

Dragon Husband 1773

Chapter 1773 Half blue and half white

This terrifying aura instantly pierced through the Fountain of Fury and reached the sky!

Under this blow, Feng Xian Nuquan instantly shattered into powder, and it was difficult to condense for a while!

The one above Bai Fengxue's head was as motionless as a mountain, and it seemed to have been severely injured. It fell to the ground, rolled twice like a toy, and didn't move.

The people on the scene didn't even have time to be shocked!

They suddenly felt this terrifying aura, and only felt a kind of fear and piety that went straight to their hearts!

It's a very weird feeling.

Both knees seem to be weakening!

The head is blank in an instant!

Everyone's heart, including Su Hongxiu!

I just feel like I want to kneel down in the direction of Bai Fengxue and kowtow a few more times!

Not right!

"Broken!" An old but sharp voice resounded throughout the audience!

This shout, like the sound of the sky, instantly expelled the strange feeling of everyone on the scene!

Everyone's spirits were shaken, but they found that they felt expelled, but their legs were still shaking!

No, not a hallucination!

what on earth is it!

Everyone thought that this was an illusion created by Bai Fengxue, which made everyone want to kneel in an attempt to humiliate the Hanzhou people.

But Su Changsheng shouted to wake up everyone, and everyone was even more shocked to find that this was not an illusion!

He had clearly seen through Bai Fengxue's tricks!

He clearly hated Bai Fengxue!

But why, my legs couldn't help but want to kneel down!

"Five Elements Divine Soldiers, form a formation!" Su Changsheng also clearly sensed something was wrong, and shouted again.

The five elders nodded in unison and shouted, "Get up!"

Unmoving like a mountain on the ground, he barely flew back to the five elders.

The Fengxian Nuquan, which was difficult to condense, slowly condensed into its original appearance under the full drive of the third elder.

With the order of the five elders, the five divine weapons flew directly into the sky, forming a large circle that was constantly spinning.

"Zheng!"

A clear and ethereal voice suddenly sounded.

This sound is impressively the sound of the golden bowl for subduing demons in the sky.

The sound enveloped all the people at the scene, and everyone just felt that their minds were shaken, and a kind of ease and comfort came to their hearts.

After the demon-suppressing golden bowl made a sound, it instantly swept away the terrifying coercion of Bai Fengxue.

At this time, when everyone looked at Bai Fengxue again, they exclaimed again.

“Damn it! This guy is really not human! How can he change!”

Everyone saw an incredible picture.

Before the blue-haired snowstorm, it was like a fairy coming down to earth, and it was so beautiful.

Now, Bai Fengxue has changed again.

I saw her icy blue hair fading in a weird way.

Black is slowly eroding blue.

After a while, Bai Fengxue’s hair turned half blue and half white, which looked really weird.

And when everyone looked at Bai Fengxue’s eyes, they exclaimed in surprise.

Bai Fengxue’s eyes were originally blue.

Now, the left eye has turned black, and the right eye remains blue.

Seeing this scene, William immediately reacted after a brief period of astonishment.

And showed a smile.

It seems that he still underestimates his wife.

During this period of time, Feng Xue must have tried many methods and wanted to get rid of the hosting mode.

Do you really want her to study it?

The half-blue half-white in front of him could be understood as Feng Xue’s forcible control of his general body and wisdom.

In this way, she not only has half the strength of the hosting model, but also maintains her sobriety and reason.

Sure enough, the half-blue and half-white Fengxue let out a sneer, “Tiny tricks of eagles.”

The sound also sounded weird.

It was as if a child and a woman were speaking at the same time.

With her hand, the rosewood branches on the ground fell into Feng Xue's hands again.

She holds her hand!

A bright red blood flowed out of his hands!

Fresh blood slowly infiltrated the rosewood.

The peach blossoms on the peach blossom branches were originally flower bones, and they bloomed in an instant!

In an instant, the peach blossom branches were dyed crimson.

With the blood oozing out from the wind and snow, the blood pressure that appeared before was swept out again!

More than half of the people on the scene were weak, and in just a short moment, there was almost no time to react, and they knelt together!

Even Su Hongxiu frowned, and a large amount of cold sweat broke out on his head in an instant.

"What the hell is your wife!" Su Hong asked Wiliam with her teeth closed.

She asked herself how much she knew about Bai Fengxue.

I also fought Bai Fengxue once before.

But there has never been such a deep sense of fear in my heart.

What's going on now!

How is it completely different from last time!

Wiliam smiled without saying a word.

Will he tell Su Hongxiu that his wife is the inheritor of their ancestor's blood marrow?

Will he tell Su Hongxiu that Fengxue is now suppressing their bloodline?

"You're laughing!" Su Hongxiu knew that Wiliam didn't want to say it, so she scolded her and calmed down again, fighting against this strange sense of awe.

“Quickly interrupt the witch’s spellcasting!” Someone shouted loudly.

The faces of the five elders were also extremely ugly.

They looked at each other and shot at each other.

Immediately, the golden bowl Sanskrit sound resounded in the sky!

Fengxian Nuquan slapped towards Bai Fengxue like a stormy sea.

The black wooden paddle suddenly enlarged, and there was a faint roar of dragons and snakes.

The Nine Netherworld Furnace also instantly released purple flames, shrouded in the snow.

Not moving like a mountain, it also flew to Baifengxue again!

The Five Elements Divine Soldiers, dispatched together!

The majestic coercion brought out made the people present even more uncomfortable!

Fortunately, the coercion of the Five Elements Divine Armament was all directed towards Bai Fengxue, and a barrier was formed between them, isolating the bloodline coercion released by Bai Fengxue.

Bai Fengxue’s body was also trembling slightly.

Obviously, the taste brought by the dispatch of the Five Elements Divine Soldiers together also made Feng Xue unable to control himself.

From Bai Fengxue’s mouth, a blood mist suddenly spewed out, and his face was like golden paper in an instant.

William’s heart froze, his footsteps moved slightly, but he stopped forcibly.

Not yet.

Now is the critical moment.

Whether Fengxue can be nirvana or not depends entirely on the catastrophe of life and death!

Blizzard, hold on!

After vomiting blood, Bai Fengxue suddenly let out a wild laugh.

“Not born, not destroyed, not defiled, not pure, not increased nor decreased, it is the emptiness of all dharmas!”

After laughing, she burst out with blood!

This scene made the people present stunned!

Can't stand it anymore!

Have you been completely crushed by the coercion of the Five Elements!

However, in the next second, the people at the scene exclaimed again!

The crimson peach blossom rosette in Bai Fengxue's hand slammed on the ground fiercely!

There are words in the mouth!

“Blood-colored peach blossoms!”

“Frost Cang Python!”

“Flowers love snakes!”

In an instant, the sky of the entire Cold Boat Race Territory was dyed crimson!

In the crimson color, a blood-colored peach blossom rain began to fall!

And the ground on which everyone's feet stepped, “thumping and thumping” one after another!

It's like the earth has a heartbeat!

It seems that there is a hidden dragon that is about to emerge from the ground!
