

Dragon Husband 1708 PART 1

Chapter 1708 Don't get emotional

Everyone watched this scene, and it was difficult to react for a long time.

Is this real?

The deputy sect master of the innate secret realm was grabbed and knocked on the head.

There is absolutely no resistance at all!

This is too nonsense!

According to this kind of strength, the blue-haired snowstorm is a crushing victory.

That is the strength of seeking fairyland.

But it can't.

The contrast between before the storm and now is too great.

Everyone really couldn't imagine Bai Fengxue, who was a little weak before, and the blue-haired Fengxue who was a little dull and violent now, as a strong man who sought fairyland.

The atmosphere doesn't match.

However, Sun Qing'er's hysterical roar reminded everyone that they had to believe if they didn't believe it.

William, who was beside him, was also dazed.

At the beginning, when Feng Xue knocked on the head, William could still think that Sun Qing'er underestimated Bai Fengxue from the beginning, so it was his own fault.

But now, the wind and snow are really crushing!

Before Peach Blossom told William about a pile of Bai Fengxue's strength assessment, William still had no idea.

Now that he was outside, after watching this scene, Wiliam's heart suddenly became clear.

This is such a smashing innate secret realm!

Wiliam couldn't help thinking, if he had a fight with Feng Xue outside, what would happen if he didn't know the outcome?

However, when he thought of this, Wiliam suddenly had a headache.

Not even a fight, the shadows in my heart came out.

"It's so cold." Suddenly someone shivered.

Then it seemed to be contagious, and the people on the scene also started to shiver.

It was only then that everyone realized that the temperature at the scene was already very, very low.

Just now everyone was shocked by the simplicity and terrifyingness of the blue-haired blizzard, but they didn't notice that the ground at the scene was now covered with a thin layer of ice and snow.

You know, everyone is only wearing short sleeves this season!

Suddenly it freezes!

What the hell is this!

"Go back. This ice is weird." Su Hongxiu said suddenly.

She flew backwards in one step, and instantly pulled a dozen meters away from just now.

The people at the scene also stepped back.

But some people said unwillingly: "But, our Vice Sect Master Sun she..."

"The outcome has been decided, there is nothing to tangle." Su Hongxiu said again.

Well, the outcome is indeed decided.

Wiliam felt the same.

Being beaten by Bai Fengxue's peach blossom frost branches not only hurts his head, but his soul seems to be frozen.

That feeling is really sour.

Bai Fengxue is not going to get stronger and stronger.

But her opponent, under the influence of Fengxue Peach Blossom Frost Branch, will act and react slower and slower.

This shows that the wind and snow are getting stronger and stronger, and the advantages are getting bigger and bigger.

Tsk tsk, relying entirely on the trusteeship model, the inhuman wind and snow is so powerful. If the bloodline is completely awakened in the future, how strong it should be.

At this point, William also completely believed what Peach Blossom said, Feng Xue's strength will reach a peak that he can't stop looking up to now.

Blue-haired Fengxue is now like a tool person with no feelings. While beating Sun Qinger's head, he muttered laughably: "If you suffer a little internal injury, you will lose, if you suffer a little internal injury, you will lose..."

Dragon Husband 1708 PART 2

The people at the scene were about to cry.

Everyone is going to be knocked to death by you, and you still suffer a little internal injury?

As a player in the game, Sun Qing'er almost spat out a mouthful of old blood.

This little girl, I don't know if she is playing with her or being serious!

Injured by a hammer!

Just beating people on the head will only suffer from flesh and blood injuries!

But what Sun Qinger has always been proud of is her head iron!

If his head were not so hard, would he have fainted by now, and the outcome has already been decided.

For the first time, Sun Qinger began to doubt life, and felt that the iron was not a good thing.

However, Sun Qinger did not have the face to shout the word admit defeat on the spot.

The scene was so embarrassingly deadlocked here.

“Fengxue, Sun Qing’er has already lost, you can stop.” Su Hongxiu finally couldn’t help but said.

However, Feng Xue turned a deaf ear, still beating Sun Qing’er’s head very seriously.

Su Hongxiu frowned and couldn’t help but look at Wiliam.

His eyes were a little dissatisfied.

However, Wiliam smiled embarrassedly: “Sect Master Su, I have seen the pattern of Fengxue once. How can I put it, hey, she can’t help herself now. To use an analogy, she is now a robot. Only Sun Qinger loses consciousness, she will stop, I can’t control it.”

Su Hongxiu’s pupils shrank, wanting to see if Wiliam was lying.

But Wiliam’s eyes were full of sincerity and helplessness, indicating that it was all true.

He even touched his head, indicating that he had also been knocked unconscious by her.

Only then did Su Hongxiu believe Wiliam.

She frowned, and suddenly stepped forward!

He rushed directly towards Bai Fengxue.

Bai Fengxue was like a prophet, without turning his head, the peach blossom frost branch in his hand suddenly waved behind him!

An even more severe cold air flew towards Su Hongxiu from the peach blossom frost branch.

Su Hongxiu said nothing and waved a palm with one hand!

It was also a stream of water vapor that rushed towards the cold air.

The two breaths collided, making a thumping sound.

Then, everyone saw the crushed ice that fell to the ground.

After this blow, Su Hongxiu moved forward again.

However, when she flipped it over, the same thing appeared in her hand.

A little black paper boat!

This paper boat is as big as half of Su Hongxiu's palm.

However, Su Hongxiu casually threw the paper boat towards Bai Fengxue.

The black paper boat grew long in the air in the wind, turned into a big boat, and covered Bai Fengxue's body.

Bai Fengxue seemed to feel threatened, and finally gave up Sun Qing'er in her hands.

She turned around, and the peach blossom frost branch in her hand suddenly trembled violently.

I saw on the ground, one after another peach trees appeared out of nowhere.

The peach tree slapped frantically towards the black ship.

And the black boat is like a bottomless pit. It is clear that the peach branch has entered the black boat, but there is no one that has been recovered!

This made Wiliam stunned!

It was the first time he saw Su Hongxiu show off his strength.

This black ship looks quite weird too!

Why have I never heard anyone mention it before.

Even the remnant sword Jiutian, who specializes in forging divine weapons, has never mentioned this black ship.

Feng Xue seemed to feel the coercion of the black boat, his empty blue eyes flickered, his body suddenly rose into the air, and he was going to hit the black boat directly with the peach blossom frost branch.

However, a strange thing happened!

As soon as Fengxue left the ground, Su Hongxiu suddenly threw the black boat into the sky, as if deliberately letting Fengxue chase.

Then, her body shot straight at Sun Qing'er on the ground!

A hand knife slammed hard on Sun Qing'er's neck!

What a move to hit the east and west to lead the snake out of the hole!
