

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1445

After Wen Renqing said this, he glanced at William.

It seems to be saying, I'm off to a good start.

You can clean up the rest of the mess yourself.

William Yihan, it's really difficult to raise women and villains.

Didn't you just make a joke?

And Qian Changhu on the side suddenly heard such a delicate voice from the fairy-level person next door, and his body was numb.

really!

To see if a man has the ability, in the end it must be implemented on these fine clothes and jade food!

The fairy threw an olive branch at herself.

Not bad.

This is a good sign.

This woman also understands things very well and knows equivalent exchange.

If I helped her with such a great favor, would she have to repay her, do I need to think about it?

Qian Changhu's heart jumped wildly, as if tonight is very interesting.

He said loudly: "Hahahaha, since ancient times, I have laughed for the beauty of the beacon, and the princes of the beacon show are at all costs, not to mention the beauty just wants a small thing, how can there be no reason? It depends on me."

Qian Changhu said, he raised the sign in his hand and entered the ranks of price increases.

On the stage, there was an excited voice from the beautiful host, "1500 Lingjing! Is there anything higher than this?"

The beautiful host has long known that there will be a major customer today. The major customer in the wave of looting just now has not appeared, and now it is finally over!

"The second princess Wenren, how?" Qian Changhu called out the price, proudly asking Wenren Qingxin.

Wen Renqing immediately complimented: "That's amazing! It seems that Big Brother Changhu has a great position in the current sect, so I am envious."

"That's natural." Qian Changhu said proudly. "It's not worth mentioning that it's not worth mentioning that it's a trivial matter."

This is a big blow.

He brought a total of 3,000 Tianshan Spirit Crystals this time, which was already all the savings his elders had over the years.

And Yunlu Qiankun is not useful to him at all.

Pure Pomeranian smiled.

Seeing that there were people joining the auction, everyone on the court began to speculate about the identity of the person in the attic.

The two people who were disgusted before, holding the enemy's enemy is the consciousness of a friend, punched at the attic and laughed.

They wished that the more shit sticks, the better.

With the spoiler of the two forces, the teeth of the group of people before were crushed.

The price has been called to 2000 Lingjing.

At this moment, even Qian Changhu's complexion didn't look good.

He feels that the cowhide is about to break.

The money he brings is mainly to serve himself.

Can't really squander it for a woman.

In this way he will be hanged and beaten by the family.

Qian Changhu thought about it, and he probably also knew the wrestling between the following two forces.

It's better to work without effort.

So he slowed down the pace of bidding.

In the end, this Yunlu Qiankun was bought back by the original unit.

Qian Changhu smiled and said, "I'm sorry, the second princess Wenren, the other party is so aggressive, has already killed his eyes, there is no need to smash the other party, right?"

Wen Ren Qingxin gave a cold snort and stopped talking.

Anyway, the money went into Wiliam's pocket in the end, and it would be fine to knock Wiliam slowly in the future, and it wouldn't be lost.

William was amused and laughed.

It was this laughter that annoyed Qian Changhu.

Qian Changhu sternly shouted: "Boy, are you laughing at me?"

William said lightly: "That's not enough."

Is he worthy of laughing at him?

But Qian Changhu refused to give up, "Huh! At least I dare to bid? Do you dare? Only things that hide behind a woman! What qualifications do you have to laugh at me? If you have a kind, try asking me for a price! I can't kill you! Or, you are a man, but you can't?"

William didn't make a sound, too lazy to respond.

But Wen Renqing started to organize the Xiuluo field again, and she said quietly: "William! Are you still a man! Big Brother Changhu is up to this point, do you still admit it?"

William looked at her with a black line, using his mouth to compare words, "Don't mess with me."

But where Wen Ren Qingxin would care about William.

At this time, the next baby has already appeared.

It's a purple cloak, called Nether Silkworm Yarn, which is mainly for its defensive effect and can speed up people's speed.

Qian Changhu's eyes lit up when he saw this thing!

good stuff!

This is exactly what he wants!

So Qian Changhu became more confident now, "Boy! There is a kind of thing called me! We smashed to the end! Don't call me not a man!"

William didn't answer at first, but looked around the audience.

His brows frowned slightly.

Qian Changhu on the side is still yelling: "Why? Don't scream in front of women who eat soft rice! Don't you have a good brother? Have you joined the Six Methods? Come on! Let's take the lead!"

William couldn't bear the little thoughts of this kid at first, and said, "Okay, I will accompany you to make a few voices, love, and open the curtains."

Hearing this, Wenrenqing and Wenrenqin looked at each other.

Wen Renqing first said, "William, don't be impulsive. You don't have any spirit crystals on your body."

The voice was very low, but it was just right for Qian Changhu to hear.

Wen Renqing said carelessly: "William, great! Don't let me look down on you! I want to see who you are more powerful than Changhu. Well, I have an idea, who If I win this thing and make me happy, I can meet one of the other conditions."

Qian Changhu listened to what the two said in his ears, a trace of joke flashed in his eyes, and the fish was hooked!

I am so smart!

This thing was going to die to the end!

But with this momentum, this kid will be dull and won the heart of a beautiful woman.

Three birds with one stone!

Don't be too witty!

Qian Changhu was afraid that William would regret it, so he immediately said, "Boy! This is what you said! Today, let everyone see if you are great or I am arrogant!"

With that said, Qian Changhu took the lead, "1500 Lingjing!"

As soon as you shoot, you will know whether there is or not!

This nether silk veil is between the magic weapon and the magic weapon, and the reserve price is 1,000 spiritual crystals.

Qian Changhu directly added 500, which can be said to be full of scenery.

The people below who don't know the truth are confused.

What the hell is this today!

Has everyone hit the evil?

And through the opened curtains, William could see Qian Changhu's triumphant expression.

Qian Changhu even raised his middle finger to William while the two sisters were paying attention, as if provoking him.

Sure enough, Qian Changhu saw William's face become ugly.

William even stood up impulsively. Just as he was about to speak, his sister Hua directly covered his mouth.

It seemed to be stopping William's impulse.

However, William had red eyes.

He broke free and shouted directly: "1600 Lingjing! I still don't believe it!"
