Chapter 1658 A Woman's Choice

And the killing at the scene continues!

William's eyes were completely red!

Everyone could only see the afterimage of his figure, which appeared in the east for a while, and appeared in the west for a while.

It fell from the sky again in the blink of an eye!

But where he appeared, blood and blood must be flying!

He Tiantian and others were shocked to see it!

I have never seen such a violent William!

This kind of hostility seems to have to slaughter this day and this place to be happy!

Li Chunfeng had already burst into tears by the side.

She stood up and wanted to rush over to stop William.

But it was immediately stopped by Dao Xiaofeng.

Dao Xiaofeng frowned and held Li Chunfeng, and shouted sternly: "Don't go over! You are going to die now! The current William, who has already killed his eyes, can't recognize the enemy or his own at all."

The other women also stood up and nodded to Li Chunfeng.

Looking at William's figure, He Tiantian said bleakly, "This kid, how much love does he need to stir up such a strong hatred."

She looked at William, not knowing why she was a little envious of Bai Fengxue.

Bai Fengxue's love has never been given to only one person.

And William is the same.

Liu Lang's grandson did not do this.

William, you must not fall into the devil's way...

After a while, this group of so-called defenders of humanitarian order have been slaughtered by William!

The people at the scene were also stunned.

The masters of the entire Medicine Knife family were dispatched, and they could not obtain the slightest benefit from the guardian of the humanitarian order.

And William was alone, killing them all.

In terms of conversion, William's combat power is much stronger than that of the Medicine Knife family combined.

Is this guy human?

What has he experienced in the other world, his realm and strength have increased so quickly.

What they are more worried about now is whether William will stop by himself...

Because there is no one to kill at the scene...

Will William swing the butcher's knife towards their own people?

As all the enemies were killed, William's figure suddenly froze.

He turned around, his eyes fixed on He Tiantian's side all of a sudden.

The hearts of these people suddenly jumped, and they held their breath.

I was afraid that the sound of breathing would attract William's attention.

At this time, William's footsteps moved.

Step by step, he walked in the direction of He Tiantian and the others.

He Tiantian and several people were immediately close to each other.

As William approached, their bodies couldn't help but start to tremble.

Because now William is really terrible.

His body was covered with blood, and even his eyes were red, those were the eyes of the devil.

What frightened them even more was that the violent aura on Wiliam's body did not dissipate.

As soon as you raise your hand, you can kill anyone present at any time.

Wiliam has come to them.

"Wiliam, are you okay?" Li Chunfeng couldn't help but whispered.

However, Wiliam didn't have any response.

He could no longer see these people.

He couldn't hear what these people were saying either.

There was a sea of hatred in his mind.

The anger continued to rise on his body.

Wiliam's hand was raised slowly.

Li Chunfeng rushed over directly, stood in front of He Tiantian and the others, and faced Wiliam directly.

However, Wiliam's hand was still slowly raised, with all kinds of terrifying energy condensed in his hand.

"Wiliam..." Li Chunfeng's tears fell directly.

"No, Wiliam." The others also looked at Wiliam with red eyes and shook their heads slightly.

"Dad!" A loud and crying voice suddenly sounded like a thunderbolt not far away.

Then, before everyone could react, a small black figure rushed out and stabbed directly at Wiliam.

Even Wiliam didn't respond, his body was like a cannonball, and he was knocked to the ground ruthlessly.

The people at the scene were shocked!

Someone has already recognized who this little black shadow is!

Xiao Wangqing!

How did Xiao Wangqing escape at this juncture!

Didn't she flee with the big army?

Why are you back now?

Ruined!

William is now on the verge of running wild and doesn't recognize anyone at all.

Xiao Wangqing is sending it to the tiger's mouth!

"Daddy! Daddy! You're finally back!" Xiao Wangqing didn't care.

She lay on William's body and rolled around desperately, pulling William's clothes with snot and tears.

Soon her body was also covered in blood.

Just when Li Chunfeng was about to rush over to pull Xiao Wangqing away, they saw that the violence in William's eyes was slowly fading away.

It seemed that Xiao Wangqing's shout had awakened his sanity.

William's hand slowly pressed on Xiao Wangqing's head.

Knead lightly.

"Xiao Wangqing..." William said in a low voice, his voice choked.

"Dad, Dad, I miss you so much. Just now my mother told me to go, but I didn't want to go, so I hid in the corner and peeked, and finally I saw you came back." Xiao Wangqing's body was shaking constantly, her mouth twitching. No more talking.

It's been too long since I saw William.

There were tears in the corners of her eyes, and she kept saying, "Mother looked so terrible just now, her body was deformed, she kept laughing, and her body was bleeding, like a devil, scaring the baby to death. I Don't dare to come out."

Speaking of Bai Fengxue, William seemed to remember something, and his eyes turned red again.

He stood up holding Xiao Wangqing and walked slowly towards the frosty wind and snow.

The wind and snow in the frost seemed to have taken off all the fatigue and fear, and his eyes were closed peacefully.

But Wiliam knew that as long as the frost was melted, the life of Fengxue could disappear at any time.

“Wiliam.” Li Chunfeng rushed over and stood in front of Wiliam.

Others came over quickly.

The Medicine Knife family after the catastrophe looked particularly desolate.

Wiliam raised his head and looked at the familiar group of people.

The reunion that should have been a joy is now gone.

With tears in his eyes, Li Chunfeng knelt down to Wiliam and Bai Fengxue, “I’m sorry, Fengxue is for us...”

He Tiantian and others, including Dao Xiaofeng, all knelt down.

Wiliam was their savior, and Feng Xue was even more so.

A kneeling is totally bearable.

Dao Xiaofeng said sadly: “Feng Xue and your great kindness, our Medicine Knife Family will keep in our hearts!”

Wiliam shook his head and said to them, “What’s going on?”

He Tiantian sighed and told the reason for this group of people, and incidentally, he also said what happened to Feng Xue.

After Wiliam heard this, his whole body trembled uncontrollably.

This is Blizzard’s choice.

This is a woman’s indomitable choice!

Xiao Wangqing also seemed to understand, sighed, touched Wiliam’s face, and choked: “Mom...”

“Hey, didn’t you think there are rootless spirits here?” A magnetic voice suddenly came from the sky.
