

Dragon Husband 1797

Chapter 1797 Lightning Cage

As Ye Qiongqi's voice fell, a terrifying picture appeared!

It's like falling from the sky!

The dense lightning suddenly fell from the sky!

rather than chop off!

Lightning is like a thin thread, removed from the sky!

Almost instantly, the entire scene was covered!

That picture is like an upside-down big bowl falling from the sky, trapping everyone in this big bowl!

It's just this bowl, it's really scary!

Some people do not believe in evil, and they bite hard, trying to break through the net of lightning.

However, the screams rang out immediately!

They were horrified to find that the lightning that hung down and directly inserted into the ground was terrifyingly powerful!

Every thin line is like a sharp knife!

Whenever this line is touched, the body will be directly cut open!

Soon several people's arms were directly cut off!

And some people, some took out magic weapons to attack, and some lifted rocks and smashed them towards the lightning.

However, the magic weapon's attack could not shake the lightning line at all, and the stone was directly cut into two pieces!

When everyone saw this scene, their hearts went cold!

The world is so big, they are trapped in this lightning cage!

What awaits them will be a slow death!

Even Su Hongxiu and Du Zhaixing didn't dare to rush into this lightning cage easily.

"Hahahaha! It's all said, that I can let you escape? Since I'm taking action today, I must kill you all, otherwise it will spread, and I will deal with you ants as a big man, and it will also be a blow to my reputation. So people who have seen me should be damned!" Ye Qiongqi laughed, the black energy on his body continued to linger, but he still couldn't see his true face.

All the people you look at me, I look at you, lost their minds for a while.

In the presence of people who can make them depend on, the life and death of them are still unknown.

Su Hongxiu gently put the blood-covered William on the ground, and put it together with the sleeping Bai Fengxue.

She took a deep breath, her eyes filled with determination.

The sisters floating in the air at this moment have all returned to their phalanx.

"Sect Master, what should we do now? We can't escape." The women asked Su Hongxiu.

They can die for the suzerain, but they can't wait to die like this!

Su Hongxiu bit his teeth and shouted coldly: "Fight with this guy! It seems that only by defeating this guy can this lightning cage disappear. So, we have only one way!"

She said, and added another sentence!

“We know this is a dead end, and we have to make it! Let’s go together!”

Saying that, she took the lead and rushed towards Ye Qiongqi!

There was a word in my heart that I didn’t say.

Wiliam, Bai Fengxue...

sorry.....

I also have times when I can’t do anything about it.

But don’t worry, even if you want to die, you must be the last two.

With Su Hongxiu desperate, all the people in the red and thin high-rise buildings also rushed towards Ye Qiongqi with the sect master!

People who are forgetful about Han Xing also naturally know that they can’t be alone at this moment.

Offense is the best defense!

Following Du Zhexing’s words, all Han Xing’s forgetful people moved in unison, closely following the people in the red, thin and tall buildings!

While the red and thin high-rise man charged, he frantically used all his abilities!

For a time, the scene became extremely sensational!

The magic weapon flashes one after another!

The sound of the vigorous breaking wind is also incessant!

The girls’ sweet drinking has never stopped!

All the means of attack are heading towards Ye Qiongqi!

And the strongest blow that gathered all the power of a sect, I believe it is the powerhouse of the flying cloud, and I don’t want to face it directly!

However, Ye Qiongqi just sneered.

Facing the roaring offensive from all over the sky, Ye Qiongqi sneered: “Frog at the bottom of the well, you don’t even know who I am in front of you.”

The blackness on him was surging.

A black air barrier formed in front of him.

Not even his favorite lightning bolt was dispatched.

All the offensive hit this black air barrier!

For a while, the roar continued!

Dust is everywhere!

Everyone ignored it, even if they couldn't see Ye Qiongqi's people clearly, they didn't dare to relax their vigilance!

The energy in his body is still blasting in that direction without any money!

"Come on! We can't relax! We have to smash this guy into scum!" Sun Qing'er shouted softly from the side.

All the girls nodded, knowing this.

Such a strong bombardment lasted for a full two minutes!

The bombing made everyone present go deaf!

Under normal circumstances, if everyone in a sect is bombarded with all their strength, there is a mountain in front of you, and it will be razed to the ground!

Su Hongxiu was still bombarding in front of her, and then she took a moment to observe the scene in all directions.

Han Xing's forgetful person didn't make a move for a while.

They tightly surrounded the people in the red and thin high-rise buildings, as if they were blocking the front for the people in the red and thin high-rise buildings.

For a time, Su Hongxiu was a little moved.

People who are oblivious to Han Xing may know that the red and thin high-rise buildings are attacking with all their strength, and they have no strength at all.

Therefore, in order to prevent accidents, they took the initiative to become the strongest defense of the red and thin high-rise buildings.

But as time went by, Su Hongxiu's heart became colder and colder.

wrong.....

If the attack is effective, it will definitely cause the opponent's injury.

It is bound to loosen the lightning cage.

But according to Su Hongxiu's observation, the surrounding lightning cages have never been loosened at all!

Still like the strongest cage, indestructible!

This shows one thing!

The guy in the core of the attack, not only did he die!

Not even injured!

A frenzied bombardment that gathers the power of a sect!

Didn't even the other's fur hurt?

What kind of height did the opponent's realm reach!

"Stop it, save your stamina." Su Hongxiu finally gave an order.

Since all of this is useless work, you can't lose your strength first, and then fall into a more dangerous situation.

When the sisters heard the Sect Master's words, they immediately stopped attacking.

Their eyes were fixed on the ruins not far away.

In the ruins, as the dust and smoke gradually dissipated, the first black smear appeared.

And more and more black, in the end, a black gas barrier appeared in front of them.

Just like a few minutes ago, there was no movement.

And the black gas barrier slowly disappeared after the attack disappeared.

Ye Qiongqi, who was full of gas, heard a stern laughter, "Interesting, interesting, I haven't moved my muscles for a long time. Do a group of little dolls like to play games so much? Then I'll play with you."

The voice fell, and suddenly someone shouted loudly!

"Look, everyone, this lightning cage seems to be moving! No, it's not moving, it's..."

“shrink!”
