

Dragon Husband 1674 part 1

Chapter 1674 The sect masters of all dynasties!

The people at the scene have been stunned!

This sword youth turned out to be from Song Hanyu, one of the two arrogances!

And listening to Xu Tongyin's tone, Song Hanyu was standing outside alone, blocking all the vassal sects!

A woman is the offense, and ten thousand people don't open it!

This sentence is really not casual.

You must know that in the battle just now, there were thousands of people who came from outside!

Song Hanyu stopped them from speaking, and he made a sword!

This sword amazed the world!

The people at the scene gained a new understanding of Song Hanyu's strength.

It is indeed one of the two prides.

Although she did not have much chance to perform in the nine qualifying competitions due to various reasons.

Even in the past few days, many people started talking nonsense, saying that Xu Tongyin's strength had far surpassed Song Hanyu's.

Song Hanyu never responded positively to these rumors.

Now, here comes the response!

This amazing sword is enough to raise the world's perception of her strength by a whole lot!

Even Xu Tongyin may not be able to strike thousands of stars with one sword!

What a Song Hanyu!

She has always been very good to the relationship between land.

Some people were still puzzled just now. Even the people from Lanshan Zhige came. How could they not see Jinyu Lingkong or Song Hanyu?

After all, Wiliam's kindness to Jin Yu Lingkong and Song Hanyu is as high as a mountain!

He never thought that Song Hanyu would stay outside silently and alone, accomplishing what none of these people at the scene could do.

She is really supporting Wiliam.

The battle on the field must belong to Wiliam alone.

Said to be flat, to be flat!

When many people thought of this, they also thought of what Song Hanyu said before in the ranking of the nine sects.

She said she would fight one case one by one.

Many people also thought this was just a passing word.

Now she has proved with her strength that she, Song Hanyu, can do it if she can say it!

Don't come with the slightest bit of water!

Hu Qixiang is white.

He thought that the people he was outside had actually died before they were successful!

Still being stopped by a female classmate with a sword to solve it!

His teeth are going to be crushed!

"Song Hanyu, I remember it! If my sword covers the sky today, he will find Song Hanyu to make an end!" Hu Yixiao was still able to say nonsense at this moment.

Although Wiliam covered his eyes, he didn't see the stunning sword just now.

But he actually felt it. After all, Wiliam also had deep contact with Song Hanyu's purple frost.

The breath of purple frost made Wiliam immediately recognize that Song Hanyu was blocking the enemy not far away.

After the sword disappeared, Wiliam started to move again.

This time, Hu Yixiao's eyes became even redder!

"Hahahaha, carve tap! Those people are used to consume some time! I really kills it! Now, my time is here!" Hu Xi suddenly pressed his hands and smiled madly.

"rise!"

He yelled!

The entire ground where the sword covered the sky suddenly trembled violently!

"Wiliam! Just wait and die! You forced me to use this trick! They came out! When they come out, you will surely die!" Hu Yixiao continued to laugh.

Dragon Husband 1674 part 2

It seems to have used some kind of trick.

And with the trembling of the ground, suddenly there were several incomparably fierce breaths that shot up from the ground to the sky!

These breaths made the faces of the people present turn pale!

too strong!

What exactly is this killer move!

Why is the background of the sword covering the sky so deep!

Even Bai Jianxing frowned tightly, unable to see what Hu Yixiao's ultimate move meant?

"Sect Master Bai, what exactly is their underground?" Someone asked Bai Jianxing.

Bai Jianxing thought hard and said: "Their underground should be the ancestral tomb of Qijian Zhetian. It is rumored that the ancestors of Qijian Zhetian are buried in the ancestral tomb. Do you think there are still living people?"

As soon as the voice fell, those fierce breaths fell in front of Hu Yixiao in an instant.

Hu Yixiao hurriedly knelt down and shouted respectfully, "The ancestors of all dynasties are on top, I welcome you to come out again!"

The people on the scene were dumbfounded!

Dynasty teacher!

They counted, and there were thirteen people who appeared in front of Hu Yixiao!

These thirteen people were all ragged and their hair and beard were all white.

But the aura on them is unbelievably strong!

One of the exploding old men turned around and shouted sharply, "Why did you wake us up? Don't you know we've escaped from this world?"

Hu Yixiao's body suddenly trembled when he saw it like this, and he said quickly: "Master, today our swords cover the sky and we have suffered a disaster. If it weren't for this, I would not dare to wake you up..."

"The catastrophe?" The exploding head frowned, seemingly disdainful.

Hu Yixiao pointed at Wiliam, who was inhuman in front of him, and briefly explained the cause and effect.

Of course, the factors that are unfavorable to Qi Jian covering the sky are discarded, but it is just that Wiliam is too deceiving.

After listening to the exploding head, he immediately scolded, "Waste! The strange sword covers the sky to your generation, and it has become like this? Just one person, dare to come up directly and settle a case?"

Hu Yixiao was so scolded that he couldn't lift his head up. He wanted to explain, but when the words came to his mouth, he swallowed them again.

"It's only once! It's not an example next time!" The explosive head finally said coldly.

"Of course! Of course!" Hu Yixiao quickly agreed.

Where else is the next ...

At this time, the people on the scene finally reacted.

These thirteen people, all of them are the suzerain who once covered the sky with the sword!

This trip!

It's too horrible!

According to this calculation, the oldest one is also several hundred years older!

This is simply a monster!

Bai Jianxing even got goosebumps.

A strange sword covers the sky, it's really enough!

It seems that it was rumored before that they had no background, and they were simply created by Qi Jian Zhetian!

The purpose is to hide the ultimate move!

True Tour in the dog!

Qi Jian Zhe Tian can really hide things!

Hidden a red cut before!

Now, the past sect masters are directly hidden in the ancestral tomb!

Bai Jianxing was thinking in his heart.

If all the thirteen suzerains came out of the mountain, then the strength of the sword that covers the sky is entirely possible to surpass the Dugu Hongshi!

But why!

Why is the sword covering the sky hiding these people!

"Damn it!" Bai Jianxing suddenly couldn't help shouting out.

"What's the matter? Are these people too scary?" Someone hurriedly asked.

Bai Jianxing shook his head.

Terrible, it's one thing.

What Bai Jianxing is worried about is another matter!

According to rumors, a sect master in the strange sword covers the sky with the above...

Hope this is fake!

I hope they are simply their own strength!

Bai Jianxing's heart was raised in his throat, praying that things would not develop in the worst direction.

At this time, everyone followed the broken surface just now, and also saw the ancestral tomb that was rumored to be covered by the sword.

In the ancestral tomb, a faint red light, like a blood-colored flower, is slowly blooming!
