

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1901

At this moment, Wiliam's outlook on life completely collapsed.

Oh, this pair of wives and daughters!

Seriously, the mother's kindness and daughter's filial piety were pinched to the death.

"Don't make trouble! I beg you." Wiliam was about to cry to his mother and daughter.

The two of them calmed down a bit.

Bai Fengxue also found a step for herself, "Mom's magic is really not mature enough, I will have a chance next time."

Wiliam thought to himself that he was immature?

This horse riding is a pit!

Wiliam definitely didn't want the future life to become a pair of mother and daughter fighting magic.

After stopping them, Wiliam apologized like Su Hongxiu again.

Things at home made her laugh.

After doing this, Wiliam returned to his room exhausted, while Bai Fengxue was pulled by Su Hongxiu to speak.

Alone in the room, Wiliam thought of one thing.

He won the spiritual root potion from Yi Nian Immortal Prison, and it is time to open the spiritual root.

Originally, Wiliam wondered if Feng Xue had not opened his spiritual roots yet.

But after thinking about it, it seems that opening the spiritual root is possible for Feng Xue, but it is not necessary.

Normal people cultivate by absorbing the spiritual energy of heaven and earth.

And Bai Fengxue's cultivation, um, is to adapt to the blood marrow in his body, and then his strength can be multiplied.

Unlike normal people, he is a real monster.

William himself is already enchanting enough. In just a few years, he has cultivated from an ordinary person to the current state of Nirvana.

Saying it is enough to shock the entire territory of the common people.

But Bai Fengxue, it should be said that he has never seriously practiced martial arts and sought immortals.

After inheriting the blood marrow of Petite Rou, the strength skyrocketed at an extremely terrifying speed.

In a short period of time, the faint momentum has surpassed William.

Therefore, Feng Xue doesn't need to open any spiritual roots at all, as long as he adapts and is compatible with his own blood marrow.

Thinking about it, William felt a little aggrieved.

Fighting to death by himself has only reached the current state.

Feng Xue casually fell asleep...

Fortunately, it is my own wife, otherwise I would definitely be envious and jealous.

Abandoning these messy thoughts, William took out the magic medicine.

He recalled that Su Emei introduced to himself some basic knowledge about opening spiritual roots.

Linggen, as the name suggests, is to plant the roots of cultivation on the spiritual platform.

According to Su Emei's recollection, Linggen had a total of five types.

Lingju, Lingyong, Lingtao, Lingqi, and a kind of spiritual disaster that has disappeared from the world.

Among them, what William envied the most was the fourth type of spiritual root, which could actually hang up automatically.

This made William feel lazy, why do you need to do it manually?

Thinking of this, William couldn't help but wonder about the spiritual roots of his two brothers.

He immediately made a phone call to Liu Lang.

“Hello? What’s the matter with Wiliam?” Liu Lang seemed to be busy on the other side, and his tone was a little anxious.

Wiliam made a long story short, “Brother, I’m going to open the spiritual root.”

“What! You haven’t opened your spiritual roots yet! Then what have you been doing these days!” Liu Lang seemed to be surprised by Wiliam’s behavior.

Wiliam was a little embarrassed, but immediately changed the subject, “Big brother, what level are your spiritual roots with the second brother?”

Liu Lang on the other end of the phone laughed, and then said: “Just remember, if you can’t open the spiritual root, you will be killed. At least, if you don’t open the spiritual root, your cultivation speed It will be far behind me and Lin Jiang, understand?”

Wiliam sweated in his heart, the pressure from this big brother was as big as a mountain.

But this also shows that the eldest brother and the second brother have opened the spiritual root.

very scary.

According to Su Emei, this spiritual root is not so easy to open.

Su Emei said that this spiritual mourning is rare in the world, and no one has appeared in the past thousand years.

My eldest brother and second brother have quietly appeared in this millennium.

It’s terrifying.

It seems that he has to work harder.

Thinking of this, Wiliam swallowed the magic root medicine in one bite.

He thought to himself that he had the blessing of the spiritual root magical medicine no matter what, and he should barely be able to improve to the level of spiritual root.

He gradually began to relax his body.

When Wiliam left Yu Shizhi, Wiliam asked Xu Rushi how to open his spiritual roots.

Fortunately, it is not difficult to open the spiritual roots, what is needed is meditation.

At this moment, Wiliam closed his eyes and gathered all his consciousness on his spiritual platform.

William felt the position of his spiritual platform, and a mysterious illusion slowly emerged.

Your own spiritual platform is like a small world.

There is nothing in the sky.

It was a dark world.

Gradually, William began to feel that this dark world began to have a little bit of blue and green.

The stars still glowed dimly.

William instinctively thought that this should be the spiritual energy of heaven and earth.

To open the spiritual root, the most important thing is to integrate with the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, and guide the spiritual energy of heaven and earth into one's spiritual platform.

William tried to make his consciousness slowly approach these rays of light.

The affinity with the spiritual energy largely determines the level of opening the spiritual root.

William's consciousness touched this spiritual energy.

Cold and comfortable.

And that little spiritual energy seemed to enjoy the contact with William.

They danced and danced in William's consciousness.

Rejoice.

Then it seemed to be calling for something.

Like heroic vanguards, they meet their close family.

So, they kept calling to the surroundings, calling for more comrades-in-arms to come out.

So, in this dark world, the stars slowly increased, slowly coming towards William's consciousness.

William thoroughly enjoyed this cool and comfortable realm, just like soaking in the stream in summer, so comfortable.

These auras are like elf, massaging on him, it's so comfortable.

Unconsciously, William felt that his consciousness was dizzy, and then slowly fell asleep.

After an unknown amount of time, William felt suffocated.

His consciousness finally regained consciousness.

After waking up, William's whole body felt bad, "Damn it!"

what's the situation!

William was stunned by the picture he felt consciously!

In front of William's eyes, the light of azure green is slowly emerging!

These azure lights permeate the heaven and earth, filling this world!

Even because there was nowhere to go, these azure lights began to pour towards William, squeezing into his eyes, ears, mouth, and nose.

No wonder William felt suffocated!

What the hell is this horse riding!

William was stunned for a while, Su Emei didn't tell himself that this would happen!

What's going on with the spiritual energy in this world? Are you queuing up to find Dad?

William was really about to suffocate, and felt his head swell.

He knew that he was in consciousness, and wanted to break free and wake himself up.

But he found that he had fallen into this state and could not wake up.

If he can't think of a way, he will be the first strange flower to be drowned by aura in the ages!
