

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1493

Lady Peach's words are like an old driver driving.

What is physical tolerance, help me vent?

But Wiliam changed his mind to think that Lady Peach is also a lover, not so vulgar.

Thinking about it means literally, because I have thought about it too much.

"Can you be more specific?" Wiliam asked.

Although the peach blossom lady in front of me was a resentful spirit, she showed a sorrowful expression and said: "I shouldn't have lived in this world, the peach blossom lady's heart is bitter. Only when my body of resentful spirit dies, can she really wake up. And if I survive, Lady Peach may not be able to wake up in this life. So your appearance is an opportunity. As long as you completely bear the resentment in your flesh, I will die and she will wake up."

"Really? Then what you said is cruel, what's the answer?" Wiliam asked.

"A mortal body bears a thousand years of resentment. This is more terrifying than a life of nine deaths. At that time, you can't mobilize any internal force or use any external force, otherwise you will be backlashed by the resentment, I will only be stronger, and you will only die. One. Whether you can bear it depends on your body and will," said Lady Peach Blossom.

She looked at Wenren and fell in love again, "This woman, indeed, is a silly woman with me, and I can't bear to see her die. If you are really willing to bear my grievances for her, I will naturally save her. Watch it now. Your choice."

"Okay, I accept." Wiliam agreed almost without thinking.

He added another sentence in his heart.

This is what I owe her.

"You can prepare now and leave a suicide note. In case you can't bear my grievances, your last words, I will send them out for you." Lady Peach Blossom said.

Wiliam thought for a while and said with a smile: "No, the one I love will understand all my actions, come on."

He stood in front of Lady Peach Blossoms resentful spirit, spread his hands, and took off all his defenses.

"Okay, let me remind you one more sentence. If you can't bear it in the middle, you can call it out. I will stop immediately. Maybe I will not die." Peach Lady was a little bit unbearable and reminded.

Wiliam nodded and stopped talking.

"I'm here." Lady Tao Hua took a deep look at Wiliam, and suddenly let out a long roar.

Her body emits black light, like a snake python, instantly hitting Wiliam's body.

"Ah!" Rao Wiliam made enough mental preparations, and when the resentment entered his body, he also let out a scream!

This kind of pain is completely different from all the pain Wiliam experienced before!

If the pain level of the battle damage experienced before is 10, then the pain that Wiliam suffers from resentment is now 1000!

Pain has increased a hundred times!

And this kind of pain is said to be suffered by the body, but a large part of it involves the soul!

The pain is pervasive, born from the bone marrow, piercing the flesh, extending to Wiliam's soul, as if to tear his soul apart!

Wiliam, who had never endured such pain, screamed out on the spot.

But what is even more terrifying is that Wiliam not only bears the severe pain of his body and soul, but also bears the negative energy of Lady Peach!

He just felt that all the evil spirits in his head were gnawing at him frantically!

This world is hell, this world is a melting pot!

Fear!

fear!

Hate!

resentment!

Crazy!

greedy!

**!

All the negative emotions flooded into Wiliam's soul instantly!

"Ah!" Wiliam let out a scream again, eager to mobilize the internal strength and metaplasia qi in his body to suppress this pressure.

However, he abruptly held back.

The remaining consciousness told him that he could not use internal and external forces.

Wiliam was caught in this kind of crazy pain, and he didn't know what kind of crazy changes had happened to his body for a long time.

In the eyes of Lady Tao Hua, Wiliam at this moment was really pitiful.

He is like a flat boat in the storm, and he is in danger of tearing and breaking his body at any time.

And if you look closely at Wiliam's body, you will feel even more terrified!

The clothes on his body have all been turned into powder, and his body is enveloped by thick and liquid black light.

These black lights were like bone gangrene, treating Wiliam's body as a piece of fertile soil.

"boom!"

A black peach blossom unexpectedly bloomed in Wiliam's body.

The black peach blossom grows in Wiliam's bones, piercing through Wiliam's flesh, and sucking Wiliam's blood.

Then, the second flower, the third flower...

Countless peach blossoms bloomed on Wiliam.

Wiliam's body was also bloody because of the blooming peach blossoms.

And this is just the beginning.

One thing that Wiliam could be thankful for was that he stayed in Luo Tian Mikong for thirty days.

Thirty days of hardening of the physical body gave him a certain ability to repair his body.

If he enters here before Luo Tian Mikong tempers his body, he will bear the resentment.

Wiliam is now completely dead.

However, this is far from enough.

Half an hour passed.

Wiliam's screaming voice gradually weakened.

His life is like a candle in the wind, and is in danger of being extinguished at any time.

But the body of Lady Peach Blossoms resentment showed a translucent appearance.

Obviously, half of the resentment and hostility were vented on Wiliam.

However, Lady Peach couldn't bear to see Wiliam now look like this.

She didn't know that Wiliam had already had the power to resist, and only one obsession was supporting him.

Save Wenren's heart!

"Little guy, give up." Peach Blossom Lady suddenly sighed and said softly.

If this continues, he will die completely within a few minutes.

At this moment, except for a face, there is no whole piece of flesh and blood on him.

Even some places showed dense bones.

It seemed that after hearing Lady Peach Blossom's advice, Wiliam actually shook his head slowly.

Give up?

how is this possible?

Obviously come to this step.

How can you give up?

What does it mean to give up?

It means that I can't let go of the guilt I have for this life!

It means that when I face the wind and snow again, I cannot accept the one I love upright!

It means that I planted my heart demon by myself, and I won't make any progress in this life!

Not just resentment!

Isn't it hostile!

How much humiliation I have suffered in this life, Wiliam! How high-spirited!

There are thousands of moments wanting to act voluntarily, happily with enmity!

But they are supported by will!

What shame is unbearable!

What debt can't be paid!

Hostility kills me, it's easier said than done!

Wiliam's eyes were a little bit more deadly!

Hold on!

Hold on!

"Roar!"

A low roar came out of Wiliam's throat.

Not like a human voice!

At this time, Lady Peach sighed again and said: "This is your choice, then you have to be prepared for death. Next, my spiritual intelligence will be completely disordered and become one with resentment, just thinking I can't stop it."

As she spoke, a peerless Qingcheng face instantly became hideous and terrifying.

A roar full of slaughter and hostility came out of her mouth!

"Pete and soft! I hate you! Thousands of years!"
