

Dragon Husband 1686 part 1

Chapter 1686 The Unparalleled Wiliam

Bai Fengxue couldn't hear clearly for a while, so she blurted out and asked, "What did you say?"

He Tiantian rolled his eyes at Bai Fengxue, and said angrily: "I said, this animal of your family, directly kill the other family's sect, and clean up the family's sect, just to give you this breath. From now on, There is no other sword in this world to cover the sky, from now on, whoever dares to offend you Bai Fengxue again, you can walk sideways here."

Indeed, everyone knew why Wiliam did this.

The first reason is to vent the wind and snow, and let people know what Wiliam's Ni scales are.

You can use various means against Wiliam, and it is your ability to succeed.

But if you can't use tricks on Wiliam's lover, the consequences will be very serious.

Another reason was that Wiliam was paving the way for the wind and snow.

Let at least the ninth sect and below know what will happen to offending Bai Fengxue?

The sword that covers the sky is a bloody lesson.

Since then, there has been no nine cases in Fengxue, and basically no one dares to offend her again.

This has won a great deterrent force for Fengxue to live here.

Bai Fengxue was dumbfounded, unable to speak for a long time.

Her head hummed as if it had been blown by a storm.

There are only three words in my mind.

Flatten, flatten...

That is a sect!

How long has it been since Wiliam came here?

Isn't this Arabian Nights?

How strong is Wiliam now?

At the same time, her heart was filled with emotion.

For one person, one sin.

Killing indiscriminately, just for her...

Not to mention how badly he was hurt in it...

How could she not love Wiliam like this to the bottom of her heart.

There is no need to say redundant details, as long as this result, Feng Xue's whole person sinks even more.

In fact, the wind and snow just came, and there are still many things that are unclear.

She only regarded Qijian Zhetian as an ordinary sect.

But even if it is an ordinary sect, it can be regarded as a tyrannical existence in this other world, and it is not as powerful as Feng Xue can imagine.

Not to mention that Qijian Zhetian hides so many bad tricks and so many strong men.

If she knew this, she would definitely go crazy for Wiliam's miraculous behavior.

"Look, this is your man. If you don't do it, it's enough. Once you do it, it will be earth-shattering. I believe that after tonight, Wiliam's name, as well as your Bai Fengxue's name, will spread to every corner of the world." Sister Qing couldn't help but add.

She even had some envy and hatred in her heart.

They are all livestock, why are other people's livestock so good?

This feeling of turning the world upside down for love should not be too beautiful...

"My man has never been earth-shattering." Bai Fengxue blurted out this sentence for some reason.

Full of pride.

Everything Wiliam did for her seemed so incredible and earth-shattering.

And this is Wiliam.

The unparalleled Wiliam in the world!

Everyone looked at Feng Xue's arrogant appearance, and their hearts were all blue.

I wish I could snatch Wiliam over and make him feel earth-shattering for himself.

Everyone accompanied Feng Xue to talk for a while, and then went out.

They want to leave time to this pair of hard-working mandarin ducks.

In the room, Feng Xue looked at Wiliam, who was sleeping peacefully in his arms, with a happy smile on the corner of his mouth, and fell into contemplation.

Wiliam slept for two days and two nights.

In the past two days and two nights, the names of Wiliam and Fengxue have spread all over the land of the common people, as these women said.

After all, it is too absurd and too miraculous for Wiliam to settle a case by himself.

Never in history has anyone been so reckless and insolent.

But everyone can't say anything, after all, it is the strange sword that covers the sky at the first place.

Those who carry the banner of morality want to rebuke Wiliam for being ruthless. After all, there are many innocent people who have also been poisoned.

However, when the words reached their lips, they shrank back one by one.

They have to think about whether they will be annihilated because of the happiness at this moment.

Therefore, Wiliam used his absolute strength to just block the mouth of the world.

Especially Canglang Zhixiong and Xianghualixue, they didn't dare to say a word, like a tortoise with a shrunken head, only talking about not being targeted by Wiliam.

The whole arena has formed a consensus.

Well, don't offend Wiliam, let alone offend Wiliam's woman.

Bai Fengxue just stayed by Wiliam's side, never leaving.

She also thought that the first person Wiliam saw when he woke up was her.

Finally, Wiliam woke up slowly.

He saw the wind and snow, and this woman who was crazy about his thoughts.

Feng Xue's eyes were full of tenderness, just looked at him like that.

"It's good to see you." Wiliam opened his mouth and said, his voice a little hoarse.

Feng Xue waited two days for this answer.

She hugged Wiliam gently, her eyes slowly turning red.

Afterwards, she helped Wiliam up and leaned on the head of the bed. The two of them just looked at each other like that, without saying anything, they both felt that time was so beautiful and gentle.

"Wiliam, I want to hear what you have said about this time, right from your mouth." Feng Xue finally said gently.

What could be happier than listening to the bragging rights of your beloved man?

Wiliam nodded and recounted what happened after Feng Xue was unconscious.

Roughly speaking, it is similar to Bai Ruoshuang.

However, Wiliam added some more details.

For example, the details of one person stepping on a case.

Another example is his promise and agreement between Cang Python Tianzhu and Petite Rou.

And under Feng Xue's questioning, Wiliam also told her about the sadomasochism of a snake and a flower in that distant era.

After listening to Hua Snake Love, Bai Fengxue's eyes turned red again.

She now knew why she was able to survive.

It's because someone took the pain in his place.

In the same way, Petite Rou's deep sleep also made Feng Xue feel sorry for Lady Peach Blossom even more.

"Let's go to Lady Peach Blossom. I have some feelings. I want to tell her face to face." Bai Fengxue suddenly said to Wiliam.

Without expressing these guilt, Feng Xue felt very depressed.

And Wiliam naturally knew Feng Xue's thoughts, and he just had something to say to Lady Peach Blossom, so he nodded.

The two of them packed up a little and then set off for Xianghua to drain the blood.

At this moment, the fragrance is bleeding, and the atmosphere is extremely depressed.

It should be said that Xianghua Lixue has been in a low pressure since Wiliam destroyed the Qijian to cover the sky.

They feel like they have a knife hanging over their heads, feeling that their lives are in danger at any time.

After all, they hurt Wiliam so much before, who knows if Wiliam will come to them in the next second, and there will be a massacre.

One by one, they sat in front of the council hall, frowning, thinking about how to get over this matter.

Then, someone staggered over and shouted loudly as if a catastrophe was imminent: "It's not good, it's not good! Wiliam is here!"
