

Dragon Husband

Chapter 1495

Wiliam's head was dazed, petite and soft?

This name?

He suddenly sounded. When he was suffering from the vent of Peach Lady's resentful spirit, he heard the resentful spirit call out this name when he was totally confused.

only.....

"This deal is..." Peach Lady wanted to continue, but was interrupted by Wiliam.

"Wait, I'll confirm one thing." Wiliam looked at Lady Peach Blossom with a strange expression.

He looked up and down, his eyes staying on her beautiful face and her graceful waist.

Wiliam was sure that the peach lady in front of him was a real woman.

But the petite and tender s*x...

"You mean, the python is a female?" Wiliam couldn't help but asked weakly.

Peach Lady showed a weird smile and nodded, "Well, you guessed it wrong, she is a female."

Wiliam got goose bumps all over, "She is a female, and you are a female. Then are you lovers?"

Peach Lady asked back: "Is there any problem?"

A turbulent sea was set off in Wiliam's heart.

What a special thing!

It's no wonder that when Lady Peach Blossom was talking about the love of flowers and snakes, she talked about their love, not only across races, but also across...

The second half sentence is not spoken.

Should it also cross the gender?

Wiliam's entire head was dumbfounded.

Moreover, Wiliam wanted to complain more.

That's a python!

A behemoth whose true body divides the entire continent into two pieces.

The name is actually Jiao Xiaorou?

Shouldn't it be called stout?

Petite and soft with a body that stretches across the world, what kind of ghost image is this?

"Do you have an opinion?" Peach Blossom Lady asked again.

William shook his head quickly, "There is no such thing! Blessings and blessings!"

He gradually accepted this incredible fact in his heart.

The love of this pair of flowers and snakes is really bitter.

The pressure must be great.

"Well, let's talk about trading next." Lady Peach said slowly, "You help me save Petite Rou."

William didn't even listen to the following, so he waved his hand quickly, "Lady Peach Blossom, you value me too much. I'm just a worldly child, but the pythons are all over the world. How can I have this ability to rescue him? Besides, it's a rescue. Will the disappearance of the sacred python moat cause another change in the world?"

Lady Peach smiled and shook her head, and said: "You are too worried. You don't need to let the python sky moat disappear, you only need to obtain one thing, and then throw it into the python sky moat. Then the petite and soft soul will be protected from the common people. Suppressed, come back to me. In the physical body, we will slowly think of a solution together."

William breathed a sigh of relief and asked, "What is it?"

"Jiangshan Prayer Seal." Said Lady Peach.

William has never heard of it.

"This imprint was made by the three ancestors of the human race at the time when they exhausted their last efforts, in order to restore the climate of this world after Petite and Soft became a moat. Now after ten thousand years, the climate of the world has gradually taken shape, and there is no need for Jiangshan. The prayer is printed. But the Jiangshan prayer mark can help the petite and soft soul to liberate." Peach Lady seems to be removing William's worries.

William pondered for a long time before nodding, "Where is the prayer of Jiangshan?"

"Guarded by a race group, that race group has undergone thousands of years of evolution, and its name is now called Hanzhou Zhe." Said Lady Taohua.

Cold boater?

William's eyes stunned!

That group of Hanzhou people who live by selling boats and ferrying people on the edge of the python sky?

"How do you get it? I don't care. You can just get the mark and throw it into the chrysanthemum moat. Now you can talk about the benefits I gave you. Is the root of grandmother enough? I know you need this thing very much." Peach Blossom Lady Throw out temptation with a smile.

"Can you introduce you to Jiao Xiaorou for me first? I don't know you very well yet." Wiliamzhen accepted it positively, but changed the question.

"Yes. The birth of Petite and Rou is a kind of good fortune. The three ancestors and four emperors were fighting endlessly, and the earth shattered and the common people were wiped out. It seems that the heaven and the earth were born in order to restore order, so Petite Rou was born. Her body is the frost python, unprecedented. There is no one in the world, but she is the only demon in the world. Her real body lies across the world. The three ancestors also speculated that Petite Rou could save the world by real body, so I looked for her at that time. As for me, my real body is a black yellow tree. Peach Blossom, I am the only demon in the world. One of my abilities is to look at the secrets of heaven."

"It's ridiculous to say that when San Zuoren found Jiao Xiaorou, I peeped at Tianji and knew what the consequences would be if Xiaorou agreed. But Tianji couldn't speak directly to people. I had to obstruct it in every possible way, no Let her go. I thought she listened to my words, and didn't expect to think that in the end, I counted the secret, but not the heart of the person next to her, she still complied with the secret..." The peach blossom lady said this, unavoidably Miserable.

"I understand. I have another request. You just said that Petite and Rou's real body is Frost Anaconda, and she should have Frost Power or Frost Bloodline..." Wiliam said slowly.

Lady Peach smiled slyly, "So, are you going to pave the way for your lover?"

Wiliam was not surprised that she could know about the wind and snow for this lady of peach blossom who could peer into the secrets of heaven.

"No matter, I'm just a little fairy in love. The Avenue of Common Life has nothing to do with me. I only want petite and soft to come back to me. I promise you that if one day your lover crosses the sky, she will get the blood of frost. Inheritance." Peach Lady smiled.

Wiliam nodded, "Okay, I promise you! I will go to the cold boat territory as soon as possible and try my best to get the Jiangshan Prayer Seal."

"Well, it's a deal." Lady Peach smiled, smiling like a flower.

"By the way, how was the old man who came down before?" Wiliam asked.

"That person is your grandfather. He is very smart, and wisdom is not under you. Back then, he quickly figured out the idea of the resentful spirit after coming down, so he answered three answers full of common people's morality. The answers are all correct, but they are insincere The Wraith detected that in his heart, the common people were not as good as his grandson. So after answering three questions, he had a fight with the Wraith, and only one breath remained. But the Wraith couldn't count him, he was still caught. He escaped." Lady Peach Blossom said lightly, without any emotion at all.

"Then did he get anything from you?" Wiliam didn't want to give up any clues.

Lady Peach shook her head, "No."

"I see." Wiliam replied casually.

It seemed that the only clue that Grandpa stayed here was the line of words outside.

No, the root of grandmother!

The real clue left by grandfather is to get his grandmother's roots.

William Zhang spoke again, because he was not awake, he began to check his body.

During this inspection, William couldn't help but call it out!

"my body!"
