The crimson rain of peach blossoms fell in everyone's eyes, but it was like a blade of knives, deeply cutting into everyone's heart!

A kind of fear came to my mind!

And the ground was torn apart instantly, like an earthquake.

What the hell is this!

"Boom!" There was a sudden roar on the ground!

A dragon and snake with a field of dozens of meters circled from the ground and went straight to the sky!

And the peach blossom rain in the sky suddenly accelerated the speed of its descent!

The peach blossom and the snake seem to be impatient to meet.

However, the group of cold boaters mixed between flowers and snakes is not so romantic at all.

As if they were in a storm, upward, it was a rain of peach blossoms with a chill.

Down, another arrogant and unreasonable dragon and snake!

If the two powers overlap like this, they will definitely be smashed into pieces!

too horrible!

“Hurry up and resist! The five elements are combined!” Su Yongsheng immediately shouted when he saw that the situation was wrong.

The five elders came back to their senses immediately and looked at each other.

The five divine weapons suddenly collided in mid-air!

In an instant, a colorful ripple appeared above and at the feet of the Cold Boat Race.

It's like a barrier!

It was also at this critical moment that the rain of peach blossoms fell on the barrier!

“Bang bang bang!”

The barrier was cracked by the rain of peach blossoms.

The seemingly fluffy and incomparably soft peach blossom rain cut traces visible to the naked eye on the barrier.

The people on the scene were amazed!

If the peach blossom rain falls on the body, then the body will be torn apart!

How come there are so many strange tricks, really scary!

And something even scarier happened.

The dragon and snake that had been rushing to the sky on the ground was blocked by the barrier, showing a very unwilling appearance!

The dragon snake accelerated, and even in the end, the dragon snake actually coiled the barrier directly!

It seemed that he had to do his best to smash this barrier directly!

This would have been normal!

But the dragon snake made a manic roar!

Under the roar, the people on the scene were as stunned as they had been hit by evil.

The sense of awe that he had felt before was even more profound.

In an instant, including Su Changsheng, everyone's body seemed to have been severely injured, and they fell directly on the ground.

And the Five Elements Divine Soldiers in the sky also seemed to have been cut off, and returned to their original appearance.

The colorful barrier also fell apart in an instant!

The dragon snake with a manic meaning, circled and rushed into the sky!

Some people were swept away by dragons and snakes, their bodies flew out, and they vomited blood.

What was even more terrifying was that the crimson rain of peach blossoms fell.

Some people were hit by the rain of peach blossoms, and there were numerous wounds on their bodies!

For a time, blood color became the main tone of the cold boaters!

Only those with relatively strong strength barely avoided the attack of the dragon and the snake and the close proximity of the peach blossom rain.

Flowers love snakes, entangled in mid-air.

Completed.

The crimson peach blossoms turned into pink dots all over the sky.

And the dragon and snake also fell apart in an instant, dissipating without a trace.

But nonetheless.

This short reunion between the flower and the snake is enough to make them feel lucky and happy for a long time.

The pressure of the people at the scene subsided, and they were mourning.

Su Changsheng and the five elders watched the scene in a mess, and their eyes were cracked!

hateful!

This damn woman!

It is so cruel to my Hanzhou people!

Su Lanbo's face at the moment is also unbelievable!

In his world, there has never been such a mysterious and terrifying power.

Bai Fengxue is like giving Su Lanbo a lesson, letting him know how bizarre the world outside the Hanzhou people is!

There is a day out there!

Someone out there!

At this moment, Su Hongxiu also had some dirt hanging from her body, and her whole body was a little embarrassed.

However, her eyes cast an incomparable gleam.

It's like a hunter sees his prey.

"Your wife, she's really amazing! It seems that when I fought against her, she didn't show her strength at all! The pressure just now was so terrifying that even I couldn't stand it and crawled on the ground. , what kind of power is that! It seems to be able to empty all our blood, and we instinctively feel fear." Su Hongxiu asked Wiliam.

Wiliam also lightly brushed the dust off his body, and said with a smile, "You will naturally know in a while."

Su Yongcun's whole person is not well at this time.

He knew that things had come to a point where it was too late.

Now even if he wanted to save Bai Fengxue, he couldn't.

And Bai Fengxue, who finished her big move, stood there quietly.

The peach blossom branches on the ground also turned into a streamer and returned to her body.

This move seems to be a huge drain on her.

The snow at the moment, the body is blue and white, but more red.

Red is blood.

"I'm really tired." Bai Fengxue suddenly murmured in a low voice, her footsteps trembled, and her whole body fell towards the front.

William seemed to be ready for a long time, and rushed up with a vigorous step, directly supporting the falling Bai Fengxue.

"It's hard work." William whispered to Bai Fengxue, his fingers stroked Fengxue's face with great distress, and wiped the blood on her face for her.

"Well, I'll sleep for a while." Bai Fengxue showed a wry smile and slowly closed her eyes.

She overdrawn too much power.

This move is not something that Bai Fengxue can do at will.

If she was in custody, she might be able to complete it more perfectly.

But now it's shocking enough.

"Yeah. Go to sleep, I'm here." William patted Feng Xue's body, as if he was talking to her, but also to himself.

"Save the people first." Su Changsheng shouted loudly.

Because the scene was so miserable, the blood flowed into a river.

Fortunately, the cold boaters have the seal of the four sides, which can just restore the loss in front of them.

I saw a few people with Sifang seals offering their own seals one after another.

For a time, a bright green light filled the audience.

Only William and Bai Fengxue were missed.

After a while, the screams at the scene slowly disappeared.

Those who were injured slowly got up from the ground, sat cross-legged on the ground, and regulated their bodies.

And after doing all this, Su Changsheng glared at Wiliam, "Boy, are you going to protect this demon girl? I'll give you two choices. One, hand over this demon girl. Two, you two will die together!"

However, Wiliam chuckled lightly and his eyes became playful.

He stretched out three fingers and said lightly, "I will make the third choice."

"Genocide!"
