

Dragon Husband 1820

Chapter 1820 Human disaster!

The rolling river water poured down to this piece of heaven and earth.

It's like endless!

Between the heavens and the earth, there was a sudden downpour that was unprecedented in history!

The river water completely submerged the area around the moat in an instant, with a roaring anger!

And the Frost Cang Python twisted its body in anger, causing a manic hurricane to hang out of nowhere!

The hurricane was unreasonable and swept the surrounding things into the sky, and then fell violently.

Gale!

rainstorm!

It became the main theme of the world for a time.

But even more terrifying!

Among the blue pythons, there are many ancient beasts who have lived for unknown years!

Some of these ancient beasts are powerful!

Some are huge!

These ancient beasts were poured into this world as if they had been poured into beans!

The roar was endless for a while!

This world seems to be completely occupied by ancient beasts.

It is no exaggeration to say that life has been ruined!

The old man Qingfeng stood in the middle of the storm, his eyes were red.

It's time to come, it's finally here.

This scene, the prophecy calls it—

Human disaster!

Since the three brothers Wiliam's bloodlines were awakened, there have been people saying two words in their ears!

Three disasters!

At that time, Wiliam was still ignorant until he met the old man Qingfeng and learned some mysterious prophecies from the old man Qingfeng.

Among them, there are three disasters!

The three brothers Wiliam are all descendants of the human race, but they have inherited the blood of the third of the four emperors of the demon race. They are destined to be the bridge between the human race and the demon race.

When Wiliam was going to the Cold Boat Race, the old man Qingfeng asked Wiliam a question.

"Jiangshan Prayer Seal can save the cang python, but after saving it, will the moat disappear? Will the catastrophe in the world reappear?"

At that time, Wiliam's answer was, "I have another way, I can save the Cang Python, and at the same time save the moat, and let the people live in peace."

Based on this, the old man Qingfeng had a bit of luck.

He thought that Wiliam, as a great sage, could change the world and change his fate.

Unfortunately.....

The prophecy of the three disasters is recorded in the Hetu Luoshu.

Such a powerful record of fate cannot be changed at will.

Even the great sages cannot go against the sky!

Wiliam's eldest brother Liu Lang is a natural disaster, and he is destined to be an angry dragon who will fight endlessly with Tiandao.

The second brother, Lin Jiang, is a disaster of the earth. He will have a catastrophe and a wrath, the phoenix will burn the world, and the earth will be nirvana.

And Wiliam is a human disaster.

At that time, the old man Qingfeng did not dare to tell Wiliam too specific content, for fear of revealing the secret, he would guide Wiliam to this road of no return.

What a pity, what a pity?

It is recorded in Hetu Luoshu that Qilin Wande has one kill. One kill, all spirits perish!

This is a human disaster!

Human disasters are not a crime, the world is replaced by the world.

The meaning of the book is to put it bluntly...

The successor of the bloodline of the ancestor of the ancient unicorn is born a sage, has a kind heart, and achieves supreme merit.

But even with infinite merit, there is a killing in life.

This time the killing happened, all the spirits of heaven and earth were destroyed, and all living beings were wiped out.

This is human disaster.

This man-made disaster is not the fault of the heirs of the Qilin bloodline, but that the world has reached a bottleneck since its operation.

It takes this disaster for this world to be transformed and reborn.

Now the disaster has happened.

Although the old man Qingfeng knew in his heart that Wiliam could not be blamed for this, it was inevitable.

But really feeling the grief of all souls, the heart of the old man Qingfeng is also trembling.

The only thing he can do now is to pray that this human disaster will be over soon, and that the heaven and earth will quickly breed new breath.

And far away, the gigantic tortoise walked through the clouds.

The jade plate on its back is covered with dense patterns.

Suddenly, the jade plate shines brightly.

On the jade plate, three scratches across the jade plate appeared faintly!

And between heaven and earth, like a brush.

On one of the scratches, he traced it heavily.

For a time, that scratch was as black as ink, as if the jade plate was divided into two.

This imprint drawn by the pen of heaven and earth is still very clear even if it is covered with patterns.

This big turtle seemed to feel something.

Bloody tears slowly ooze out of its eyes.

For the heaven and earth, weep for the common people.

This scene is what the old man Qingfeng said—

Three disasters and troubled times, one magic book slaughter.

This is the first massacre in the world.

Negative Book Xuanwu is one of the four ancient demon emperors, and his most powerful is the Hetu Luoshu on his body.

The jade plate on his back is the ancient god Hetu Luoshu.

Hetu Luoshu knows all things in the world, and has the mysterious function of recording the heaven and earth.

Shutu is also a record of the heaven and earth.

The sky is stormy, and the end of the world is coming.

In this extreme environment, the peach blossoms on Bai Fengxue's body are getting stronger and stronger!

"Look! What is that?" Someone suddenly looked up and called out in disbelief.

In the sky, it rained peach blossoms.

Countless crimson peach blossoms rustled down.

In the midst of the storm, it still fluttered slowly.

It doesn't seem to have been affected by the storm at all.

It seems that the strong wind and rain can't bear to beat the peach blossoms, silently guarding the falling of the peach blossoms.

The peach blossoms are falling more and more.

Until their feet were full of peach petals.

A crimson light suddenly flew out of Bai Fengxue's body and flew into the sky.

The crimson light slowly wriggled and condensed in the air.

Finally, condensed into a graceful woman.

This woman seems to be sleeping.

She opened her eyes slowly.

I saw this catastrophe.

However, she laughed.

Full of tears, full of smiles.

"Welcome back, my love..."

The woman said in a low voice, there are more peach blossoms in the world.

William also noticed this woman, with mixed feelings in his heart.

Isn't she the Lady of Peach Blossom?

Lady Peach Blossom did not fall asleep in the abyss of peach blossoms.

Instead, he didn't know when, he had been hibernating in Bai Fengxue's body.

So, Lady Peach Blossom knew it long ago, so was she waiting in Feng Xue's body for a long time?

William felt helpless about this.

On the opposite side of Lady Peach Blossom, a phantom slowly appeared.

This phantom, from the virtual to the real, slowly condenses.

In the end, it condensed into a woman with an extremely slender figure, but with a heroic face but a lot of guilt.

This woman first touched her body in disbelief, confirmed her body, and presented a solid state.

Then, she stretched out her hand towards Madam Peach Blossom, but she was a little afraid, and slowly retracted it.

Peach Blossom Lady, pea-sized tears rustled down.

She took a step forward and hugged the woman's waist directly.

"Welcome back, fool."
