Chapter 1789 Humanoid Black Qi

As the cold laughter fell, a wind that seemed to blow from hell instantly swept the audience.

Everyone couldn't help but fight a cold war and looked up.

I saw that the black gas in the sky was even more intense, but there was a particularly dense black gas that slowly formed a humanoid appearance.

Is that a person?

Everyone looked at the human-shaped black gas in the sky in horror.

And Su Lanbo's teeth rattled when he heard the sound, and he was obviously scared to the extreme.

His body slumped down instantly and shouted loudly, "Welcome to the master!"

Master?

The evil black air in the sky turned out to be Su Lanbo's master?

Could it be that Su Lanbo's Qimen evil skills were all learned from him?

"Hohohoho, interesting, interesting." The black man was still smiling.

Su Lan's cold sweat broke out.

He didn't even know what his master was thinking.

Su Lanbo met this wonderful master by chance a few years ago.

However, from the beginning to the end, he had never even seen what his master looked like.

It was as if the master was born with a mass of black air and had no physical body.

But he knew one thing.

My own master is very powerful, and he is incomparably supernatural!

Master's ability is much stronger than those of the hidden elders!

Therefore, after only a few years of training, Su Lanbo was able to make rapid progress, and his realm was close to that of Su Changsheng.

But making such rapid progress is still too slow in the eyes of this master.

This master is a myth, and he doesn't know who he is, where he came from, or what he's going to do.

What Su Lanbo has to do is to obey his master and obey his orders.

Otherwise, Master's methods are much more ruthless than Su Lanbo.

Now at this juncture, the master appeared again, and he said something inexplicable just now. Su Lanbo felt up and down in his heart, and he really had no bottom.

Could it be that Master is blaming me?

Thinking of this, Su Lanbo quickly explained: "Master, I am subduing the Cold Boat Race for you, not that I really want to be the Patriarch of the Cold Boat Race."

And everyone at the scene looked at how arrogant Su Lanbo was before, and how humble he is now, and they were all stunned for a while.

Is Su Lanbo's master that powerful?

"Hohoho, cold boater, what is it in my eyes? I didn't care about it before, but now each one becomes more rubbish, I won't even care about it. I'm just starting to appreciate you kid, it's ruthless, you can do such a heavy hand on your own people, I like it, ho ho ho." The black humanoid in the sky laughed again.

Hearing this, Su Lanbo breathed a sigh of relief.

It turns out that Master didn't blame me, that's great.

"Thank you, Master!" Su Lanbo quickly knelt down and bowed.

"What do you want to do with the Hanzhou people, I have no interest at all. But Su Lanbo, you can't do anything about what I told you. You are so disappointed in me." The human figure in the sky The tone of the black air suddenly changed again, becoming gloomy.

As soon as these words came out, Su Lanbo trembled again. As if thinking of something, he shivered and explained, "I'm sorry, Master, I couldn't handle it well, it's really that kid..."

Before he finished speaking, a cold wind hit Su Lanbo directly.

Su Lanbo was drawn immediately, and blood gurgled from his body.

However, he gritted his teeth and did not dare to resist in the slightest.

The people at the scene were even more stunned.

Su Lanbo didn't even dare to hide!

And everyone was even more amazed at the master's moodiness.

The last second he was praising Su Lanbo, and the next second he directly gave Su Lanbo a hand.

It really is like a tiger with a king.

"Humph. There are some things that should be said, and some things that shouldn't be said." Su Lanbo's master suddenly said, his body was madly photographed towards the scene.

The people in the cold boat only felt their foreheads stiff, and they all fainted.

Su Lanbo fainted when he saw the people in the cold boat. He suddenly remembered something, and quickly kowtowed: "Master, I was wrong. I shouldn't speak in front of outsiders, I was wrong. Please give me another chance."

As he spoke, he began to fan his mouth wildly.

"Hmph, you kid, you're getting more and more useless, you can't do a little thing well, can't you do it yourself for the teacher?" The humanoid black qi still seemed to be very dissatisfied with Su Lanbo.

Su Lanbo's guts were about to be frightened at this moment.

This thing has to start a few years ago.

Su Lanbo was accepted as an apprentice by his master for a very simple reason.

The same reason that Su Changsheng indulged him.

Master Su Lanbo also rushed to the country to pray and print it.

However, it seems that he can't do anything about the Jiangshan Prayer Seal, so he pinned his hopes on Su Lanbo, hoping that Su Lanbo could one day help him gain the approval of the Jiangshan Prayer Seal.

But in the past few years, Su Lanbo's progress has not been fast, which made his master very dissatisfied.

A few days ago, when Su Lanbo was still sleeping, he suddenly felt a gust of wind outside.

After he woke up and closed the window, he found that there was a cloud of black air in the room.

It is his own master.

At that time, the master explained something to Su Lanbo.

The master said that in a few days, there will be outsiders entering the Hanzhou people group, and then let Su Lanbo be careful.

He even told Su Lanbo to be careful of one of the young men, and then tried his best to provoke the man's anger, preferably having the opportunity to assassinate him.

Although the master didn't say anything at the time, Su Lanbo had a feeling.

The young man that Master explained must have some ancient treasure on his body.

This point, Su Lanbo guessed by himself after contacting Master many times.

This master of my own seems to have a quirk.

He's been collecting some ancient stuff.

For example, the Jiangshan Prayer Seal he was eyeing.

Now that Master has his eyes on some young man, there must be something Master wants in this man.

But Su Lanbo didn't dare to ask more questions without authorization, he just had to strictly follow the master's instructions.

Then, Su Lanbo saw the old man Qingfeng brought two young men to the side of the cold boater.

For a while, Su Lanbo didn't know which of the two young men the master was referring to was.

He first stared at Bai Fengxue.

So at that time, he deliberately found a reason to deliberately provoke Bai Fengxue in an attempt to anger Bai Fengxue.

But he never thought that Bai Fengxue was so weak at that time that he didn't dare to fight.

Later, Su Lanbo gradually set his sights on Wiliam.

Who knew that this Wiliam was so powerful, because Su Lanbo didn't dare to expose his situation at the time, he couldn't help Wiliam, and was even humiliated by Wiliam.

Thinking of this, Su Lanbo suddenly said: "Master, that Wiliam has just left, and I will go after him right away! I will smash him into pieces! I will definitely live up to Master's expectations!"
