

Dragon Husband 1781

Chapter 1781 in unison

The people at the scene looked at such a bizarre scene and didn't know what to say.

They only saw Wiliam alone, facing such a huge crowd of cold boaters.

On his back, was a woman who slowly opened her eyes, as weak as a little rabbit.

In front of him, stood the Supreme Elders of the Cold Boat, as well as hundreds of strong men who were strong and advanced by leaps and bounds!

Such an exaggerated strength comparison, such a terrifying comparison of numbers!

Formed a very absurd picture.

This kid, what do you mean by saying this in front of so many people?

Eat soft rice on the street?

And is this ridiculous?

Bai Fengxue had clearly passed out due to exhaustion just now.

Also, what we faced just now were only the cold boaters who were not very advanced.

What he is now facing is the Supreme Elder and the changed cold boater.

Not a level at all.

If the strength of the previous cold boaters was only ten, then the overall strength of the current cold boaters will definitely break through one hundred!

It is impossible for ten hundred white winds to defeat.

Now Wiliam is still relying on his wife, what can he say that his wife can beat him?

Funny!

What's even more ridiculous is that this woman, like the real thing, even asked everyone if they wanted to beat her husband?

He said it as if everyone wanted to beat him and wouldn't let him.

Why don't you wake up or fall asleep!

Go to sleep!

The people at the scene couldn't help but burst into laughter.

And Bai Fengxue opened his eyes, and there was still a trace of confusion in his eyes.

It was as if he hadn't really woken up.

One of her hands tightly hugged Wiliam's neck.

On the other hand, he snapped his fingers lightly.

This snap of fingers is insignificant.

But it seems to have thousands of magic powers!

The people at the scene clearly felt that something was wrong around them.

They were actually visible to the naked eye, and the surrounding environment gradually became blurred.

It's like entering another world!

A world full of oceans!

The scene in front of them gradually blurred, and in the end there was nothing left.

They seemed to be in the sea, but they didn't sink because of it!

All the people at the scene panicked and made a sound of panic.

“Where are we!”

“What kind of sorcery is this woman using!”

“Here, it seems to be the blue python! How could we come here! We are clearly in the group!”

They finally discovered that the surrounding environment had become exactly the same as the Cang Python Moat!

They try to move.

But I found that even though my feet were walking and running, my body was still standing still.

It's a very weird situation.

“Hmph! The little trick of the worm! Break it for me!” A cold boater Taishang elder snorted coldly, and a violent aura suddenly erupted from his body.

They naturally thought it was an illusion used by Bai Fengxue.

As long as it's an illusion, what's so scary?

In front of the powerhouse who seeks the fairyland, the illusion used by Bai Fengxue's strength is not shatterable!

However, everyone was horrified to discover that no matter how strong the aura of the Supreme Elder was, it seemed like he had entered a quagmire, and he couldn't raise any waves at all!

Wiliam also looked curiously at the scene in front of him, a little surprised.

Is this the possible strength of Bai Fengxue in the future?

Just now Wiliam was really making a big gamble.

When he said procrastination, he was procrastinating.

Including telling the Hanzhou people their shackles, helping them break the shackles, and even letting them run here to experiment at will.

All kinds of situations are all at the mercy of Wiliam.

The purpose is to buy Bai Fengxue time to wake her up.

William knew that Bai Fengxue's strongest strength had yet to be exerted.

To deal with the cold boat, William has nothing to do with Bai Fengxue.

After all, Bai Fengxue is the bloodline of the Frost Cang Python, and it is the inheritance of blood marrow.

It is no exaggeration to say that Feng Xue is the second generation of Cang Python.

Bai Fengxue has a deep blood pressure on this group of people.

Therefore, to defeat this group of people, you can only rely on Bai Fengxue's blood to suppress.

But William didn't know how Bai Fengxue would use his bloodline advantage.

After all, I have tried it before, although it can suppress this group of people for a short time, and let the people present directly drop to the ground.

But this is definitely not the strongest state.

William guessed that Bai Fengxue at that time was less than 1% of his blood vessels.

After waking up, how will the wind and snow behave?

William was looking forward to it.

Now, William saw it.

And, very surprised by this.

Looking at the vastness around him, as if he was in the ocean, William naturally thought it was an illusion.

After all, William has experienced too many illusions.

William should not be too familiar with it, from the earliest mountain guarding place to the illusion created by Peach Blossom Maiden.

But now this illusion, William obviously felt something was wrong.

As if this fantasy, only the wind and snow dominate.

All attempts to harm Feng Xue will be curbed.

Here, Feng Xue is king.

Thinking of this, Wiliam suddenly shuddered in his heart!

wrong!

This doesn't seem to be a fantasy!

Wiliam instantly thought of Lady Peach Blossom!

She can also create fantasy like Xanadu.

At that time, Wiliam guessed that Taoyuan Illusion was the domain of Peach Blossom Lady!

now what!

Is this fantasy realm exclusive to Baifengxue?

Can Bai Fengxue briefly open his own domain?

Thinking of this, Wiliam got goosebumps all over his body!

If his guess is true, then Bai Fengxue is too terrifying.

I just don't know how long Bai Fengxue can last in this domain.

"Demon girl! Let us go out! Otherwise, you are really welcome!"

"I will kill you now!"

The people at the scene clearly felt that they couldn't get out of this ghost place.

But it happens that they are here, and they can't feel any depression.

Their strength has not been weakened in the slightest.

Even their five senses were not weakened.

It really seems to have changed the environment.

This sense of incompatibility made them very uneasy.

Something must have happened!

Better get out of here as soon as possible!

As if hearing everyone's request, Bai Fengxue smiled.

She smiled, and the world seemed to bloom in spring.

She was still on William's back, but behind her, another terrifying scene appeared!

An icy blue snake that covers the sky!

Slowly rise from the boundless ocean!

Everyone is stunned!

They are like ants, watching a scorching sun rise in front of their eyes!

This big snake is really big!

You can't even see the tail!

I don't know how many millions of miles!

What's even more terrifying is that Bai Fengxue spoke.

As soon as she opened her mouth, the giant snake behind her also opened her mouth.

Suddenly, the whole world set off a stormy sea!

The world has turned into a hell on earth in an instant!

One person and one snake!

in unison!

"My children and grandchildren, do you really want to kill me?"
