

Dont mess 1791

Chapter: 1791

Although Du Fei had been mixed up in the Qiancheng of this secular world, he was the king of the dark night underground, but he was not worth mentioning compared to the Chen family.

For the rest of their lives, they offended such a person, and now they secretly investigated the matter and revealed it. What should they do when they come to the door?

It is impossible for him to leave the rest of his life alone, but that is his good friend, abandoning his best friend at a critical moment, showing whether it is too ruthless.

Moreover, Du Fei is not the kind of person who abandons his best friends at a moment of danger. The phrase that he shares the wealth but cannot share the joys and sorrows is never used to describe Du Fei. He has always valued love and righteousness.

"It's OK, don't think so much, you see that you still have time to comfort me, and adjust your mood."

How could he not notice Du Fei's expression for the rest of his life, and he returned to his usual calm look.

No matter how difficult things are, how terrifying the other party is, they must stabilize themselves. Only when they stabilize Xuan Tianzong can they stabilize them, and Du Fei and the others can stabilize them.

As the Sect Master, I was panic first, and there wasn't a whole lot of chickens and dogs underneath.

"Looking at your desperate look, I'm just comforting you. If someone doesn't appreciate it for a long time, who will care about you next time?" Du Fei gave an angrily push for the rest of his life before returning to his desk to sit down.

The two stunned, adjusted the atmosphere, and Yu Sheng returned to the topic again and said: "Apart from finding out that Chen Tianming, the son of the Chen family, did anything else?"

It's impossible to find out such a big thing only a little bit! Is there something behind this?

Du Fei's eyes dodge a little after hearing this question. He did find another thing here, but there was no accurate information about this incident.

He dared not tell Yu Sheng, besides being afraid that Yu Sheng would not believe it, he was also afraid that Yu Sheng could not accept it.

Because this matter involves the people around Yu Sheng, that person is still his beloved, Du Fei thought that if he encounters that kind of thing, the strings in the whole person's brain may collapse.

"Did you find something? Why didn't you speak?" Yu Sheng noticed Du Fei's dodging eyes, and hurriedly asked.

Du Fei shook his hand, trying to cover up, "There is no... if you find anything else, please don't ask me, I don't know."

"Is there really anything else found? You really don't have a little credibility like this!" Yu Sheng didn't know what Du Fei found, it was so difficult to tell.

Du Fei still didn't change what he said just now. He said word by word: "I really didn't find anything. I will definitely tell you what I find out about the relationship between you and me."

He had said so, and it was hard for the rest of his life to continue questioning. He could only nodded casually, indicating that he believed his statement for the time being.

"Well, let's not talk about this matter, anyway, soldiers will come to cover the water and soil." Yu Sheng put his whole body on a small chair, and then he asked: "Is the Bai family's dilemma solved? According to Bai Yulan It is said that the Bai family has been intercepted a lot of business!"

Speaking of this, there will be some guilt for the rest of my life. The more you understand and investigate these things, you will be able to find out some clues, all because of yourself.

The Bai family would suffer, but it was all because they were their own in-laws, and the Bai family's eldest lady was his fiancée. If they had nothing to do with them, that would not be the case.

"Do you look at me like a fool? Don't solve this problem first, save it for the New Year!"

Du Fei curled his lips to the white house. The matter had been resolved long ago. He was afraid that he would have a psychological burden at the end of his life, or some other ideas, so he had to get it done in advance.

"The matter at the Bai family is not serious, but it is not serious. After so many months of recuperation, you should be recuperating. You don't have to worry about it anymore. You can also go back and talk to Magnolia, so that she can rest assured. Go inside."

When Du Fei talked about Magnolia, he suddenly bit the name seriously, with deep meaning that he could not understand for the rest of his life.

Chapter: 1792

After returning from Du Fei, Yu Sheng went directly back to the house to find Magnolia. As Du Fei said, Magnolia had always been very worried about the affairs of the Bai family, and had trouble sleeping and eating for a while.

She is pregnant now, and her thoughts will definitely increase. On the surface, she doesn't seem to have anything. However, girls have always been sensitive in their hearts, and they must have thought a lot in their hearts.

When he was approaching his room, Yu Sheng suddenly heard it, and there was a quarrel in it.

He pursed his mouth, how could he hear a quarrel in his room?

It shouldn't be! Doesn't he remember that only Magnolia lives in his room? Who is Magnolia arguing with?

Everyone from the Xuantian Sect knew that the wife of the lord was pregnant, and they would not come to the house to quarrel with the wife of the lord.

Zhu Xiaoshu seems to be usually careless and bluffing, but she is still very measured in certain things.

Otherwise, she would not choose to accept her as an apprentice in the first place, and she would never quarrel with Magnolia.

Yu Sheng walked a few steps forward, his ears lightly pressed against the door, and he listened carefully to what was arguing inside.

Although there are people with martial arts, they can hear clearly from a long distance, but for the rest of my life, I was afraid that I could hear it badly, or something might happen too late, so I deliberately pressed to the door.

"Didn't you promise me that you just made a little trouble and stop? Now, what are you doing again?"

Yu Sheng heard Bai Magnolia's roar, her roar was very suppressed, as if she was obviously angry but still restrained him and couldn't let her utter it.

There was no response from the other side. Maybe Magnolia was the only one in it. As for the so-called quarrel, Magnolia made her own voice.

However, the person who responded to her may be the one who was on the phone, and Yu Sheng listened to it while pondering the scene inside.

"Headquarters headquarters, stop telling me about headquarters. I really respected the headquarters before, but now? I'm sorry, if you dare to hurt him, I don't know what I will show, or make something what."

Magnolia gritted her teeth when she talked about it. She was threatening the person on the other side of the phone. Her voice was particularly cold, which was fundamentally different from what she used to be around Yu Sheng.

Yu Sheng had never heard Magnolia say such a thing, so cold, at this moment, Yu Sheng felt that the people inside were a little strange.

“Dare to hurt him” who is hurting? To make Magnolia so angry, after listening to what Magnolia said just now, she rushed out of her mobile phone, tearing her heart away.

After a while, Yu Sheng heard the Magnolia in the room say to the person on the phone: “008 don’t expect me to go back anymore, I won’t go back anymore, I want to be by his side, I’m pregnant, I want to Stay with him, do you know?”

“Also, you can no longer hurt him, or do things that hurt him, otherwise I really don’t guarantee that I will do something.”

“Don’t talk about that anymore. From beginning to end, you are not trustworthy. I am white magnolia. Do you know that white magnolia?”

For the rest of my life, I couldn’t hear what the person opposite the Magnolia phone said?

He only heard the magnolia magnolia talking about it. After speaking, he was so helpless, the whole person was about to cry.

What 008? What headquarters? It’s all messy things.

Is the person these people want to hurt themselves? Magnolia said these things because she didn’t want the other party to hurt herself?

She is Magnolia, why should she emphasize her name again?

The more he listened to Yu Sheng, the more confused he became. He especially wanted to rush in to ask Magnolia, but the state of Magnolia inside was obviously very wrong. If he rushed in and waited to scare Magnolia, it would be bad.

Moreover, she is still pregnant, what should I do if she has a fetal gas?

Yu Sheng thought of this, frowned, and couldn’t help but feel distressed.

Chapter: 1793

This call has been on for a long time, and I have been listening outside for a long time for the rest of my life. However, I have not heard any information that is too useful.

The only thing that can be understood is that an inexplicable headquarters has appeared, and there is also a person code-named 008.

Magnolia’s relationship with this headquarters seems to be a deal. The other party is now doing things that threaten her. Magnolia is very angry and threatens the other party. If the other party dares to hurt herself...

Not to mention, the rest of my life was very moved after listening to this whole phone call, touched by Magnolia’s love for herself, touched by her being pregnant now, but still remember not to allow her to hurt herself.

At the same time Yu Sheng was also very angry. He didn’t know what happened to Magnolia.

Obviously once told her that no matter what happened to her, she should tell herself, but now Magnolia is hiding it from herself.

She concealed what had happened to herself, and then put herself in danger. How could she not be angry for the rest of her life?

He is a man, an upright man, and he should stand in front of everything that happens, not in front of Magnolia.

Several times, several times for the rest of her life, she almost couldn't help but rushed in, and finally stopped. Bai Yulan was so hiding from herself, but she suddenly appeared and told her she knew. How sad she should have been, she must be sad to tears again? The rest of my life didn't want to see her cry.

Lifting his heavy feet, Yu Sheng walked on to the other side, he was going to find Zhu Xiaoshu. Recently, Zhu Xiaoshu has been with Magnolia. She must know what happened to Magnolia, right? It's better to use her as a breakthrough and ask her.

"Master, his old man has been busy recently, so he has no time to take care of me. Grandpa, or let me go out to play... Wait for me to play for a while and then come back to study!"

Yu Sheng came to the medicinal material room of Xuan Tianzong, and as soon as I walked into the medicinal material room, I heard a female voice, coquettishly and non-stop coquettish.

I touched my face, the rest of my life is extremely stiff, the master is the old man? Is he so old? Zhu Xiaoshu called himself like that old grandfather with eighty-one white hairs.

Yu Sheng gave a soft cough, and then said: "I happen to be free today. You can check your homework. If you make progress, I wish you are over."

Zhu Xiaoshu, who was going out to play with Zhu Qingshan, was going out to play, heard the familiar voice from behind, turned his head stiffly, looked at the visitor with disbelief and asked in a daze:

"Master, why are you free today? Ah?"

"If I don't come again, I'll watch you fall for it? Everyday I only know to go out and play. Why don't you work hard to add energy to the next art conference."

Yu Sheng came over and poked her forehead, full of hatred for iron and steel!

Zhu Qingshan also took the conversation from the side: "Be lazy every day, you teach her so hard, but she has no energy to learn, I think Mr. Yu is really not good, you can remove her."

When Zhu Qingshan said this, he was not serious with ridicule. Zhu Xiaoshu didn't care at all, but when she saw Yu Sheng nodded seriously and said, "What the genius doctor wished is a good way."

"Master, this method is not good at all. I work very hard. Really! I work hard every day. Today, I managed to get lazy and I was hit by you."

Zhu Xiaoshu shook his head and said that he worked very hard, and his little eyes begged Yu Sheng not to abandon it, and I was really afraid that he would be removed from Yu Sheng.

Seeing the little girl being serious, the rest of her life was so funny that she couldn't hold her back with a smile. It's really cute!

His eyes were full of smiles, and he thought he hoped that the girl in Magnolia's belly would be as cute and beautiful as Magnolia.

Moreover, following her senior sister Zhu Xiaoshu's side for a long time, she will definitely be infected with some weird temperaments, and she must be a very cute and funny child by then.

Thinking of here for the rest of my life, I look forward to the child in Magnolia's belly more and more.

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and patted Zhu Xiaoshu's head, and said with a smile, "I'm silly, I'm joking with you."

Zhu Xiaoshu looked at his master's face again, and made sure that the other party was really joking. Only then did he put his hanging heart back again.

She curled her lips and complained: "Master, you are really too bad, do you know that what you just said just scared me to death."

Chapter: 1794

"If I don't scare you, let's see how lazy you are all day long." Yu Sheng curled his lips helplessly as he listened to the little apprentice's complaint.

I've been too busy these days, and I don't have to take care of them. One or two people will be lazy when they catch the opportunity. I don't know that the guy Jia Ming has made a little progress in martial arts.

If it is the same as Zhu Xiaoshu in front of me, I just remember to play every day, and I will probably pinch myself for the rest of my life.

Yu Sheng waved his hand and let Zhu Qingshan go down and continue to be busy with him, while he pulled Zhu Xiaoshu to a secluded place on the other side.

"Master, what's wrong with you? Where are you going to drag me?"

Seeing that Yu Sheng's face was heavy, and she didn't know what she was thinking, Zhu Xiaoshu always felt that something bad would happen.

It won't be true... You have to teach yourself a lesson, and then get rid of it, right?

It's not a joke just now, Zhu Xiaoshu struggled away from Yu Sheng's hand and said: "Master, what do we have to say, OK? Let me tell you, I will definitely work harder in the future, you, you... don't be angry."

When Zhu Xiaoshu talked about it later, there were even some stammers.

"What are you thinking about?" Yu Sheng just wanted to ask the little apprentice about Magnolia, but he didn't want to do anything bad, how did he scare people like this.

Yu Sheng said helplessly: "I came here today to ask you something to not be nervous."

"Ask something? Ask what?" Zhu Xiaoshu turned his head and looked around. They were still in the pharmacy, except that there was no one alone.

What things need to be asked in the absence of anyone? Did something happen? I wish Xiaoshu stiff this pretty face.

Yu Sheng looked around again and paused for a while before he said: "You have been with your wife recently. Have you ever noticed anything strange about your wife? For example, it's behavior or state. What."

He didn't directly provoke the thing he heard, but just asked some seemingly ordinary things.

Zhu Xiaoshu frowned and blinked again. She asked, "Master also found out what's wrong with Miss Bai?"

She discovered that something was wrong with Miss Bai a long time ago. She always felt strange and couldn't tell. Now, when Yu Sheng mentioned this matter, she dared to affirm her feelings.

"It's true that there are some strange things, but it may be because of the Bai family." Yu Sheng didn't care about what Zhu Xiaoshu said, and he followed along: "What I want to ask is, you are with her. Time, have you heard her say something you have never heard before?"

What Yu Sheng said was very tactful. Perhaps when he heard this incident outside the door, he always felt that it was a major event. He was afraid that Magnolia might be damaged during this uncertain journey.

"What special vocabulary?" Zhu Xiaoshu beat her little head and fell into deep thought. After a while, she suddenly looked at Yu Sheng with bright eyes: "I remember, once I just heard Miss Bai calling, Speaking of a Chengyue teahouse, I also made the other person be optimistic about the individual."

"I don't know where the Chengyue Teahouse is, so who should I be optimistic about?"

Zhu Xiaoshu nodded her chin. Thinking back to the words she heard that day, she didn't hear anything. However, after hearing the name of a teahouse and the following sentence, the call was hung up.

“Chengyue Teahouse?” Yu Sheng gritted his teeth, chanting these four words on his cheeks, as if he had heard of these four words before, and he was very familiar with it.

I thought that Xiaoshu Zhu could help me solve my doubts, but now it makes things more complicated and confusing.

Yu Sheng really couldn't understand what Magnolia was doing behind her back?

The things she did, the so-called teahouse and the so-called watching people made Yu Sheng very puzzled.

He remembered what they had said together before. They shouldn't hide something from each other, and always treat each other frankly.

Has Magnolia forgotten?

For the rest of my life, he was worried that this was not because he was afraid that Magnolia would harm him. Everyone in the world would harm him, but Magnolia would not. He was worried that Magnolia would have an accident.

“Okay, what I asked is almost the same. You should follow your grandfather, you should read the doctor's book, you should go to save people, don't be lazy, hear?”

Yu Sheng asked about it, patted Zhu Xiaoshu's head, gave two orders, then left the Xuantianzong pharmacy and walked to the office area.

Chapter: 1795

The office area of Xuan Tianzong was very quiet, there were no extra noises around, and occasionally the sounds of insects and birds from outside could be heard.

Yu Sheng opened the door, raised his foot and walked in.

As soon as his feet stepped in, he heard a female voice slowly coming from inside, the voice of Song Huihui.

“who is it?”

“It's me.” Yu Sheng returned.

Song Huiyu raised his head from the desk and looked at the people who came: “You are very busy, why are you here today?”

Since I came to Xuantian Sect, I never stepped into this office area for the rest of my life, because I was solving these things by myself, plus I was originally the Sect Master of the Hidden Sect. The files will be sent to Yu Sheng.

“It just happens to be looking for you for something.” Yu Shengzhen paid attention to Song Jinyu's ridicule. He kept frowning, because he had no intention of worrying about the other phone calls now.

Yu Sheng came to Song Hun Hun and sat down. He said, “I don't know, you have found something wrong with Magnolia recently. I want you to gather people here to check and find out what happened to her.”

Yes! Yu Sheng made such a special visit, just to let Song Houhou let people go to find out what happened to Magnolia.

Those so-called code names and the words heard from Zhu Xiaoshu made Yu Sheng have to think about it, and his heart was thunderous for a long time.

“What you mean is that you think something is wrong with her.” In fact, Song Xiuhui hasn't been in contact with Magnolia.

I haven't had a good contact before, but now I just came across a few sentences occasionally.

Although I feel that there is a big change from the past, but I can't tell where the change is, it may be because I am not familiar with it.

Yu Sheng looked at Song Huihou, and then said straightforwardly: "I heard some words from her, those words were a bit bad, I think he might have experienced something, but I was afraid that I knew it so I kept it away from me..."

As he spoke, he even mentioned the Chengyue Teahouse that Zhu Xiaoshu was talking about.

When he talked about this teahouse, his expression was solemn, and Yu Sheng always felt that he could find out some information from this teahouse.

Yu Sheng said: "At that time, please help me to focus on this teahouse. I have been in Qiancheng for so long and have never heard of this teahouse. I always feel a bad feeling."

"There are more bad premonitions. Don't think about it anymore. Anyway, it will pass." Seeing that Yu Sheng's face was really bad, Song Yuyu kept holding her hand in a tangled way and said comfortingly. It's really embarrassing to stand in her position. They are not in any identity except for being friends and verbal masters.

Even caring must be restrained, otherwise it will be bad if you cross the border.

Song Huiyu stiffened a small face, I went to see Yu Sheng again, lowered my head.

Yu Sheng: "I naturally know that it will pass, but I am still a little worried about her, and she is still pregnant now, if something happens because of this, it would be bad."

He was really worried about Magnolia. Yu Sheng's face was unconcealed. He solemnly said to the person in front of him: "Huohou, move faster. I always think there will be something wrong. happen."

Since all the information that could not be found out was found out for the rest of his life, he actually had it for the rest of his life. He was so calm on the surface, his heart was still a little flustered, and more particularly, he always felt a sense of wind and rain. The feeling of coming to spend all over the building.

"I know." Song Huiyu gave Yu Sheng a look to make him rest assured that she would solve it.

Time passed unconsciously, and the two of them had finished talking about Magnolia's affairs, and they could just solve work problems together.

When the two of them had sorted out the files on the table, it was already dark.

Yu Sheng looked at the dark sky, and said to Song Hou Hou: "You go back and rest quickly! I should go back too, she must be waiting for me."

He didn't even say a name, but Song Hunyu knew who Yu Sheng was referring to. She looked at Yu Sheng's dashing back, with emotions that others could not understand in her eyes. There was love and relief.

Chapter: 1796

Leaving the office area, Yu Sheng did not go directly to the room. He first went to Xuantianzong's kitchen to pack food. When the sky was still dark, he called the chef in the kitchen and asked him to cook the chicken soup. Take it in the past.

The chicken soup is stewed for white magnolia. White magnolia needs to replenish the body. It is best to drink chicken soup. At the same time, you can bring some food back, and the two of them can have dinner together.

Because of the busyness in coming in, in fact, the two of them have not had dinner together for a long time.

Career occupied too much time that belonged to him and Magnolia.

Carrying the two lunch boxes in his hands, the rest of his life hurriedly returned to the door of his room.

This time, there were no strange phone calls, and it was very quiet.

Yu Sheng opened the door and walked in, only to see Magnolia lying in bed sleeping. She was so well-behaved, it was hard to believe that she would quarrel with another person on the phone. Gently called out in Bai Magnolia's ear, it might be because the pregnant woman slept more soundly, no matter how much she called for the rest of her life, she couldn't wake up.

After that, there was no way, and the rest of my life couldn't force her to be pulled up, only to wait until she fell asleep and woke up naturally.

A few hours later, Magnolia woke up leisurely, saw the person sitting next to the bed, looked up in confusion and asked: "The rest of my life...When will you be back?"

Yu Sheng turned his head to look at her, rubbed her head and said: "It's early to come back, hurry up and eat."

Taking care of the dazed Magnolia After dinner, she has been paying attention to her for the rest of her life while she was eating dinner.

It's okay if I don't pay much attention to it. This deliberate observation makes me feel that something is wrong.

"The Bai family's matter has been resolved, and the business over there is on its way. You don't have to worry about this matter anymore." Yu Sheng said, looking at Bai Yulan's face.

When Bai Yulan heard Yu Sheng talk about the Bai family, she suddenly paused when she was drinking chicken soup, and then she nodded and said, "That's good! Thank you Yu Sheng, remember my things."

When she said these words, she didn't have any feelings. Yu Sheng felt more and more strange in her heart. Magnolia paid the most attention to the Bai family. Knowing this message, she should be excited and happy!

What else do you want to say for the rest of your life? But when I thought of Magnolia's current body, I was afraid of frightening Magnolia, so I couldn't say more.

There was no word for a night, and the next day Yu Sheng received a message from Song Houyu that she found the Chengyue Teahouse.

In the city center of Qiancheng, he also sent himself an accurate address, Yu Sheng said to Bai Yulan, and hurried out.

He was going to see what was going on in this Chengyue Teahouse, and what was Bai Yulan hiding from herself?

Yu Sheng drove the car, and it took a long time to find this Chengyue teahouse. This teahouse was clearly opened in the city center, but it was located in the most remote part of the city center. It was surrounded by residents, and there was no teahouse at all. Potential.

He parked the car on the side of the road, raised his foot and walked deep into the alley. He went straight to the teahouse to be accurate. As soon as he walked into the teahouse, he smelled bursts of tea fragrance.

Every seat in the teahouse was full of people, and there was a storyteller in a yellow jacket on the table not far away. The Susu man's voice was very pleasant, and the book was extremely humorous, which made the spectators present repeatedly applauded.

When Yu Sheng had just entered the teahouse, a waitress in a red cheongsam approached him immediately.

The waitress asked softly: "Sir, do you have an appointment?"

"No appointment, find me a place where you can see the best scenery, and have a pot of good tea."

Yu Sheng looked around, every seat was full, there shouldn't be any good positions, no matter what, today is not for a good position anyway.

The waitress chuckled and led the way: "We do have the most beautiful place to see the scenery here.

You can watch the sunrise, sunset, and night. The scenery of Qiancheng, including our downstairs. The scenery.”

The waitress speaks with poetry and some arrogance. Which one would dare to talk like that?

“Then I want to see what a good place is.” Yu Sheng smiled slightly and followed behind the waitress.

The two went up to the top floor one after the other.

Chapter: 1797

Following the waitress to the top floor, Yu Sheng stood in front of the top-floor window, and a cool breeze came across, and the scenery of Qiancheng was in full view.

Walk two steps forward, and you will be able to see the entire teahouse from the fence, beautiful! It's really beautiful here! As the waiter said!

“Good place! Thinking that your teahouse is so remote, there are so many customers in the teahouse, and almost thought it was yours. Now it seems that it is not! It is your teahouse that has a unique attraction!”

Yu Sheng looked at the scenery outside the window and praised him greatly. When he said this, his eyes were clean and clear. Everyone would know that he was simply complimenting.

“Come often if you like! You can call our customer service then, I will leave you a good place.”

When the waitress finished speaking, she went down to prepare tea. She was left alone in the private room for the rest of her life. After a long time, the waitress came back with a group of people violently. With a variety of local specialties, as well as boiling water and tea, it seems that you want to make this pot of tea in front of you!

After the pedestrian put down the things, he walked back quietly, leaving only the waitress alone.

The waitress smiled at Yu Sheng, and then began to make tea calmly. She moved slowly and gracefully, and the cheongsam revealed the charm of classical women in the last century.

There was no talking for the rest of his life, he closed his eyes and quietly listened to the book told by the storyteller downstairs. He opened his eyes suddenly when the waitress made tea to call him.

The well-prepared tea is very fragrant, and it tempts Yu Sheng to take a bite to drink it into his stomach, but the better things on the surface are often not good inside.

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and picked up the cup of tea. He hadn't drunk it all the time. He looked at the cup of tea repeatedly, and he looked into the tea mouth and said: “Have you seen me somewhere? Or do you know who I am?”

“I think you can't tell me the truth when I say that, so so! Sorry...”

After the rest of his life, the tea cup fell from his hand, and his other hand instantly attacked the neck of the waitress who was sitting in front of him.

Yes, the words he just asked while looking at the teacup were all about the waitress.

“I think you should know me!” Yu Sheng said.

I've never been to this restaurant before, so how could this waitress know me?

Why did the rest of my life feel that the waitress knew him, but it was all because of the look that the waitress showed.

You said that the other party was enthusiastic and cheerful, and understandable, but the other party has been taking care of her emotions, even she knows some of her own small movements, and the manner that the other party unintentionally shows, makes Yu Sheng have to be more suspicious.

The waitress was pinched all over her neck, speechless, her legs were struggling constantly, just when she felt more and more weak to suffocate, Yu Sheng suddenly let go of her.

“Since you know me, you must also know this woman in the phone!” Yu Yu Sheng handed the phone forward and shook it in front of the waitress.

When the female service saw the woman in the doctor’s photo, she trembled and her face instantly turned pale: “I don’t know, I don’t know anything...”

“Don’t give me this set, tell me, what does this woman on the phone have to do with your teahouse? How did you know me?”

For the rest of my life, there was so much nonsense, and I told the waitress that although he has always been a pity for Xiangxiyu, this Lianxiangxiyu is also dependent on people.

Like them, the unknown can get themselves into the trouble of death anytime and anywhere, and for the rest of their lives, they have such a good heart, and there is love and pity everywhere.

Ruthless talent is synonymous with him, and he has always been gentle to his own people.

“I really don’t know. Don’t ask me anymore. You can drink tea if you want to drink tea, and leave if you don’t drink tea.” The waitress’s mouth was hard or she didn’t say anything.

Yu Sheng broke off his own finger, it seems that some means are needed!

Chapter: 1798

“The mouth is so hard, it seems that we know each other.”

Yu Sheng’s eyes were gentle, and her actions lovingly touched the woman on the phone screen. The woman on the phone screen was Magnolia. She was wearing a white skirt with long hair behind her, and she could feel the fairy spirit fluttering across the photo. Not like a mortal.

“She’s Bai Yulan, my fiancée, the one I love, I think you know my name too, my name is Yu Sheng.”

For the rest of his life, his voice was faint. He knew that the waitress knew that Magnolia knew herself, but he was still there to introduce the matter solemnly.

“I don’t know, why did you meet her? I didn’t want to know about this when I came here today. I came here today to ask what is the headquarters and what is 008!”

Yu Sheng asked a big one as soon as he asked. The waitresses he originally said can be forced to be calm, but in the latter sentence, the waitress’s face changed suddenly.

“I don’t know, I don’t know anything, don’t ask me...”

The waitress shook her head and wanted to open the box door to escape when Yu Sheng was unprepared, but Yu Sheng didn’t give her this chance at all.

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and pulled the waiter back. He asked, “Do you really know? I think you know too much.”

No matter what, he must blast the message he wants from the waitress today.

Time is waiting for no one, plus he is very worried about Magnolia, and he has no intention of spending time with these people.

Pulling the person back, for the rest of her life, driving the internal force in the body, with a slight strain on her hand, the waitress instantly felt the pain of bone fracture in her body.

No... not just a break, but also a crushing pain. When it came to the back, the waitress was so painful that she lost consciousness.

She looked at Yu Sheng’s eyes, full of fear, her body was sweating profusely, and her exquisite makeup was ruined by sweat.

For the rest of his life, he hadn’t noticed this. He once again asked the waitress calmly: “If you want to live, tell me over there 008 and what is the headquarters?”

The waitress hasn’t replied for a long time, and the rest of her life thought the other party was still stubborn, so what method did she still want to use?

As a result, the waitress tremblingly said in the next second: "008 is the operator of the headquarters, and the headquarters is... the headquarters is the Chen family, one of the hidden families."

The waitress paused halfway when she said this, her expression tangled, but thinking that her life was still in the hands of the rest of her life, she could only bite the bullet and continue speaking.

The Chen family, one of the hidden families? Yu Sheng frowned. He didn't think that this matter had something to do with the Chen family. Maybe they did all these things, right?

What exactly does the Chen family want to do? What is their purpose?

"What about you? What's your identity here?" Yu Sheng reached out and grabbed the waitress's other hand that was not injured. He said, "You'd better tell me, or I will also use this hand. It's scrapped for you."

His face doesn't look like a fake, it's calm and natural. He is true that if he doesn't agree, he will abandon his hand.

The waiter shrank her hands subconsciously. She said, "I'm the one who started with 006. I don't have a code name. I usually beat 006. Then I am optimistic about this restaurant. This restaurant 006 is the real power holder."

"006 is the elite of the headquarters, and the sixth-ranked elite of the headquarters, except for the first five digits, she is the most powerful."

The waitress is now smarter, she doesn't have to ask for the rest of her life. She will justify herself. After she said this amount of information, she didn't stop and opened her lips again: "006 has been captured by you, right? Or else you I can't find it here, so you are here to find Magnolia."

The waitress looked affirmative and confused the rest of her life. Why did she find Magnolia? Bai Yulan is not in Xuan Tianzong anymore, what do you come here to find Bai Yulan to do?

And 006 was captured by himself? Why don't you know?

Are the people at Chengyue Teahouse interesting? Are they all relying on my brain to make up?

He didn't speak for the rest of his life, and his face was calm and expressionless. He wanted to see what else the other party could say.

Chapter: 1799

"Magnolia is indeed here, but if you want to save her, you must first release me and heal my hands by the way. I know your medical skills are very good."

As the waitress said, she motioned her eyes to her hand that had just been shattered by Yu Sheng.

Good guys! At this time, you still have the mind to bargain with yourself? Should you say that you are from the Chen family?

However, the other party said that Magnolia was here? What's the meaning?

Isn't Magnolia in Xuantian School? When I came out, I clearly looked at her obediently in the sect!

Could it be that she moved one step later than herself to be able to get to Chengyue Teahouse first.

The more I think about it, the more weird it is, Yu Sheng's head is like a mass of paste at this moment.

"I haven't seen her yet, who knows if you're talking about me and want me to treat you so gently? Do you think I look like a fool?" Yu Sheng smiled slightly, full of irony in his smile .

The waitress was anxious after hearing this, and yelled to let Yu Sheng release her hand, and she wanted to show Yu Sheng the evidence.

After a while, she took out her mobile phone and handed it to you for the rest of her life. She said, "If you don't believe it, look at it."

Yu Sheng lowered his head and looked at the mobile phone handed over by the waiter. The mobile phone displayed a monitor, which was a monitor associated with the mobile phone.

In a dimly lit room, with only this yellowish light, a woman shrank into a small ball on a bed. The woman looked very embarrassed, her belly was still a little arched, she looked like she was pregnant.

Yu Sheng then looked down. After a while, the woman turned her face slightly. That face was facing the monitoring side, and the other's face was clearly greeted by Yu Sheng's eyes.

It's White Magnolia. How could the Magnolia people be here, and how could her belly be much larger than what she saw in the sect? What's the matter?

"I advise you to heal me quickly." The waitress persuaded me: "If you don't heal me quickly, you probably won't see this woman. If you don't see her, you might not see her. To your child."

The waitress was telling Yu Sheng that Bai Yulan's arched belly was his child.

Confused and puzzled... This restaurant is a mystery, the waitress in front of me is a mystery, and the same is true of the Magnolia in the video.

What happened in a place that I didn't know?

For the rest of his life, he thought about it, but he didn't even think about it.

The hand was slightly hardened, and the rest of her life's internal strength emerged again, and a light and shadow quickly spread on the waitress's hand. After a while, her originally unconscious hand warmed up again and could move.

The waitress was mad with surprise, her hands were good, but she didn't turn back because she knew she couldn't play with the man in front of her.

Beckoned to Yu Sheng, the waitress took him out of the box, and walked to another private room. After a while, he took him to a basement, which was dark and very hidden.

Yu Sheng walked with his heart hanging, always feeling that when he entered this basement, he would see very, very bad things.

When I came to the basement, I couldn't go in directly. I had to find the secret compartment and open the door. Yu Sheng watched the waitress open the secret compartment.

Then the two walked into the basement together. The first thing that came into view was a dimly lit light, which was bright and dim. They followed the light for the rest of their lives and looked towards the bed.

There was a person shrinking there, Yu Sheng quickened his pace and walked past the waiter to that person.

"Magnolia..." Yu Sheng shouted tentatively.

The person who slumped on the bed heard the sound and slowly raised his head, looking at Yu Sheng with a small face in disbelief. She opened her small mouth and asked, "Is that you? Yu Sheng."

The other party's voice was very hoarse, as if he hadn't spoken for a long time. After hearing this sentence for the rest of my life, I didn't know why, and my heart seemed to be hurt by something.

"Yes, it's me."

Yu Sheng hurriedly walked over and hugged the woman. He believed that he believed that the woman in front of him was Magnolia. Those small movements and the twitching between the eyebrows were all Magnolia's usual movements.

"Sorry, sorry... I'm sorry, I just found you now." Yu Sheng hugged Magnolia tightly in his arms, he said incoherently, apologizing to Magnolia all the time.

Chapter: 1800

“Nothing.” Bai Yulan stretched out her hand distressedly and touched Yu Sheng’s face. Magnolia’s eyes were gentle and relieved. She also hugged the man in front of her tightly. She comforted Yu Sheng one by one, patted him on the back and said, “If anything happens, it will pass. I’m fine, you found me.”

She obviously had been imprisoned for so long, she should have been mad, but she was still gentle and understanding.

It was for the rest of his life that he was so sad. His white magnolia had always been so good, but he had suffered torture and humiliation in places he didn’t know.

Yu Sheng was angry and angry! He turned his head to look at the waitress, who knew that when he and Magnolia were lost, the waitress wanted to close the basement door and trap both of them here.

The door to the basement was slowly closed. Yu Sheng hurriedly used his internal strength, and a beautiful light and shadow instantly hit the waitress’s leg. The waitress fell to the ground due to pain, and finally the door was unrelated.

“Do you want to keep me here too?”

Holding the Magnolia in his arms, the rest of his life walked out of the basement step by step and came to the waitress.

He looked at the waitress condescendingly, and said faintly: “You should know my title on the road if you know me! You dare to play tricks in front of me, you’re bored!”

The waitress’ eyes were full of fear, and she stepped back step by step. She didn’t want to be like this, but if she let the rest of her life go, and at the same time caught a white magnolia, she would definitely die, she didn’t want to die yet.

“Don’t look at me with such eyes, it’s disgusting.” Yu Sheng glanced at the waitress’s eyes, he looked too much with such eyes, and felt abnormally sick every time he saw it.

The internal force surged from her body again, Yu Sheng bent her hand, the waitress who was still trembling there, and instantly fainted.

The waitress fainted, and he walked out here swayingly holding Magnolia. The waitress is now awake and prone to making mistakes. I don’t know if he will touch something.

Today, the rest of his life came alone. He didn’t want to be horrified. He also wanted to take the white magnolia out of here safely.

This is not the person he is afraid of Chengyue Teahouse, or the person behind Chengyue Teahouse, he just doesn’t want to cause more trouble.

“Sleep! I’ll take you away.” Yu Sheng pushed Magnolia’s head into his arms, soothing her and letting her sleep obediently.

Magnolia closed her eyes and lay in his arms. For the rest of her life, she also suppressed her voice. She passed the crowds in the teahouse and left here. The journey went smoothly, probably because other ordinary waiters didn’t know about them. .

When she came to the place where she had parked, Bai Yulan had already fallen asleep peacefully, with no movement at all, she placed her in the passenger seat gently, and drove her back to the sect.

Along the way, Yu Sheng thought about various ideas and guesses in his mind, but never got an accurate answer. He thought maybe only the white magnolia in the sect could give himself an answer.

Why are there two white magnolias? And what happened behind the scenes, I returned to the sect, and probably got an answer.

When he arrived at the Zongmen, he didn’t wake up Magnolia for the rest of his life. He stretched out his hand and hugged Magnolia again. The Magnolia was very light and not too heavy. She was pregnant with a slightly arched lower abdomen. It should have been two or three months visually, and her weight should have increased. That's right, but she is a lot thinner than before.

Talking about something wrong, I must have suffered a lot in places I couldn't see. Yu Sheng lowered his head and touched Magnolia's head with his head, which was very intimate.

When he came to his room in the backyard of Xuan Tianzong, without knocking on the door for the rest of his life, he walked in with the white magnolia in his arms.

When Zhu Xiaoshu heard that, he turned around and looked at the person in Yu Sheng's arms, and was immediately shocked: "Master...Miss Bai? Isn't Miss Bai here?"

Zhu Xiaoshu looked at the white magnolia in Yu Sheng's arms, then turned to look at the white magnolia behind him, his pupils slightly opened and his face was confused.
