Chapter 1837 The Avenue Jane

The most beautiful word in the world is probably called lost and found!

William had already fallen into despair and guilt.

But Grandpa's awakening brought William an incomparable surprise!

He actually kept a long live red flower for William!

At the same time, it also opened up a road of redemption for William.

Everything is really beautiful!

Lu Lingfeng looked at William and smiled more and more brightly, "You can take this long live red flower out of my mind now, I believe in you, there is a way."

William nodded heavily and bowed deeply towards Grandpa, "Grandpa, thank you!"

A thousand words, not more than two words thank you.

"What are you thanking, silly boy. Long live Honghua is your child, and of course mine, and they are all family. Grandpa is more precious than you, Long live Honghua." Lu Lingfeng touched William's head.

William regained his composure, and used his spiritual sense to explore grandpa's brain.

Grandpa hid this silver needle too well before, and William didn't notice it at all.

Until he probed into Grandpa's brain carefully, William found this long live red flower in a very deep corner.

William burst into tears.

"Come back, my child. Our fate is not over!"

"Bah! Even if the fate is exhausted! Your father will continue it for you!"

William's consciousness slowly penetrated into this long live red flower.

It's like a father's big rough hand touching the delicate and fragile skin of a baby.

William did his best to gently hold up this long live red flower.

His consciousness felt it.

He could even feel the spiritual consciousness contained in the long live safflower, beating and jumping slightly.

Everything is instinctive.

"Come back, my child." William's consciousness called softly, long live Honghua, slowly integrating into William's consciousness.

When William regained consciousness, he was already holding a long live red flower in his hand.

Seeing this long live red flower, William had mixed feelings in his heart.

The first thing he wants to do is to re-grow the safflower spirituality.

Lu Lingfeng also smiled knowingly when he saw this long live red flower.

He carefully told William the forging materials of Wanzai Honghua.

In the world before them, on the Cang Python Continent, these materials might be extremely precious.

But in this common land, these materials are not impossible to find.

And what's more important is Grandpa's forging method and the ratio of these materials.

That's the point.

William immediately called Liu Lang and Lin Jiang in.

Hearing the materials that William needed, Liu Lang patted his chest and agreed, "Our sect should have all of them, and they are wrapped in me. I will contact them immediately and have someone bring them over."

"Thank you, big brother." William said gratefully.

But at this time, Lu Lingfeng said: "Ye'er, have you ever thought about it, in fact, you don't need a million long live safflower, this one is enough."

William was stunned for a moment and looked at his grandfather blankly.

Lu Lingfeng sighed: "The reason why I forged a hundred silver needles is because our realm was relatively low at that time, and we needed to win with physical quantity. Needle. But now the situation is completely different

William's thoughts were instantly opened by his grandfather.

"Now, you have the strength of Nirvana Realm. A silver needle is enough to transform thousands of dharmas, whether it is to fight the enemy or to cure diseases, you can do it. Moreover, the Dao is simple, and it is simple and simple. You let the silver needle evolve again and again before, didn't you end up forming the silver needle image in units of one?" Lu Lingfeng continued.

William nodded immediately, "Yes! That's true!"

Evolving to the back, the Long Live Demon Lotus basically exists within William's body in the form of a lotus.

When William thought about it, the lotus flower turned into thousands of silver needles, and it was no longer a problem.

Now, what about a silver needle!

With a single thought, the silver needle turns into an illusion, which is also a matter of course.

Besides, even if it were a hundred silver needles, there would only be one artifact spirit born in the end.

William had already recognized the ignorant child who was naked and smiling with tears in his heart.

Road to simplicity!

Grandpa broke the mystery in one sentence!

One life two, two begets three, three begets all things!

One is enough!

"Grandpa, I understand!" William nodded heavily.

"So, the most critical point now is how to make this safflower remnant return to its previous state, even stronger than before." Lu Lingfeng is worthy of being an experienced person. Ye greatly saved a few weeks.

"Those who warm and nourish the soul, I have a way. My soldier master can calm the soul, so that he can warm and nourish the soul." William said directly.

However, Lu Lingfeng shook his head and said: "First of all, your soldier master calms the soul, and nourishes the soul of life, and the spirit of the tool is a soul that is different from life. Whether it can be conceived or not is a question. "

"Then, even if the tool spirit can be warmed, the time is estimated to be very slow. It can be as short as a few years, or as long as decades or hundreds of years. The tool spirit can recover. Can you wait?"

Lu Lingfeng's two questions once again revealed the key.

William didn't answer directly, but silently asked Chi You, the leader of the army, in his heart.

The answer I got was that the soldier's soul can warm up the spirit of the weapon, but the time is not fast.

William frowned, lost in thought.

"If you don't rely on the soldier to control the soul, then there is still a way to find some treasures that can strengthen the soul..." William seemed to be muttering to himself.

He originally had this kind of treasure from heaven and earth, but he gave it to the ancestor of Tianqing Qilin and Chi You.

"However, with this idea, the factor of opportunity is too great, and I'm not sure. I don't know when and when I can find this kind of thing." William immediately denied this idea. In fact, if there is such a treasure, Must be extremely rare.

It can be inferred from the fact that the monster has been busy for decades and can only find five treasures.

"Hoho, Ye'er, haven't you thought about it? This world is not as simple as you think. There are many sects, and there are some secret techniques! Don't limit your thinking to some heavenly materials and earthly treasures." Lu Ling Feng said with a smile.

William's head banged!

He was woken up instantly!

I got it!

What does grandpa mean!

If you let go of the soldier Chi You, let go of the treasures of heaven and earth!

Well, there is another way!

From the sect, from the point of view of the secret technique!

There is a sect who is good at a kind of heaven-defying secret technique!

Able to transform a thing into an artifact!

No, in other words, it can transform this kind of thing into a material for a strong spirit!

In an instant, Wiliam looked at Lin Jiang.

At this time, Lin Jiang also happened to look at Wiliam.

The eyes of both of them are shining!

Almost out of my mouth!

in unison!

"The world is in control!"
