

Chapter 101

Hearing that William wanted to go to the Cavesky Villa, Felicity trembled, grabbed him aside, and whispered, "William, are you crazy? Didn't you hear what Director Zhao said earlier?"

Director Zhao had repeatedly warned them not to go near the Cavesky Villa. Yet, that was exactly where William wanted to go. Felicity thought William wanted to cause trouble.

Besides, the villa had been booked. Felicity thought it was so embarrassing for him to say such a thing!

However, William merely ruffled her hair and said with a smile, "It's okay. Let's just try. You can wait aside."

Felicity was afraid and thought her silly husband was getting them in trouble.

William turned around and spoke to the front desk again. Then he casually verified his identity.

The receptionist glanced at him with a strange look.

Felicity thought they must be doomed.

She thought they would definitely be asked to leave the resort.

However, a cry of surprise suddenly rang out from the front desk.

Felicity looked up.

The young receptionist was staring at William, her face blushing and her eyes sparkling.

With her hands trembling, the receptionist handed William a golden room card.

"Mr. Lu, do, do you need me to lead the way?" the receptionist stammered, her face flushed red.

William smiled slightly and answered, "We're alright, thank you."

There was a hint of disappointment in the receptionist's eyes, but she immediately put on a professional smile. "Mr. Lu, please enjoy your stay here. If you need anything, just make a call to the front desk!"

It was not until William dragged Felicity out of the lobby that she came back to her senses.

She grabbed the golden room card in William's hand. When she saw the words "Cavesky Villa" printed on it, she was stunned.

"William, you, you..." She stuttered.

"You mean how did I manage to book it? Let me sleep on the bed tonight and I'll tell you." William smiled slyly.

Felicity blushed and rolled her eyes at William, "Humph, you will sleep on the floor tonight and for the rest of your life! Don't you ever tell me the answer!"

Both of them arrived at the Cavesky Villa. When William opened the door, Felicity exclaimed in amusement.

William was also stunned and flashed a wry smile.

In the villa, pink cherry blossom petals covered the floor.

The whole room was filled with the faint fragrance of flowers.

A romantic scent lingered in the room, as if they had arrived at a wedding venue, waiting for the bride and groom to enter.

Felicity gently pinched William's hand, and her face had already gone crimson. "This room looks totally inappropriate!" Felicity claimed.

William broke out in a cold sweat and thought, "How could this be inappropriate?"

"Everything looks perfect!"

Felicity shook William's hand off her and started to explore the room.

The more she walked around, the warmer she felt in her heart.

She didn't know how William had managed to book the Cavesky Villa but she knew the romantic scene must be prepared by him.

She was very touched and almost allowed William to share the bed...

In the end, Felicity spared William some kindness... She allowed him to sleep on the sofa.

Just then, William received a phone call from an unknown number.

"Who is it?" William asked.

"Nathan. Come out and let's have a talk if you want to make money," Nathan answered.

Hearing Nathan's voice, William's mouth curved into a smile.

"Here it comes!" he mind thought viciously.

William stood up and walked outside. Felicity asked anxiously, "Where are you going?"

William said casually, "It won't take long, I'm going to earn some pocket money."

In a corner of the lobby, he spotted Nathan drinking a glass of red wine.

Nathan's eyes gleamed with arrogance when he saw William.

When William asked Felicity to stay, Nathan had assumed that William was a coward and was materialistic.

He signaled for William to take a seat.

He was very frank. Without beating around the bush, he took out a stack of cash and threw them on the table in front of William.

"Take it, it's one hundred thousand here, and give me your room card!" Nathan ordered.

When Nathan spoke, his eyes were fixed on William.

He was ready to pay more if William hesitated any longer.

Nathan was so ready to wait for William to give up on her charming wife.

However, William could only laugh.

He picked up the money casually and said, "Oh, that's really generous. Thank you."

Then, William threw the room card for the westernmost villa on the table, got up and was about to leave.

"Wait for a moment!" Seeing that William had agreed so easily, Nathan's disdain for him had increased.

One hundred thousand yuan was enough for William to hand over the room card.

Did William not know what it meant?

Did he not know he was sending his wife to someone else's bed?!

"Huh, I can't believe he's so shameless. It's really eye-opening!" Nathan said.

"You must swear that you won't tell your wife about this. And from now on, you are not allowed to appear around the west villa!" Nathan was being extra careful.

William smiled and left.

"Don't worry, I swear not to tell my wife, and I won't go near the western side of the resort at all, okay? Thanks for the money!" William replied.

Watching William walk away, Nathan's heart skipped a beat.

He couldn't stop thinking about spending a night with the most beautiful woman in Qena City. In exchange, he only paid a hundred thousand yuan.

It was so worth it.

He started laughing!

"What a fool! He was so cooperative! He's really a fool!" Nathan ridiculed.

Nathan immediately got up and quietly moved toward the west villa.

When he arrived at the door, he quietly opened the door and found that there was no one inside.

He was stunned and immediately thought that Felicity must still be out somewhere and not come back yet.

Since the useless man had promised him, Nathan knew that William wouldn't dare to inform Felicity about him.

Therefore, Nathan felt at ease. He then turned off the lights and waited in the room for Felicity to return.

Yet, the wait lasted for one whole night!

Nathan waited until dawn. He was enraged.

He finally knew that he had been fooled by the useless man!

Sh*t!

He angrily gnashed his teeth. He immediately went out and was ready to give William a lesson!

But at this time, he saw many people walking toward the east.

"Last night, the lights in the Cavesky Villa were on. Flavia must have stayed there. Let's go there and take a look at the famous star."

He was stunned to hear that Flavia was there.

Subconsciously, he followed the group of people to the Cavesky Villa.

At this moment, on a road not too far from the Cavesky Villa, there were more than a dozen of his ex-classmates who were waiting to meet the celebrity.

The path was secluded and it was the only way to the Cavesky Villa. They hoped they could meet Flavia there.

Everyone greeted Nathan when they saw him.

The classmates' chatter reverted back to the incident involving William and Felicity.

"Nathan! Felicity and William were so rude to you yesterday. Aren't you going to do something about it?" The group stirred Nathan's anger.

Nathan was already in a fit of rage. When he heard that, he immediately sneered, "Hmm, allow me some time, I will crush them under my feet today!"

"Haha, Nathan, you're so powerful! We will wait patiently. I bet they won't even dare to leave their tiny room today!" the classmates laughed.

Nathan's eyes flashed with a trace of viciousness, "Humph! Tiny room? They were scared out of their room. They had probably spent their night shivering and freezing in a corner outside the room."

"Really? So scared that they didn't even dare to enter the room? Hahaha, where did they stay last night then?" the group of ex-classmates was chuckling.

As they guffawed, two figures slowly appeared on the path.
