

Chapter 152

The Bai family nodded in agreement.

"The questions that loser asked earlier were indeed difficult. In fact, they were so difficult that he couldn't even figure it out himself. That's why he gave up halfway through the thesis!" Steven added with contempt.

"D*mn! All the humiliation that the Bai family had to go through today was all because of that good-for-nothing's failed thesis! He's gonna pay for this!"

All the Bais agreed strongly with Steven!

Their resentment for William grew even more.

Felicity sighed quietly, not saying a word.

She thought, "William, whatever you have done for me, I will definitely make up to you."

After Tyrion apologized, he walked to William's side and whispered embarrassingly, "William, I know from Vinson that you are a very capable physician. I have a favor to ask from you, and I wonder if you..."

William had a good impression of Tyrion. Although he was arrogant and hot-tempered, it was an indisputable fact that he was upright and honest.

Professor Koo would still be enraged even if it was not William who wrote that thesis back then.

After all, it was only logical for a lecturer to be angry if their students had submitted a thesis on a different course.

William said nonchalantly, "Well, you can go through Vinson if you need me for anything."

Tyrion was dumbfounded.

The words that he said to William in the past still echoed in his thoughts.

He thought William would take this opportunity to make things difficult for him, or at the very least, decline him.

He never expected that William would agree to it immediately.

His impression of William promptly improved.

As Vinson heard his reply, his eyes turned moist.

If Tyrion wanted to look for William, William could have met him in person right away after setting an appointment.

But William purposely told Tyrion to go through Vinson first...

This implied that William had forgiven Vinson!

Vinson nodded excitedly and said in a serious tone, "Thank you!"

After Tyrion left, the scene became chaotic again.

Earlier, Nathan demanded William to produce evidence.

And now, there was irrefutable evidence before Nathan!

There was nothing left for him to say!

His blood was boiling from exasperation! He wanted to pass out like those patients too!

D*mn it!

How could this loser be so lucky?

That thesis... was it really written by William?!

F*ck it!

Nathan could feel blades stabbing at his heart as he recounted the unexpected turn of events!

This thesis could have brought the Zhao family into prosperity!

It could have been used to destroy the Bai family and the Genuine Care Medical Center, until nothing but ashes were left!

Yet, the thesis turned out to be the Zhao family's downfall!

Looking at the disdain on William's face, Nathan felt extremely uneasy.

"Look at him, so aloof, as though the matter was of no concern to him!" Nathan thought.

'It was the exact same look he had after he humiliated and insulted me the previous time!'

What a hypocrite!

Just as Nathan was racking his brains for a way to retaliate, a cry rang out from the crowd.

"My husband! My husband has vomited blood again! He is not going to make it! Why hasn't the ambulance arrived yet?"

The scene descended once again into a state of chaos.

"What should we do? It's rush hour now. It must be jam-packed outside!" a concerned member of the crowd squeaked, worrying deeply.

"Even if we carried the stretcher on foot, it would still take more than half an hour! There's no way they'll be able to make it!" a young man added anxiously.

"Sh*t! This is all Nathan's fault! They were in the hospital, but he insisted on bringing them here. Now that they're in trouble, the Zhao family will never escape from the crime of murdering them!" More members of the crowd started chiming in, throwing words of hatred at Nathan.

"That's right! Administering the Hexaleaf without proper knowledge when the patients were already poisoned is a murder attempt itself! Today, they were carried over here and led to a delay in receiving treatment! He must be attempting to murder them yet again!"

When Nathan heard this, he got so furious that he could no longer hear his own thoughts!

He immediately spoke without thinking. "F*ck! Are you going to blame me for everything? It's none of my business! Isn't William powerful? Isn't he capable of writing that thesis? You should ask him to save you instead! If he fails to save them, that is also a crime!"

Nathan shook with rage.

That's right!

F*ck!

By some miracle of chance, he actually managed to identify and hit William in another weak spot!

All William could do was talk. Could he really save men when facing an actual medical emergency?

Would he even dare to?

Hahaha!

"I'm such a genius!" Nathan thought with glee.

"Those baseless accusations that b*stard thrown at me earlier has now helped me in this gambit!" Nathan thought.

Didn't William ask Nathan about the correct dosage to be administered?

Indeed, Nathan did not know the answer!

However, did William know the dosage of Hexaleaf used by Lincon?

Haha!

William definitely did not!

"So, let's see how you can save them!" Nathan snickered inwardly.

If William did not try to save the patients, he would be making a fool of himself in public!

If he tried, it would still end up in a dead end since it was impossible for him to know how to save these patients!

"I'll see how you can save yourself out of this!" Nathan thought maliciously.

Illuminated by Nathan's words, the crowd surrounded William.

Some of the patients' family members were so desperate that they prostrated themselves on the bare floor before him.

"Mr. Lu, you spoke with such confidence earlier, surely you have a way to save my husband?" the woman earlier pleaded.

"I beg of you, please save them! I'll kowtow to you," someone else added.

The patient's family members started kowtowing to William.

Standing on the side, Steven was having the same thoughts as Nathan, as he waited for William to make himself look like a standing joke.

Contrary to Nathan's expectation, William said, "Carry them to the lounge."

Steven was stunned.

Could William save them?

How was that possible?!

While this good-for-nothing might possess some medical knowledge, he did not know the dosage of Hexaleaf that the Zhao family had used.

There was absolutely no way William could save them!

He had to be putting on a tough face to get out of this embarrassing situation!

The patients' family members did not hesitate as they carried the patients to the lounge immediately.

Then, William whispered a few words to Henry.

Henry immediately marched towards the lounge.

Everyone fell into a daze.

It would not be William who would carry out the treatment.

Instead, it would be Henry!

That was right! Henry was a well-known miracle-working doctor, and he was present too!

How could they forget about him?

Nathan's face froze!

Henry!

Knowing that Henry would be administering the treatment, Nathan felt his heart sink into a bottomless pit.

Henry wouldn't know the exact dosage, too...

However, he was a world-famous surgeon after all. There were possibly other ways for him to treat these patients...

D*mn! He did not see this coming!

Henry quickly headed into the lounge, his respect for William reaching an incomparable level!

He stayed inside for a full ten minutes.

The crowd outside waited silently in anticipation!

Their eyes were focused on the door of the lounge.

As time passed, the tension in the hall thickened.

The family members began to sob quietly.

Deep down in their hearts, they did not know if their loved ones would make it.

Looking at the scene, Nathan couldn't help but jitter.

It seemed that even Henry had his hands tied this time!

Haha!

As soon as he chortled, he was slapped viciously by the people around him!

These slaps were so painful that Nathan felt his face was being sliced!

He covered his swollen red cheeks and shrieked crazily, "Sh*t! Don't you dare hit me again! Open your eyes and look clearly! It's true that the Zhao family harmed them previously, but Henry is inside now! He's from the Genuine Care Medical Center!"

He paused for a while and continued hissing, "If anyone inside dies, the Genuine Care Medical Center will be no different from the Zhao family, and what awaits them would be inevitable doom!"

Nathan knew that the Zhao family could no longer save themselves. He had no choice but to drag the Genuine Care Medical Center down with them.

He then heard a deriding chuckle.

"The Genuine Care Medical Center? Inevitable doom? I don't think so. Did you really think that I do not know the dosage of Hexaleaf used?"

William!

"When I tapped on the patient earlier, did you think I did it without a reason?"
