

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1484: part 2

The world was surprisingly silent for a while.

The peach petals flying all around fell one after another at this moment.

William's heart couldn't help beating.

He knew that this was the wrong answer.

However, he could not violate his conscience.

So, what are these nine deaths?

"Why do you choose this way?" The voice of Lady Peach Blossom suddenly appeared again between heaven and earth.

The voice was still soft, but it was a little colder out of thin air.

William sat on the ground and said helplessly: "If I think about this problem from the perspective of a third person, I will definitely choose to save the common people. After all, there will be no eggs under the covering of the nest. But it is a pity that I stand by myself. Angle....."

"What's the difference?" Peach Blossom Lady asked.

"It's a big difference. From my own point of view, I'm sorry, I have a wife who loves her, and her name is Bai Fengxue."

"I said a word before, if I have William with the world in mind, then no one is my son in the world."

"But now, when Fengxue's life and death matter, I can only say that if I have wind and snow in my heart, then the wind and snow is the world, and she is everything I look at."

"So, my choice is to be with her, even if the world is catastrophic, I will never leave."

After William said these words in one breath, there was a faint sadness in his heart.

If there is such a dead-or-living option, this answer should be worthy of your heart.

Between heaven and earth, fell into silence again.

After a long time, Lady Peach Blossom's voice sounded again.

"Stupid. Your choice, wrong."

There was a sharp killing intent in his voice.

It seemed that Lady Peach Blossoms was full of anger because of Wiliam's choice.

The silent peach petals all around suddenly danced when the voice of Lady Peach Blossom fell!

A shocking picture appeared!

Every piece of flying peach petals emits a dazzling pink light in the air!

When the pink light disappeared, in front of Wiliam's eyes, women who didn't know they were demons appeared!

These women have different shapes, including adults and children, with hollow eyes, wearing pink overalls, and holding peach blossom branches full of peach blossoms in their hands.

So, a life of nine deaths, does it come from surviving from these peach blossom monsters?

Wiliam thought silently in his heart, and he had already stood up.

Looking at the hundreds of Peach Blossom Fairies, Wiliam had no regrets in his heart.

He has no regrets that this is not the correct answer.

He chose the road himself.

He only has a trace of guilt for his grandfather.

Sorry, grandpa, I didn't follow your instructions to take this step.

Therefore, I will bear the sin myself.

He thought, his body rushed out.

At the moment he rushed out, the red light on his body also flickered.

Long live Demon Lotus is faster than him, and kills the Peach Blossom Demon one step ahead.

The strength of those Peach Blossom Fairy, although only the realm of Huajin Consummation.

But there is a very scary characteristic.

Immortal!

Wiliam watched as Long Live Demon Lotus beheaded several Peach Blossom Demon in succession.

But a few seconds later, the Peach Blossom Fairy fell on the ground, her body was wrapped in a pink light.

Then they came back to life.

Long live Wiliam Demon Lotus is very strong, but she can't stand the Peach Blossom Demon who is constantly resurrecting and entangled.

In a short while, some Peach Blossom Fairy had already broken through the needle formation of Long Live Demon Lotus and killed Wiliam.

Is it immortal?

If this continues, there is no way...

There are two more questions below.

Some physical strength must be reserved.

So, where is the way of life in a life of nine deaths...

Wiliam struggled with the Peach Blossom Fairy while observing and thinking.

At this time, his eyes narrowed and he noticed a trivial detail!

Trivial, but enough to determine the details of life and death!
