Chapter 1771 Five Elements Magic Weapon

The people at the scene thought that Bai Fengxue was scared, and they snorted coldly: "Do you know that you regret it now! It's over!"

"To those of you who dare to treat us Cold Boaters like this, today is your day of death!"

"What nonsense talk to her, let's go together!"

William sighed again below.

He knew that when Bai Fengxue asked this sentence, it was not her own idea at all.

It is the instinct after transformation.

She is confirming the object of hatred!

These people's answers now are equivalent to helping Bai Fengxue confirm the hatred value.

Now, these people are not dizzy, nor is Bai Fengxue dizzy.

I saw these people all rushed towards Bai Fengxue.

However, these people's skills are worse than Su Lanbo's, so how can they deal with Bai Fengxue.

I saw Bai Fengxue's figure flickered and turned into an afterimage.

"Bang bang bang!"

The sound of knocking on the skull was incessant.

The screams of their people also suddenly came one after another.

A dozen people rushed up, and it took less than a minute for the blue-haired Fengxue to beat them all.

“Damn! How can you bear this kind of humiliation! Give it to me!” Another person was unwilling and shouted loudly.

Because Bai Fengxue’s way of fighting is too angry and too provocative.

What the hell is going on with the head!

Something is killing us!

At this time, some older people can’t stand it anymore.

They looked at Su Yongsheng.

Su Yongsheng frowned, but didn’t say a word.

Equivalent to default.

So, more than a dozen people rushed up, and without saying a word, they killed Bai Fengxue.

Bai Fengxue suddenly fell into the danger of encirclement and suppression.

She stood on the spot, and suddenly the rosewood branch in her hand suddenly became bigger.

It turned into a stick that was four or five meters long and more than one meter thick.

This scene shocked everyone.

This is so special!

Sun monkey’s golden hoop stick!

How can it change!

Bai Fengxue held this incomparably large peach blossom branch in both hands and exerted force!

A sweep out!

The people surrounding her immediately were swept away and flew out one by one!

A series of fierce frosts were also swept away in all directions by this sweep.

This time, the scene was instantly chaotic.

This move is simply an indiscriminate attack!

Even those who were standing in the audience watching the play were affected.

The temperature at the scene suddenly dropped several degrees.

"Damn! Don't talk about martial arts! Give it to me! I still don't believe it, we Hanzhou people can't help a little girl!" Someone shouted with red eyes.

"Go." An old voice called out.

Everyone looked at the sound, and it was actually Su Changsheng.

go?

To deal with Bai Fengxue together?

This is the first time that Su Changsheng has issued a clear order in such a long time!

Before, he always opened one eye and closed the other as a default.

It can be seen that Bai Fengxue who dealt with the cold boaters like this obviously angered Su Changsheng.

The cold boater, after all, is also a well-known sea god doctor in the rivers and lakes. He has always been extremely mysterious, and outsiders dare not easily attack.

But today, a dozen or 20 people besieged a little girl, and the little girl was able to fight so badly.

If this scene spreads out, the reputation of the cold boaters will definitely plummet.

At that time, all cats and dogs will come to provoke the cold boaters, which is definitely a big blow to the cold boaters.

Therefore, Su Changsheng couldn't bear it anymore.

Moreover, when he said go, he didn't just refer to those onlookers coming together.

Rather—

The five old men slowly stood up after hearing Su Changsheng's words.

Su Hongxiu frowned suddenly, "Elder?"

There is nothing wrong, these five people are the elders of this generation of cold boaters.

Being able to become elders on the side of the cold boaters, on the one hand, is because of their qualifications.

On the other hand, it is their strength.

These five people were obviously the only people in the audience who were second only to Su Changsheng in their cultivation.

Never thought that under Su Changsheng's order, it turned out to be the strongest combat power of the Cold Boaters!

The people in the cold boat were unable to adapt to the situation in front of them, and were stunned for a moment.

However, after a brief period of stunned, they all burst into laughter, "Hahahaha! Demon girl, your time of death is here! Our elders have all shot!"

"Wiliam, haven't you shot yet?" Su Hongxiu frowned and whispered to Wiliam.

Wiliam's eyes were fixed on the elders who were playing, and he asked, "What realm are they?"

Su Hongxiu sighed slowly and said, "I can only say that before I left the Cold Boat, all of them were innate and secret realm powerhouses. After I left for so many years, I no longer know their true strength."

Are the five innate secret realm powerhouses?

Wiliam thought for a while, and said lightly, "Look at it again, I believe in Feng Xue."

Su Hongxiu was about to be pissed off by Wiliam.

It's been so long, why do you believe it or not?

If Bai Fengxue was in danger, it would be a matter of moments, and it would be too late to save Bai Fengxue.

That's it!

Anyway, it's your woman, not mine!

Su Hongxiu glared at Wiliam dejectedly, and stopped talking.

While these five people walked towards Bai Fengxue, they also took out their weapons.

This is the first time that the people of the Cold Boat Race have used weapons.

When Wiliam saw the weapons of the five elders, he frowned again.

I saw these five white-haired elders, one holding a golden bowl, one holding a wooden oar, one holding a bay of flowing water in front of him, one holding a stove, and the last holding a hill. sculpture.

The weapons of the five people are all strange and rare.

Seeing the five weapons, Su Hongxiu couldn't help but shouted softly, "No, the wind and snow will be dangerous."

"How?" Wiliam asked.

"Do you know what these five things are?" Su Hongxiu asked Wiliam.

Wiliam shook his head, but there was a general inference in his heart.

"As you know, we Hanzhou people have never been short of magic weapons. And these five items are one of the top-level magic weapons of our cold boaters." Su Hongxiu stared at these five things, frowning. Written with grief.

Wiliam knew what Su Hongxiu meant.

The cold boaters make a living by ferrying ferryboats and treating illnesses to save people, and they do have no shortage of magical soldiers.

It can be known from the situation that Wiliam was going to ferry over at that time.

Many sects will exchange the cold boat with the group of cold boaters with peerless treasures, which naturally includes a lot of magic weapons.

Therefore, the Hanzhouzhan group naturally has no shortage of magical weapons.

It's just these five pieces, it seems to have a lot of background...

Su Hongxiu on the side directly broke through the mystery.

“These five magic weapons are not as simple as magic weapons.”

“They are still the Five Elements Magic Weapons that were once famous for a while!”
