

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1905

Chapter 1905 Enshrined in heaven and earth!

William's body seeped more blood.

However, he no longer felt any pain.

Want to devour me!

it is good!

Then I will offer more of my flesh and blood, and I will come if I can!

Ho ho, did you devour me, or did I devour you?

Thinking of this, William's body suddenly rose!

Sitting cross-legged on the ground, he actually grew into a five-meter-tall giant out of thin air!

Moreover, there is flesh and blood!

In an instant, William's body was like a Buddha, feeding tigers with his body!

not enough!

William's body continued to soar!

When he rose to the point where his body also took up half of this small world, he just slowed down.

Blood red sputtered between heaven and earth!

The azure light rioted between heaven and earth!

The blue and red are mixed together, and the heaven and the earth are silent.

William's strength is about to be overdrawn.

But at this moment, a force from the unicorn immediately followed.

Tianqing Qilin also contributed its own strength.

After William's body got this power, it skyrocketed again!

In almost a few minutes, William filled the world with his body!

He is the only master of this world!

He is the king of this one-of-a-kind!

Those spiritual energy became even crazier after being squeezed by William.

All the auras were like swords, cutting William's body frantically.

After rising to the point where his body could no longer rise, William put down his stance of continuing to soar.

Next, I will expand the territory!

It's up to me!

Open up!

On William's head, two pitch-black horns slowly grew!

His arms, his thighs, slowly became thicker!

Open up!

When it comes from Chiyou!

Wiliam tried and stood up.

His hands were on the ground.

His head slowly reached the top of the world!

The head immediately hit the barrier.

However, Wiliam didn't stop at all.

He changed to one hand on the ground and one hand on the sky!

"Drink!" Wiliam's throat made a roar like an ancient beast.

Put your hands together!

Heaven and earth suddenly shook!

Those auras got even crazier.

Wiliam slowly adjusted his body into a half-squatting posture.

Hold the sky with both hands.

The body is lifted up slowly.

Soon, Wiliam's hands and his back supported the sky.

The trembling between heaven and earth is even more intense!

Wiliam is like a beast trapped in a cage, trying to break out of the cage!

"Roar!" Wiliam let out another roar.

Heaven and Earth, there was a humming sound.

It was like a piece of glass, which was cracked by Wiliam.

not enough!

Give me, give me all the strength!

Wiliam roared wildly in his heart, and suddenly opened his eyes!

Eyes full of desire to fight!

As if feeling Wiliam's desire, in his body, the power of Chi You and Tianqing Qilin became a little stronger.

However, it's still a little off!

Wiliam could only make the world tremble and collapse.

But still can't break the world.

"Roar!" Wiliam collapsed and bleeds all over his body.

"That's it! Complete your kid! The immortal monster, come!" Chi You's voice sounded in Wiliam's mind.

Wiliam immediately felt what this sentence meant.

For a long time, the power of Chi You and the power of the sky blue unicorn were incompatible postures.

Even now, these two forces are still distinct, helping Wiliam in different ways.

And as Chi You's voice fell, Wiliam clearly felt it!

These two powers, under the control of the two ancient powers, slowly merged together!

On Wiliam's body, sharp unicorn thorns appeared!

The horns on Wiliam's head became even darker!

Two forces, two in one!

This is not a simple one plus one superposition!

With the help of this fusion power, Wiliam even grew fangs!

"Roar!" Wiliam suddenly raised his head and roared up to the sky!

When he raised his head, the horns on the top of his head pierced directly into the sky!

It's like a hole has been pricked in a piece of glass!

"Buzz!" The aura of heaven and earth was completely crazy.

They all rushed towards this horn, trying to make up for the hole that Wiliam poked with all their might!

However, at this point, Wiliam has already succeeded halfway!

Instead, it was the spiritual energy that gave Wiliam a chance to breathe.

Seizing this opportunity, Wiliam suddenly pushed his feet hard!

The muscles on his legs instantly soared a bit, strongly supporting Wiliam's body up!

The unicorn thorns on Wiliam's back all plunged into the sky!

At this moment, Wiliam is no longer completely bent.

His legs were fully upright.

His back is against the sky!

Like a strong man with a heavy load.

But Wiliam is different!

What he is carrying at the moment is a small world!

Loaded!

Courage!

That's right up there!

And this world was clearly arched by William's body!

It's like an iron plate, stretched tight!

If there is more strength, even the iron plate will be broken in two!

William's power is still bursting out!

In his heart, anger and joy are mixed!

The roaring in his heart never stopped!

I want to collapse today!

I want this crack!

I want you bastards!

All belong to me!

His back was hard again!

"Buzz!"

The sky arched an arc again!

But not broken.

A trace of madness flashed in William's eyes.

The sky doesn't collapse, what can I do?

yes!

Thinking of this, Wiliam raised one foot!

Stomping hard on the ground!

In an instant, the earth trembled again!

Centered on the soles of Wiliam's feet, dense spider cracks appeared!

The cracks are getting bigger and bigger, spreading and infiltrating rapidly around!

not enough!

not enough!

Wiliam is like crazy, trampling on this land with one foot!

Between heaven and earth, the sound of "dong dong dong" trampling sounded.

The entire land was trampled to pieces by Wiliam.

The scene is like purgatory on earth.

And Wiliam's eyes were bloodshot, and he let out a sigh of relief!

it's time!

This earth is approaching the critical point of collapse.

This sky is nothing but stubborn resistance!

That's it!

last of the last!

All of all!

With my blood!

Serve heaven and earth!

William's body like a demon, suddenly curled up and bent!

The sky had been tensed all the time, but with the bending of William's body, it suddenly relaxed.

But next second!

William was angry with Gong Gong, and his body suddenly stood up!

Take your own head!

Take your own torso!

With his own blood and flesh!

Hit the sky hard!

Life and death are not counted!

Regardless of success or failure!

When William's head hit the sky, a strong dizziness hit William's soul directly!

William only felt that his head was heavy!

Consciousness gradually lost.

However, just before he lost consciousness, William clearly heard it!

I heard it!

"boom!"

The door to the new world, the sound of opening!
