Chapter 1828 Cang Blood

William was still hesitating, but he felt that the scene changed!

He seems to be in another world!

In this world, beside him, Qi Qi appeared another six figures wearing black and gold robes.

It's just that everyone's faces were deliberately covered by black and gold robes, so they couldn't see clearly at all.

This should be what the Qingfeng old man said, they don't know each other's identities.

Thinking of this, William's heart calmed down a little.

Because according to his current strength, he can't be compared with these real ferrymen at all.

Fortunately, since they didn't know each other's identities, William could act foolishly.

The seven figures, including William, were hanging in the air, and there was a faint feeling of looking down at the earth.

After a while, another person appeared in front of them.

Seeing this person clearly, William frowned slightly.

This man turned out to be the old man Qingfeng.

How could the old man Qingfeng appear here!

What is the relationship between him and the Seven Star Ferryman?

"Qingfeng, how do you explain what happened today?" A hoarse voice sounded.

William suddenly felt amazing.

It should be the other six who spoke.

But the voice is vague, and it is impossible to know who is speaking through the source of the voice.

Could this be the magical effect of the black-gold robe?

The old man Qingfeng stood under them with a dull expression on his face.

He just said lightly: "I went to the scene to see it immediately, and the Frost Cang Python woke up."

"Why did the Frost Cang Python wake up?" Another voice came.

"Jiangshan prayed that Yin would fall into the river. Coincidentally, a person of the most bloodline fought with others and fell into the river." The old man Qingfeng replied.

"The ultimate bloodline is rare in the world, and the person in his arms is of extraordinary realm. Who is the person who can drive the supreme bloodline into the river?" a voice asked.

"That person is the owner of the ancient five-clawed golden dragon bloodline, Liu Lang." The old man Qingfeng said with his face unchanged.

Hearing this, William faintly understood something.

The old man Qingfeng was on their side.

Big Brother's bloodline has long been exposed when Yingdu recruited talents.

The old man Qingfeng let it take its course and blamed Liu Lang for what happened today, which was justifiable.

I just don't know if this will bring danger to the big brother?

"It's him again, this kid has been very active these days! Now he has actually revived the Frost Blue Python! What about the Frost Blue Python?" a voice asked.

"Going away, it should be going to another world. According to the terrifying realm of the Frost Cang Python, it is impossible to survive in this world for a long time." Old Man Qingfeng said.

The scene suddenly fell silent.

A voice asked: "Several, what do you think?"

"Liu Lang's level of improvement is really terrifying."

"This world is getting more and more chaotic."

"Old Qingfeng, how true or false are your words? Do you really think we are blind?"

There are voices of emotion and voices of doubt.

But the old man Qingfeng did not change his face, "What I tell is what I see. As for the further judgment, I will leave it to you. I dare not make a rash judgment."

The scene was quiet again, but Wiliam clearly felt that in this quiet, there was a strange killing intent.

This kind of killing intent was aimed at Old Man Qingfeng.

Wiliam secretly screamed badly.

The old man Qingfeng didn't know how many times he had protected the three brothers.

It will definitely arouse the suspicion of these bigwigs.

To these big guys, the Qingfeng old man is just an ant, and he can kill him easily.

William thought for a moment and said lightly, "I noticed something."

When the voice said it, William's heart was actually still on his mind.

He is gambling!

As a result, he bet right!

As soon as the sound came out, it disappeared instantly.

It was impossible to find out what he said.

Even the timbre of the sound has completely changed.

In this way, William can make bold plans.

"What's the matter?" Several voices floated in unison.

Strange to say, when these voices came, William actually heard an echo.

Is this black and gold robe really so magical?

William pressed his doubts and said lightly, "Among the seven of us, someone has fallen."

"Or in other words, someone new has inherited the identity of the ferryman."

As soon as these words came out, the people at the scene suddenly fell silent.

Even William saw the old man Qingfeng's complexion changed instantly!

Indeed, the old man Qingfeng was shocked!

Some of the seven-star ferrymen who are aloof have been overthrown, and are there newcomers?

This is something that has not happened in nearly a hundred years!

Absolutely breaking news!

Apparently still silent, no one spoke.

William's heart became a little nervous again.

He did this on purpose.

First, use this explosive message to attract everyone's attention and let the old man Qingfeng escape from the killing intent.

On the other hand, William vaguely felt that these people were not simple.

Probably already knew about this.

Why not try it out?

Because knowing or not knowing will have no effect on William's original identity, it is harmless.

Sure enough, after a while, a voice sounded.

"I feel it too."

"Me too."

"Um."

There were actually three voices responding.

"Hoho, I don't care who fell and who came in. Since I'm wearing this blue blood imperial robe, I better have enough strength and courage. Otherwise, hoho..." A voice sounded, accompanied by a burst of killing intent.

This is the so-called highest decision-making level in the land of common people!

Wearing this black and gold robe, you must take responsibility.

William naturally knew this, and he stopped talking.

"Today's matter, we will investigate on our own. Qingfeng, please step back." said one person.

The old man Qingfeng nodded.

His figure disappeared out of thin air in front of the Seven Star Ferryman.

"Everyone, Yueshuihuajing shed tears again today, I'm afraid it has something to do with today's doom."

"Could the Shuiyuehuajing be related to that Liu Lang?"

"Liu Lang, um, you can pay more attention in the future. If there is another mutation, kill it."

A few people said a few words casually, and some people faded out and disappeared directly.

William's mind moved, the picture changed, and he returned to the original place.

He couldn't help but look around.

I saw Feng Xue still beside me, and the others didn't seem to notice William's mutation.

He was relieved.

But to remind big brother to pay more attention in the future.

This pot man should be very embarrassed.

William was thinking in his heart, how to remind his elder brother.

I can't tell my eldest brother directly that I participated in the top leadership meeting of this plane and learned this information...

Inappropriate. Inappropriate.

At this time, Liu Lang and Lin Jiang fell from the air.

Liu Lang breathed a sigh of relief, "I finally got rid of those bulls, ghosts and snakes, I'm exhausted."

Then he turned around and said to Wiliam, " Wiliam, did you just say that your long live demon lotus is broken?"
