

Dragon Husband 1675 part 1

Chapter 1675 I only have one palm

The entire site where the sword covers the sky seems to be an ancient tomb.

And their ancestral tombs are located under the ground.

As the surface crumbled, many people saw that there were a lot of gold and jade and other things shining under the ground.

You can even see a lot of sacrificial objects, such as stone people and horses.

But in the deeper place, there is a faint red light.

No one knew what it was and what the danger was.

Just as a red candle flickering flickering.

And the explosive head had already looked at Wiliam.

His eyes were even full of disdain.

"Hmph, things that are neither human nor beasts dare to use my sword to cover the sky!" The exploding head said in a cold voice, then walked towards Wiliam.

"I only have one palm!" After the exploding head said, his body suddenly accelerated towards Wiliam!

The people at the scene were frightened by this explosive head!

Looking at the momentum of this explosive head, he should be the leader among these thirteen people!

In other words, his strength is the strongest among the thirteen sovereigns.

Needless to say, it has been in the wonderland for many years!

And this tone, how arrogant!

Just one palm!

Can he subdue Wiliam, who was shaking the sky with his sword, with just one palm?

Too strong!

Not as expected.

As soon as this explosive head shot, it really was extraordinary.

He raised his hand slightly, and a strong aura quickly gathered in the process of advancing.

In front of him, there also appeared a real body covering the sky!

This palm is very different from the Sky-Closing Palm used by the disciples of Qijian Zhetian before.

The Sky-Covering Palm that everyone used before looked extremely powerful, but it was a bit illusory. At first glance, it felt like an illusion condensed with energy.

The sky-covering palm in front of him was extremely black, and there were even palm prints in the palm and fingernails on the fingers.

Just like a real hand!

Bai Jianxing suddenly patted his head and shouted in disbelief: "It's him! It's actually him! He's not dead!"

"Who is it?" the people around asked immediately.

"The second-generation Sect Master of Qi Jian Zhe Tian, Hu Feiquan!" Bai Jianxing gritted his teeth and spat out these three words.

But the people around them were dumbfounded.

Who is Hu Feiquan?

I do not know?

"Do you know that when Qijian Zhetian was just founded, it was called Qijianzong! But it was officially renamed Qijian Zhetian when it came to Hu Feiquan's generation! Do you know why? Because Zhetian Palm is Hu Feiquan created it!" Bai Jianxing said with a cold face.

The people at the scene suddenly exclaimed!

Covering the Sky Palm was created by Hu Feiquan!

Being able to juxtapose the Heaven-shading Palm to their status as the treasure of the sect, shows that the strength of this Hu Feiquan is also very terrifying!

But after so many years, wasn't it rumored that he was dead?

why?

Many people have more and more doubts in their hearts.

Seeing that Hu Feiquan was about to approach Wiliam, Wiliam didn't move.

Su Emei couldn't help shouting, "Wiliam! Be careful!"

Only then did Wiliam's body move.

He quickly dodged to the side, only to be able to dodge this majestic blow.

And Hu Feiquan's Heavenly Covering Palm shot in the air, and the Heavenly Covering Palm flew towards Wiliam's back.

It flew directly to the direction of Baijianxing.

Bai Jianxing's face stiffened, "Hide!"

He shouted and ducked to the side.

The others quickly followed suit.

The palm of the sky actually grew bigger and bigger during the flight.

In the end, an offensive of hundreds of meters was formed!

From the place where the Heaven-shading Palm was shot, it spread to the direction of Baijianxing and the others.

Wherever you go, nothing grows!

Baijian Xingdou broke out in a big cold sweat.

Fortunately, he hid in time, otherwise he would not have the confidence to follow this palm!

What a horrible Hu Feiquan!

What a terrifying shading palm!

This is the real majesty of the Heaven-Covering Palm!

It's just that with the decline of generations, the power of the Heaven-shading Palm is gradually weakened.

The current Hu Feiquan can represent the true secret of Qijian Zhetian!

And Bai Jianxing's heart is also very uneasy.

Wiliam has not evaded since the beginning.

All use the body to directly resist damage.

But now facing Hu Feiquan, Wiliam began to dodge for the first time.

Does it mean that Wiliam also felt the threat of Hu Feiquan!

"Hmph, garbage!" Hu Feiquan thought that this kid was a bit capable if he dared to fight one case alone.

So shout out the argument of only one palm.

I didn't think that this kid actually started to avoid.

Really weak!

Wiliam, who avoided him, still stood there, but his body shook slightly.

Just now, Wiliam was not aware of the threat posed by these thirteen people.

He was just thinking about a problem.

Why.....

All the thirteen suzerains gathered here?

Why.....

They have gone through the changes of the years, but still they have not died.

This is obviously very unreasonable.

It seems that there are still many secrets hidden within the strange sword.

There is a mystery that has kept the past sect masters alive to this day.

However, now is clearly not the best time to continue thinking.

Let's deal with these people first.

William began to regain his combat power. Although he couldn't see it, his breath had already locked Hu Feiquan's position.

And Hu Feiquan was more confident because of William's hiding.

He looked at William and said lightly, "Boy, aren't you quite capable? Don't hide if you have the seeds?"

With that said, he charged towards William again.

The palm of my hand just now was just a small test.

Now, Hu Feiquan intends to show his true strength.

He condensed a black palm more quickly, which was more terrifying than the black palm just now.

Anyone with a discerning eye could see that Hu Feiquan used his real strength.

And his speed was more than twice as fast as the shot just now!

Like a black light, he suddenly rushed towards William.

This time, if William had no other tricks, at the speed just now, he would not be able to escape.

"Be careful!" Someone shouted to William.

"Boom!" The huge sky-covering palm slapped William fiercely.

This time, William suddenly stopped hiding.

As if he was provoked by Hu Feiquan's words just now.

William just stood there.

Casually stretched out a hand!

"Boom!" William's hand slammed into the sky-covering palm fiercely!

Between them, a powerful air wave swept away in all directions!

The people around were so frightened that their faces turned pale, and they all began to avoid this wave of air.

But, next second!

Everyone was stunned!

William's hand actually passed through the Sky-Covering Palm!

His arm began to ooze blood because it passed through the Heaven-shading Palm, but there was no picture of the arm bursting as expected!

And at this time, Hu Feiquan's body just flew right in front of William!

William's palm directly stuck on Hu Feiquan's neck!
