

Dragon Husband 1629 part 1

Chapter 1629 Hongshi Kneeling!

Everyone was shocked when they followed Wiliam's fingers!

The point he pointed to, at the center of this qualifying match, was the towering sculpture.

It was a sculpture of a black lion, but it was a bit different to say that it was a lion.

Because the lion also grows two very large and narrow wings.

And this is the totem of the Dugu Hong Lion Sect, and also their ancestor-Dugu Hong Lion!

No one knows how long this lonely lion sculpture has stood here.

However, the people of Dugu Hongshi are all respectful to this sculpture from top to bottom!

Now Wiliam fingered the totem, and kept saying that the ancestor of the lonely lion should kneel down. This is already a very serious taboo!

Bai Jianxing was furious, the trembling on his body was wiped out, and he said angrily: "You dare! Dare to be disrespectful to my ancestors! Today I will set you down!"

With that said, he was going to shoot at Wiliam!

But at this moment, a terrifying picture appeared!

The world seemed to tremble when Wiliam pointed so softly!

The ground is shaking gently!

The first person who noticed it yelled out in panic, "Is there an earthquake! Is it an earthquake!"

After a while, the vibration became more and more obvious, and the tea cup on the seating platform shook.

In the end, even people couldn't stand still!

What's the matter!

“Everyone, look at this sculpture of the lonely lion!” someone suddenly shouted.

Everyone looked up one after another, this time, there was a huge exclamation!

The lion sculpture, which stood upright in ancient times, was originally towering into the sky, but I didn't see its head!

But at this moment, there is an illusion on the head of the Dugu Hong Lion, and everyone can see the head of the Dugu Hong Lion clearly!

When the weather is good, many people have seen the head of a lion.

It was a black lion head that was pure and fierce.

The head of the lion is proud to the sky, as if roaring at the sky.

And the lion's eyes were closed forever, as if he didn't want to see this muddy world.

But at this moment, it has changed!

The head of Dugu Hongshi has changed!

The lion's head was originally high, but I don't know when it was slightly lowered.

What's more, tremblingly shouted: “Look at the lion's eyes! God! Is this a miracle!”

The lion's closed eyes opened a small slit at a very slow speed!

Hongshi opened his eyes!

Bai Jianxing, together with the people from the Duguhong Lion Sect, burst into tears!

The old lord has appeared!

The ancestors have really manifested!

There was a record of the appearance of the ancestors in the history of the Duguhong Lion Sect!

But that time, it was the sect that was almost destroyed by the sect, and the ancestors showed their spirits and kept his bloodline.

In front of him, it was the second appearance of the ancestors in history!

Bai Jianxing is in tears!

If this is the case, he will follow the manifestation of the ancestors and be completely included in the history of the Duguhong Lion Sect!

He was totally unable to express his excitement in words, and he even forgot to deal with Wiliam for a while.

Shaking his body, he knelt down in the direction of Dugu Hongshi.

The people of Dugu Hongshi also knelt down and prayed devoutly!

Seeing this peculiar scene, everyone at the scene was silent.

The pious prayers of the disciples of the Dugu Hong Lion resounded all over the room. It's so weird!

What everyone is more puzzled is, why is the sculpture of the Dugu Hong Lion now appearing?

The sect did not reach the point of exterminating the sect.

"Swish swish!"

A burst of breaking wind sounded.

Everyone follow the prestige!

I saw several places on the mountain behind the Duguhong Lion Zongmen!

Then a few dark shadows came in their direction at lightning speed!

Seeing this scene, Bai Jianxing hurriedly shouted: "Great elders! The ancestors have appeared!"

The people who came here were a little bit more excited on their faces.

They are the elders of Dugu Hongshi.

Rumor has it that every Taishang elder has stepped into the wonderland for many years.

Because they have been in hiding for too long, how many people have known about their existence.

No one knows the extent of their current strength.

The leading elder, without a word, fell to the ground and worshiped!

The other elders also knelt down.

After the worship, the Taishang elder asked in a low voice: "What's the matter? Why did the ancestors manifest spirits!"

Bai Jianxing quickly explained the nine qualifying events held once every twenty years in the past few days.

As for the ancestors' manifestation, Bai Jianxing looked at Wiliam!

A young man who is out of place in the field!

In this ring, everyone was kneeling, and only Wiliam stood proudly with his hands on his back.

It is like a king of eternal night, accepting these four pilgrimages!

Just now everyone was kneeling too deeply, and they didn't realize that Wiliam was standing alone at the scene.

Everyone is kneeling on him!

Bai Jianxing said coldly: "Boy, don't kneel down yet! Are you looking for death?"

"What the hell is going on?" The elder Taishang's expression also went cold.

Someone dared to be presumptuous in front of their ancestors!

Therefore, Bai Jianxing told the story of Wiliam's finger on the statue of the ancestor just now, and he kept telling the ancestor to kneel down.

"It must be this kid who was rude to the ancestors, and made the ancestors upset, so he made a special appearance!" Bai Jianxing deduced loudly.

The gazes of several elders suddenly turned to Wiliam, and their eyes were full of killing intent!

Hongshi ancestors must not be insulted!

At this time, the ground is shaking more and more!

Everyone was surprised to see that the head of the Dugu Hong Lion sculpture had been completely lowered.

Before looking up at the sky, now looking down at the earth!

His eyes opened completely.

“Old ancestor, don’t blame it, don’t blame it! I immediately dealt with this kid who was rude to you!” Bai Jianxing shouted.

At this time, Wiliam’s body suddenly jumped up!

He was like a cloud-piercing arrow, rushing directly into the air!

The body came to the opposite side of the huge body of Dugu Hongshi.

One person, one lion!

One small, one big!

How weird this scene is!

The head of Duguhong Lion still looked down on the earth and the landing leaf.

Wiliam frowned and said lightly, “It’s not polite.”

The voice just fell!

The ground on the scene exploded “boom bang bang”!

Dugu Hongshi’s originally erect body slowly bent down under Wiliam’s words!

The lion’s limbs are also slowly bending!

Dust on all sides!

It wasn’t until the lion completely knelt on the ground that its head was level with Wiliam.

And Hongshi’s head humbled under everyone’s eyelids, and let out a low roar!

Bend over!

Bow your head!

Kneel!

Who is kneeling!

The blood inheritor of the ancestor of the eternal unicorn!

Wiliam!
