

Dragon Husband Chapter Chapter 1918

Chapter 1918 Can't go up or go down

Seeing this scene, the people at the scene were so shocked that they could hardly breathe!

How terrifying is this knife!

If these thousands of magic knives were not gathered on Ye Donglin's body, but in the Emperor Yao Lingxu, I am afraid that the entire Emperor Yao Lingxu would be razed to the ground!

And Ye Donglin is really strong!

Even in the siege of these thousands of magic knives, the body can still not be smashed!

But, what is going on in this scene now!

The magic knife that stands in the sky is inserted into the earth of the emperor demon Lingxu, and the door owner of the emperor demon Lingxu is directly embedded in the magic knife and cannot move!

It's unbelievable!

William reluctantly stood on the ground, gasped for a few breaths, and then made a move!

That magnificent magic knife suddenly shrank.

Until it flew back to William's hand, it had already changed into the shape of the previous magic knife.

What is extremely surprising is that Ye Donglin's body actually shrank with the shrinking of the magic knife, and was still embedded in the body of the knife.

William looked at Ye Donglin in the blade and couldn't help sneering.

He knew that Ye Donglin was not dead.

In the end, William left a little strength, but only imprisoned Ye Donglin.

He kept Ye Donglin, so naturally he still had something to ask.

There is even a picture for Ye Donglin to see!

Because William knew that if he went to question Ye Donglin now, Ye Donglin would definitely not say anything.

Only by completely destroying Ye Donglin's will, can he obediently say what he should say.

William turned his head and looked at Ling Xu, the emperor demon.

Emperor Yao Lingxu's people all shuddered, and they didn't even have the courage to escape.

How to escape?

This kid has thousands of magic knives flying all over the sky, and he can wipe out the entire emperor demon in one move!

Can they get away?

If you run, there is only one result!

die!

William looked down, and Su Hongxiu immediately understood.

She instructed her subordinates to directly feed a pill that had been prepared in advance to the disciples of Emperor Yao Lingxu.

Do they dare to resist?

I didn't even think about resisting!

The people from the six sects also looked at each other in dismay, not knowing what to say for a while.

Until a scolding voice rang out.

“Dry hair! No point! No point!”

The voice was loud and powerful, breaking the silence of the scene.

The person who spoke was none other than Qin Zhanxiong from Lanshan Zhige.

Qin Zhanxiong was still holding a knife in his hand, but he looked very disappointed and disappointed.

Well, I'm very disappointed with Wiliam.

Seeing that everyone was looking at him, Qin Zhanxiong couldn't help but yell again: "Do you think it's interesting? Wiliam, are you interesting?"

The people present had this feeling of disappointment in their hearts, but they couldn't tell.

Qin Zhanxiong continued to walk towards Wiliam, scolding and scolding, "You took great pains to clear the customs, and moved all the properties of our six sects to fight against Emperor Yao Lingxu together. What's the result! You say the result!"

"You can handle the entire Emperor Yao Lingxu by yourself, so why are you asking us to do so much! I feel like I'm here to be a cheerleader! I'm here! I've mobilized my interest, but I don't want to. Give Lao Tzu a good time, is it interesting? You can't go up or down!"

Qin Zhanxiong's remarks are not rough.

It's like a beautiful woman laying down for a fight, but the man said he was over.

This feeling, not to mention how uncomfortable it is.

The expressions of everyone at the scene also became strange.

It seems that is the case!

Wiliam, this kid, invited people from the six sects to come over, it can be said that he used up all the favors, and even posted favors.

As a result, this group of people is here to heat up the scene?

Then just stand by and watch?

It seems that Wiliam is showing his power by inviting so many people over?

Is it okay to be a person?

And many people also looked at Bai Fengxue and Blue Hair Fengxue.

Well, this couple is not human!

As for the girl, let's take care of the mainstay of Emperor Yao Lingxu!

As for the man, get the sect master of Emperor Yao Lingxu.

As for the other people, they were blinded by this man and woman, and they didn't dare to take action at all.

One by one like quails.

Is this interesting?

No sense!

William is even more meaningless, not a person!

Looking at everyone's strange eyes, William also showed a smirk, "I'm sorry, I didn't think that Emperor Yao Ling Xugui was the first of the five methods, so it would be so fragile? It's not enough to just fight."

The people who were present at the Emperor Yao Lingxu's face turned red with anger when they heard William's words.

They want to shout out loudly, it's not that our emperor demon Ling Xu is too brittle, it's your couple who are too demonic!

A war was fought like a magic drama, who wouldn't be frightened by watching it!

It is as if we are practicing martial arts, and you are cultivating immortals by riding a horse!

Not on a channel!

However, a few people showed meaningful smiles.

Su Hongxiu in a red and thin high-rise building.

Song Hanyu of Jinyu Lingkong.

Xu Tongyin of the Nine Heavens of Canned Swords.

The three looked at each other and nodded slightly.

It seemed to be more certain about the speculation in his heart.

Did William go to war?

Did William kill the chicken with a bull's knife?

I'm afraid not?

This kid Wiliam never does anything with no purpose.

He would have made a mistake, invited such a large group of people over to join in the fun and become a cheerleader?

Not at all!

So ah, there is only one result.

That's when the time to need them hasn't really come!

In other words, the real struggle has yet to begin!

Now this Ye Donglin is just a foreplay and an appetizer.

What's more, there is one most important reason for them to guess.

Wiliam also borrowed a few things from them!

All of these things are of no use!

I'm afraid it's not that it can't be used, but that the time has not come.

What is this kid doing?

Wiliam watched Qin Zhanxiong come over and smiled apologetically in return, "Can I owe you another drink?"

"Take a ball! If this is the case, I will leave now! It's no fun, it's no fun!" Qin Zhanxiong was still scolding.

At this time, Su Hongxiu came over and showed a charming smile, "Brother Qin, don't be so impatient, Wiliamke still has a few good scenes left for you to play, do you think it's Wiliam?"

Saying that, she threw a resentful wink at Wiliam.

Wiliam has a black line, this lady, didn't see the two of me, bah, my lady is still here.

"Oh? What else is there to do?" Qin Zhanxiong immediately became interested.

Su Hongxiu's gaze, looking towards the depths of Emperor Yao Lingxu, gradually became blurred.

“Probably a sect, not only the sect master, but also a few elders with such combat power? The combat power on the bright side is indeed not worth mentioning, but the combat power buried in the ground is a real drama, you right?”

“The fighting power buried in the ground? What the hell! I forgot about this! Wiliam, you will die if you say it directly on the horse!” Qin Zhanxiong slapped Wiliam’s shoulder and beat him weakly. Wiliam staggered.

Wiliam smiled bitterly, but did not answer Qin Zhanxiong directly, but said, “Come on.”

Well, here we come!

The ground began to tremble slightly!
