

Dont mess 1751

Chapter: 1751

“You’re panting with a compliment.”

After Yu Sheng saw that Jia Ming had recovered to his previous state, and after confirming that there were no problems, Yu Sheng let him go to rest, and he himself went back to the room in the same way. His fiancée is still waiting for him, if it weren’t for worrying about Jia Ming, he would have gone to sleep with his fiancée at this late hour.

Wife and children are hot on the bed, and for the rest of their lives, they are now only far away in the small water in the city center.

Xiao Shui reads every day and goes to school to live a normal life as a child, so he did not follow to Zongmen. After all, Zongmen is too remote from the city and it is not convenient for children to go to school.

When Yu Sheng got busy, he didn’t have any time to see his son, so he hadn’t seen Xiao Shui for a long time.

In addition to the country and martial arts, part of all the hard work and hard work that Yu Sheng has done now is also for Xiaoshui.

He wants to be the proudest father in Xiao Shui’s heart, not inferior to others, so that his precious son does not have to envy others and live happily and recklessly.

Hearing a slight push of the door, Bai Yulan turned and looked at the door of the room. She frowned and said, “Yes, for the rest of my life?”

“It’s me.” Stepping into the room, the rest of my life saw a woman in a white nightdress.

The woman exudes a clean and pure breath, standing under the warm yellow light, looking like a little angel.

For the rest of his life, she came forward and embraced the woman: “I don’t think I have one?”

“Don’t be so numb!” Magnolia tried to push Yu Sheng away, but she couldn’t push it away no matter what, her little blush was just like the cherry, charming and moving.

He bowed his head and kissed the side of Magnolia’s face. Yu Sheng then let go of her, picked up the clothes on the side and went to the bathroom to wash.

Magnolia was left alone on the bed, holding her cheek in absentia, her eyes were full of shyness.

When Yu Sheng came out after washing herself, Magnolia had already been lying on the bed pretending to be asleep.

Listening to the chaotic heartbeat of another person and the sound of breathing that did not match the person’s breathing, Yu Sheng curled his lips and lay down on the empty side of Magnolia’s side.

There were no fragrant stories that happened this night, and some were just a good night’s sleep.

The next day, early morning.

For the rest of his life, Zhu Xiaoshu took Magnolia and walked around Zongmen, while he drove away to the city.

He decided to go to Du Fei. Even if Zongmen encountered this kind of thing, Shangjing Bai’s family also encountered a similar thing, but it was the same time point, that would be too weird.

I always feel that the other party is here specifically for me. In their eyes, Bai Yulan, the eldest lady of the Jingbai family, is her betrothed fiancée, so Bai family and herself are one.

Therefore, both sides started at the same time.

Du Fei always settled in Bauhinia Mansion in the city center, which is also one of his working places.

Driving there to find him is sure to find someone.

You asked Yu Sheng why he didn't call to find it? That guy always said that the rest of his life had nothing to do without going to the Palace of the Three Treasures, and he secretly passed his message to Magnolia the day before yesterday, and he is now hiding for the rest of his life.

If you know that for the rest of your life, you will definitely have to run away again.

Parked the car in the underground field, walked straight on Yusheng Road without turning, then opened the elevator door and entered the elevator, and went straight to the 25th floor.

The elevator door opened again, and the target was two men in black suits and sunglasses.

The two men lowered their heads when they saw Yu Sheng, and said respectfully: "Mr. Yu."

They are all Du Fei's people, who specialize in guarding this area of public order. As Du Fei's people, of course, they know Yu Sheng and also know the relationship between each other and their boss, and their attitude is naturally respectful.

"Yeah." Yu Sheng replied softly and asked, "Is Du Fei here now?"

"The boss is having a meeting inside, why don't Mr. Yu wait in the rest area?" The two men buzzed and replied in unison.

"Can."

For the rest of my life, they passed the two of them and went straight to the inside. All they saw along the way were desks and computers, fresh green plants, this place in front of me and the rumored largest underground force in Qiancheng, I always feel where Doesn't match.

Chapter: 1752

Du Fei, who had been sitting in the lounge until almost afternoon, waited for the rest of his life and had been in meetings.

With one hand propped on his chin, for the rest of his life, watching Du Fei coming by the door, thinking that Du Fei was so busy every day, did he appear to be very lazy?

As soon as Du Fei came in, he saw the rest of his leisurely life there. He rolled his eyes and sat aside and said, "What is the wind today? It brought you, the master? It's just a phone call to ask me for anything. , It's really rare to come here in person!"

"Monster Wind." Yu Sheng listened to the yin and yang words, and said ironically: "This is what I said, you are not the junior I raised, complaining that your husband hasn't come to see you for so long?"

"Yu Sheng, when I first met you, you didn't have such a mouth..." Du Fei was so irritated by the other party's words, he pulled the pillow behind his waist and smashed it at the other party.

Yu Sheng quickly shot, grabbing the pillow that the opponent smashed, and he said: "Did I, I still want to..."

The words were still not finished, Yu Sheng's mouth was stuffed into a loquat, he glared at Du Fei, took the loquat out of his mouth, and looked at it.

"It's not the season to eat loquat! You have them all here. You deserve to be the king of the underground forces in Qiancheng. We are incomparable."

For the rest of his life, he peeled the skin of the loquat, took a bite, and it was very moisturizing, with a slightly sour, slightly sweet and astringent taste, he did not forget to tease Du Fei while eating.

Du Fei couldn't laugh or cry for a while. He had known that he would not tease him like that on the phone. See now that he was crushed to death as soon as he came to the door.

Don't think about it, thinking of it is regretting.

This is just the way the two of them are used to getting along. If someone sees them for the first time, they might really think they are angry.

Du Fei had been in a meeting for a long time. His whole body was sore and tired. After the meeting, he asked: "Seriously, why did you come here today? You shouldn't do it. What about the sect?"

"I came to you for Zongmen's business." Yu Sheng lay down on the sofa behind him, like bones, frowning with distress on his face.

Yu Sheng said, "Is that kid Jia Ming telling you what happened in the recent past? Don't you know that the Zongmen has been thrilling during this period of time..."

Yu Sheng slowly explained what happened after he returned to the sect, including what happened during the few days when he was not there.

Du Feiyue's face became darker, the face that looked as good as Yu Sheng's knife-cut, like a sky shrouded in dark clouds.

"Jia Ming, that kid really didn't tell me about this, and I heard from his staff that he did the sect affairs quite well, so I don't have any control over it."

As the underground power king of Qiancheng City, he is also the Deputy Sect Master of Xuan Tianzong, but his main scope is still in this underground power.

Du Fei really didn't have time and didn't know where to start, so he was always in charge of Xuantianzong's bright face. How could he have thought that so many things happened.

"I know, you are also very busy here, and you don't take care of things over there." Yu Sheng nodded with a clear glance: "I came here this time to ask you to find out who the person behind this scene is."

"By the way, I have to entrust you with the Beijing White House. The people you know are staring at me. If I act rashly, it will definitely cause chaos, and these things can only be taught to you."

Yu Sheng gradually showed his head. After his reputation spread, many people stared at him behind his back, waiting for Yu Sheng to fall from the sky, and then spit and step on Yu Sheng a few feet.

so! Many things are not suitable for the rest of my life.

It's easy to get rid of the grass and startle the snake. I'm afraid that some people will deliberately add to the trouble.

"Shangjingbai's family? Their family also encountered this kind of thing? Was your Jiaojiao fiancée who came to tell you?"

Du Fei was shocked at first, and then said with a joke: "What do you think I gave Young Master Yu Er? You think I can even investigate things in Beijing? Is my power so broad?"

The two are best friends, and Du Fei also knows the true identity of Yu Sheng. He directly called out Yu Sheng's identity as the second young master of the Yu family in Beijing.

"Okay! I don't know how you are?" Yu Sheng pushed a certain triumphant man, took a loquat from the table and stuffed his mouth: "Eat more and talk less, I don't know how to die when I don't know how to offend people."

Chapter: 1753

"You even care about what I say. Even if you are the domineering president for the rest of your life, then you are just the domineering president of the Four Seas Group, not ours. Why do you care so much?"

The loquat didn't even peel off the skin, Du Fei took a bite and the juice overflowed, and he was very angry and yelled.

"Okay, don't give me poverty anymore with your mouth." Yu Sheng got up from the sofa, approached Du Fei and patted him on the shoulder, and said solemnly: "I will leave these serious matters to you. I can't believe anyone else."

Du Fei pulled someone's hand directly down and said, "When you are looking for me to do errands, your mouth can talk more than mine. You can let me go, I won't eat yours."

It's numb to death, Yu Sheng looks honest and honest, but he is not even glib.

Look at the words he just said to him just like coaxing a woman, if she was a woman, she would definitely be coaxed to be extremely happy.

Fortunately, I am a man, so I don't want to eat him at all.

Seeing this, Yu Sheng grinned helplessly: "I'm serious with you, and you have to pay attention to Wang's side. I suspect they are responsible for these things."

He really cared about suspicion of Wang's sect. After all, what happened on Aunt Huang's side was that Wang's sect deliberately came out and wanted to kill himself.

Who knows if this incident was also planned by them?

Thinking that this strategy can't be a resurrection strategy, can you kill yourself anyway?

For the rest of his life, he was not afraid of death, nor was he afraid of Wang's sect. What he was upset was that the other party was tickle, and it was annoying to make all kinds of troubles for himself at various times.

"Last time, only one of them was broken, which is also a warning to them. You already know that they are dealing with you secretly. It is impossible for someone from the Wang clan to do it anymore."

Du Fei immediately retorted when he heard the words: "And when I dealt with that woman, I personally sent something from that woman to the Wang family's sect. They would not move in a short time."

Last time he asked Yu Sheng how he would deal with that woman. In the end, Yu Sheng gave the woman a flogging and there was no result, and he threw it directly to himself.

He can only be cruel to him because he is so benevolent. That woman was tortured at that time and called every day to repudiate or the ground to repudiate!

"Don't take it lightly, it's possible that he confuses us with that thing last time. This time he did it?" Yu Sheng frowned. Although he said so, he was not 100% sure.

You can guess about the unknown, but you can't be too sure.

Du Fei nodded: "Fine, listen to you, okay? I will pay more attention."

I said everything that was supposed to be said, and did everything that was supposed to be done. She will not bother Du Fei here for the rest of her life. After reminding a few words again, she left Bauhinia Mansion.

After Yu Sheng left, Du Fei immediately called his subordinates to investigate the recent secretly targeting the Zongmen and the Shangjing Bai family.

Time waits for no one. The later you investigate, the more traces will fade, until you can't find any more information.

Leaving from Du Fei's side, Yu Sheng originally wanted to drive to see Xiaoshui, but thinking of all the things in the sect, he could only change his way back to the sect.

For the rest of his life, he drove the car attentively until he reached the gate of the sect, and then slowly stopped.

Stopped the car and opened the door and walked out. Someone immediately came to take over and drove the car to the parking lot for Yu Sheng.

"Master...Master...I found a clue."

Jia Ming's voice came from far away, bluffing, feeling that the whole sect wanted to side his voice.

When he arrived at the gate of the sect, this guy knew he was back, and for the rest of his life there was some doubt that this guy was pretending to be on himself.

For the rest of his life, he stopped walking and stopped in place. He frowned, looked at the person next to him, and asked helplessly: "Clues? Come on, what clues did you find? You'd better I found the clue, otherwise you wait and see."

When the words fell, he bit his back teeth, with a fierce appearance, as if he was about to gnaw on Jia Ming in the next second.

Jia Ming, who was originally cheerful, immediately trembled his legs and feet when he saw such a master.

Chapter: 1754

"me....."

Jia Ming stammered. The serious master was really terrifying, especially when he first saw Yu Sheng, Yu Sheng left him with a particularly terrifying impression.

After so long, he couldn't repair his heart that was once injured by this, and the whole person took a step back unconsciously.

Seeing him like that, he just wants to stay away from the rest of his life, as far as he can.

The rest of his life is going to be frustrated, and he still doesn't do anything. Jia Ming looks like this.

Seeing his shivering look makes him a murderous bad guy.

"I, I, I, I... I haven't gotten a result for a long time, am I that scary?" Yu Sheng pressed a big mouthful of sulking, and asked himself to be more approachable: "What the hell is going on, check When you have reached a clue, say quickly."

"Didn't we have so many things happening recently? In addition, when Miss Bai came yesterday, she also talked about the White House in Beijing.

As soon as I felt so sad, I called my sister and asked her to help check Shangjingbai's house.

In the end, you said that the master was a coincidence? The person behind the scenes who dealt with the Zongmen who couldn't be found out, was actually related to the matter of the Bai family.

It's so easy to get out of the iron shoes without finding a place to find it! "

As soon as Jia Ming talked about the matter, he said he was very happy, no longer caring about the things he was scared of, and talked about the things that his sister had found out.

After listening to what the other party had said, Yu Sheng stared at Jia Ming tightly, smashed his mouth, hating iron and steel, and said: "You talk about your sister Jia Rou's ability and this method, and then look at you as a fool. Ha, how come I have an apprentice like you!"

Jia Rou's movement ability is really fast! Far away in Yuncheng, it only took one day to find out all these things.

Sometimes, for the rest of my life, I wonder if Jia Rongruan and Jia Ming are real brothers and sisters.

Why is the difference between the two so big?

"Master, you are disgusting me by hearing what you said." Jia Ming learned to Zhu Xiaoshu's slumped mouth and said coquettishly: "I'm so sad! Be careful and hurt."

When the words fell, he ran back, pretending to be tender, and for the rest of his life he would vomit out the breakfast he had eaten in the morning, and he felt a chill.

Yu Sheng took a step back first. He said that he stretched out his hand to block in front of Jia Ming and said, "Okay, you can stop nauseating me. Let's go, what did your sister find out?"

The two of them talked for a long time, but they didn't have any ideas. For the rest of their lives, they still don't know what information Jia Rou has found.

"My sister called me a while ago and sent a piece of information. She said that there was nothing particularly useful to find out for the time being. However, she found the man in black based on the surveillance I sent. .”

“It’s the man in black who hit me. Although, he hacked the surveillance that hit me. However, his surveillance was inevitably included. When my sister was investigating, he found out that the person was there. I wandered around the Bai’s house in Shangjing for several days, and then something went wrong at the Bai’s house.”

Yu Sheng frowned as he listened. As he expected, the things that happened in Shangjing Bai’s house and the sect were all from the same person.

“Have you only found out these? What about the others?” Yu Sheng asked.

Jia Ming replied: “For the time being, only these have been found out. My sister said she will continue to investigate.”

“Okay, please trouble your sister to continue investigating.”

Yu Sheng also had no hope of investigating everything in one go. He instructed Jia Ming to practice seriously even if he was busy, not to be lazy, and then let him go down, and he went back to the Zongmen office to work.

Seeing Du Fei so hard and busy, if he didn’t find something to do, he always felt sorry for him.

At the same time, part of the reason is that I want to calm myself down. There are too many things that have happened recently, and I can’t help but think about it.

Chapter: 1755

Life is extremely long, and it always feels a bit tormenting.

This suffering factor may be due to the fact that the person behind this scene has never been found.

Looking at the file at the desk, Yu Sheng took a pen to write stop and stop, occasionally beating his head thinking.

“I wish I could end this life soon.”

Yu Sheng looked at the densely packed words in front of him, whispering softly, a little absent-mindedly. Just when he was lost, Bai Yulan appeared behind him with a lunch box.

A clean and delicate hand patted him on the shoulder, and after a while, he didn’t come back to his senses.

Magnolia tilted her head in front of him with worry: “What’s the matter with you? Why are you in a daze?”

Seeing the pretty face that was slowly magnifying in front of him, Yusheng only recovered at this time. He didn’t know what he was thinking, because his brain was blank.

Yu Sheng reached out and slapped his forehead in annoyance and replied, “Nothing happened, I was just thinking about something.”

“Why are you here?” Yu Sheng looked at Bai Yulan and saw that there was no big change between her and the morning, and then asked: “Where is that little girl Zhu Xiaoshu? Didn’t I let her take you to play?”

When I left this morning, but gave her to Zhu Xiaoshu, why is Bai Yulan alone here now, and what is it holding in her hand?

Yu Sheng had no words to speak but kept staring at the lunch box in Magnolia’s hand. Magnolia noticed Yu Sheng’s eyes and smiled slightly.

Pushing away the files on the desk, Bai Yulan put the lunch box on the desk, and then opened the lid and said: “I made you a stew of chicken soup. I happened to meet Jia Ming not long ago. He said that you are back. I brought it to you.”

“You said if I’m great, I just walked around here in the morning, and I remembered where you are in the office.” Magnolia looked proud when she said the last sentence, and she seemed to be Want to praise her for the rest of my life.

“Yes, it’s great.” Seeing her so cute, Yu Sheng smiled and rubbed her head.

The long hair that had been obediently behind him was instantly rubbed like a chicken coop by Yu Sheng.

Magnolia stomped and complained: “You rubbed my hair like this, how can I go out to see people.”

One is pretending to be angry and tantrums, and the other is coaxing with good temper. During these messy days, it is rare to have a moment of warmth and peace of mind.

There must be a degree of tantrums. If you lose your temper too much, it will be annoying.

When Magnolia was about to see it, she also withdrew her little temper. She pointed to the chicken soup on the desk: “This is what I have boiled for several hours after you left. You can try it quickly.”

After that, she pushed Yu Sheng, urging him to taste it quickly.

Seeing the look of someone looking forward to it, Yu Sheng decided that even if the chicken soup is not good, he must say it is good.

He closed his eyes as if he was going to die, took the soup spoon and delivered a bite to his mouth, which was rare and delicious.

Yu Sheng opened his eyes instantly and gave a thumbs up to Magnolia. This time he praised from the bottom of his heart: “Not bad! It’s really great.”

“I just said ho ho, you don’t see who I am.”

“Yes, yes, you, Miss Bai from the White House in Beijing, do everything the best.”

While sipping chicken soup, complimenting someone whose little tail is about to reach the sky, staring at the magnolia, love is about to overflow.

“That’s not it.” Magnolia nodded her nose, with two words on her face, proud.

She also likes this kind of time. She occasionally cooks for the rest of her life, and then doesn’t say anything, just staying beside him quietly like this, she feels extremely satisfied.

Chapter: 1756

Happy time is always short. After that day, Yu Sheng and Magnolia were busy with each other.

Although Yu Sheng said that Bai Jialan didn’t have to worry about going to Beijing Bai’s house, he would solve it.

However, Bai Yulan is still using her contacts and influence to investigate this matter. She knows that no matter how hard she tries to investigate this matter, the end result is still nothing, but she still wants to investigate.

The person behind this scene hides very deeply, and the entire Bai family can’t find any information about the other party.

It stands to reason that you shouldn’t be able to find out about the Bai family. It’s probably because they deliberately guarded against the Bai family.

The whole person was lying on the case table. Bai Yulan tapped the case table with her fingers. It has been a few days since she came to Qiancheng. I don’t know what is going on in Beijing now?

Just when she was worried about her random thoughts, the mobile phone placed at the desk suddenly rang, and there was a pleasant ringing of the phone.

Magnolia stretched out her hand and touched the phone. After opening the answer, she placed it gently next to her ear: "Hey!"

There was no answer on the phone for a long time, quietly, if it wasn't for the ringing of the phone just now, Magnolia would have thought that she had answered a lonely one.

"Hello~ Excuse me, what's the matter with you?" Bai Yulan continued with a stiff face.

There was still no reaction, Bai Yulan said sternly: "If there is anything wrong, I will hang up first, bye."

When the words were over, Magnolia's finger touched the phone to hang up, and the people on the phone finally reacted this time.

It was a crisp female voice that was very nice, like a wind chime blowing by the wind, and the ending sound seemed to be a little bit similar to my own voice.

People and people all look alike, let alone have similar voices? Magnolia didn't care too much, she asked: "If you have anything, please tell me as soon as possible, or I'll hang up immediately."

"Miss Bai, don't hang up yet. I heard that you have been investigating what happened to the Bai family recently. If you hang up, you might miss an opportunity to learn the truth!"

The girl on the opposite side chuckled lightly, and then said to Magnolia as if jokingly and threateningly. After hearing what the other party said over the phone, Bai Yulan's face immediately became serious, and she learned the truth?

Who is the opposite person? Why would you call yourself again? She said she wanted to tell herself the truth, so what would she get from herself?

Magnolia never believes that there is a free lunch in this world. What the other party tells you must ask for something from you.

It is possible that the things she and you said were not worth the price you paid, and Magnolia immediately became vigilant thinking about this.

"Why did Miss Bai stop talking? Doesn't Miss Bai want to know the truth?"

There was no response from the other side, and she asked slowly, her voice was not hurried or slow, which made Magnolia feel the feeling of pressing every step of the way.

Magnolia replied calmly. : "Who said I don't want to know the truth? I just want you to tell me what you want?"

Born in Shangjing Bai's family, it is reasonable to say that she should have a lot of scheming. She was born as a little fox. However, Magnolia has been favored by her parents since she was a child, and her parents have never let her get into too much darkness.

Bai Magnolia didn't like to be circumspect, and asked the person on the opposite side straightforwardly. Her performance was extremely simple. Compared with the person on the other side, it seemed that the little white rabbit had encountered the big bad wolf who was about to swallow it.

"Miss Bai is really interesting. I'm just a kind person who knows a little bit of the truth. I never thought about asking for something from Miss Bai. If you are really afraid of me asking you for something? Then hang up. NS."

The other party knew that she had aroused the curiosity of Magnolia, and Magnolia would definitely get the bait, so she just acted as if it were easy to leave.

"Who said I was scared?" Magnolia tried her best to make her voice calm and calm. She said, "You want to tell me the truth, so I will listen to her."

"As expected, she is a young lady born in a family, who is different from us little people. If you want to know the truth, then come to Chengyue Teahouse in the center of Qiancheng City. I will be waiting for you there. Remember not to take others. Come, or else..."

The woman smiled and hung up the phone. Who was the single Magnolia woman holding her mobile phone and thinking?

After thinking about it for a long time, she still couldn't think of it. Bai Yulan got up from the desk and walked out. She decided that she didn't want it anymore and went straight to see her.

In any case, you have to see what the other party wants to do. If you can get some truth, it's best, but if you can't get it, you can at least dig the truth from the other party.

Chapter: 1757

Chengyue Teahouse in the center of Qiancheng City.

Bai Yulan is not very familiar with the route of Qiancheng, relying on navigation. After looking for a long time, she still relied on people to guide her to find Chengyue Teahouse.

This teahouse was opened in a small alley, and it was hidden very deep. If it weren't for something I had to come, I couldn't find the way, and Bai Magnolia would not go.

She wants to open a teahouse in such a deep alley, is there really anyone?

Parked the car on the side of the road, Magnolia opened the door and walked down to the small alley.

The two rows of alleys are inhabited by people, and there is a sense of life around them. Clothes are hanging on the side, and children are playing with you and me.

When she reached the depths of the small alley, Bai Yulan saw a wooden plaque, and the words engraved on it were exactly what those passers-by said Chengyue Teahouse.

It was also the place that the woman said. She lived in the city center, but opened the teahouse like this... I don't know how to describe it. Magnolia would not be timid to come here, she was just a little confused.

Raising one's feet into the teahouse, I thought I would see a scene of loneliness and no one, but the result was superfluous.

The teahouse was full of people, and there was a stage not far away. Someone on it was singing Farewell My Concubine, and the people drinking tea below shouted and applauded.

This place is a bit interesting, Magnolia thought in her heart.

As soon as Magnolia walked in, there was a waitress in a cheongsam walking towards her.

The waitress smiled at Magnolia. She said, "Is it Miss Bai? That lady has been waiting for you for a long time."

"Do you know me?" Bai Yulan pointed to herself and asked the waitress suspiciously.

The waitress chuckled back: "I don't know you. The lady told me that the most beautiful girl that appeared was Miss Bai."

Qiao's face blushed slightly. Who on earth is this woman who hasn't seen it yet, so she complimented herself first. What else does she want to do?

"Miss Bai, please come with me." The waitress waved her hand and respectfully welcomed Magnolia upstairs.

Walking upstairs, under the guidance of the waitress, came to a box.

He opened the door and walked into the box. There was no one in the box, but the smell of tea was smelt. Magnolia lightly frowned and came to a chair to sit down.

The waitress said clearly that the other party has been waiting for herself for a long time, why can't she see anyone when she opens the door?

What does she want to do, is she trying to observe herself secretly?

Magnolia picked up the tea pouring in front of her, touched the cup, and it was still hot. It seemed that this person was there just now. She gave it to her mouth and took a sip. The fragrance of tea was overflowing in an instant.

"You invited me to meet but didn't show up? Isn't it a bad hospitality?" After drinking the tea, Magnolia put down the cup and said softly.

Then Bai Yulan heard a round of applause. This sound originated from the screen behind her. She looked back and saw a slender figure slowly emerging from behind the screen.

After a while, the expression in Magnolia's eyes turned into shock, because the woman in front of her looked exactly like herself, and her movements when she was walking were very similar.

"Who are you? How come you look like me..." Bai Magnolia pointed at her, her mouth slightly opened.

The woman who looked exactly like Magnolia came to Magnolia and sat down in front of Magnolia. She smiled and said, "I am you and I am the person you talked to on the phone! Miss Bai."

When she spoke, she pulled Magnolia's memory back to the call not long ago. That's right, it was this crisp and sweet voice.

"The truth? Looking at what you are like now, I'm afraid that I don't want to tell me the truth, but I want to calculate what I have."

Magnolia glanced up and down at the other party. She was about the same height as herself and looked exactly the same. She could almost be fake, and a bad premonition rose in her heart.

The woman covered her mouth and said: "Miss Bai, don't think people so bad, I really want to tell you the truth."

"Although I don't know much, it's quite enough for Miss Bai."

The woman was slow, took a pot of tea and delivered it to her mouth: "This is the best tea in Qiancheng. How does it compare to Miss Bai who went to Beijing?"

"Not bad." White Magnolia replied faintly, looking around with alert in her eyes.

Chapter: 1758

The woman noticed the look in Magnolia's eyes, reached out and patted Magnolia's hand and said, "Miss Bai doesn't need to be so vigilant, don't worry, I won't hurt you."

"What I want to do is just want to be Miss Bai." The woman turned her voice and looked up and down at Magnolia, her eyes full of aggressiveness from the original softness to the current one.

This woman who looks so much like herself, what she wants to do is to be herself? Li Daitao stiff?

"So, when you called me out, you didn't just want to tell me the truth, you really wanted to do this thing, right?"

Despite the thunderous heartbeat, there was no major change in Bai Yulan's face. She gently blew the internal force, which surged in her body.

The hand violently pulled the woman's hand. If the woman in front of her dared to move her, Magnolia would use her internal force to shatter the other's bones.

No telling Yu Sheng they came here alone.

Magnolia had this courage, but it was all because of the martial arts she practiced. Now she can't say that she is a master, but at least she still has the power to protect herself.

"Bingo! Miss Bai guessed right, but there is no reward." The woman slapped a wink at Magnolia, then tilted her head, pretending to be pretty.

Looking at the face exactly like her and making such an expression, Bai Yulan couldn't help feeling a bit chilly, and her hair was terrified at the same time.

Looking at the person in front of me is like looking in a mirror, I always feel...Magnolia's heart is very upset.

Bai Yulan said coldly and calmly: "Do you think I will make you successful?"

"Isn't this you letting it go? It depends on whether you can get out of here today."

Now that you are here, don't think about going back anymore. She has no return to Magnolia, and she will go back on her own if she wants to go back. The woman raised her eyebrows.

"Ahem... From now on I am the Ms. Bai Magnolia from the White House in Shangjing, the woman whom Yu Sheng, Chairman of the Sihai Group loves most, and you should retired Miss Bai."

The woman said softly. At this time, her voice was exactly the same as that of Magnolia. Then, when Magnolia was still not reacting, she felt a pain in her neck and fainted.

"Okay, you can go to bed obediently." The woman reached out and touched Magnolia's face lovingly. She said, "It's so good, it's really exactly the same."

The woman lowered her body close to Magnolia's ear, and said ambiguously: "I will deliver the truth you want to know, but you can only stop here. Now I am Magnolia."

"Okay, take her down and lock her in the basement. She is not allowed to move. She is served with delicious and delicious food. Let's raise her for a lifetime!"

The woman is now the fake white Magnolia. She raised her eyes and saw the man who suddenly appeared behind Magnolia said: "By the way, send the truth about the things that have happened to Beijing Baijia recently to her hands."

Fake Magnolia's eyes were full of smiles, and she curled her lips and said, "I'm a person who always keeps promises, saying that I'm sending her the truth, and that's really sending her the truth."

"Yes." The man who appeared suddenly replied respectfully, and then pulled Magnolia into the dark.

The truth returned to the darkness, the world touched the darkness in the light, and everything fell into the calm darkness again.

The woman also turned around, with the exact same smile as Box White Moon on her face, and opened the box door step by step and walked out.

She also held Magnolia in her hand, the bunch of car keys just now.

"It's time to go home, I must miss me for the rest of my life."

"Chu Xiaoshu, is Magnolia with you?"

I didn't see Magnolia people in the morning, and I was very busy for the rest of my life, so I didn't care too much. Now I am finally free, but why haven't I found Magnolia?

He can only ask if Zhu Xiaoshu is with Magnolia, after all, girls like to be with girls.

Chapter: 1759

"No! I haven't seen Miss Bai either. Where did Miss Bai go?"

Zhu Xiaoshu was very puzzled when she heard her master's question. She approached the master and asked, "Did you make Miss Bai angry?"

"That shouldn't be! How could a gentle and considerate person like Ms. Bai get angry? She will definitely wait for you to make it clear!"

When Zhu Xiaoshu spoke halfway through her speech, she didn't think it should be like this. Could it be that something happened that they didn't know?

Yu Sheng clenched his hands into fists and waved in front of Zhu Xiaoshu. He said: "Don't think that I am your master, I will not clean up you, why do you have such an open mind? Make Yulan angry, I Now I don't even see her. I have been so busy all day, how can I mess with it?"

Looking at the fists waving by my master, I knew that the master wouldn't beat him, but he still couldn't bear the horror.

Zhu Xiaoshu was wronged with a small face, she said: "I know I was wrong, don't I care about you?" But it's not that I changed to someone else, I wouldn't ask him, after all, what happened to them and what happened to me!

They will be different for the rest of their lives. One will be their future mentor, and the other will be a master. Naturally, they have to pay more attention to them.

"Then or I will give you some concern." Yu Sheng rolled his eyes and curled his mouth.

I'm thinking about it now before I come to ask this little guy in front of me, and directly ask how nice the person guarding the gate of the sect is! They knew more than the little guy in front of them.

Yu Sheng strode forward past Zhu Xiaoshu, he walked towards the gate of the sect, Zhu Xiaoshu watched the pace of his master leaving in a hurry, tilted his head and quickly followed.

"Master, where are you going? Wait for me!" Zhu Xiaoshu shouted from behind.

The two arrived at the gate of the sect one after the other. For the rest of their lives, they looked around, and there was no one who guarded the gate.

"Master, what are you looking at?" Zhu Xiaoshu stood behind Yu Sheng and watched with him.

Yu Sheng replied with a calm face: "The people who are looking for the guards of the hall, they are too incompetent for their work, and they are not there at this time."

Zhu Xiaoshu was shocked. She waved her hand in front of Yu Sheng and asked in disbelief: "Master, are you serious?"

"Did something go wrong with you? Our sect does not have someone who guards the gate, you...you are really in trouble."

Speaking of the latter, Zhu Xiaoshu was almost crying. What happened to the wise master in his bottle today?

"Yeah!" After hearing Zhu Xiaoshu's words, Yu Sheng snapped his forehead fiercely, God, what are you thinking about all day?

Some time ago, I was still complimenting the prohibition of the Zongmen Hall, which was very good, and I didn't need to add more manpower to let people guard the gate.

Some time ago, I was still complimenting the prohibition of the Zongmen Hall, which was very good, and I didn't need to add more manpower to let people guard the gate.

Now it's fascinating to come to the gate of the sect to look for the person who guards the gate!

Just when the rest of his life couldn't help but feel upset, an off-white custom Lamborghini slowly stopped in front of them.

Lamborghini is also engraved with a large white letter on the left side, and beside it is a strange pattern, which belongs to Shangjing Bai's family.

However, the owner of this Lamborghini is Magnolia!

For the rest of his life, he immediately threw away all the thoughts in his mind and quickly went to the place where Lamborghini stopped.

The other party still didn't get out of the car, so he said worriedly from the side: "Where did you go? No one told me, do you know? I'm worried about you."

As soon as Yu Sheng's words fell, the car door was pushed open, and Magnolia slowly walked out of it.

She still carried a large bag of things in her hand, and smiled with guilt in her eyes and said: "It's too boring in the sect, so I will go out for a stroll. I'm sorry, I forgot to tell you for the rest of my life."

"No...nothing." Yu Sheng stammered distressedly when he saw the appearance of Magnolia.

Chapter: 1760

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand to take the white Magnolia, holding the things in his hands, he said: "Remember to tell me where you go in the future, or I will be worried."

His voice was very gentle, and his eyes were filled with endless love, which made Magnolia both happy and a little sad.

Magnolia obediently followed behind and nodded: "I will tell you wherever I go in the future, and I won't be like this again."

The two of them went back to the sect as they talked, only Zhu Xiaoshu, the original crowd of onlookers, who scratched their heads, looked distressed, his master was really too double.

Look at his attitude toward him, and then look at his attitude toward his apprentice. The apprentice is not a human being, and it doesn't deserve his gentleness, right?

However, how did it feel that Miss Bai's eyes were weird just now? I can't tell what's weird. Looking at her master's eyes are different from normal, but I always feel that something is wrong, as if it is not as clean as usual, yes.

Zhu Xiaoshu stomped and stomped back to the sect as well. She thought that she was definitely thinking too much, and she was just thinking about it by her master just now.

Otherwise, how could there be such a weird idea?

When night came, Yu Sheng had finished sorting out the affairs of the sect, and then he was ready to rest. Yu Sheng turned his head and was lying on the bed waiting for his own white magnolia. Somehow, after returning from a stroll, the whole person suddenly became incomparable. Passion.

In the past, I was also very enthusiastic, but there is no exaggeration as it is now. It is more reserved as the eldest lady of the Shangjing Bai family. It is not that she is so bad, but there is always an indescribable strangeness in my heart. feel.

Yu Sheng twitched his lips and asked: "It's so late, why don't you rest?"

"I'm waiting for you!" Bai Yulan smiled slightly, jumped off the bed suddenly, and hung her whole body on Yu Sheng's body. Yu Sheng was frightened by the other's actions, and hugged her quickly.

"What are you doing? What do you do if you fall?" Yu Sheng said with a worried voice.

White Magnolia chuckled in his ear carelessly: "I will fall, and you will hold me."

When she said this, Magnolia was extremely confident, with trust in Yu Sheng in her eyes, and blame it for the rest of her life.

The long night, only to sleep together.

Ignoring Yu Sheng's expressions, Bai Yulan leaned her body back, Yu Sheng was unprepared, so she was dragged straight onto the bed.

The days returned to a peaceful and busy life again. One day, Yu Sheng stared at the big file in front of him, and spent a long time in a daze.

He should organize the files quickly, and after reading it, sign on it, and it's right to agree or not, but now he doesn't have the intention of sorting out this pile of files.

He was thinking about the white magnolia. The recent white magnolia is very strange. The look in his eyes is very strange. He is still full of love as before, but he has some emotions that he can't understand. Although it is difficult for people to see emotions clearly from the eyes of another person, they can still feel the little bit of emotion after being together for a long time.

"What's wrong with her?"

For the rest of his life, he asked in the void, he couldn't understand what he thought. Since coming back that day, Magnolia has been weird.

I was suppressed by various emotions in my heart. I was extremely uncomfortable and bored. For the rest of my life, I took up the pen, forced myself to calm down, and prepared to continue to organize the files, but he squatted for a while and dropped the pen again.

He really didn't have that interest now, Yu Sheng straightened up from his desk abruptly, and walked out in a hurry.
