

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1878

Chapter 1878 Little Heavenly Girl

Hearing Xu Rushuang say this, Wiliam frowned slightly, but said nothing.

But Xu Rushuang continued: "Well, it's almost. You take me to see Xiao Wangqing first."

Hearing this, Wiliam nodded quickly.

And Su Emei was already leading the way.

The group went to Xiao Wangqing's room, but Xiao Wangqing was still in a deep sleep and coma.

Xu Rushuang just glanced at Xiao Wangqing, and suddenly said emotionally: "Like, it's too similar."

"Like what?" Wiliam asked.

Xu Rushuang didn't have a positive answer, but suddenly asked: "Wiliam, since you know that Xiao Wangqing is a defective product made by my sister back then, have you ever thought about a question?"

Hearing this, Wiliam felt a little uncomfortable.

In his heart, Xiao Wangqing has long been regarded as a living human being, where is the defective product?

Yu Shi control people, control people more, it blurs the difference between people and things, this is the real ruthlessness.

"What's the problem?" Wiliam didn't say anything at the end, but asked along with Xu Rushuang's words.

"Hoho, have you ever thought about whether my sister has made a complete product, and if so, where is the complete product?" Xu Rushuang seemed to see the discomfort in Wiliam's heart and didn't make it clear.

Wiliam was stunned.

He hadn't really thought about this question.

The main reason is that Xiao Wangqing is too vivid, and he is already a human being in his heart, so why should he need a complete product?

Now that Xu Rushuang is so little, William is thinking about it.

Since it is a defective product, there must be a complete product.

It's just that Miss Su really will make a complete product based on Xiao Wangqing in the future?

"Let me tell you, after my sister came back that year, she really made a complete product. This complete product is amazing and stunning. It can be said that it is the most perfect rootless spirit that we have controlled the world for thousands of years." Xu Rushuang said with a smile.

"Then what does this have to do with treating Xiao Wangqing?" William asked with a frown.

"Xiao Wangqing's body was composed of secret blood before, so after Wangdi's bloodline was lost, he would fall into a coma. Now to save her, the only way is to let her fuse this complete product. If successful, she will be able to wake up smoothly." Xu Rushuang said.

"What if it doesn't work?" William felt uneasy in his heart.

Since it is the most perfect rootless spirit in the ages, Xiao Wangqing said that the fusion is fusion?

This sounds a bit like a fantasy.

"If it doesn't work, then your little Wangqing will die out completely. But William, to be honest, you have no choice. This is the only way to save Xiao Wangqing." Xu Rushuang sighed and continued, "Originally, I don't want to say this method at all. You have to know the importance of the complete product to us to control the world. That complete product is a benchmark for us, and it is the dependence of our continuous improvement, do you understand?"

"Is this really the only way?" William was lost in thought.

Seeing William pondering, Xu Rushuang did not interrupt William's thinking.

After a long time, William asked, "What is the probability of success?"

Xu Rushuang said without hesitation: "One percent." This sentence made William feel uneasy.

Chances are too small.

But it's the only way...

“Can’t you trust your little Wangqing?” Xu Rushuang added.

William shook his head, this is not a question of trusting Xiao Wangqing or not.

“How to integrate?” William asked.

“When Xiao Wangqing and the complete body come into contact with each other, they will naturally start to fuse. To say that it is fusion is to fight for control.” Xu Rushuang said.

So, do you want Xiao Wangqing, who has lost consciousness, to fight for control under her instinct?

how hard...

Xiao Wangqing is just a child...

“Can I see the complete product?” William asked after pondering for a long time.

“No.” Xu Rushuang’s words felt like he was playing with William.

William couldn’t help looking up at Xu Rushuang.

But Xu Rushuang said helplessly: “I’m not fooling you. Now this complete product is sealed in our sect’s secret room. To see the complete product, you must meet someone. This person’s mission in this life is to protect the complete product. , Even I can’t easily see the complete product, because I can’t control this person.”

William almost spit out a mouthful of old blood, what a bullshit rule.

“Tell me about it specifically.” William said, enduring the discomfort in his heart.

“Well, for the complete product, we named her Xiao Tiannv. Xiaonvtian herself is not conscious, so she can’t be regarded as a rootless person, but only a tool. But the reason why she can become us The most perfect rootless spirit lies in her ingenious body structure, which is even countless times stronger than your body! Today’s little celestial girl just lacks a soul. As long as she injects a random soul, she can come back to life and become a generation of powerhouses The reason why our ancestors were reluctant to inject souls, on the one hand, was that they didn’t want to inject an ordinary soul casually, and they didn’t want to have any flaws. After this little goddess, we don’t know anything about the character of that little goddess, and we have no way to control her. At that time, if she was too murderous, she would slaughter our whole family casually, and it would be a big effort.” Xu Rushuang sighed heavily. .

“You guys are really tangled up.” William said this time with no anger.

Not only do I want to make the little Tiannv perfect, but I also worry that she will lose control.

It is estimated that this kind of entanglement has made the imperial rulers of all dynasties dare not use the little goddess.

“There’s nothing wrong with what you said. So the only use of the little goddess for us is to use it for research. It’s a waste of money. Before that, I contacted my sister, and my sister just said that the opportunity has come, and then Just agree with me to deal with the little girl. This is the most fundamental reason why I promised to let you try it.” Xu Rushuang said again.

William fell into contemplation again.

Obviously, this little girl also made William tempted.

Since she is not a human being, William has every reason to let Xiao Wangqing give it a try, and there is no moral condemnation.

“Then what happened to the guardian you mentioned just now?” William asked again.

Asked this, Xu Rushuang’s expression seemed very complicated.

In the end, she still said truthfully: “That person is an old man, and someone who grew up with me and my sister as childhood sweethearts. He has two hobbies in this life. One is obsessed with manipulating others. The most compulsive teacher outside of my sister.”

“And her other hobby is to be infatuated with my sister, and she will never change in her life.” Xu Rushuang said quietly, “So he has a nickname in our sect called—”

“The world is crazy!”
