

Dragon Husband 1654 part 1

Chapter 1654 Doomsday Medicine Knife

Bai Fengxue looked at the man in front of him indifferently.

She knew what the other party wanted.

She did not know when she had quietly held a silver needle in her hand.

When Feng Xue decided to attract the attention of the other party alone, she was already ready to die.

In their hands, if the other party wants to be light on her, then death is the best destination.

And just when Bai Fengxue wanted to commit suicide, another man stood up and said in a deep voice, "Old Chen, do you want to die? This woman just asked Lingqing by name. When Lingqing gets tired of playing, naturally it will be rewarded to us. But if you touch her now, you probably don't know how she will die."

This made the arrogant man frown.

He stared at Bai Fengxue angrily, and said gloomily, "Little girls, wait for me! You will fall into my hands sooner or later. Then let you taste the pain and happiness!"

Bai Fengxue was picked up on the spot and ran towards the outside.

And her heart was momentarily relieved.

Isn't it time to die?

Her eyes glanced silently in one direction.

When she found out that no one was going in that direction, she breathed a long sigh of relief.

It's not bad.....

It should be able to move away...

By the time we got outside, the situation was very clear.

How could He Tiantian and the others be the opponents of Huang Lingqing's group?

But after a while, He Tiantian and the others were already scarred and could only barely stand.

"Tang Master Huang, we have finally found this stinky girl!" The man before shouted to Huang Lingqing as if taking credit.

And Huang Lingqing looked over and found that Bai Fengxue was the only one alone, and his face suddenly became ugly, "Are there other people?"

The man's expression stiffened, and he quickly said, "Well, this place is really too big, we are still searching, don't worry, Hall Master Huang, we will definitely find it!"

Huang Lingqing snorted coldly, "It's better! This is the task given above, and we haven't finished it yet. We can't finish eating and go! Let's continue to look for it!"

The man shivered and turned to leave.

But he turned around again and said to Huang Lingqing, "What about this woman?"

Huang Lingqing glanced at Bai Fengxue.

At this moment, Bai Fengxue was in a state of embarrassment, and a picture of a person who had been in a state of disgrace also looked a little swollen because he was slapped hard by the man just now.

Lost the glamorous and moving look before.

Huang Lingqing said lightly: "Leave it to me."

The man understood and immediately handed Bai Fengxue to Huang Lingqing.

But seeing Bai Fengxue being arrested, He Tiantian and others' expressions changed on the spot.

They seemed to have thought of something and looked at Bai Fengxue.

Bai Fengxue reluctantly opened her eyes and nodded slightly at He Tiantian and the others.

It seems to be saying, don't worry, everyone else should have escaped.

He Tiantian and the others are with Fengxue day and night, how can they not understand the meaning of Bai Fengxue's eyes.

But, is this what they are worried about!

What they are worried about is the safety of Bai Fengxue!

Hoho, it seems that you still care about this woman? What is her status with you?" Huang Lingqing was very keenly aware of He Tiantian and others' concerns about Bai Fengxue.

After asking this question, He Tiantian and the others glanced at each other.

His eyes were full of determination.

It is absolutely impossible to say Bai Fengxue's identity!

You know, Bai Fengxue is Wiliam's wife.

And one of the purposes of this group of people is to seek revenge for Wiliam!

If Bai Fengxue's identity is exposed, it will be even more disadvantageous to her.

"It seems that you don't even talk about it, right? Well, you won't be able to get any better anyway, so let's arrest you first." Huang Lingqing said proudly.

The current situation is very unfavorable for them.

They don't have any conditions for negotiation at all.

"Go! Arrest them all, and I will torture them!" Huang Lingqing ordered again.

He Tiantian is so angry!

They resisted.

But it is no longer allowed.

One by one, they are already at the end of the fight.

Especially Dao Xiaofeng.

She is already very old, and now she has participated in such a tragic battle, and there is a black gas on her face.

Obviously moved to life.

If it goes on like this, Dao Xiaofeng will be dead soon without the other party torturing Dao Xiaofeng.

But after a while, Dao Xiaofeng has been caught by accident.

And He Tiantian and the others saw that the grandmother was arrested, and knew that the situation was over, and no amount of resistance would be of any use.

Soon, they were also caught.

Huang Lingqing moved a chair over and looked coldly at the twenty or so people in front of him.

"Hoho, don't you tell me honestly? Who are you from William and Liu Lang?" Huang Lingqing asked coldly.

The twenty or so people remained silent.

"Hoho, it's really tough! Let's do it! Whoever tells me first, I can spare no one to die! There is only one quota. I will do what I say." Played a countermeasure.

The people of the Medicine Knife Family had a resolute look on their faces, and they were not moved at all.

But at this moment, a voice came over, "I said, I said, can you really spare me and not die?"

Everyone looked at the sound, and they found a woman who looked like a flower and jade stood up.

And this woman is Fan Bingxue, one of Liu Lang's wives.

Everyone frowned when they saw Fan Bingxue stand up.

What is she going to do!

Huang Lingqing watched Fan Bingxue stand up, with a playful smile on the corner of his mouth, "Of course, I, Huang Lingqing, count what I say."

"Then you swear to God?" Fan Bingxue said timidly with a look of fear.

"Okay, I swear to God, if I don't let you go after you say it, I won't die." Huang Lingqing said indifferently.

"Well, that's fine." Fan Bingxue said, looking at these people from the Medicine Knife family.

She pointed to them one by one and said, "That old woman is the head of the Medicine Knife Family, and the others are the guests of the Medicine Knife Family, as well as various deputy heads."

The faces of the Medicine Knife Family were stunned.

What's the answer?

I thought Fan Bingxue was going to betray the Medicine Knife family to find a way out, but I didn't expect that Fan Bingxue gave a completely inexplicable answer.

Huang Lingqing's brows furrowed deeply, "Ke Qing? Then tell me, what do these people have to do with Wiliam and Liu Lang?"

Fan Bingxue sighed and said, "Brother, you saw it too, everyone knows that you are here for Wiliam and Liu Lang, and their family members knew that they would die if they stayed, so they ran away just now. These are left behind to hold up your time. They have nothing to do with Liu Lang and Wiliam, so they can be sacrificed at any time..."
