

Dragon Husband 1841

Wiliam was shocked when he heard Su Emei's words!

Isn't that a coincidence!

What Wiliam needs most at the moment is a rootless spirit of the highest level, or those materials, so as to help Long Live Red Flower strengthen his soul.

And another reward, being able to make a request to the suzerain of the imperial family, this also made Wiliam tempted.

Wouldn't it be better if he could ask the suzerain who ruled the world without consuming any human favors?

Wiliam looked at Su Emei and asked, "Can't you get both rewards?"

Su Emei looked at Wiliam strangely and said, "You think it's pretty. Do you think I don't know what you're thinking about? But don't worry, since the sect master has promised you, he will definitely go all out to help you. , you don't need to be obsessed with this anymore."

"Why? I also signed up, isn't it great?" Wiliam asked suspiciously.

Su Emei looked to the left and right and found that no one noticed him before he lowered his voice and said to Wiliam, "I'll tell you the truth. You know why the Immortal Doctor seeks the truth, it will be us and Yi Nian Immortal Prison. Co-organized?"

Wiliam shook his head, "I was about to ask you this question too? If it's purely a medical exchange, a thought of Immortal Prison is enough. What are you doing with it?"

Su Emei whispered, "This has to be said from a long, long time ago, and it's a long story."

"Long story short." Wiliam glared at Su Emei.

Su Emei said embarrassingly: "In the early days, we controlled people in the world, and the skills of controlling people were relatively shallow. So we found people from Immortal Prison to cooperate with them. They are proficient in medicine, especially on the human body. The structure is quite familiar. We need knowledge in this area, and even guidance. In order to cultivate talents in this area, Yi Nian Immortal Prison also needs a large number of rootless spirits as test objects for their practice. So our two sects hit it off, The first Fairy Medicine Seeking Truth Meeting was held to select some excellent doctors, and both parties benefited each other."

"Later, our kung fu of controlling people and people has become more and more mature. In fact, we no longer need to cooperate with Yi Nian Immortal Prison. However, the suzerains from generation to generation are more concerned about the old feelings, so we still keep this tradition, but change it. It's a five-year term."

"And this year's Immortal Doctor Seeking Truth Conference is quite special. It should be said that it is the most special one in the past." Su Emei said suddenly thieflly.

"How?" Wiliam asked again.

Su Emei guiltily glanced around and said, "This year's Fairy Doctor Seeking Truth Fair is actually a stage for one person to show off. The final winner has already been decided by default."

"What about your unspoken rules?" Wiliam had no reason to be disgusted.

Su Emei also felt very uncomfortable, and said, "Yes, I can only say that once you succeed, your bones will die. For this person, Yi Nian Immortal Prison will spend a lot of money to get our Sect Master to agree, in order to pave the way for this person. Build momentum."

"This person is the Young Sect Master of Yi Nian Immortal Prison, known as Master Master."

"What the hell?" Wiliam couldn't help but complain.

Su Emei suddenly became serious and said, "Hey, don't look down on this master master. Although this guy is the young sect master, his strength is still very strong. It can be said that he is the most qualified person in the Immortal Prison of Yi Nian in the past 100 years. So Just thinking about the Immortal Prison will make him painstakingly pave the way.

Wiliam shrugged his shoulders and declined to comment.

"Even with his true strength, Young Master Miao Shou may win the championship in one fell swoop, just thinking about Immortal Prison wants to be more secure." Su Emei added another sentence.

"Okay, let's go then." Wiliam lost interest in this game after hearing Su Emei say this.

However, Su Emei suddenly pulled Wiliam back and stared straight at Wiliam.

Wiliam frowned slightly, "Why are you looking at me? What do you want to do to me?"

Su Emei rolled her eyes at Wiliam, and suddenly burst into a smile, "I'm so stupid, I forgot about you! Lin Jiang told me personally, in this world, Wiliamruo is the second best doctor, no one dares to Call it number one."

Wiliam got goosebumps all over his body, and had an ominous premonition, "If you have something to say, just say it directly, you don't have to wear a tall hat with me."

Su Emei said angrily: "Okay, okay! I do have something I want to ask you, but what Lin Jiang said is true. Wiliam, are you really good at medicine? Answer me honestly. "

Wiliam thought for a while and said, "Lin Jiang is right."

Su Emei laughed again and said, "That's easy to do! Wiliam, come and be the judge of this fairy doctor's truth-seeking meeting!"

"What the hell? Referee?" Wiliam frowned deeply.

Su Emei pretended to be aggrieved and said, "Oh, just do others a favor. This event was managed by me. Originally, I hired five palace-level genius doctors as judges, but one morning I just told me that I have something to do temporarily, and I can't come. I was worrying about where to find another genius doctor to be the judge, and you showed up. Isn't this fate?"

Wiliam looked at Su Emei with a black line, "Are you sure you're not catching a strong man?"

Su Emei became serious and said: "Don't underestimate the position of the referee, how many people are staring at it with jealousy. You must know that the five-year-old Fairy Doctor Qiuzheng has long been famous, and none of them can come to the competition. Some people even take pride in being able to qualify for the competition. And the referee is directly above the players. Even the champion of this competition, his status cannot be compared with the referee. Those four referees can't be trusted. They are all highly respected and peerless doctors who have been well-known for many years. If you can come to be a referee, you can do me a big favor, and secondly, you can also add some qualifications to yourself. Become a fairy doctor and seek truth. The referee, say go out and honor your ancestors."

When Wiliam heard this, he became even less interested.

He took this kind of false name lightly.

"Then you'd better find someone else." Wiliam refused outright, "If I were allowed to participate, I would still be a little interested."

Indeed, Wiliam prefers to do it himself rather than pointing others at the side.

Su Emei's eyes suddenly drooped, showing a look of grievance, and said, "Wiliam, even if I beg you to be okay. One of them didn't come for a while, which disrupted my position. I can't think of it after thinking about it. Who else do you want to invite to be the referee. And it's too late to invite. You are the number one in the world, just help me. I swear, as long as you help me this favor, I will definitely be incomparable to you in the future. Heart, if you have any conditions, just mention it, even if I kneel, I will ask the sect master to help you."

Wiliam wanted to laugh when he saw her look, could he act a little more fake?
