

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1915

Chapter 1915 Six Sects and One Method! The following grams are on!

William seemed to have long expected that Ye Donglin would do this.

After all, Emperor Yao Lingxu was turned upside down by William today.

If the whole army is not dispatched again, then Ye Donglin, the sect master, should not be considered.

“Hoho, are you the only one who can shake people?” William said lightly to Ye Donglin.

Ye Donglin has completely turned into an ancient beast at this moment, and even what William said, he seemed to turn a deaf ear.

And William was too lazy to talk nonsense with him.

He lightly tapped the long live demon lotus in front of him.

Long live Yaolian immediately became Xiao Wangqing.

William patted Xiao Wangqing on the head again.

Xiao Wangqing opened his mouth as if he had vomited, “Ouch!”

Then, in front of everyone’s eyes, Xiao Wangqing spit out a—

Little Forgotten?

Everyone at the scene was stunned!

What is this!

And the little man who was spit out by Xiao Wangqing, what is Xiao Wangqing!

It is clearly the most iconic baby of Yu Shizhuren – Ling Yu Jin Niang!

Before William came here, he visited the nine sects with whom he had friendship.

Also borrowed a lot from them.

Among them, the most important thing is Ling Yu Jin Niang.

And the most important role of Lingyu Jinni is that she can hide people in her stomach.

Ling Yu Jinniāng grew up in the wind, and in the blink of an eye, she grew into a terrifying giant with a height of tens of meters!

Afterwards, Ling Yu Jinniāng opened her mouth, "Wow!"

The people on the scene were dumbfounded.

This horse, play Russian nesting dolls with us!

One spit and one?

However, they guessed wrong.

Ling Yu Jinniāng vomited out, but there was more than one person.

As she vomited like this, clap la la la!

A whole bunch of people were abruptly vomited out of her mouth!

As soon as these people came out, they were rustling!

Body shot!

But Qi Qi rushed in the direction of William!

The corner of William's mouth twitched slightly.

coming.

They are all here!

There are hundreds of people standing behind William!

Dugu Hongshi moved all over the nest, just to repay William, just to be loyal to the ancestors!

Although Han Xing Wangqing has a very tense relationship with William because of William and Chunfeng, this time, all the staff are dispatched, no longer hiding!

Su Hongxiu, who ruled the world, stood at the head, and her father, of course, because of the injury of the sect a while ago, their people were the least.

Song Hanyu, who was golden and jade volleyed in the sky, held the purple frost, and the purple air lingered on his body!

Xu Tongyin of the Nine Heavens of Remnant Sword slammed the imperial map in his hand into the ground, and for a while there was an illusion that the ground was shaking!

The two prides stand side by side, and once again join hands to fight the rivers and lakes!

During this period of time, Shuangjiao had already become famous, far better than in the early years!

Of course, Liu Yuntian of Jinyu Lingkong led the others to stand behind him, and Xu Benliu of Nine Heavens of Remnant Sword also brought out all those who could be called upon.

In the end, it was Qin Shengzhong from Lanshan Zhige and his father Qin Zhanxiong. Behind him was William's Qilin potential!

"William, you owe me a drink!" Qin Zhanxiong has always been a careless and rough man.

Although the enemy is present, although the war is imminent!

However, he still only has wine in his eyes!

And the people to drink with!

He was still obsessed with it, when William fled away in embarrassment.

William also laughed, "It's easy to say! At the end of this time, I, William, invited everyone present! I'm afraid you don't have enough wine."

Qin Zhanxiong also immediately laughed, "I'm afraid that I won't have enough wine to embarrass me? Then let more people live to beg the bar!"

After that, Qin Zhanxiong's body was full of fighting spirit, and he took the lead in rushing out towards the surrounding areas, "Ge Laozi! It's been a long time since I loosened my muscles and bones!"

Qin Zhanxiong was born a god of war!

Never tangled, never tactful!

Full of pride, fighting spirit soaring to the sky!

And Qin Zhanxiong's words and actions!

In an instant, the fighting spirit of this group of people was all mobilized.

“Kill!” The killing sound shook the sky, and the group rushed out in unison!

Seeing this scene, William smiled knowingly.

Qin Zhanxiong is indeed a natural genius!

On the battlefield, his appeal is even better than William!

When the people of Emperor Yao Lingxu saw this scene, Qi Qi was dumbfounded.

What is this!

What is this horse riding!

The following grams are on!

Six battles and one method!

There has never been such a presumptuous war in history!

Because I dare not, because this is arrogance!

How could this kid have the ability to order the six sects to work for him together!

Does it worth!

Many people have to start officially starting this young man who arrived inexplicably today and started a war as soon as he disagreed!

And they can't allow them to think too much, the torrent of the six sects has swept them away!

Although the six sects are far from being the opponent of Emperor Yao Ling Xu.

However, Emperor Yao Lingxu's highest combat power was restrained by William, and those elders were instantly killed by blue-haired Fengxue.

Although the strength of the remaining 100 people is still amazing, they are no longer indestructible!

This time William looked at Ye Donglin who looked like an ancient beast in front of him, “There should be a break between us.”

After all, William patted Xiao Wangqing!

Xiao Wangqing suddenly turned into a long live demon lotus, opening the way for Wiliam!

The unicorn armor on Wiliam's body was reborn, and he thought about Ye Donglin like lightning!

Ye Donglin obviously still retains his sanity.

Seeing such a battle today, I am afraid it will be earth-shattering.

Even if Emperor Yao Ling Xu can win, it is estimated that it can only be a tragic victory!

The price was completely beyond his ability to bear!

Ye Donglin's eyes gradually turned red.

Reason is slowly being swallowed up by something far away.

"Roar!" He shouted and rushed towards Wiliam.

"boom!"

"boom!"

"boom!"

The two fought continuously, and the people around them were swept away by the fighting spirit.

Either die or hurt!

Immediately, they learned to be smart, and one by one they stayed away from Wiliam and Ye Donglin!

And Wiliam and Ye Donglin jumped directly into the air, transferring the battlefield into the air.

"Is this all your strength?" Wiliam said lightly, his eyes slowly turning pitch black!

A pair of horns slowly grew on his head!

Soldier is possessed!

When he came, Wiliam had already made an agreement with Chi You, the soldier, to borrow his strength.

After all, more than half of the battle this time was because of Chi You.

So Chi You quickly agreed.

The soldier master possessed himself, but he was able to make a few moves with that terrifying Ye Qiongqi at the beginning.

Now the strength of the soldier is several times stronger than before!

And even if Ye Donglin turned into an ancient beast now, his strength is far inferior to Ye Qiongqi.

This is the opposite, and the soldier master is possessed, and it is completely capable of fighting!

Long live Yaolian seems to understand William's mind.

It was in mid-air and suddenly changed its appearance!

It turned into a long sword that was several meters long and was suffused with black magic!

Above the long knife, red light circulates, and it is a blood trough like hell!

Long live the demon lotus incarnate at this moment, but it was Chi You who fought in the Quartet in his early years——

Chiyou Demon Sword!
