

Dragon Husband 1853

Chapter 1853 Double Rule

Facing the doubts of Master Master, Wiliam simply ignored it.

Clown jumping beams, incompetent and angry.

On the contrary, Su Emei was not happy now.

She replied coldly: "Master Master, you must have evidence when you speak. I, Su Emei, are bright and upright, and I have never colluded with Wiliam, let alone revealing the subject to Wiliam. Since you doubt Wiliam, then Please show me the evidence."

Young Master Miaoshou was at a loss for words, and looked at Xinglin Bodhisattva, wanting to ask for help.

Xinglin Bodhisattva pretended not to have the eyes of Young Master Miaoshou, and was thoughtful.

A laugh rang out.

It is a living ghost.

The one-handed ghost didn't say anything to death, but said euphemistically: "I doubt that there is evidence, this is true. But from my own point of view, Wiliam's treatment method is very simple. I think that except for the four of us at the scene. A referee, I'm afraid no one else can think of it, so I don't agree with the idea of revealing the answer to Wiliam in advance, could it be that the four of us revealed the answer to Wiliam?"

"Ashamed to say, I am ashamed to be one of the four referees. I didn't think of Wiliam's method at all."

As soon as these words came out, the place fell silent.

Everyone looked at the young master.

The words of one-handed ghosts are already obvious.

If you suspect that Wiliam knew the answer in advance, then you must suspect the four referees, and the most important suspect should be the one-handed ghost, after all, he is a man who controls the world.

But the one-handed ghost didn't have any scruples about his own face and status, and directly admitted that he couldn't think of Wiliam's method.

In this case, what else can the master master say?

After he finished speaking, Wiliam carefully put away the first piece of paper, and then picked up the second one.

He was overjoyed!

Asura hell, this is just the beginning!

What, can't stand it?

This is the first floor!

The hell Wiliam set up has a hundred floors!

"Okay, I'll follow what you said before, and continue to read Wiliam's other answer sheets, this is the second one." The first-handed ghost seemed to be deliberately disgusting everyone, and reiterated everyone's request, emphasizing that this is the first Two.

"The first pavilion!" The living ghost said again.

But as soon as he finished speaking, the scene was stunned, why is it still the first pavilion?

"Did I read it wrong? Or is this just a piece of paper that Wiliam wrote waste?" Someone at the scene suddenly whispered.

The three referees also looked at the living ghost in surprise.

One-handed ghost said calmly: "Angelica 5 grams, Astragalus 20 grams, Shegan 10 grams, Salvia 50 grams, Diding 10 grams, Forsythia 10 grams, White mustard seeds 10 grams, Motherwort 50 grams, Anemarrhena 10 grams, 10 grams of saponin thorn, 10 grams of white peony root, decocted in water, one dose per day."

Another prescription came out!

And people with a good memory suddenly thought, this prescription is actually different from the previous one?

What the hell is this?

There was a smile on the corner of the mouth of the one-handed ghost, and he continued to read: "As supplemented by the technique of silver needles, after inserting the needle, firstly turn left, and twist the big finger forward with force, and the number of twists is a multiple of nine; Mainly turn to the right, and then twist the big finger with force, and the number of twists is six times; this is repeated many times, and it can also be repeated on the shallow, middle, and deep acupoints."

Speaking of this, the tone of the one-handed ghost suddenly became heavier, "If I'm not wrong, this set of needles is a needle for fighting between dragons and tigers!"

The scene is so quiet that you can hear the needle drop!

Another different recipe!

Another stitch!

This kid actually thought of two completely different treatments for the same disease!

Just horrible!

You know, a normal person's thinking is fixed!

After judging a person's symptoms, you will involuntarily think about how to treat it, and then you will come up with a general direction.

Following this direction, fill the gaps and fill the gaps to form a complete treatment plan.

Then the thinking will fall into this direction, and it is difficult to get out of it.

There are only some powerful doctors, one disease can be cured!

Moreover, most of the diseases here are common diseases!

But now, everyone is facing a disease that is rare in the world!

It's good to be able to think of a way to break it!

This kid can even think of two, and the two are completely different!

The first acupuncture method just now, the phoenix spreading needle, this type of needle method is the vent needle!

Replenish deficiency!

And the second type of acupuncture, the dragon-tiger fighting needle, is the other extreme of the venting needle, the repairing needle!

One disease, two extremely different acupuncture methods!

Amazing!

Moreover, everyone thought of a terrible fact.

All of William's symptoms should be based on a clear understanding of the disease before he can do this!

How many people were there, through the diagnosis just now, even the disease could not be diagnosed.

And how many people have been diagnosed, but they have no bottom in their hearts.

How many people can dare to pat their chests and say that their diagnosis is 100% accurate?

William's diagnosis was correct!

Then, everyone thought of one more thing.

How was Wiliam diagnosed before?

Ride a horse and watch flowers!

Wiliam walked around for a while before, and it took less than a minute to diagnose everyone!

Then, the diagnosis is completely correct!

There are two very different ways to write!

are you crazy!

Are you a human!

The eyes of many people looking at Wiliam have completely changed.

"It took less than a minute to get a full diagnosis right, which I couldn't do at all."

"Two cures for one disease, I can't even do it."

"Maybe several referees can't do it. You can see their expressions have changed."

Many people muttered below, and the voice gradually reached the ears of several referees.

The face of Jiu Zong Medical Sage was completely unbearable, and he wanted to say that this was cheating, which was unscientific, but he did not dare to say it.

Funny, cheating?

One person to answer two questions?

First of all, Wiliam is not participating in the competition!

Don't say two questions, Wiliam has nothing to do with fouls for a hundred questions.

And even if Wiliam was participating in the competition, didn't the previous master master answer two questions and become the king of two questions?

At that time, the nine medical sages and even Xinglin Bodhisattva were defending the master master.

Whoever is able to live in it, whoever can write two answers, then he is qualified to be the king of the two pavilions...

These words are still in my ears.

Jiu Zong Medical Sage felt that he had lifted a big rock and smashed his foot hard.

He even began to think that he had said other inappropriate words, and thought about how to save his respect in advance.

As for the master master at the scene, the whole person is not well.

He can't believe it!

Can't believe I was slapped on the face on a question!

Moreover, it is still two slaps!
