Chapter 1842 Xinglin Bodhisattva

However, Wiliam was soft-hearted after all.

He reluctantly said to Su Emei, "Okay, then I'll help you out."

Su Emei swept away the grievances before, and immediately smiled, "Right, this is Lin Jiang's good brother! Let's go, I'll take you over to see the other judges. By the way, I'll introduce you to this fairy doctor seeking truth. meeting process."

Saying that, she took Wiliam and walked in one direction.

That direction is the most central area of this courtyard.

There are five tables and chairs there.

Among them, four chairs were already seated.

It was four old men with white hair and beard.

These four old men either closed their eyes and rested, or tapped their hands gently on the table, looking like they were left alone.

Su Emei introduced from left to right: "Look, the one on the far left, known as the Nine Sages of Medicine, is in his nineties this year, and has been a doctor for eighty years. tens of thousands."

"The fat old man next to him, known as Master Xuanhu, specializes in intractable diseases. If there are diseases that others can't cure, it's right to look for him."

"The one next to Master Xuanhu is our doctor who controls the world. He is called a living ghost, which means that he can save you even if it is a ghost."

"The one next to the living ghost in one hand is the most qualified doctor in the immortal prison of Yi Nian. He is called Xinglin Bodhisattva. Well, that master master is the great-grandson of Xinglin Bodhisattva. Xinglin Bodhisattva loves this great-grandson."

"These four divine doctors represent the highest honors of the nine sects of earth healers, especially Xinglin Bodhisattva, which is above the other three. It is his idea to pave the way for his great-grandson this time."

William heard the blue veins jumping on his forehead.

One by one, the background is so arrogant.

From the beginning of the medical saint, to the later he is called a bodhisattva.

Is it really that great?

However, William would not underestimate the doctors in the world.

After all, the world is so big, and it is not surprising that there are many talented people.

Su Emei said to William, "After a while, you will sit at the farthest position, make up the numbers for me, and do something."

William nodded and said, "Well, I see."

Su Emei took William around again and introduced: "We are not just anyone who can participate in the Immortal Doctor Seeking Truth Meeting. There are two types of doctors who can participate in the Immortal Doctor Seeking Truth Meeting. , one is the doctors invited by us, these doctors have long been famous, but they lack a stage to bloom, and most of these people are arrogant."

"There is another type of people who have passed one of our selections in advance and are eligible to participate. These people should not be underestimated, and our preselection is also very difficult."

"As of today, there are a total of 200 people participating in the competition."

"Later, we will open ten pavilions, and inside the pavilions, there will be ten rootless spirits. These ten rootless spirits have buried various incurable diseases in advance. Some are strange poisons in the world, and some are hidden wounds. In short, except for death, these ten rootless spirits are very difficult to deal with."

"Then you five judges, you can diagnose these ten rootless spirits first, so that you can know what to do."

"And then, these two hundred doctors can diagnose ten rootless spirits. Of course, in order to increase the difficulty, we also have requirements for diagnosis. At that time, the emcee will announce the rules. After all the diagnosis is over, all doctors The person can choose the rootless person who is best at or most confident in the treatment, and write down the treatment method."

“Ten pavilions, voted by your five judges, each pavilion chooses a title king, and finally these ten people use actual combat to treat the corresponding rootless spirits, who has the best effect, you vote to choose the final fairy doctor king Of course, there are also some rules for extra points, and the master of ceremonies will say it when the time comes.”

Su Emei finished speaking in one breath, then looked at Wiliam, “Do you understand?”

Wiliam had some doubts, and asked directly: “First of all, are all those who are treated with rootless spirits? But as far as I know, the body structure of rootless spirits is different from that of humans, so they cannot be treated by normal means? “

This point, Wiliam personally verified with Lin Jiang.

Otherwise, they could have treated Xiao Wangqing at that time.

Su Emei smiled slightly and said, “Then you are wrong, what are we to control the world? We are geniuses! The body structure of our normal rootless spirits can be different from that of humans, but in order to achieve the effect of the experiment, we can also Create a rootless spirit with the same structure as a human being.”

After saying this, Wiliam understood, and in his heart he admired Yu Shizhi a little, but he was a little disgusted.

Yu Shizhi people still use rootless spirits for human experiments.

But Wiliam had a deeper doubt in his heart, and he didn't say it right away.

“Oh yes, there is one more thing you must remember, I beg you.” Su Emei suddenly thought of something and said to Wiliam.

“What's the matter?” Wiliam asked.

“Because this competition is an unofficial decision, you will go with the formalities. At that time, there will be a link where the five judges will evaluate the doctors. You must not comment too much to offend people.” Su Emei said with a thief.

Wiliam nodded, “Of course I know this.”

“Okay, then do you have any questions?” Su Emei asked.

Wiliam shook his head, but in the end he didn't say the doubt.

“Mmmm, that's fine. Let's go, I'll take you to settle down with Xiao Wangqing, and then take a break. The Immortal Doctor's Truth Seeking Conference will officially start in an hour.” Su Emei said, and took Wiliam there backyard.

This side of the backyard is the room for the children of the Imperial Family.

Su Emei directly asked Wiliam to put Xiao Wangqing in her room first, and then instructed a servant to help look after him in the room at any time.

Wiliam was arranged by him to rest in another guest room.

After a while, Su Emei took Wiliam to the venue again.

Su Emei motioned for Wiliam to go to the referee's seat herself, while she herself walked towards the middle of the arena.

She coughed softly and said loudly, "Everyone, be quiet, the five-yearly fairy doctor seeking truth meeting will begin immediately."

The noisy scene suddenly became quiet, and everyone looked at Su Emei.

Su Emei said indifferently: "First of all, let me announce to you the five expert judges who participated in this fair."

"They are!"

"Xinglin Bodhisattva!"

After thinking about the old man in Immortal Prison, Shi Shiran stood up, nodded slightly towards the surroundings, and sat back to his seat.

"One-handed ghost!"

"Master Xuanhu!"

"Nine Medical Sages!"

"And, the genius who made a big splash a while ago, Wiliam!"

The voice fell, and everyone looked at Wiliam who just sat down!

His eyes are full of utter confusion!

What are you kidding?
