off his forehead, he charged straight ahead towards the front.

Going against the current was obviously more strenuous, and Lin Ran soon discovered this.

When he and Song Nuan and the others had gone down the whirlpool passage earlier, the consumption of true qi had not been too great, but at this point, going against the flow, the consumption of true qi was very great.

Soon cold sweat broke out on Lin Ran's head again, but he did not have time to wipe it off. Even a small movement in the opposite direction would consume his true qi, so Lin Ran avoided all unnecessary movements as much as possible.

However, despite this, the consumption of true qi in his body was still enormous.

The Dantian vortex within his body, which had already collapsed, was gradually getting worse as he had to mobilise it at this point.

But Lin Ran knew clearly in his heart that he had to grit his teeth and persevere no matter what.

He had to go to the Immortal World himself, and that was because Wang Kun was in the Immortal World, but there was no need for Song Nuan and the girls to go at all.

The Immortal World was so cruel that Lin Ran had already stopped his pillow to make it clear before he arrived, and if Song Nuan and the others went, he really dared not think about the consequences.

Even if he himself fought to his death, seeing as there was just a glimmer of possibility that he could send the crowd back to Earth, he wouldn't hesitate in the slightest.

"Ai!"

Pillow Book suddenly sighed, having been with Lin Ran for so many years, he knew the latter's nature better than anyone else, and at that moment a golden light shot out, forming a protective layer in front of Lin Ran, sort of relieving some of his pressure.

"Thank you!"

Lin Ran spoke.

"There's nothing to thank between us!"

The Pillow Book said, but then it threw a pot of cold water on Lin Ran.

“Kid! I know what you think, but I must tell you that it’s almost impossible for you to send them back!”

“Why?”

Lin Ran asked.

The pillow said after a moment’s thought.

“Because no one has ever dared to do this, once you cross into the whirlpool passage you can only go forward, even in the Immortal World I’ve never heard of anyone being able to cross the passage in reverse!”

“There are so many great powers in the Immortal World and no one has been able to do it, there must be a reason for this, so I don’t think you will succeed this time either!”

“Whether it works or not, I’m going to try, otherwise I won’t be willing!”

Lin Ran said.

Seeing this, Pillow Book said no more, and the two of them just rushed on.

According to Lin Ran’s calculations earlier, the process of him entering the storm passage until he caught up with Song Nuan and the others, and even finally breaking through the storm passage and coming out, was not a long one.

It was just that he didn’t know if his position had changed during the fierce battle with the Chaos World Worm.

But even if it had, I was afraid that the distance would not be too far, so according to his estimation, he was afraid that he would soon be able to rush to the end of the vortex.

As expected, it was only half an hour after the thought in Lin Ran’s mind had fallen, when he suddenly felt the pressure around him skyrocket.

“Kid! We’re almost at the end of the passage!”

The pillow spoke.

Lin Ran nodded, the closer the retrograde journey was to the entrance, the more pressure there was around the storm passage.

The more it consumed the true qi in his body at this point as well.

According to the Pillow Book’s algorithm, if he didn’t use his true qi, he could survive for almost eight or ten years, but if he didn’t use his true qi at this point, I’m afraid he would only survive for five years at most.

What had passed along the way was not only true qi, but also his life force.

“Go!”

Seeing that he was about to reach the entrance, Lin Ran didn’t want to care about anything else, so he gritted his teeth and rushed towards the front at the risk of losing his life force.

The pillow book was watching but he shook his head and secretly said in his heart.

“If he keeps playing like this, I’m afraid that even if he turns back to the Immortal World later, I’m afraid he won’t last much longer! Ai!”

Lin Ran naturally didn’t know what the pillow side book was thinking, at this moment, all he wanted to do was to send Song Nuan and the others back to Earth, even if he had to fight to his death.

However, God always seems to be joking.

After another ten minutes and a huge price paid by Lin Ran.

The scene that appeared in front of him was one that left him completely frozen.

The pressure around him had reached a point where even Lin Ran had to deal with it carefully.

But what appeared before him at this moment was not the earth at all, not even a vortex barrier.

What appeared in front of him was actually a vast void!

That’s right! That’s right!

The storm passage at the entrance had long since dissipated, and it was still dissipating at this moment, so obviously the way he had come was gone.

“I now finally understand why, even in the Immortal Realm, no one can go through the whirlpool passage against the clock!”

Lin Ran looked at the void not far in front of him, and the storm passage that was rapidly dissipating, with despair in his eyes.

“Because there is no longer a way to turn back!”

“Let’s go! No one expected it to be like this!”

Pillow Talk advised.

“Haha!”

Lin Ran, however, suddenly laughed.

“That’s what God meant?”

“Good! Since this is what you mean, then I, Lin Ran, will accept it!”

Lin Ran suddenly turned around, took out the Qiankun Violet Qi Vial in his arms, and said with an apologetic face.

“I’m sorry, I’ve done my best, now I have to take you all to the Immortal Realm!”

With that said, feeling the vortex behind him already approaching, Lin Ran turned his head and took one last look at the vortex passage that was dissipating behind him.

And then with a grit of his teeth, he turned around and charged in towards the front.

Ahead of him was the place that led to the Immortal Realm, and if he turned his head, there was no way back!

Whether or not he could return in the future would all depend on fate!

Chapter 1616

All around him was a white aura.

Lin Ran no longer knew how long he had been drifting in this whirling passage; in fact, since he had turned back, time had completely ceased to be relevant to him.

All around him was nothing but a storm, and still a storm! An endless storm that seemed to never see an end.

Although he was following the direction of the passage, the storms around him were still frighteningly numerous at times, and even Lin Ran had to use his own True Qi to fend them off.

At first Pillow Book would help to fend it off, but gradually Lin Ran refused to do so.

In his estimation, he had been drifting in this passage for almost a month.

And Qing Zi finally couldn't take it anymore two days ago, and she revealed her original body, the Qiankun Purple Qi Vase.

Lin Ran tied her original body to her waist so as not to lose it.

As for Song Nuan and the others, they were all tied behind Lin Ran with chains at this time, and they still hadn't woken up, even if Wang Yifeng and the others inside the pillow book had.

But what gave Lin Ran comfort was that at least they and they had all breathed.

The Chaos Stone that he had desperately obtained was finally working, and as for when they would wake up, perhaps we could only leave it to time.

Travelling through the passage, Lin Ran was consuming the true qi in his body every moment, which kept his life force depleted.

He refused the Pillow Book's help because he knew that there was no telling how long the path ahead would take, and he feared that he could only last another year.

If he let Pillow Side Book help him now, once he was gone, how long could Pillow Side Book take care of Song Nuan and the girls for the rest of the way?

After all, Pillow-side Book himself hadn't recovered much strength.

Instead of letting him consume his strength with himself, it would be better to come in close to himself first, after all, his own life expectancy will come to an end sooner or later anyway.

The last way then let Pillow Book take a shot at protecting Song Nuan and the others for safety, and maybe they can still hold on to the end.

Three months, six months

Time seemed to have no end, nor any dare, and no one could stop it from moving forward, not even Lin Ran.

There was still an endless storm around him, and Lin Ran opened his eyes from his drowsiness.

“How long have I slept this time?”

Lin Ran opened his mouth and asked, his voice very weak.

“Ten days!”

The pillow said.

For these ten days, it had been Pillow Book who had been helping to take care of the crowd.

And Lin Ran had in fact reached the point of running out of oil, often falling into a coma, and there was no way the Dantian vortex within his body was nearly thirsty at this point.

If there wasn't still a trace of true qi left in the chaos qi that was occasionally released, I'm afraid he would have already fallen into a long sleep.

“How much longer will it take to get there?”

Lin Ran asked once again.

“I don't know!”

The pillow shook its head.

How long the passage was how far away from the Immortal World, no one knew, not even Pillowbook.

They could only hold on and grit their teeth.

“I'll do it!”

Lin Ran took the defensive layer in Pillow Book's hand, mobilising the already small amount of True Qi in his body to barely hold on.

Having already spent a full six months floating in the whirlpool passage, Lin Ran had almost reached his limit, both physically and mentally.

Originally, he expected to last a year, but after this journey, he realised how naive his thoughts were.

The whirling storm passage was not very calm, and there were occasional natural breakdowns that Lin Ran had to deal with carefully.

This compressed the year to half, and in just six months Lin Ran was already on the verge of not being able to carry it anymore.

“Rumble!”

The house was leaking, and Lin Ran had just taken over the crowd when another tremor came from ahead.

“Be careful, there might be another gap up ahead!”

Pillow Talk spoke.

“Hm!”

Lin Ran nodded and didn't say much, just dealt with it carefully.

“Hey!”

Seeing Lin Ran's brushed white face, so thin it was almost as if he was skin and bones, Pillow-side Book couldn't help but sigh.

No one knew more about this journey than he did, how much Lin Ran had paid for the sake of all the people.

“Be careful, there's something up ahead!”

The Pillow Book suddenly said.

Lin Ran steeled himself to look ahead.

Only to see that another turning point had appeared ahead.

The turning points here were all very much so, each one at an angle of over sixty degrees, and some had even reached over a hundred degrees or even two hundred degrees.

Such angular turning points are very dangerous.

It was just like being in a water pipe, Lin Ran and the others could only move forward because of the strong wind in the passage, once they met the turning point they had to mobilise their strength to slow down in order to pass the turning safely.

Otherwise, if the wind blew him into the storm wall at the turning point, a stormy storm blade would be waiting for him.

For the past six months, most of Lin Ran's strength had been spent on resisting these storm blades, so he was well aware of the consequences if he accidentally hit it.

“Luckily, this turning point isn't broken!”

When he was almost close, the pillow spoke up.

Lin Ran nodded, the turning point ahead was not broken, so that was good for him, at least he didn't have to worry about falling out.

Several times before, the turning points Lin Ran had encountered had many breakages, one mistake and he would be sucked out, and by then it would be completely impossible to get back in with his own strength.

“I'm afraid I won't last much longer, if there is a chance in the future that you can find Wang Kun, please bring it to my grave, I just want to know what really happened back then!”

Lin Ran suddenly spoke.

“Shut up!”

The pillow heard his eyes redden as he chided.

“If you want to know, go find out for yourself! And now that you haven’t even reached the Immortal World, you’re going to leave them behind!”

“I don’t want to, but I Ahem!”

Lin Ran didn’t finish his sentence before his entire body coughed, his palms opened and what he coughed out was already all blood.

The dantian was shattered, even the medical dao couldn’t save him.

“I

Lin Ran opened his mouth and wanted to say something else, but suddenly his entire body trembled, and in the dark he felt as if something in his body had reacted.

But at this time Lin Ran’s entire spirit was in a trance, not to mention going for something, he couldn’t even remember where the division of the item he was carrying was at this time.

“What is that thing?”

The Pillow Book suddenly exclaimed.

Lin Ran held back the curiosity in his heart and looked up, he found that he had by now led the crowd to the turning point and Pillow Book was stepping in to help them correct their direction.

At this point, Lin Ran was much less stressed and he looked over to the stormy wall where the turn was.

He saw that at this moment, on the wall, there was actually a fiery red object.

The object was long and set into the storm wall, and when he looked at it, it was a red sword.

The long sword had a red light emanating from its body, and although he did not get close to it, Lin Ran could feel an aura of resentment and murder.

It seemed that many people had died under this sword.

And the closer he got to the sword at that moment, the more Lin Ran felt the reaction of something in him.

Lin Ran desperately searched for it, trying to find it, but in the end the thing was not found, but rather his eyes went black with anxious fire and he directly passed out again.

Chapter 1617

“Ran-ja! Ran-ja!”

Pillowboy shouted busily, while taking over the defensive layers of the crowd

“Hey! It’s only been less than an hour this time!”

The pillow-side book sighed, his heart already desperate.

Lin Ran had spent more and more time sleeping and less and less time waking up, and this time, he didn't even know what he had discovered, and he had directly fainted when he was excited.

The pillow book was also very puzzling in his heart.

This way over, they also found quite a few weapons left in the passage.

They had seen almost everything, axes, swords and forks.

These weapons, according to Pillow Book's deduction, were probably all left behind from the great wars back then, and some were also left behind by cultivators who had come to trespass in the vast void.

Every time the passage vortex opened, these weapons would appear, which was originally nothing strange.

After all, Lin Ran had seen them a few times before, however this time was different, Lin Ran seemed excited to be rummaging through something.

Looking at some of the things that had been turned out on him, the pillow sighed helplessly and stuffed some of the ones that were about to fall out back in.

Only, when his palm touched a brocade box, his body trembled.

He found that there was actually a strange fluctuation in this brocade box.

Pillow Book took the brocade box out and found that it was something else.

It was like a small coffin, but he knew that it was not a coffin, but a container that Lin Ran had used to store a very important object.

It was called the "Yin Yang Soul Fish!" It was given to him by Lin Ran's grandmother back then.

There were four small fish inside, which were Lin Ran's grandmother, Lin Ran and his parents.

It was with this Yin Yang Soul Fish that Lin Ran was convinced that his parents were not dead and had chased them all the way to here.

But how could these Yin Yang Soul Fish react at this moment? Could it be that Lin Ran he?

With a shock in his heart, Pillow Book was busy looking at the Yin Yang Soul Fish and found that the one representing Lin Ran looked very weak, floating in the water barely moving, and if it wasn't for the occasional wagging of its tail, Pillow Book would have thought it had

"Hey! People are dying, so what if you have a reaction at this point!"

Pillow Book sighed helplessly, then stuffed the wooden box back in and concentrated on taking care of the crowd.

No one noticed, and no one knew, that as they got further and further away from the red sword, the Yin Yang Soul Fish became less and less responsive.

And at some point in the passage behind them there was a whimpering sound, as if someone was in pain, someone was resigned! They were wailing! Praying!

In the blink of an eye, another two months had passed!

In these two months, Lin Ran had only woken up three times in total, and the time it took to wake up had sharply decreased from half an hour to twenty minutes.

Now Lin Ran was as thin as a bone, and the Dantian vortex in his body was as small as a grain of rice, if not for the slightest glimmer of light, I'm afraid he would have been dead already.

The Chaos Cyclone, on the other hand, seemed unaffected; after all, it was only the masterpiece of the later Chaos Devouring Technique, plus the Chaos Qi was originally of the Origin.

Even thousands of years after Lin Ran's death, it would not dissipate and would keep waiting for this bastard worldworm to come and devour and refine it.

The time reached the ninth month when Lin Ran finally woke up once more.

This time when he woke up, he didn't even have the strength to lift his eyelids.

With his eyes closed, he repeated the question as if he didn't know the leather scroll.

"How long did I sleep this time? Where are we? How far is it to the immortal world?"

Listening to these questions, the pillow sighed helplessly, with tears in his eyes.

"You slept for almost a month this time, I don't know where, it should be close to the immortal world!"

"You said it's soon?"

Lin Ran sniffed with a sudden return of light in his eyes.

"Mmm! It's almost there!"

The pillow nodded.

Lin Ran couldn't help but shed a tear at this moment.

Along the way, every time Lin Ran had asked before, the answer from the pillow-side book had always been that he didn't know.

Only this time, he said it was soon.

He understood that Pillow Book would not comfort himself with such words just because he was dying.

If he said it was soon, then it was really soon.

"Thank you!"

Lin Ran spat out two words, and then stopped talking, and Pillow Book didn't know if he was asleep or awake.

The Pillow Book didn't say anything either, as he looked up at the void in the distance and muttered to himself.

"It's almost time! But is it really soon? I also only had a mere hint of sensation in my heart, but how far away it is, I don't know!"

Time passed day by day, and from the ninth month onwards, whether Lin Ran ever woke up or not, Pillow Book no longer knew.

He only judged from the fact that Lin Ran's fingers would move twice every once in a while that Lin Ran had not died.

Perhaps he was just so tired that he would not even be able to speak a word every time he woke up.

Perhaps his mind was clear, but indeed, he hadn't been speaking at all.

Song Nuan and the others all seemed to have negotiated, and none of them woke up after nine months of slumber.

Even Wang Yifeng and the others inside the pillow book showed no signs of waking up.

It was as if they all knew that Lin Ran was dying and did not wake up as if they were afraid of seeing Lin Ran in his present state.

All around him was a dim space, and Lin Ran felt as if he was a fish in the sea, a fish without strength.

He drifted along with the seawater surging around him, floating wherever he went.

All around him was a sea of turquoise water.

Suddenly, one day, there were many dark clouds in the sky.

There was no lightning in the dark clouds and soon the whole sea was covered and Lin Ran found himself surrounded by darkness, so dark that he could not see his fingers.

Suddenly, a green light appeared above his head, and it was big, big! It was so big that it had no borders, but it was shrinking, shrinking fast.

Lin Ran saw that the green light was gradually shrinking, and eventually it actually became only the size of a grain of rice.

Lin Ran knew that this tenacious grain of green light would eventually dissipate completely with the passage of time.

Suddenly, Lin Ran saw a white light appear in the darkness in the distance. The white light rushed in quickly, gradually turning from just a little to a large one.

It eventually wrapped Lin Ran in it.

"I saw it! I saw it, a year and three months! A year and three months! My pillow book has finally returned!"

"Did you see it, Lin Ran? Did you see it?"

An excited voice rang out in the white light, not knowing where it was coming from.

Lin Ran didn't want to know where it was coming from at this moment either, he suddenly felt his body sink, the feeling was like going from a place with no gravity at all, to a place with gravity all of a sudden, making him feel very grounded.

Even though he could feel the gale force winds around him at this moment, he still felt very grounded. He knew that he had left the vortex passage, and the brightness before him was the Immortal Realm.

“Ka-ching!”

Suddenly, Lin Ran heard a crunching sound, and instantly the brightness in front of him instantly receded like a tide until it completely disappeared.

The surrounding area was once again shrouded in darkness!

Lin Ran saw that the rice-sized green light above his head was gone.

Only this glowing light was dispersing in all directions, and the crunching sound just now seemed to be from the last explosion of the light.

Until this moment, the green light had completely dissipated.

There was no light, no sound, a desperate silence.

This was the last light, and eternal darkness.

Chapter 1618

It is a huge forest, and it is not too much to call it a forest sea.

It stretches for tens of thousands of miles, under a verdant green pall. To call it a sea of forest is like a belt of jade kings!

These four sentences are the most appropriate way to describe this sea of forest in front of us.

And this sea of forest also has a very loud name, that is, the “Beast King Forest!”

At this moment, in the middle of the Beast King’s Forest, on a hill near the edge and in the centre, five figures were lying on a huge tree, moving as if they were hunters.

They were wearing special night clothes, as if they were in the dark at night.

“Brother Qing, let’s leave, this Beast King’s Forest is too weird, we have heard that it is haunted some years ago, let’s not fold here!”

One of the men in black spoke up, his voice full of fear.

“What the fuck, you’re a fucking cultivator, you’ve been cultivating your grandmother?”

The youth in the lead said angrily.

“And haunted? With my current level of Xuanhuang realm, I’m still afraid of ghosts? I’ll kill her on the spot if I believe in female ghosts!”

The young man named Qing said disdainfully.

“When I grow up, I just want to be the head of the Wan family, I can’t compete with your ambitions!”

The young man cried and said busily.

Brother Qing's name was Wan Qing, and he was the youngest son of the Wan family, while the young man next to him was his half-brother, named Wan Chen!

The Wan Family was a big family tens of thousands of miles away from this Beast King Forest, and it was this youth named Wan Qing who was thought to be here today.

"Shut up, if you're afraid, stay on the tree, I don't expect you to!"

Wan Qing said indignantly, whirling around and lovingly addressing a dark middle-aged man beside him.

"Uncle Black! Are you sure about this, tonight is a matter of great importance whether I can join the Dynasty Beast Mountain or not!"

"Don't worry, I've been to this place once three years ago, the master specially ordered it then, and that one-eyed eagle here was specially reserved for you!"

The dark middle-aged man smiled confidently, this man was the personal guard that this Wan Qing's old man had specially arranged to protect Wan Qing's safety.

"Good! With this word from Uncle Black, I'm relieved, we'll leave this hellish place if we win tonight!"

Wan Qing said.

On the side, Wan Chen smiled but looked at a wild boar-like magical beast lying on his back and sighed helplessly.

"Brother Qing, I think this bull hyena beast is enough, do we need to fly to provoke that one-eyed eagle?"

"Enough for your grandma!"

Wan Qing smiled and said without good grace.

"You're fucking asking me to take this stupid pig and join the Chao Beast Mountain? I'm afraid it's questionable whether or not I can become an outer disciple!"

"If I can catch the one-eyed eagle plus our family's relationship with the Dynasty Beast Mountain, I can definitely become an inner disciple!"

"But"

Wan Chen still wanted to say something, but suddenly the dark youth on the side was the one who spoke up.

"Don't say anything, the real master is here!"

Wan Chen immediately covered his mouth at his words, and Wan Qing at the side was also busy turning his head to look into the distance.

He saw that a raptor the size of a child had landed on a tree branch in front of him.

It had brownish-yellow feathers all over its body, which looked as if it had a steel blade, very sharp.

And where it originally had two eyes, one of them had a scar, leaving only one eye still intact.

“It really is a one-eyed eagle!”

Seeing this raptor, Wan Qing’s heart pounded, if he could capture this one-eyed eagle, then his future could be said to be endless.

“You stay here, I’ll go and catch him!”

The dark middle-aged man said, and whirled and groped his way towards the front.

“Uncle Black be careful!”

Wan Qing was busy lifting his heart, only he didn’t care about the dark youth’s death at this moment, he was afraid that this one-eyed eagle would get away and affect his future.

The dark middle-aged man felt his way towards the one-eyed eagle.

Where they were was less than ten metres away from that tree branch.

But just when the dark middle-aged man had climbed to a distance of almost five metres, suddenly the one-eyed eagle suddenly turned its head to look at Uncle Black.

The only pupil of its eyes was actually emitting an incomparably cold aura.

The next moment, deep in the forest, a series of “babbling” sounds were heard.

The voices sounded incomparably childish, as if they were children of a certain family running out to play here.

But it was this sound that made Uncle Black and Wan Qing and Wan Chen’s faces turn pale.

“Damn it! Why is she here again!”

Wan Qing couldn’t help but curse.

Almost the moment his words rang out, the one-eyed eagle moved.

The feathers all over its body were like steel knives propped up, and the next moment, its two wings spread out to be as big as two meters, simply worthy of the name of a raptor.

As soon as the one-eyed eagle stirred its wings, the next moment it directly grabbed towards Uncle Black, its two pitch-black claws were as sharp as steel knives in the dark night.

“Young master, be careful!”

Uncle Black was busy reminding him, and raised his hand to clang.

However, the next moment the one-eyed eagle was as intelligent as it was, and actually flew directly past Uncle Black, reaching Wan Qing in an instant.

“Brother Qing!”

Seeing this, Wan Chen was so frightened that he actually fell straight off the tree branch.

When Wan Qing reacted, it was too late, and he hurriedly gathered a layer of yellowish breath and slapped the one-eyed eagle.

However, the one-eyed eagle did not care at all, and its sharp claws instantly shattered the breath, before grabbing Wanqing's back and lifting him up.

"Brother Qing!"

"Young Master!"

Seeing this scene, Wan Chen and Uncle Black were instantly anxious.

But Wan Chen was so scared that he didn't dare to go after him at all, and when Uncle Black saw this, he was busy shouting.

"Everyone stay behind to protect Young Master Wan Chen!"

After saying this, he himself chased after the one-eyed eagle in the direction of its escape ahead.

The one-eyed eagle was so fast that Uncle Black gave chase, and the two men and the beast soon disappeared from sight.

"Uncle Black! You hurry up!"

Wan Chen was terrified, although there were many men around for protection, but he was just timid what could he do.

"Scared to death! I swear, if I make it back alive, I'll never come back to this Beast King Forest in my life! God bless! Bless!"

Wan Chen was so frightened that he crouched in place and muttered to himself.

But just then, someone actually responded to him.

"Are you telling the truth? Not even coming later?"

"Huh?"

Wan Chen was stunned, and was busy looking up, while the men at the side also looked towards the front at this moment.

After this look, they all froze.

They saw that in front of them, in the direction where Uncle Black had just rushed out, a figure had appeared at some point.

That figure looked like a little girl, and a small green snake was wrapped around her arm.

The little snake had electric flashes all over its body, which looked very cool.

The little girl was looking at him with an angry expression on her face, and it was obviously her who had just spoken.

1619

"Who are you?"

Wan Chen's timid character could not help but be a little scared at this time when he saw this little girl.

On the contrary, the men on the side laughed when they saw this.

“Where is this little girl from? Whose child is this? Staying awake in the middle of the night to come here to scare me!”

He said he was about to go forward and grab the little girl.

However, the little girl was not afraid, only to see her palm waving, at once the little green lightning snake on her arm had a flash of electricity all over its body, and the next moment it had actually disappeared in the same place.

When it appeared, it had actually reached the man in front of him, followed by directly wrapped around his neck, the body of the lightning flash again, the next moment along with the small snake, the two people actually all disappeared.

“You Where did you get him!”

Wan Chen saw this and immediately panicked, while directly hiding in the hands of the remaining few men.

“Weng!”

Suddenly there was a tremor, and the next moment the little green snake with lightning appeared on the little girl’s arm again, but the henchman that it had taken away was gone.

“You answer me first! Is what you just said true!”

The little girl looked seriously at Wan Chen and questioned.

“What is not true?”

Wan Chen was stunned at this point and asked.

“You just said that if you get out alive, you won’t come to this Beast King Forest in the future!”

The little girl questioned.

“True Really, really can’t be true, unless I’m crazy, this damn place I don’t even want to come in the future!”

Wan Chen said on the verge of tears, he was really scared.

Had I known that I should not have been curious to follow Wan Qing over in the first place, this is good, Wan Qing got away by the one-eyed eagle, this own men also do not know where they got, if not in front of a little girl shouting mother too humiliating.

He couldn’t help but want to shout for his mother at this point.

“You make a blood oath, and I can let you go!”

The little girl said.

“Yes! Okay I’ll make it I’ll make it!”

Wan Chen was so frightened that he was busy making the oath, however, one of the men next to him spoke up.

“Not even if it’s less! If you make an oath you’ll really complete the family test in the future!”

Wan Chen was stunned at his words, yes! In the future, if you want to become a family head, then you also need to complete the family test.

And the content of the test was precisely to come to this Beast King Forest to catch a magical beast.

“I’m not going to be the head of the family! Damn it! I’m going to lose my life! I’ll go home tomorrow and farm!”

Wan Chen said and instantly made a vow despite his men’s advice.

“Young master! You don’t

The man still wanted to dissuade, but the little girl’s face sank, and the little green snake on her arm instantly flashed out a lightning flash, followed by disappearing in place again.

In the next moment, what happened was the same as the previous splash, the henchman who opened his mouth was also taken to who knows where by the little green snake, and when he reappeared only the little green snake was left.

“Little

Wan Chen was so scared that he didn’t want to stay a moment longer.

“Yes!”

The little girl nodded her head.

“Thank you! Thank you!”

Wan Chen said and pulled up one of his men to the side and was about to run.

However, before he could take a step, the next moment he noticed that several bolts of lightning struck him, followed by the remaining men beside him, all of whom had actually disappeared! ”

“You!”

Wan Chen looked at the little girl with a face full of horror.

“I said I’d let you go, but I didn’t say I’d let them go! How many magical beasts have they caught in the Beast King Forest these past few years, they can’t leave!”

With that, the little girl turned around and walked away, while a childish voice rang out again.

“Walk ten days towards the front and you can leave here, before I find you catching magical beasts here, I’ll throw you into the snake nest too!”

“I dare not!”

Wan Chen was scared shitless, and at that moment, he didn't care about Wan Qing and Uncle Black and turned around and ran.

The little girl seemed to have great magical power, and Wan Chen walked all the way through the forest for ten days without encountering a single magical beast, and finally left the Beast King's Forest smoothly.

Of course, this is all an afterthought, but at this moment, Wan Qing and Uncle Black and his men are in the Beast King Forest.

At this moment, they were in the middle of a valley in the Beast King Forest.

"Young master! Don't be afraid!"

Uncle Black finally caught up with Wan Qing here, but at the same time, he also noticed that all around them were walls that were more than a person high.

There were very many holes in the walls, the largest of which was the size of an arm.

And at this moment, in these holes, there were a pair of cold eyes looking at them.

"Young master!"

A miserable cry followed all of the men who had been taken away by the little green snake earlier also appeared here.

"How do you Where is Wan Chen!"

Seeing these people, Uncle Black was busy bellowing.

"He escaped! We are afraid that we have to"

Before that man could finish his words, he saw the small woman appear out of thin air on the distant hillside and was looking at them here.

"Uncle Black that's her! She's the one who did this! That snake on her arm got us over here!"

Uncle Black smiled and turned his head to look with Wan Qing, who was only astonished, wondering why a child woman had appeared in this dangerous Beast King Forest.

But Uncle Black was looking with a pale face.

"What little snake, that's a fucking triangular electric snake! It's over! We're all fucked!"

"Uncle Black what's a triangular electric snake!"

Wan Qing, who was at the side, asked.

At this moment, Uncle Black was ashen faced and said.

"That kind of snake would make even the present day Immortal Emperors blink at the sight of it, that little girl actually has one, I say why have we been so unlucky in the past two days, we have long since fallen into someone's trap!"

Uncle Black said in despair.

And as his words fell, the pair of cold eyes began to poke out of the holes in the surrounding stone walls, and only a moment later did it become clear to the crowd.

The eyes were no other than a giant boa constrictor that was as thick as a bucket of water.

.....

“Humph! A bunch of bad guys, coming to catch magical beasts every day, this is what will happen to you!”

The little girl stood on the hillside, holding up her little pink fist in anger.

The triangular electric snake on her arm also seemed to be angry, and from time to time, there were flashes of electricity that cracked the space around it open.

“Weng!”

Suddenly, a tremor shook the space next to the little girl, and the next moment a foreign beast like a puppy appeared out of thin air.

This beast was white and looked like a puppy, except that on its head there were two small bumps, as if it had no horns.

On its forehead, there was the word “Li”.

“Lizzy! What are you doing here?”

When she saw the beast, the little girl was so excited that she hugged it tightly into her arms, kissing and rubbing it.

“Let go of me!”

Li struggled, looking equally milky and very cute.

“Little Nine! You let go of me!”

After struggling for half a day, Li couldn’t even struggle out, but Xiao Jiu seemed to have thought of something and was busy letting go of Li and asked with a beak.

“Did Uncle Yan send you here?”

“What else? You snuck out again, he’s all angry and said you’ll have to go and plow up your brother’s grave if you don’t go back!”

Li said in a milky voice.

Little Nine sniffed and clenched his little fist at Lizzy.

“How dare he! If he dares to touch my brother’s grave, I’ll leave this Beast King Forest!”

“Little girl, you’ve got a temper! Don’t come back yet!”

Suddenly a middle-aged man's voice full of doting sounded in Xiao Jiu's ears, and the next moment before the little green snake could react, there was a sudden fluctuation in space that directly grabbed Xiao Jiu and the little green snake as well as Li all inside.

Although the three-horned electric snake was powerful, in front of this absolute strength, it could not even escape.

Chapter 1619

"Who are you?"

Wan Chen's timid character could not help but be a little scared at this time when he saw this little girl.

On the contrary, the men on the side laughed when they saw this.

"Where is this little girl from? Whose child is this? Staying awake in the middle of the night to come here to scare me!"

He said he was about to go forward and grab the little girl.

However, the little girl was not afraid, only to see her palm waving, at once the little green lightning snake on her arm had a flash of electricity all over its body, and the next moment it had actually disappeared in the same place.

When it appeared, it had actually reached the man in front of him, followed by directly wrapped around his neck, the body of the lightning flash again, the next moment along with the small snake, the two people actually all disappeared.

"You Where did you get him!"

Wan Chen saw this and immediately panicked, while directly hiding in the hands of the remaining few men.

"Weng!"

Suddenly there was a tremor, and the next moment the little green snake with lightning appeared on the little girl's arm again, but the henchman that it had taken away was gone.

"You answer me first! Is what you just said true!"

The little girl looked seriously at Wan Chen and questioned.

"What is not true?"

Wan Chen was stunned at this point and asked.

"You just said that if you get out alive, you won't come to this Beast King Forest in the future!"

The little girl questioned.

"True Really, really can't be true, unless I'm crazy, this damn place I don't even want to come in the future!"

Wan Chen said on the verge of tears, he was really scared.

Had I known that I should not have been curious to follow Wan Qing over in the first place, this is good, Wan Qing got away by the one-eyed eagle, this own men also do not know where they got, if not in front of a little girl shouting mother too humiliating.

He couldn't help but want to shout for his mother at this point.

"You make a blood oath, and I can let you go!"

The little girl said.

"Yes! Okay I'll make it I'll make it!"

Wan Chen was so frightened that he was busy making the oath, however, one of the men next to him spoke up.

"Not even if it's less! If you make an oath you'll really complete the family test in the future!"

Wan Chen was stunned at his words, yes! In the future, if you want to become a family head, then you also need to complete the family test.

And the content of the test was precisely to come to this Beast King Forest to catch a magical beast.

"I'm not going to be the head of the family! Damn it! I'm going to lose my life! I'll go home tomorrow and farm!"

Wan Chen said and instantly made a vow despite his men's advice.

"Young master! You don't"

The man still wanted to dissuade, but the little girl's face sank, and the little green snake on her arm instantly flashed out a lightning flash, followed by disappearing in place again.

In the next moment, what happened was the same as the previous splash, the henchman who opened his mouth was also taken to who knows where by the little green snake, and when he reappeared only the little green snake was left.

"Little Auntie! Can I go now?"

Wan Chen was so scared that he didn't want to stay a moment longer.

"Yes!"

The little girl nodded her head.

"Thank you! Thank you!"

Wan Chen said and pulled up one of his men to the side and was about to run.

However, before he could take a step, the next moment he noticed that several bolts of lightning struck him, followed by the remaining men beside him, all of whom had actually disappeared! "

1611

“Weng!”

A trembling sound instantly rang out, as if to give it something to do in response, at the same time as the trembling sound rang out.

Only to see a white dot rapidly appear in the vast void.

This white dot appeared very suddenly, at first only the size of a grain of rice.

But then, as if a cannonball had exploded, it rapidly expanded, and in just under a minute, a huge ball of white light shone out from the vast expanse of empty space.

The white light swept out in all directions, instantly illuminating the vast emptiness where it was located directly.

At this moment, countless stars dimmed, as if they were paying homage to it.

“Bang!”

A loud sound followed before it arrived belatedly.

The sound rang out, only to see countless places in the vast void being swept away by a terrifying force, the heat radiating out ripples that even made everything around them look somewhat ethereal and illusory.

Countless rubble and debris were instantly melted into pieces by the scorching heat.

Only something with a white mist was being blasted out as if it were a cannonball.

No one knew what it was, but could only see that the white mist was trailing a long tail, as if it was water vapour left behind after the ice had been vaporised directly by the heat.

It could also have been left behind after going too fast and rubbing against the resistance in the void.

At this point, speculation was actually unimportant because at this moment, several cracks had already appeared on the main body of which white mist, and it was obvious that the thing could no longer bear the double attack of the huge explosion and the high temperature, and would crack at any moment.

“Ka-chow!”

Finally, the thing still couldn't resist, and it burst open with a crunching sound.

But almost at the same time, a golden light quickly flew out from inside, directly enveloping the thing inside again.

“You fucking hold on!”

Pillow shouted angrily at this point.

That golden light was really him striking.

“I'd like to! But when is this explosion going to end!”

Lin Ran was covered in blood and rags, his entire body curled up in the golden light, holding the Chaos Stone in his hand firmly over his chest for fear of losing it.

“How should I know! Hold on! It will always pass!”

The pillow spoke.

However, this time, before Lin Ran could reply, there was a “click” and the layer of golden light that enveloped the two bodies shattered instantly.

Terrifying power instantly swept towards Lin Ran.

“Roll!”

Lin Ran knew that the pillow's tactic had been broken, and now he could only rely on himself until the end.

“Scuff!”

The Condensing Frost Sword swung out, and instantly the seven-coloured sword shadows that roamed the sky wove into a large net.

“Eh?”

Lin Ran's face suddenly looked startled as the Condensing Frost Sword in his hand suddenly charged out on its own.

It followed behind that huge web of seven-coloured swords and met it towards the front as well.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

The seven-coloured sword net was charged by the force from behind and instantly came to a halt! The Condensing Frost Sword stabbed at the seven-coloured sword net only with one stroke.

“Weng!”

Lin Ran instantly heard a buzzing sound, while he saw that the ripples formed by the huge explosion of power behind him were actually toppled out in an arc.

The terrifying power that had originally appeared to radiate? At this moment there was actually a gaping hole where he was.

And this gap was the one that his own weapon, the Condensing Frost Sword, had toppled out of.

“Kid! I’m afraid that this sword of yours has already gained a hint of spiritual intelligence!”

Seeing this scene, Pillow Book couldn’t help but cover his chest and said.

“Yes!”

Lin Ran was also very emotional in his heart as he looked at the Frost Condensation Sword in the distance.

However, it was far from over.

The Frost Condensation Sword that was topped with a seven-coloured sword net gradually began to tremble throughout its entire body.

At the same time, Lin Ran frowned and saw that the originally invulnerable Frost Condensing Sword was actually bowed by the tremendous force at this moment.

The angle grew larger and larger as it grew older, eventually even toppling the entire blade of the Condensing Frost Sword into a ninety degree bow.

“No!”

Lin Ran’s heart was filled with shock as he watched, if this continued the Condensing Frost Sword would break.

However, perhaps it was in response to the Pillow Book’s pressed words that the Frost Condensing Sword did not retreat.

It just held straight ahead, and at one point there was an audible “click”, and sure enough! The frost sword had broken.

“Bang!”

In an instant, the seven-coloured sword net broke. A terrifying force swept through the hilt of the remaining Frost Condensation Sword and came straight at Lin Lin.

“Kid, do something!”

Seeing the explosive power sweeping in from behind again, Pillowbook was completely anxious.

However, at this moment, Lin Ran looked incredibly calm as he firmly clutched the Chaos Stone in his arms and lifted his hand to bring the hilt of the Frost Condensation Sword flying backwards with the help of it.

Looking at the hilt of the sword, he smiled bitterly and said.

“Good brother, it was hard work I know you did your best!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, Lin Ran was instantly swept in by a terrifying force, his entire body was like a stone in a violent storm, drifting with the waves without direction.

All the way over, Lin Ran had actually known that when the Chaos World Worm exploded itself, no one could resist.

Even the pillow could not.

What was the Chaos World Worm, that was something that was bred from Chaos Qi and Chaos Origin.

Its self-explosion could be seen as a clearing of this world’s self.

How could anyone possibly resist the master’s self-explosion of it, even if Lin Ran was good enough to do so?

“Master, it seems that you really are going to be right!”

The last thing Lin Ran thought of before he lost consciousness was surprisingly the Chaos Immortal.

If he were to know that he still went and chose to seek death after acquiring his Chaos Devouring Technique, I was afraid that he would really crawl out of his grave.

Darkness, Lin Ran was still eventually engulfed by the endless darkness.

Before he passed out, he vaguely sensed that someone had taken the Chaos Stone and the remains of the Chaos Immortal tied behind him.

Only at this point, he no longer had the energy to consider this.

He did not know how long had passed, and in this vast emptiness, there was no concept of time, much less space.

If you were here and couldn’t find a reference point, you wouldn’t even know whether you were standing in the void or upside down in the void.

Because no matter what, you will always be surrounded by a sea of stars and your body will never have the feeling of gravity.

Luckily, the vast void at this time was not without a reference point, there was a white storm passage like a silver dragon, not far away.

Not far from this storm passage, there was even a huge white skeleton floating in the vast emptiness.

That’s right, the white remains were left behind by the Chaos World Worm.

The white remains floated in the vast void, as if a giant dragon had fallen,? Only a dragon-shaped white skeleton was left behind.

If Lin Ran were here at this moment, he was afraid that he would be too stunned to speak.

“I’m afraid this kid is the only person in the world, including the entire Immortal World, who has seen the remains of the Chaos World Worm!”

In a ball of golden light, the pillow laughed and laughed to himself as Lin Ran's body was wrapped in it.

"Hey! Was it really worth it?"

Looking at Lin Ran, who was covered in blood, Pillow Book sighed helplessly and rushed towards a boulder in the distance.

Chapter 1620

After Xiao Jiu and the others left, the whole hillside below was even more lively.

Several grey pythons as thick as a bucket of water crawled out from the rock wall.

It was as if they hadn't eaten for a long time, and when they saw Wan Qing and the others in the valley, each one of them had red eyes.

"What do you want! We are from the Wan family!"

Uncle Black was busy shouting when he saw this.

These magical beasts could open so big, obviously they were all magical beasts that had become elite for a hundred years, how could they not understand human words.

"Humans!"

Sure enough, a tremor rang out and one of the leading pythons actually spoke.

"Can speak human? That's good! Let us out or the Wan Family will definitely not let you go!"

Wan Qing saw this and threatened, in his opinion, his own Wan Family that was enough to intimidate the four directions.

Otherwise, a frontier away, how could the Wan Family treat this Beast King Forest as their own backyard and subsequently come hunting.

"What bullshit Wan Family! None of you will leave today!"

The leading python said angrily.

"You're looking for death! I'm the young lord of the Wan Family!"

Wan Qing said angrily.

"You are the one I want to kill!"

However, these words were useless, the leading python even disliked him directly.

"How many magical beasts have your Wan Family killed us over the years, my child died at the hands of your father! Today I will take revenge for it!"

The leading python roared angrily, and immediately the entire body of the snake directly bowed up, and the next moment it shot directly towards Wan Qing.

Almost at the same time, the other pythons around them also moved, one by one, they pounced towards the group.

“Young Master, be careful!”

Seeing this, Uncle Hei busily blocked in front of Wan Qing with an arrow step, and at the same time, with a cold flash in his hand, a fine steel longsword was pulled out.

“Get lost!”

The python leader was incomparably angry at this, and with a fling of his snake head, he actually smashed the long sword in Uncle Black’s hand into two pieces, and then the entire snake head smashed into his chest.

“Uncle Black!”

Seeing Uncle Black flying backwards straight away, his life and death unknown! Wan Qing instantly panicked.

He was busy turning his head to look at the positions of his men, and then froze.

He saw that all of his men were entangled in the giant python.

Even Uncle Black, who had passed out, was entangled by one of the giant pythons.

“Goo dong!”

Wan Qing couldn’t help but gag at the sight.

Uncle Black was a Dao Foundation realm powerhouse? But even he couldn’t block a blow from the leader of this giant python, so how could a small Xuanhuang realm like himself be a match for him.

“You dare to kill me, I am a member of the Wan family!”

Wan Qing said angrily, this was the first time he had encountered that the Wan family was not useful outside.

In the past, as long as he reported the Wan family, the other party would not be scared shitless, but this time

“Stupid!”

The giant python leader seemed to hate this Wan family very much, seeing that Wan Qing still brought up the Wan family to scare himself up to this point, immediately the huge snake tail flung, even Wan Qing didn’t even have time to react, the whole person was directly hit and sent flying out.

“Poof!”

Wan Qing spurted out a mouthful of blood directly, looking at the giant python that was already approaching towards him in front of him, there was reluctance in his eyes.

“You forced me to do this! Forced me!”

Wan Qing said and with a flip of his palm, he actually took out a scroll.

The scroll had golden threads all over, and it gave off a burst of light before it was even opened.

“Roar!”

Seeing this scroll, the python seemed to become even more furious, and it opened its bloody mouth and was ready to swallow Wan Qing in an instant.

But at that moment, Wan Qing’s face turned cold as he angrily said.

“Towards the Light of the Beast!”

The next moment, several golden lights shot up into the sky, instantly knocking the huge snake python leader backwards.

The snake python leader knew how terrifying the golden light was, so he swung his tail to block it, but the golden light was too strong.

Almost instantly, it broke the tail of the snake python leader and even made a gaping hole in its abdomen.

“Roar!”

The snake python leader was furious, and regardless of the severe pain on its body, the snake tail still slapped towards Wan Qing.

But I don’t know if Wan Qing was really lucky, or if the gods had opened their eyes, but he just happened to be covered by a gaping hole in the snake python’s abdomen by mistake, and its club-like body didn’t hit him.

Knowing that he would only be lucky once, Wan Qing leapt into the broken abdomen of the snake.

The snake python’s abdomen was in pain, and the golden light from the scroll in Wanqing’s hand was still there.

Under the pain and fear, the snake python flipped over and rushed out of the canyon, then rushed deeper into the Beast King Forest.

He didn’t know how many giant trees he had knocked down along the way, but Wan Qing never came out.

He knew very well that if he jumped out, he would only be swallowed by the snake python.

He held on to the snake’s body even when it was bumpy, not wanting to be thrown out.

However, it didn’t last long.

The snake python ran wildly all the way and soon approached the heart of the beast king’s forest.

Suddenly, as the snake python charged forward, a layer of ripples appeared out of thin air around it.

The ripples were so powerful that when the first half of the snake python passed through, there was not the slightest problem.

However, when the part hiding Wan Qing passed through, the ripples instantly struck the snake python’s body like a steel blade.

“Bang!”

With a loud bang, the already broken abdomen of the snake python directly exploded, leaving only the front half of its body to struggle and rush towards the depths of the Beast King Forest ahead.

Wan Qing, on the other hand, was directly shaken out by the explosion, his body flew backwards towards the distant mountainside.

The blast knocked Wan Qing out of consciousness immediately, and it was only when rain suddenly drifted up from the sky that he was awakened.

“Where is this place?”

Wan Qing wiped a handful of rain from his face, only to see that the surroundings were now a few shades darker.

It was also raining, and at that moment he was deep in this deep forest, which really gave him a few more scary feelings.

“Where the hell is this!”

Wan Qing looked a little scared, the Xuanhuang realm sounded very impressive, but it was actually only slightly more powerful than initiation.

This point of strength if it wasn't for the secret scroll just now, even if there were ten of him, he wouldn't have been a match for the Snake Python leader.

And this scroll was also his old man's only piece of your protective secret spell, this use he no longer had any protective items on him.

“Rumble!”

Suddenly, a lightning bolt struck down above the sky, instantly illuminating the place where Wan Qing was.

Only then did Wan Qing see that he was actually on a small hill.

But the next moment he froze.

There were three stone monuments not far from him, and three bumps behind them, and they were three lonely graves.

“Goo dong!”

Seeing this scene again, even though Wan Qing was from a powerful family, he could not suppress the fear in his head.

At this moment, he was even afraid that a person might crawl out of that lonely grave and drag himself in.

“Rumble!”

Suddenly, there was another loud burst of thunder, and instantly the whole hillside was once again illuminated.

Wan Qing couldn't help but look at the three lonely graves in front of him, afraid that something would really crawl out.

But the more he feared, the more he saw. Suddenly, Wan Qing was shocked to see.

Suddenly, Wan Qing was shocked to see a hand poking out of the middle tomb, covered in mud and water, and he opened his palm as if he wanted to grab everything he could into the tomb.
