

Dragon Husband 1767

Chapter 1767 The two most annoying things

The people on the scene looked at this scene and didn't know what to say.

Is this scene really happening in front of their eyes?

If Su Lanbo mobilized ninety spiritual qi before, it can be called a miracle.

The one hundred and eighty auras of Su Hongxiu can be called miracles.

Is there anything more than miracles?

Have!

There is also Bai Fengxue who completely extradited the spiritual energy in the prayer seal of Jiangshan, causing the spiritual energy in the sky.

This is no longer something that humans can do.

Now something even more outrageous is happening!

In the taboo of the cold boaters, it is clearly written that once the aura in the Jiangshan prayer seal is extradited, it will not be able to return to itself. I hope to cherish and treat the aura.

At this point, unlike the brave people who participated in the extradition of the country, there are too many loopholes for those smart people to drill.

Clear rules, ancient teachings left by our ancestors!

On Wiliam's body, he was smashed to pieces!

And when everyone thinks about it carefully, it's even more creepy!

What is the premise for Wiliam to let the spiritual energy return to the country's prayer seal?

The premise is that he can also extradite the aura!

And once extradition, this is the spiritual energy of the sky!

Nothing is weaker than Bai Fengxue!

No, it is much stronger than Bai Fengxue!

Bai Fengxue can still be extradited but cannot be included in the Sifang Seal.

This kid, where did the monster come from!

What's wrong with this world!

Are the words of the ancestors not words?

Isn't it said that only the blood of the cold boaters can extradite the spiritual energy in the prayer seal of Jiangshan!

And what's going on with these two bastards?

One is stronger than Su Lanbo, stronger than Su Hongxiu!

One is more outrageous than one, and one is more subversive than one!

Now it seems that Su Hongxiu's deviant way in front of Wiliam and Feng Xue was considered a pediatrician.

Everyone thought in amazement, but saw that the spiritual energy in the air had gradually gathered into the prayer seal of Jiangshan.

The Jiangshan Prayer Seal hit the ground heavily with a "bang", making a roar.

Wiliam touched his forehead lightly, wanting to express that he had used the power of the Great Desolation.

But when I touched it, my forehead was clean, and there was not a single drop of sweat.

This is a little embarrassing.

The people at the scene looked at Wiliam and Bai Fengxue with strange and complicated eyes.

These two outsiders, who have no trace of the blood of the cold boaters, have achieved terrifying miracles that the cold boaters can't do.

Who are they?

"You guys, who are you? What does it have to do with us Cold Boaters!" For a while, even Su Changsheng was not calm.

He even ignored the face of his old friend Qingfeng, and asked Wiliam and Bai Fengxue directly.

This is the question that everyone wants to ask.

And Wiliam smiled slightly and said, "I'm sorry to disappoint you, we're not one of your illegitimate children or something."

Indeed, many people have this idea.

"Then why are you able to extradite spiritual power! You can even break the ancient teachings of thousands of years!" Someone immediately jumped out and questioned.

At this time, Wiliam already felt a little unhappy.

If you speak well, Wiliam can explain a few words.

But these people are very unpleasant.

What are the expressions of each one.

An expression of wanting to swallow the two of them alive.

Wiliam thought about it a little, and he knew why.

Because the tree attracts the wind.

Because of jealousy.

Originally, if Wiliam and Feng Xue were descendants of the Hanzhouzhe, they might be able to comfort themselves with the reason that they were all from the same ethnic group.

But Wiliam and Feng Xue are not!

But they still amazed the Quartet, crushing the taboos of the cold boaters!

Outsider, forbidden, miracle, genius!

No matter which word it is, it is enough to arouse the jealousy and hatred of this group of people.

What's more, these factors all converge on these two people.

The things that my own people couldn't do were done by outsiders. Is there still light on this group's face?

First of all, I can't make it through.

Therefore, these selfish thoughts lingered in the hearts of these people, making them completely forget that if it wasn't for Wiliam just now, their Jiangshan Prayer Seal would have been reduced to waste.

"Patriarch, I seriously suspect that these two people have stolen the skills of our Cold Boat Race, otherwise there is no way to explain these things!" Su Lanbo jumped out and said to Su Changsheng indignantly.

Su Changsheng frowned tightly, "Go ahead."

Su Lanbo first looked at Wiliam, gritted his teeth and said: "First of all, this guy, he has shown the ability to drive spiritual energy from the very beginning, everyone thought that this is the king of energy, but in my opinion, it is not at all!"

"He simply didn't know when he infiltrated the Cold Boat Race and learned our secret technique."

"It's the same with that woman. These two are the same raccoon dog. It's not a good thing at first glance."

"Everyone knows that in the early years of our cold boaters, there were also outsiders who joined through marriage relationships. Those who have no blood relationship can learn a secret technique to achieve the effect of extradition of spiritual energy. I think this pair of dog men and women is the A pair of complete thieves, they steal our skills, but show off in front of us, this kind of person deserves death!" Su Lanbo said, the expressions of the people at the scene changed.

Because so far, apart from the reason given by Su Lanbo, there is no more suitable explanation.

Or, there is no other explanation.

"Thief! Damn it!"

"Dog men and women! Su Lanbo's scolding is right!"

"Quickly punish them! Oh, you were acting with us just now. What's the matter, one person plays the red face and the other plays the white face? Want us to be grateful? Dream about you!"

Because of the strong jealousy, the people at the scene scolded for a while.

Only Su Hongxiu, Su Yongcun, and the old man Qingfeng watched from the sidelines.

William's face still didn't change.

When he reached his realm, he had endured no matter how much humiliation he had suffered before.

Has William rarely seen this kind of jealousy and hatred in front of him?

On the contrary, it was Bai Fengxue, and from the time they scolded the first sentence of "dog man and woman", the expression on his face was already wrong.

dog men and women...

Hoho, William and I are childhood sweethearts!

I swear each other with William!

William and I have never lost anyone!

Say we are dog men and women!

In Bai Fengxue's heart, there was a kind of anger.

She hates two things the most.

One thing is that someone misunderstood William and slandered William.

Another thing was that someone criticized her relationship with William.

Very good, the two most annoying things, the cold boaters have done it.

very good!

"Hoho..." Bai Fengxue sneered for the first time in the face of overwhelming questioning and slander.

She took a step forward slowly and looked around with an indifferent expression.

"Don't you want to know why I can extradite Reiki? Good!"

“As you wish, I admit that I do have a relationship with the cold boaters.”

“Mother!”

“It’s your ancestors!”
