

Dragon Husband 1778

Chapter 1778 Unchaining the shackles

Su Yongcun's remarks are not an exaggeration to say that they are deafening.

The people at the scene were completely immersed in the shock of his "moving a foot, and printing a zhang".

Many people can't help but reflect, has the cold boaters really reached this stage?

Is there really no cure?

However, Su Yongcun has already taken that step of life and death.

"No!" Many people shouted, wondering if this sentence was from conscience.

"boom!"

An incomparably manic voice resounded from the ground that Su Yongcun stepped on.

A gust of wind swept across the audience in an instant, causing the grass and trees to fly, making it impossible to open your eyes!

The people at the scene closed their eyes, and their hearts were full of fear.

Has this vision occurred before?

As if unheard of!

Why did this happen after Su Yongcun took this step?

Now, is he dead?

The earth is still roaring.

Debris flew around, and some people were even bruised.

And in this manic atmosphere, a vicissitudes of laughter suddenly sounded.

“Ha ha ha ha!”

One ear for everyone!

This is Su Yongcun’s voice!

He is not dead!

Everyone reluctantly opened their eyes and saw that Su Yongcun had already stood outside the mark.

He covered his eyes with one hand and let out a terrifying laugh.

But there were also several people who saw Su Yongcun’s covered eyes shed two lines of tears.

I don’t know what the significance of this step is to him.

I don’t even know what kind of impact and shock this step will have on the cold boaters.

Su Yongcun’s mind is extremely complicated at this moment.

After he saw through the world of the cold boat, he originally held the belief of mortal.

But after taking this step, I found that I was not dead.

For a time, all kinds of emotions flooded into my heart.

Naturally, the first thing he felt was the joy of returning from the dead.

Then, there was an ecstasy not seen in years.

What does it mean not to die?

It means that the shackles of freedom of the cold boaters for thousands of years have been completely broken at this moment.

Shame!

Su Yongcun took this step with all his heart and mind, but he was forced out.

He was surprised and ashamed in his heart, and couldn't help shedding two lines of tears.

"Su Yongcun is not dead! He is not dead! Everyone, look!"

The people at the scene immediately shouted.

One pass ten, ten pass one hundred.

Soon, everyone opened their eyes and saw this shocking scene.

Then, bursts of laughter swept the audience.

The wind gradually ceased.

There was only laughter left.

Everyone in the cold boat knows how many years of hard work they have made for this step.

Now, finally taking this step!

And take this step safely and safely.

The cold boaters are free from now on!

Su Changsheng's eyes were red at this moment, and he was shedding tears.

"Hanzhou, free!" He couldn't help shouting.

Because Su Yong existed first, several elders soon tried to take this step.

The results were all safe and sound.

For a time, joy and surprises filled the entire Cold Boat Race.
And even more surprising is another thing.

After many people took this step, after a while, they found that their bodies were different.

The voice that had broken in my head rang out again.

They suddenly discovered that their strength was rising!

“Everyone, look at your body! I feel like I have broken through!”

“Yeah! I also felt that the bottleneck of many years was suddenly broken!”

“Hahahaha, I was only in the middle stage of Huajin, but now I’m in the late stage of Huajin, no, it’s still rising! Damn, Xiantian Secret Realm! I’m in Xiantian Secret Realm!”

This remark once again swept the audience.

Many people were surprised at first, but at the end, they were already ecstatic.

After taking this step, you can actually get such a huge benefit!

This is simply amazing!

Su Hongxiu frowned and couldn’t help asking Wiliam, “Wiliam, what the hell is going on here!”

Wiliam twitched the corner of his mouth and said with a smile, “As expected.”

“What is expected? Is all this a ghost that you made! What the hell is going on, tell me quickly!” Su Hongxiu wanted to break her head, but she couldn’t figure out the reason.

Wiliam whispered: “I had a doubt before. It stands to reason that the Hanzhou people have blood inheritance after all, and there are sacred objects such as the Jiangshan Prayer Seal that are constantly infiltrating and nourishing. From the previous experience, as long as there is blood inheritance, then the martial arts strength of this bloodline group is definitely not bad, at least much stronger than ordinary sects.”

“But I haven’t seen this in the Cold Boat Race. What I’ve seen is that the people of this race are not good at martial arts, even medical skills, and they are ashamed of blood inheritance. Then the problem is Where is it?”

Wiliam was still talking slowly, “So I thought of you.”

“Thinking of me? What the hell?” Su Hongxiu couldn’t help asking.

“Well, you have walked out of this ethnic group, and then I saw an extraordinary martial arts cultivation in you, even bottomless. I am speculating on one thing.”

“Is it only when you get out of this group, or get rid of the shackles of your Hanzhou people group, will you be your true strength?”

"In other words, the Jiangshan Prayer Seal not only shackles you from walking out of these 20 kilometers, but also shackles your bloodline cultivation."

"You can see it now, it's not what I expected. After the shackles of the Jiangshan Prayer Seal are untied, the bloodline on your body can exert its strongest strength. The shackles of many years have all spewed out in this dynasty. , each of their martial arts cultivation bases will naturally take a big step."

William finished in one breath.

But there were some things he didn't say to Su Hongxiu.

Probably in ancient times, when the Three Sovereigns designed the Jiangshan prayer seal to the Hanzhou people, they had already laid such a foreshadowing.

The human race didn't want the Cold Boat Race to become too powerful after inheriting the Cang Python bloodline, so they put a shackle on them.

Now the shackles are completely untied.

William thought rudely, if there is no him, there is no way to untie the seal and shackles of the Jiangshan Prayer Seal.

After all, the human race has put down this shackle, and there must be very terrifying restrictions and requirements to untie it.

Luckily, William got the soul of the soldier and was recognized by the soldier.

Only in the form of the soldier's remnant soul can he conquer the Jiangshan Prayer Seal.

It would be impossible to do this with anyone else.

This is the deep meaning of the human race.

Su Hongxiu took a deep look at William, not knowing whether it was gratitude or fear in her eyes.

She took a deep breath and asked suddenly, "But since you know that, why do you do this?"

"Have you thought about a question?"

"It's okay to untie the shackles of the cold boaters. Now their strength has risen a lot, will they be grateful to you?"

The corner of William's mouth twitched and his eyes were sharp, "Of course not. They are white-eyed wolves. If they turn their heads, they will come and bite me."
