

Dragon Husband 1699 PART 1

Chapter 1699 The Sea of Bitterness

Grandmother looked at Wiliam with a stunned expression, and blurted out, "You just found out?"

After she finished speaking, she felt that she was not being polite, and hurriedly pretended to be serious and said, "You can't say that, at least you know that the wind and snow will be very powerful in the future, so it's no problem to beat you, right?"

Wiliam's head hurt when he heard this.

Do you still need Peach Blossom Lady?

"Forget it, what should I say anyway, I want to thank you in the end, don't worry, I, Wiliam, will never give up on the matter between you and Xiao Xiaorou!" Wiliam said helplessly in the end.

Although I still don't know Fengxue's real strength now.

Although I don't know how the double strength that Peach Blossom said is linked to reality.

But Wiliam's visit this time can be said to be full of harvest.

He successfully made the soldier master rein in his soul and recognize his master, and it can be said that he opened a plug-in in the future.

Feng Xue also took this opportunity to get used to the bloodline, and awakened to another strange and ruthless brain-beating madness.

It is also a very big gain.

Thinking of this, Wiliam couldn't help but ask again, "Grandmother, I have two more questions for you."

"Ask." Peach Blossom seemed to have made fun of Wiliam just now, and her conscience was extremely condemned, and her attitude towards Wiliam was obviously much better now.

"You said that I have now let the soldier master rein in the soul to recognize the master, can I open the heart domain in advance? Can I open it now?" Wiliam asked.

Lady Peach Blossom shook her head and said, "Now, I guess it's still short of the fire. According to my estimation, as long as you can step into the Nirvana Realm, you should be able to open the soul-suppressing heart."

Originally, the heart domain that can only be opened by building the state of mind, Wiliam can open it when he reaches the state of Nirvana, of course, it is early.

"Then when you arrive at the state of mind, you can open up a realm of destiny." Lady Peach Blossom added.

Hearing this, Wiliam couldn't help but lose interest.

It wasn't quite there yet.

Then take it slow.

"The last question, when will Fengxue get rid of the state of knocking his head?" Wiliam asked.

"What knocks on the head?" Peach Blossom asked back.

Wiliam looked embarrassed, "Nothing, I was wrong, when did Fengxue get out of the custody state and use his skills again?"

Lady Peach Blossom pondered for a while, and said, "It depends on Feng Xue's comprehension. Although she has adapted to the inheritance of blood marrow, she has not really used it for herself. When her bloodline awakens again, she will be able to be independent. Control the power of frost."

Wiliam is sweating, and he has to awaken his blood again...

It seems that the days of knocking on the head will continue to exist for a while.

Feng Xue, your understanding must be better...

"Is there anything else to ask? I'm sleepy." Peach Blossom said.

Wiliam was immediately grateful.

The Peach Blossom Lady did not spare any effort to help the two of them this time.

Whether it's helping Wiliam to make the soldier master rein in his soul, or to come up with a trusteeship model for Feng Xue, it will cost her energy.

And she got nothing.

"Thank you, next time I come to visit you, I will definitely bring petite Rou!"
Wiliam said seriously.

Dragon Husband 1699 PART 2

"Well, I believe you. Go ahead, I'm going to bed." Peach Blossom Lady smiled at Wiliam and Feng Xue, then turned back to her small room and closed the door.

Wiliam took Feng Xue's hand and respectfully kowtowed three times at the door, then turned and left.

At this moment, it was still dark outside.

Peach Blossom Wanzhangyuan is like a time and space of eternal day, where you can't feel the passage of time at all.

"Wiliam, you came out, ho ho ho." A somewhat flattering voice came the first time after Wiliam walked out of the Peach Blossom Abyss.

Wiliam turned around and saw that the Sect Master Wenren Tiange, who was fragrant and bloody, was bending a little, standing on a stone not far behind him.

He still had that humble and polite smile on his face.

"Let's go." Wiliam nodded, then pulled Feng Xue and turned to leave.

Feng Xue didn't understand what Wiliam experienced here. Seeing Wiliam's determination, he felt a little uneasy, and whispered to Wiliam, "Wiliam, that sect master looks so pitiful."

"Poor people must have something to hate. All this is his own fault. I just hope that he will not look down on others in the future." Wiliam said lightly.

"Oh, I don't like this kind of person either." Feng Xue immediately reached an agreement with Wiliam, and the guilt and anxiety in her heart were swept away.

Wen Rentiange watched Wiliam and Fengxue leave, and wanted to straighten up slowly.

But I found that after bending over for too long, I got used to this state.

I want to straighten my body, there is some soreness.

The smile on his face was also slowly disappearing, and there was a lot of remorse and pain in his eyes.

no one sees...

no one should see it...

ho ho...

But he didn't realize that in the dark, a pair of sisters shed tears silently.

"Let's go, go find Wiliam." Wen Ren took his sister's hand with all his heart and followed Wiliam's footsteps.

They quickly caught up with Wiliam.

However, standing in front of Wiliam, the two sisters didn't know what to say for a while.

what to say...

Set close?

Not necessary.

Let Wiliam help take care of Xianghua and drain blood?

no face...

"Sister Qingxin, do you want to go with us?" Feng Xue asked Wenren Qingxin as if she saw something.

Well, Feng Xue saw something.

Seeing that this thousand-year-old sect is in jeopardy, the carved beams and painted pillars are fragile like the backbone of a sect master, and it can collapse suddenly when the wind blows.

Seeing the stench of this thousand-year-old sect, people's hearts are like a pile of stinky fish and rotten shrimp, exuding a rotten stench.

She wants to rescue the sisters when the building is about to collapse.

I want to save them before they get contaminated with the stench.

However, Wen Renqing and Wen Renqing glanced at each other, with pain and determination in their eyes.

Wen Renqin shook his head and said bitterly, "We have grandmother's blood on our bodies, we can't leave here."

Bai Fengxue sighed.

I had long thought it would be like this.

Their look of worrying about their home is very similar to the previous blizzard.

Feng Xue also exhausted all his efforts for the home that was rotten to the core.

Until he was bruised and bruised, Wiliam rescued her from the sea of misery.

Now, the sisters also need someone to save them, but the time is running out.

They are still not so bruised...

"Well, I'm still saying that, I don't want to care about the fragrance and blood. But if the two sisters have any dispatch, I, Wiliam, are always on call." Wiliam looked at the pair of sisters and said with a smile.

Wiliam's grievances are clear, and whoever treats him well, he remembers it in his heart.

Whether it is Wenren Qingxin or Wenren Qingqing, he is kind in his bones.

All of them give Wiliam a favor.

Although this kindness is small, Wiliam remembers it in his heart.

"Well, we'll remember. Walk slowly, don't send." The two of them slowly turned their backs, not wanting to see Wiliam leave.

Wiliam sighed and pulled Feng Xue away from Xiang Hua Li Xue.

"Wiliam, where are we going next?" Feng Xue asked boredly on the way.

Wiliam thought about it and said, "Go find my grandfather."
