

Dont mess 721

Chapter: 721

“Master Lei, I don’t know what’s going on.” Zuo Wenyu asked suspiciously.

He didn’t know if his current feeling was whether the medicine had cured his nervous system, or something else was bad.

Elder Lei said with joy: “Lee Zuo, this is the medicine that is repairing your nervous system. It will be basically repaired in about half an hour, which is seven or eight times more powerful than before.

Even the young master Zuo and the ten daughters of the royal family are not problematic.”

Hearing this, Zuo Wenyu completely let go of the last trace of doubt in his heart.

After all, he has just recovered, so he has to wait until his body is completely stabilized. He must try.

After being turned into a living eunuch by Yu Sheng this time, Zuo Wenyu understood a truth, that he must take care of his body. If that thing is no longer useful, it will be more uncomfortable than death.

The effect of the medicine became stronger according to time, and Zuo Wenyu, who had been a living eunuch for so long, was eager to find a woman to try.

At this moment, Yang Yinzhu came over, looked at him with a charming face, and said delicately: “Left Young Master, watching you recover, Yinzhu is really happy for you.”

With a charming voice, Zuo Wenyu’s heart is itchy, plus Yang Yinzhu’s appearance is indeed unbelievable, she is also a rare beauty.

Some time ago, because I couldn’t use that thing, I made Yang Yinzhu cheaper to change the dressing, the kid Lei Chao.

So Zuo Wenyu said: “Brother Lei, now my medicine is taking effect, and I won’t find another woman for a while, otherwise you can borrow Yang Yinzhu from me first.”

Lei Chao’s heart was naturally 10,000 unwilling, he had already regarded Yang Yinzhu as his own these days.

However, Zuo Wenyu’s status, coupled with the successful listing of this drug also requires most of the funds, so in comparison, a woman seems to be less important.

“Since Zuo Shao likes it, let Yinzhu go with you!” Lei Chao looked at Yang Yinzhu and said, “Yinzhu, you have to serve Zuo Shao, just like you do with me. few.”

Yang Yinzhu nodded heavily, then leaned against Zuo Wenyu again, and Zuo Wenyu took her into his arms without hesitation.

“Since this medicine has such a miraculous effect, it does not hurt the body like the previous formula, and it can definitely be expanded to the whole world in the future. Young Master Zuo should invest two or three billion yuan, I am confident that I can make a profit in a year. Ten billion or so.” Elder Lei said vowedly.

Zuo Wenyu smiled and said: “If there is really no problem with this medicine, then I can invest a billion yuan.”

After the two exchanged a few words, Zuo Wenyu couldn’t wait to find a reason to take Yang Yinzhu into the car, planning to go back to the house for business.

Everyone also understood what he meant, and there was no hindrance. Everyone in the Lei family was silent in the joy of the successful development of the “magic drug”.

Elder Lei said to Professor Kang: “These days, there are days and nights, and I have worked hard to study magical medicine. I have all these things in my eyes, and I will never treat you badly in the future.”

Hearing this, Professor Kang was even more excited and said: “Thank you, Mr. Lei, for your appreciation.

Without you, there is no me who I am now.”

Elder Lei nodded in satisfaction, and was very helpful to Professor Kang’s words just now, and said: “This time you will be rewarded 50 million for your work in studying magical medicine, and you will be adding a villa.”

Professor Kang thanked him with joy.

Chapter: 722

When Zuo Wenyu returned home, his servant immediately reported to Zuo Lengchan, the Patriarch of the Zuo family, and listening to the people’s reply, Zuo Lengchan was about to bloom.

He hurried to the door to receive his son, and asked eagerly: “Wenyu, have you really found a medicine to cure your illness?”

Zuo Wenyu hugged Yang Yinzhu in his arms tighter, and said seriously: “That’s natural. The good medicine that Lei Family has researched is a magical medicine. Just a few minutes after taking it, I was caught by the rest of my life. The damaged nerves are already being repaired.”

After listening to his son’s incomparably affirmative words, Zuo Lengchan’s heart was only full of joy. He is in his sixties this year, and he has no fertility ability. Some time ago, his lifeblood was ruined by someone, but he was very worried.

Now things are finally going to happen, it is simply God blessed their Zuo family, and couldn’t bear to let Zuo family die from now on.

With emotion in his heart, Zuo Lengchan said excitedly: “Wenyu! Go back and rest with this girl first, I will go to the ancestral hall to put incense.”

Zuo Wenyu nodded and responded, but he didn’t bother to care about other things. He just wanted to take a good break on Yang Yinzhu’s belly.

Going back to the room hurriedly, Zuo Wenyu felt that everything was too unreal. He took off his pants and planned to let Yang Yinzhu serve him well.

When Yang Yinzhu pulled off Zuo Wenyu’s underwear with a shy expression on his face, he was shocked by the sight in front of him.

With an exclamation, Yang Yin staggered back and pointed at Zuo Wenyu’s lower body and said in a panic, “Left... Zuo Shao, take a look.”

Zuo Wenyu was a little excited by Yang Yinzhu’s exclaim, and even bothered to slap the yelling woman. But seeing Yang Yinzhu look like this, he subconsciously looked at his lifeblood.

At this moment, the underside of him was black and even festering. It looked terrifying, and even Zuo Wenyu was taken aback.

“Fuck, what’s going on? Isn’t it alright? How did it become like this?” Zuo Wenyu was still a little unbelievable.

“Could it be that this is still being repaired?” Yang Yinzhu didn’t dare to say to the bad side, and could only express comfort and comfort Zuo Wenyu first, and let him calm down.

As soon as the voice fell, Yang Yinzhu received a slap in the face.

Just listen to Zuo Wenyu cursing: “Fuck your mother, it has been repaired, isn’t it all rotten when the effect of this thing is finished? Why the hell is going to ask someone to send me to the hospital!”

Yang Yinzhu slapped him for no reason, feeling wronged in his heart, but he didn’t dare to say, so he could only go out and ask someone to send Zuo Wenyu to the hospital.

In the evening, there were not many doctors on duty. Zuo Wenyu came to the place, took off his pants without saying a word, and said aggrievedly: "Doctor, please help me see!"

As soon as the doctor packed his things, he saw Zuo Wenyu pulling down his pants. At first he thought that Zuo Wenyu was a pervert and had a convenient hobby.

However, when he saw Zuo Wenyu clearly, he was taken aback for a while, and asked in shock: "What did you do? Why is it festering?"

People of this age play so well, three people, four people, even a group of people...

The doctor couldn't help thinking about it, but it was the first time he saw him doing something like this. Zuo Wenyu looked resentful, but he still had to say: "After taking a pill, the following is like this, doctor, you should see how to treat it!"

pill? Expired Viagra?

The doctor subconsciously thought about this convenience.

After a careful observation, the doctor shook his head and said, "The cells in you are already infected. You must cut them off in time!"

Chapter: 723

"What? You said you want to cut my life?" Zuo Wenyu couldn't believe his ears.

That is the dignity of a man, even if it is rendered useless by the rest of his life, at least it is still there, if it is cut, it is really not there.

This is the doctor who nodded without hesitation and said: "Yes! It must be cut, don't worry! I do this kind of thing very reliably, and I will definitely cut it cleanly for you!"

Hearing this, Zuo Wenyu subconsciously put his hand underneath him, and said in a negotiated tone:

"Doctor, you are trying to figure out a way, as long as you can cure me.

I just think it can stay on my body honestly, I am willing to give you any money, I am the eldest young master of the Zuo family, and I will never break my promise. "

The doctor hesitated for a moment, but still firmly said: "I really have no way of doing this. I think it's an amputation in the hospital, which many people can't accept.

Some people don't listen to the doctor's persuasion and insist on going their own way. Later, the cells infect the whole body, and even their lives are lost. "

"Doctor, is there any other way? If that thing really doesn't exist, what's the point of my life? It's better to let me die!" Zuo Wenyu said hysterically.

"There really is no other way. Only amputation can save your life." The doctor said firmly.

Zuo Wenyu's eyes were spitting fire, and the old dog of the Lei family blamed them for killing himself like this.

Zuo Wenyu clenched his fists and left the hospital angrily. While sitting in the car, he called Zuo's family and directly called more than a dozen thugs to rush to Lei's family.

Lei Lao Gou, let Lao Tzu be your experimental mouse. See if I won't make your Lei family a mess today.

Soon, Zuo Wenyu's car stopped in front of Lei's house, and a group of Zuo's men also rushed over at this time.

Zuo Wenyu kicked towards the closed door of Lei's house, and shouted at the inside loudly: "Old Lei Dog! Old Lei Dog quickly get out of me."

At this time, the guard opened the door. When he saw that it was Zuo Wenyu, it was hard to say anything. One of them hurriedly went to look for Elder Lei.

In a short while, Father Lei, Lei Chao, and the illegitimate sons Lei Yang and Professor Kang all rushed over.

“Young Master Zuo, why are you here? Isn’t it right at this time to turn the dragon and the phoenix at home?” Old Lei asked suspiciously.

“Did your mother! I’m all caused by you in this situation now.” Zuo Wenyu cursed unceremoniously. It is no longer possible to use anger to describe his feelings. The thing that was harmed by him for the rest of his life can’t be used, and he spent millions of medicines bought from Lei’s family to get that thing directly.

Besides, now, even his life is almost lost, can Zuo Wenyu not be angry?

Unable to kill the waste for the rest of his life, Zuo Wenyu cast all his anger on the Lei family’s gang of young and old.

“What the hell is going on, Young Master Zuo, why are you so angry?” Lei Chao asked Zuo Wenyu to scold his father, feeling a little unhappy.

At this time, Zuo Wenyu took off his pants directly, revealing the root of life that was even worse than the one that festered before.

Everyone was shocked when they saw it, and they didn’t even think that this situation would happen, and they didn’t know what to do now.

Zuo Wenyu put on his trousers, and gave this old man Lei another scolding, without mercy at all because he was an elder.

“Old dog Lei, you treat me as a white mouse to help you test the medicine in Lei’s family, right? If you can’t cure my lifeblood today, I will abandon you all and come with me!”

Chapter: 724

Now Lei’s family had no idea, why didn’t they think that the side effects of this medicine would be so great, and they would fester directly.

Compared with the new prescription, although the previous prescription hurts the body, it does not directly destroy the whole root.

“Is it still being repaired? That’s why it became like this?” Elder Lei still didn’t believe that the new prescription that was researched would fail.

Wouldn’t it be that the Spring and Autumn Dreams he had made before, were all destroyed, and the Lei family could only be a small family, and would never be ranked.

Upon hearing this, Zuo Wenyu was immediately anxious, no matter whether Mr. Lei was a senior or not, he grabbed him by the collar.

He roared: “It’s all the fucking like this, you fooled me and said that it was repairing. When the repair is continued, the whole root is ruined. By then, your Lei family will be cut up and down to accompany me to suffer!”

Old man Lei was terrified. Although he said he had two sons, he still had no future for the two sons! If they were all cut, wouldn’t his Lei family be cut off?

Thinking of this, the old man hurriedly begged for mercy: “Young Master Zuo, don’t worry, there is no solution to this matter. I will call Lei’s medical team now.”

In a short while, the medical team came to Lei’s house, inspected Zuo Wenyu, and also gave the method for amputation.

Zuo Wenyu naturally disagrees. Even if the thing is no longer usable, it will still grow on him, or it will be different from the ancient eunuch.

“Old stuff, I now give you two ways out. The first is that I destroy your Lei family, and the second is to save my life.”

Zuo Wenyu slammed the old man's collar abruptly and said, "You have to think clearly, I can do what Zuo Wenyu says!"

Although the Lei family's medical team did not have a cure for Zuo Wenyu, they did stabilize the ulcer for two days.

Zuo Wenyu gave the Lei family two days. If he couldn't keep his life roots, then Qiancheng would not have the Lei family.

The Lei family was panicked up and down. It was the first time they encountered this situation. Where would they go to find a cure for the ulcer?

"Otherwise, let's sell the property of the Lei family? Let's leave with the money before that time!"

Lei Chao thought for a long time and still couldn't figure out a countermeasure, so he had to tell the worst way.

Compared to Zuo Wenyu leading someone to destroy Lei's family two days later, it is better to leave early, so that their family business can be kept.

"Brother, the reason why the Lei family has the current achievements is all due to his father's hard work, how can you say such a thing?" Lei Yang objected.

Lei Chao, who was already depressed, suddenly got angry when he heard an illegitimate child who even dared to question what he said.

Lifting his leg was kicking Lei Yang fiercely, and cursed: "Fuck, what do you say, what kind of wild breed do you say? Is there a place for you to speak?"

Lei Yang didn't dare to refute, so he closed his mouth for fear that Lei Chao would kick him again.

At this time, Mr. Lei, who was sitting in the chair, said: "I think Lei Yang's words are wrong. No matter what, he can't change the property of the seller! Maybe there is still a way."

How could it be possible for the Lei family's big industry to be able to sell it in a short while!

Maybe a family business with a market value of more than one billion can only be sold at four or five billion. This old man Lei has no way of accepting it.

"Dad, how can you listen to him? He is not from our Lei family. What if Zuo Wenyu comes to the door if he doesn't sell his business?"

"Why is Lei Yang not a member of my Lei family anymore, with my blood still on him, so let's do it! Take this crisis as a test. If anyone can solve it, then whoever will take over Lei's family." Lei The old man said solemnly.

Lei Chao was dumb, he didn't even think that his father would have this idea, and he wanted to hand over the Lei family's property to the illegitimate son.

It must be that illegitimate child used some shameful method, thinking that here Lei Chao kicked Lei Yang's ass fiercely.

"You wait for me, I won't let you succeed!"

Chapter: 725

"Lao Yu, two Japanese suddenly appeared in the doctor's residence. I don't know what they are making. Do you want to take it directly?" Du Fei asked anxiously on the phone.

Can't wait to wait after three days? An interesting smile appeared at the corner of Yu Sheng's mouth.

"Don't!" Yu Sheng smiled: "They are here to pay attention to the magic medicine, so let them take it away. You only need to protect the safety of Zhu Qingshan."

Du Fei thought that Yu Sheng was afraid that they would not be able to deal with the two Japanese, so he assured Yu Sheng: "Don't worry, Lao Yu, I brought enough people to take down the two Japanese."

“I just want them to take away the magic medicine.” Yu Sheng said lightly, with a conspiracy in his tone. Du Fei didn’t understand what Yusheng meant. The magical medicine was our Chinese. If the two Japanese were robbed of it and returned to production to win huge profits, wouldn’t it be too cheap for them.

Why did the rest of my life become like this? Is it possible that I was irritated by Xiao Shui.

Du Fei thought for a long time, wondering what kind of medicine Yu Sheng is selling in the gourd, and simply asked directly: “Are you confused, that is our Chinese stuff, how can we let Little Japan snatch it!” “Don’t worry, what Zhu Qingshan is carrying is not a magical medicine, and I specially prepared a big surprise for the two Tokugawa brothers and sisters, so you only need to protect Zhu Qingshan.” Yu Sheng explained briefly.

Otherwise, with Du Fei’s character, maybe he would have left the medicine to his death.

Du Fei on the phone still didn’t understand what Yu Sheng meant. In short, Yu Sheng wouldn’t make the two little Japanese feel better.

In order to pit the Dechuan brothers and sisters, Yu Sheng specially refined a few Huiguang Fanzhao Pills and gave them to Zhu Qingshan.

This pill is magical, no matter what the other party’s disease is, even if he is on the verge of death and only a breath is left, just take one pill and you will surely be able to come back and live for an hour or two.

But its consequences are also terrible, that is, after these two hours of vigorous life, the person taking the drug will immediately die suddenly, and there is no cure.

In fact, this pill is not a poison in itself, but a panacea that can ensure that the other party finishes his dying instructions.

The effect of the medicine is to overdraw all vitality to support one or two hours of return to light.

In this way, the person taking the medicine can clearly explain all the funeral matters.

This kind of medicine was specially configured for emperors and generals in ancient times. Generally, when the emperor was dying, he would prepare a Pill of Return to Light, so that he could arrange the Jiangshan Sheji at least before he died.

But in modern times, this thing is actually useless.

Moreover, its final medicinal effect is a bit too hard, even a healthy person, after eating it, will be cold for two hours.

So in modern times, this medicine is more like a poison.

Yu Sheng had seen this medicine in the “Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures” a long time ago.

However, this time he felt that Huiguang Fanzhaodan finally came in handy and could be used to pit the Tokugawa brothers and sisters!

Let him see how many varieties of Huaxia’s traditional Chinese medicine elixirs are, and they cannot be matched by a small Japan.

Besides, the bet that Haruko Tokugawa owed before should now be paid back to them.

Chapter: 726

The Tokugawa brothers and sisters didn’t know at this time, there was already an invisible net covering them tightly.

And now they have arrived in the hospital where Zhu Qingshan lives.

The two brothers and sisters assigned tasks. Haruko Tokugawa, who is very skilled, used the pistol magic medicine, while Takeshi Tokugawa stayed outside to guard the wind.

After explaining the details, the two nodded to each other, and then Haruko Tokugawa's figure flashed through the dark night like a sharp sword, leaving no trace.

The hospital where Zhu Qingshan is located is not big. Before, Zhu Xiaoshu lived here with him, and later Zhu Xiaoshu and Yu Sheng went to the Sakura Club after apprenticeship with Yu Sheng.

The light in Zhu Qingshan's room was still on. At this time, he was holding a book of medical skills, and he didn't even notice an unexpected visitor in his hospital.

Suddenly the door was kicked open, and a black figure quickly came to Zhu Qingshan.

Zhu Qingshan still didn't react, and the cold dagger was against his neck, and the book in his hand slipped to the ground in an instant.

Although Yu Sheng had told long ago that the Tokugawa brothers and sisters would follow the magic medicine, they are still very scared.

Suddenly Tokugawa Haruko's voice came in her ear: "Hand over the magic medicine, I won't hurt you, otherwise..."

Zhu Qingshan quickly begged for mercy: "As long as you don't kill me, I will give you whatever you want."

Speaking of Zhu Qingshan, he opened a drawer, took out a jade box from it, and handed it to Tokugawa Haruko.

"This is the magic medicine you want, now I give it to you, can you let me go?" Zhu Qingshan asked.

No one responded to him, and the cold touch on his neck was no longer there, so Zhu Qingshan had the courage to look back.

At this time, Haruko Tokugawa was already in the room.

In the car, Haruko Tokugawa handed the jade box he had taken to Take Tokugawa, and Takeshi Tokugawa in the driver's seat looked at the jade box with excitement.

Opening the most box, four black pills came into view, and Tokugawa was very excited to see the four pills in full.

They came to China for the purpose of obtaining the formula of this magical medicine. Now that they have obtained it, Takeshi Tokugawa feels like a dream, which is unbelievable.

The smell of medicine from the tip of his nose reminded him that this was not a dream, and that he had indeed got the magic medicine.

In fact, he told Zhu Qingshan that his father's paralysis was false, and his father had died long ago. The person who was truly paralyzed was Tokugawa Izuaki, the uncle of Tokugawa brothers and sisters.

Tokugawa Kazuaki has a pivotal position in the Tokugawa family. If Tokugawa Kazuaki's paralysis can be cured, not only will Tokugawa Takeshi be able to inherit Tokugawa Pharmaceutical, but he can also have a voice in the Tokugawa family.

The thought of Tokugawa Takeshi was very excited, and he got through to Tokugawa Kazuaki's phone.

"Uncle, the magic medicine has been successfully obtained. As long as I bring the magic medicine back to Japan for you to take, you will be able to stand up."

Tokugawa Kazuaki on the phone, hearing that he could stand up from the wheelchair again, he couldn't believe it, and said, "Is the medicine really as magical as you said? Even paralysis can be cured?"

"Of course, I have inquired about it at the Chinese Medicine Expo. It is true and there will never be fakes. After you have cured your disease, I will leave some to study the ingredients.

At that time, our Tokugawa Pharmaceutical will have the right to produce magical medicine, and then the money will not continue to flow into our pockets. "Tokugawa Takeshi said vowedly.

"Come back soon, I am waiting for your good news at Dongying!" Tokugawa Kazuaki said.

Before preparing to grab the medicine, the Tokugawa brothers and sisters bought two tickets to Dongying in advance.

Now I only need to go to the airport, and successfully board the plane, even if I have completed my purpose of coming to China.

Seeing that the car was about to arrive at the airport, suddenly they were blocked by several cars in front of their car.

Chapter: 727

Seeing that he was about to arrive at the airport, Takeru Tokugawa didn't even think of being stopped by someone outside the airport, and patted the steering wheel angrily.

Thirty black-clothed bodyguards got out of the car in front of them, all of them strong and physically strong, and surrounded their cars tightly.

Takeshi Tokugawa couldn't help frowning, and looked at Haruko Tokugawa on the side and asked, "Can 30 people deal with it?"

Tokugawa Haruko hesitated, and finally shook his head. Thirty people are actually nothing in front of her.

However, she saw that some people still had guns in their hands. If it was a fight, she had a perfect chance of winning, but if the other party had weapons, it would be hard to tell.

Takeshi Tokugawa sighed depressed, and subconsciously hugged the jade box in his arms. Wouldn't God not let me bring this jade box back to Toyo?

At this time, Du Fei outside the car did not see the Tokugawa brothers and sisters getting out of the car for a long time, so impatiently he kicked the car and shouted loudly: "Get off the car quickly. If you don't get off, I will do it."

Dare to hesitate, the Tokugawa brothers and sisters got out of the car, looked at Du Fei with a smile on their faces and asked, "This gentleman, is there something wrong with your stopping our car?"

"Our young master would like to please!" Du Fei said.

While arranging for Du Fei to protect Zhu Qingshan for the rest of his life, he also wanted Tokugawa Haruko to stay and take him to see him.

The Tokugawa brothers and sisters didn't know what they were talking about as the young master. Was it because of the magical medicine that they met?

"That we still have something to do, if you young master wants to see me, next time I come to China, I will bring a gift to visit." Tokugawa just wanted to go back to Dongying now.

"Our young master will see you now. If you disagree, then don't blame us for being impolite!" Du Fei was too lazy to talk nonsense with him and threatened directly.

Hearing this, the siblings looked at each other, and for a while they couldn't make up their minds about how to deal with temporary events.

"Brother, Tokugawa Pharmaceutical cannot do without you, so you should go back first! Leave it to me."

Speaking, Haruko Tokugawa looked at Du Fei and asked: "My brother is the chairman of Tokugawa Pharmaceutical. Now that Tokugawa Pharmaceutical is in crisis, he needs to deal with it. Can you let him go back? I'll see you. Master."

"This..." Du Fei hesitated, nodded, and said, "It's not impossible, Miss Tokugawa will come with us!"

For the rest of his life, he just told him to keep one. Tokugawa Takeru Tokugawa Haruko was the same in Du Fei's eyes.

Hearing what Du Fei said, the brother and sister were overjoyed. As long as one person can return to Dongying, then there is hope to bring the magic medicine back.

“Sister, you must take good care of yourself, and your brother will come back to you when he goes back to solve Tokugawa Pharmaceutical’s affairs.” Tokugawa Takeshi firmly grasped the jade box in his hand and said very seriously.

Tokugawa Haruko nodded emphatically. The purpose of their visit to China this time was to get the magical medicine. Now that the magical medicine is in hand, there is no big problem.

Tokugawa Haruko has enough confidence that as long as she finds an opportunity, she can slip out intact, so her stay is the best decision.

Taking Tokugawa Haruko in the car, Du Fei sent a message to Yu Sheng, asking him to come to the Chenghuang Club.

The City God Club was also an industry under Du Fei’s hands.

Chapter: 728

Seeing the message from Du Fei, Yu Sheng knew that the task he explained was successfully completed. Xiao Shui beside him was still sleeping soundly, and he was still holding his arm in one hand and refused to let go. I felt distressed for the rest of my life.

What happened these days has caused a serious shadow on Xiao Shui. After this time, Yu Sheng plans to take him out for a walk.

Gently put Xiao Shui’s hand aside, Yu Sheng intimately covered him with a quilt, and then cautiously left the room.

He also instructed his servants to always pay attention to the movement of Xiaoshui in the room, and call him as soon as he wakes up.

After explaining everything, Yu Sheng set out to go to the Chenghuang Club.

“Lao Yu, you are here, how do you deal with this Dongying woman?” Du Fei watched Yu Sheng’s arrival, so he asked.

To tell the truth, this Dongying woman was not inferior to Yang Zihuan’s appearance, but was worse than Yang Zihuan’s.

If Lao Yu really planned to keep it for himself, Du Fei wouldn’t feel very surprised. After all, it is normal for a man to be lustful.

Besides, for someone who is as capable as Yu Sheng, even Du Fei, his three wives and four concubines, doesn’t think he has anything.

If Yu Sheng was really interested in Tokugawa Haruko, why would he dig such a big hole and leave Tokugawa Haruko behind!

“Or let him stay with Sakura to serve you specially, I think she looks pretty good.” Du Fei said what he wanted in his heart.

Yu Sheng was taken aback, patted Du Fei’s shoulder, and smiled: “You have known me for so long, don’t you know who I am? This time I arrested her and it was indeed something to deal with.”

Tokugawa Haruko, who was tied up, was stunned when he saw that the visitor was the rest of his life, and he didn’t even react for a while.

At the TCM Expo, Tokugawa Haruko thought that for the rest of his life, he was just a little assistant by Zhu Qingshan.

When I was trading with Situ Jian before, I heard that Yu Sheng was just a waste, now how come he has become a young master!

“Who are you?” Tokugawa Haruko asked angrily.

Hearing this question asked by Haruko Tokugawa, Yu Sheng said with a joking smile, "Haruko-san, you won't forget me so soon, right?"

We made a bet before, you still owe me 10 billion now, why don't you want to admit it?"

Tokugawa Haruko was dumb, it was not the question she wanted to ask at all, and the man in front of him brought the topic here again.

"What is the purpose of arresting me for you?" Haruko Tokugawa didn't have any words for the rest of his life, but wanted to divert his words.

In fact, she already had a general guess in her heart, maybe the rest of her life caught her over, just to make her pay back the 10 billion bet.

"You secretly sneaked into Zhu's doctor's residence, why on earth? Tell the truth!" The smile on Yu Sheng's face disappeared, becoming serious and serious.

Tokugawa Haruko didn't want to answer Yu Sheng's question, so he turned his head to the side, as if he hadn't heard Yu Sheng's words.

Yu Sheng sneered and clapped his hands. In an instant, more than a dozen big men entered the room and walked towards them with a smirk.

"Ms. Haruko, since you are unwilling to cooperate, don't blame me for being rude, my subordinates covet Miss Haruko's beauty after all." Yu Sheng said gloomily.

Tokugawa Haruko was not afraid of death. At that time, looking at the more than ten big men in front of him, she was shuddering. She looked at Yu Sheng resentfully and said, "Mr. Yu, what do you mean by this?"

"You two Dongying people, didn't you come to my Huaxia for the purpose of stealing the magical medicine? Now that you dare to do it, you still ask me what the purpose is. Don't you think it is ridiculous?" Yu Sheng said coldly.

Hearing this sentence, Haruko Tokugawa's heart felt inexplicably tight. Yu Sheng had already guessed their purpose, but fortunately, his brother had already boarded the plane.

Chapter: 729

Thinking of this, Tokugawa Haruko became confident, even if she dedicated her life to the family, Tokugawa Haruko was not afraid.

Now that Yu Sheng is threatening her, he can't take the magic medicine back from Tokugawa's hand. This is destined to be an opportunity for their Tokugawa family to advance to the next level, Tokugawa Haruko thought proudly.

Looking at Yu Sheng's gaze, he was not afraid of the slightest. He looked directly at Yu Sheng and said, "What's the matter, now my brother is about to return to Dongying, even if you know it now, it's too late."

"Really? You really don't plan to go back to Dongying alive? I really don't understand. Even if the Tokugawa clan gains benefits, they eat and drink and enjoy, but you lose your surname for no reason. You are very sad."

Yu Sheng said lightly, looking at Tokugawa Haruko with a pity, and seeing her more like a fool.

Tokugawa Haruko's complexion became a little ugly, she can die for the family, this is the education she received since childhood,

But after hearing what Yu Sheng had just said, her firm heart before began to waver.

If you really want to go to death bravely, it is not as simple as killing her directly, and you will have to endure the humiliation of more than a dozen people not far away, and you will not know how to torture her for the rest of your life.

It's not that she has to complete the task. There will be time in the future. She is only in her twenties, and she has such a strong martial arts attainment in Dongying.

Considered a genius once in a century, Tokugawa Haruko is confident to defeat the rest of his life given her a few more years.

"Well, how can you let me go?" Tokugawa Haruko asked tentatively.

Sure enough, no one would really exchange their own lives for someone else's glorious life, and even Tokugawa Haruko was shaken.

Yu Sheng did not laugh at Tokugawa Haruko's sudden change of mind, and said indifferently: "The magical medicine was stolen by you, and now it's too late to say anything."

"If you are willing to let me go, I will call my brother now and ask him to return the same way and return the magic medicine to you." Haruko Tokugawa said quickly.

Yu Sheng snorted disdainfully, and said, "Haruko Tokugawa, did you trick me like a three-year-old child? Now the magic drug has been taken on the plane by you, and your Tokugawa Pharmaceutical must have the ingredients of the magic drug. Machine, am I wrong?"

After Yu Sheng said what he thought in his heart, Tokugawa Haruko had no way for a while, and it wasn't necessary to send it back. So what exactly did Yu Sheng want to do?

"Or you can give me a price! I just buy the magic medicine, so that I can let it go?" This is the only way Tokugawa Haruko can think of.

"Ten billion yuan!" Yu Sheng said.

Ten billion! This number shocked Tokugawa Haruko.

It's just the magic medicine to treat paralysis. How could the greedy fellow He De sell her 10 billion for the rest of his life?

Suddenly thinking of the previous gambling agreement, she understood in her heart why Yu Sheng had to ask her for 10 billion.

The previous bet was 10 billion, so the rest of his life is likely to want them to return the previous bet to him.

"Ten billion is too much. Besides, Tokugawa Pharmaceutical is not in charge of me. Where can I give you 10 billion?"

Yu Sheng smiled and said, "Ms. Haruko Tokugawa, I am already very tolerant and not mentioning the 10 billion bet before.

And you have already brought the magic medicine back, and you will use the machine to check out the copy of the ingredients inside. The 10 billion I mentioned is the buyout price of the magic medicine. "

Chapter: 730

Tokugawa Haruko was still not convinced. They just said they wanted to buy a magic drug, but they never said that they would buy it out!

Therefore, Yu Sheng did not recognize it when the lion opened his mouth like this.

There was also the previous bet of 10 billion. At that time, the three of them were Takeshi Tokugawa. There were originally no outsiders, and there were no credentials, so Tokugawa Haruko didn't plan to accept it.

As she thought in her heart, the magical medicine would cost tens of millions to buy it all!

"80 million. Our Tokugawa family won't have this money if you have more. If you really dare to do something to me, then think about accepting our Tokugawa family's revenge!"

Tokugawa Haruko's tone didn't let it go, and she didn't realize that she was now in the hands of the rest of her life and might die at any time.

He heard this, Du Fei looked angry. Before, he thought that this woman was the lover of Yu Sheng, and he didn't even think that he would dare to threaten Yu Sheng in this way now.

Taking a step forward, he slapped Haruko Tokugawa severely on the face and cursed: "You Dongying woman, you dare to be so presumptuous on my Chinese site. Believe it or not, I will kill you today. ."

For the rest of his life, he didn't stop Du Fei, but watched all this quietly. Tokugawa Haruko didn't listen to dissuasion, so he wouldn't mind someone helping him teach her a lesson.

"You an ordinary person dare to hit me? I am one of the three masters of Tokugawa Haruko Toyo!"

Tokugawa Haruko was glared at Du Fei, very unconvinced.

If this slap is played for the rest of my life, then forget it, but it happens to be an ordinary person, just such an ordinary person, she usually doesn't care about it at all.

"It's just a small Dongying. Are you embarrassed to say it? I'm not just going to beat you today. If I can't spend 10 billion to buy out the formula of the magic medicine, it won't be a relief."

Du Fei glanced at the ten big men behind him and said coldly.

To Tokugawa Haruko, Du Fei was a little bit pitiful. Although he looked good, he was not as familiar with the women in the little movie he had watched before.

"Even if you take away the magic drug, you still don't have the right to mass production. Then I will expose your Tokugawa Pharmaceutical theft formula internationally, and your Tokugawa Pharmaceutical's reputation will be discredited.

Think about it! My patience is limited. If I leave, I won't be able to control what my subordinates do," Yu Sheng said lightly, with a trace of fatigue on his face.

Seeing this, Haruko Tokugawa immediately became anxious. The only thing he can speak here is probably for the rest of his life.

If the rest of her life is gone, wouldn't she...

"I promise you that the secret recipe for buying out the magic drug for 10 billion yuan, and our previous bet has also been written off!" Haruko Tokugawa said hurriedly.

Yu Sheng smiled and said, "Miss Haruko has a good calculation, but since you are a beautiful woman, I will let you forget this time."

After speaking, Yu Sheng winked at his men, and soon someone let go of Tokugawa Haruko's hand and handed the phone to her.

Haruko Tokugawa moved his arms with several red marks, and took a look at Yu Sheng before receiving the phone.

"Brother, the person who stopped us before was Yu Sheng. Now she wants us to spend 10 billion to buy out the prescription of the magical medicine, or she will expose our theft of the formula internationally, if there is no 10 billion. I have no way to go back either." Haruko Tokugawa told the truth about the matter here.

"Ten billion? I'm afraid I have to ask the uncle for that amount of money. I will definitely find a way to save you when that time comes." Tokugawa said solemnly.

At this moment, the plane has arrived at Dongying.
