

Chapter 303

Everyone was originally waiting for death, but when they heard William's words, their eyes flashed with a trace of vitality!

"Do you want to die by fire or reborn by fire?"

Did William mean that he could turn the tide again and save them in the purgatory?

Everyone looked at the surrounding environment in disbelief.

The fire raged, and the poisonous mist that had not yet been burned out was spreading.

Because of the fire, the thick smoke was like a door to death.

In this situation, which was already a desperate situation, what could he do?

It was impossible for him to live!

But at this time, Liu Tigger suddenly knelt down on one knee in front of everyone!

He looked at William, and all kinds of feelings welled up in his heart!

No one believed in William, but Liu Tigger had to believe it!

He knew the magic of William!

He knew that William was all-powerful!

If he were to say that they were still alive today, it would definitely not be empty talk!

And if they were able to make Lantern Village continue to burn incense for another hundred years, Liu Tigger would feel that there was no shame between heaven and earth for him to kneel down!

What's more, he had a clear conscience!

"William! Save Lantern Village!" Liu Tigger shouted at William.

The villagers of the Lantern Village were still in a daze.

William coldly looked at the numb villagers, suddenly stretched out his hand and said, "The Immortal Pond! Go to that little hill!"

Everyone was stunned and wondered, "Go to the Immortal Pond?"

Village Chief suddenly showed a bitter expression and said, "The Immortal Pond is our holy land. The Immortal Water in the pool is the holy water that has been guarded by us for generations, and it can't be trampled and tarnished at all..."

Liu Tigger decisively interrupted the village chief, and he became cold. "Without this life, there is no meaning in the Immortal Water! Let's go to the hills to seek refuge!"

As he spoke, he took a breath, picked up William with difficulty, and ran toward Little Mountain.

All the people looked at each other.

In the end, Village Chief let out a sigh and also ran in that direction.

A few people carried the unconscious Sharon and quickly followed up.

This time, everyone in the village began to move.

The small hill was extremely close to them. Just now, it was completely surrounded by smoke, so they couldn't see what was happening here at all.

However, when they reached the top of the hill, they were all stunned.

The situation in front of him...

He could see that the outer part of the hill was still shrouded in thick fog, so he could not see what was going on outside.

However, there was no smoke in the small hill, as if the small hill was a paradise and a world of its own.

In this world, there was the smell of blood that they were most familiar with. The constantly steaming blood energy was still constantly overflowing.

Everyone knelt down in unison and kept kowtowing, as if they had been blessed with a lifetime of happiness.

Village Chief's face was full of tears. "It must be because the Immortal Pond is devout to us, so it sent down the miracle to save our villagers' lives."

How could Liu Tigger believe the supernatural theory?

He put William down and looked at the small world. He couldn't help but ask William, "William, how do you know this place can be taken refuge?"

Looking at the group of weak villagers, William explained faintly, "There is geothermal heat at the bottom of the Immortal Pond, so water vapor rises all the time. The water vapor is rising and pervading, just like mushroom clouds."

"But the outsiders' smoke will be affected by the vapor of the Immortal Pond and won't be able to enter. The reason is so simple."

Liu Tigger looked around again and found that it was exactly as William had said.

The water vapor of the Immortal Pond kept coming out, and when it met the smoke at the edge of the hill, the two airs began to intertwine with each other.

The outside smoke couldn't get in, and the water vapor couldn't leak out.

It formed a safe small world for the time being.

Liu Tigger looked at William gratefully. "William, you saved everyone's life again. I really don't know how to thank you?"

However, there is still a hint of uneasiness on William's face. He stares at that thick layer of fog and says: "It's too early to say thanks now. Just now when we were escaping, Sirius was always staring at us. I'm sure he'll come over soon."

Everyone was stunned. Was the disaster not over yet?

Sure enough, as William said, a figure broke through the thick fog and came in.

It was none other than Sirius!

Sirius was taken aback when he saw the Small World.

However, he immediately laughed. "Well, it turns out that there is such a magical place here, but is it useful for you to hide here? Ha, ha, ha, it's a good place to prepare for me!"

Hearing this, Liu Tigger could not help but feel his blood boiling!

It was just as Sirius said.

If William did not find this place, the people of both sides would burn to death outside.

But now that he had found this place, it was equivalent to finding a shelter for Sirius.

The villagers would still be killed by them.

Damn it!

At this time, Sirius's men also ran in.

It was just that the number of people here was significantly fewer than before.

There had been more than 100 of them before, but now there were only 70 or 80 left.

It was obvious that twenty to thirty people had been burned to death outside just now.

William watched them slowly walk over, and she felt extremely wronged in her heart!

He was completely powerless.

He even felt that his body was not like his own. It was even hard for him to move as easy as raising his hand.

"How can we fight?"

Were they really going to count on these villagers?

Could they count on him?

Thinking of the last question, William hesitated in his heart.

If he could count on her...

However, a scream awakened William's thoughts.

Sirius had already arrived in front of a villager. With a wave of his hand, he struck the weak villager to death with a single strike!

The ground was dyed red by blood.

There was a dead silence on the spot!

The massacre was about to begin.

Liu Tigger seemed to have made the final decision. He left William by the Immortal Pond and strode forward.

"Bumpkins! William has already saved us twice! This time, let's stand in front of him!"

"I can't let him keep looking down on the backbone of our Lantern Village!"

"I, Liu Tigger, swear to God that when William dies today, he died after the extermination of my Lantern Village!"

The Village Chief glanced at the powerless William and slowly stood by Liu Tigger's side. "Since we are all going to die anyway, then let's use our useless body as the last barrier! William and the Immortal Water can't be stained by the enemy!"

The villagers gradually gathered together.

They only had sticks in their hands.

There was only sorrow in their eyes.

They formed a dense human flesh barrier in front of William.

When Sirius saw this scene, he suddenly burst out laughing. "Interesting, interesting! Alright, I'm a little interested, I'll just play a game with you guys."

"As long as you hand over William and Liu Tigger, I can give you a quick death! Otherwise..."

His hand suddenly grabbed a little girl's neck and lifted the weak girl up. "Cut them into pieces, one by one!"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 304

Seeing the little girl being lifted up, everyone's heart was about to jump out of their throats.

This little girl was only seven or eight years old.

Lin Mengya was covered with skin and bones. As long as her eyes were more shining than those adults', she would feel better.

Two people began to cry on the spot.

That was the little girl's parents!

"Let my babies go. I'll kill them for you, okay?" Her mother was crying so hard that she was on the verge of breaking down!

However, Sirius's hand exerted force and the little girl's face was stuck so hard that the blue veins on her face stood out.

"Little girl, beg me for mercy. I'll give you a quick death." Sirius looked at the little girl in front of him teasingly.

However, something unexpected happened.

The little girl spat on Sirius's face!

Everyone was stunned by what they saw!

Not even Sirius had thought that a little girl who was struggling with her life would do such a heinous thing!

He touched the mouth of his face with the other hand, but revealed a cold killing intent!

"Ah!" The little girl screamed!

One of his arms was broken.

Blood scabs flowed out!

The eyes of those villagers were all torn apart!

Her parents passed out from tears at once.

"I'll give you another chance to beg for my forgiveness!" Sirius once again said to the little girl.

However, the response to him was still a direct drooling attack!

Sirius was so angry that he directly slashed down with his knife!

This time, the little girl was hacked in the face before she could cry!

Sirius threw the dying girl to the ground and looked at the crowd.

The people at the scene had already been scared out of their wits by Sirius's vicious means.

Everyone's face was full of horror.

Sirius laughed viciously and was about to walk forward.

But at this time, he felt as if his feet were caught by someone.

He looked down and was shocked to find that the little girl on the ground was still alive!

She closed her eyes. It was obvious that she was in unbearable pain.

However, one of her hands was firmly grasping Sirius's right foot.

"Hee, hee, hee, hee, hee..." The little girl was actually still making movements of spitting out saliva.

However, she did not have the strength to spit out any more saliva.

What she spat out was blood!

She could not spit out any tiny amount of blood from her mouth on Sirius's feet.

However, she was still vomiting. "I won't stop until I die!"

Sirius's saber was raised high above him!

The crowd did not dare to continue watching!

One stroke!

The little girl's vitality was completely destroyed.

This shocking scene was like a heavy hammer knocking on everyone's hearts!

Even though William was ruthless in his life, when he saw the stubbornness of the little girl on her deathbed, his eyes were full of tears!

This little girl was the backbone of this village!

He was the soul of the Lantern Village!

"Ah!" William let out a mournful roar!

Unwilling to accept it!

However, it was too late!

But now there was nothing he could do!

His body was so vulnerable that it couldn't even take a single blow

This was a belief that didn't follow one's heart!

Was this the type of great undying being he was Zhaoqing?!

Sad!

What a joke!

What else could I do!

"Am I going to take this body to avenge my grandfather's death?"

His opponent was tens of thousands of times more dangerous than Sirius!

He was so weak that he was terrifyingly weak!

Unknowingly, William's consciousness had completely lost consciousness.

He watched as the villagers stood in front of him one after another, but they were all killed by Sirius's butcher's blade.

There seemed to be a faint voice in his ears.

It was the Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon.

The voice was desolate and helpless, like two butterfly dying for love. It could not die, and it was tortured thousands of times in the fire.

Some villagers knelt down in the direction of the Immortal Water, put their palms together, and sang a desperate song.

His heart throbbed violently!

A stream of blood rushed into his head!

Next to him, the Immortal Water was steaming on the ground.

That flirtatious red color seemed to be a fatal temptation.

"What should I do if I lose my strength?"

Since the villagers were not courageous, they could borrow the Immortal Water.

Then what about me?

"The damn Immortal Water is still commanding these stupid villagers!"

"Then it's up to me!"

He destroyed it with his own hands!

Thinking of this, William tried his best to stand up.

He looked at the purgatory in front of him sadly and muttered to himself.

"The eagle dies in the sky, and the dragon destroys the earth!"

"Liu Tigger!"

Following William's roar, Liu Tigger turned his head and looked at William.

The look in William's eyes at this moment was really terrible.

His eyes were bloodshot, as if they were about to bleed!

He opened his mouth, and blood flew out of his mouth.

"I owe you a glass of wine before, didn't I? Now, I'll pay you back!"

"Drink first as a sign of respect!"

After that, under the eyes of the public, he suddenly jumped!

"Plop!"

Jumped into the Immortal Pond!

"No!" All of a sudden, the people on the scene started to wail in grief.

All the villagers were not pampering William!

Instead, he was pampering the Immortal Water!

"The Immortal Water, which has been guarded by generations for generations, has been sullied by someone."

The significance of their existence, which had existed for hundreds of thousands of years, had vanished in a day!

"No!"

They roared in unison, their eyes instantly reddening.

It was as if William's rude behavior had pierced everyone's heart. Everyone was crazy at this moment!

Their hearts seemed to have been completely shattered by something.

They were like wild beasts that had their nests invaded. They immediately went mad.

"I'm going to fight to the death with you!" Almost all the people rushed toward Sirius and the others!

Sirius didn't expect this to happen at all. He immediately panicked. "What are you all waiting for? Come and kill me!"

The villagers had already lost their sense of reason, and they were even more unafraid of death.

They used their teeth as weapons, and their hands as knives. In an instant, they fought with Sirius's men.

Watching William disappear from the Immortal Pond, Liu Tigger went completely insane.

Only he knew why William would make such a decision to die!

He just wanted to completely destroy the shackles of the villagers!

Only when the shackles that had been worn on them for thousands of years were completely destroyed, could they really stand up.

He did not hesitate to use his life!

The temperature of the Immortal Water was very high. If William jumped down like this, he must be dead!

Tears dropped from the corner of Liu Tigger's eyes.

His head was still echoing the last sentence of William.

"Drink first as a sign of respect!"

"You just owe me a glass of wine, don't you?"

"He's so mad that he's using the Immortal Pond as his cup of wine!"

"How could he be so crazy as to use the Immortal Water as wine!"

"He's toasting me with a bitter wine that I can't afford even if I drank it for a thousand years!"

"Ah!" Liu Tigger roared at the sky, and he was completely insane.

He grabbed a knife on the ground and rushed out like crazy.

"Sirius! Hand over your life!"

Sirius and the other seventy to eighty people each held a weapon in their hands. They were originally full of vigor.

But under the siege of these crazy people, his momentum suddenly weakened.

Sirius suddenly killed one of his subordinates who wanted to escape with one hand. His eyes widened. "Whoever tries to escape, I'll be the first to kill!"

He used his martial prowess to quell the bloodlust of his men once more.

The scene had truly turned into a scene of Asura's battlefield.

No one noticed that in the 19.3 Place, there was a shocking rebirth by fire in the Immortal Pond....

Chapter 305

William was indeed insane to have thrown himself into the Immortal Pond.

He couldn't stand these villagers!

"I can't stand they look down upon themselves!"

They couldn't bear to see their ridiculous superstitions!

What's more, they couldn't bear to see their lives being ignored!

"I can't stand seeing all kinds of things!"

That was why he used his own body to feed the pool. This was a moment of hot blood, and he wanted to use the last of his life to awaken their will to live.

His body fell into the blood pool.

"Hot!"

This was his first feeling.

It was as if he was being burned by a raging fire. His body was in such a high temperature bloody water that it was on the verge of cracking.

However, he could not help but feel a strange warmth rising in his heart.

It was as if this type of pure blood was what he sought for his entire life.

"Gudong."

In the water, he couldn't breathe well. He opened his mouth, and the blood immediately poured into his mouth and nose.

And this time, it was out of control.

He swallowed large mouthfuls of blood in the water.

He was not sober at all.

He could only rely on his instinct.

As he swallowed a large mouthful of blood, his body felt as if it was being chewed on by thousands of ants. It was incredibly numb.

In his heart, there seemed to be something stirring, wishing to break free from the shackles.

He could not help but feel refreshed.

This was...

During this period of time, William had been stuck in the second chapter of the "The Scripture of Tranquility". He couldn't break through at all.

But now, he felt like he had made a breakthrough.

Like a thick wall, there was gradually a crack in the bloody water.

More and more cracks appeared.

"Am I going to break through?"

William thought.

He closed his eyes and handed the world over to the unknown.

More and more cracks appeared, but unfortunately, the wall couldn't collapse no matter how hard he tried.

He was still lacking a little strength.

At this time, if he had the slightest strength, would he be able to support the city wall that was on the verge of collapse?

William's heart gradually became anxious as he was about to break through to a realm that he was not able to break through.

"What should I do?"

How could he still have strength left?

Just when William was anxious, a strange warm current suddenly came from his hands.

He couldn't see anything in the blood at all.

However, he could clearly sense that warm current.

That's right!

Needles of Ruby Flower!

William had been inserted the Needles of Ruby Flower in her hand!

Other than that, there was more in his pocket!

Since William got the Needles of Ruby Flower from his grandfather, he had been thinking that the Needles of Ruby Flower was extraordinary!

When he had used the Needles of Ruby Flower to kill people, the upper half of the silver needle had become even more monstrous.

It showed a faint sense of bloodthirstiness.

Now, he was surrounded by blood!

King of drinking blood!

Do you want to drink it!

A Needles of Ruby Flower! Then I'll let you drink as much as you want!

Don't let me down!

William thought of this. He gathered all the Needles of Ruby Flower into his hands and then spread them open.

Suddenly, the warm current became even stronger.

Even William could faintly feel that the silver needles in her hands were breathing.

They were full!

They were drinking in pain!

They were excited!

William couldn't see anything at all in the blood.

But at this moment, he suddenly saw streaks of colors that were more glamorous than blood in his hands!

Didn't know if it was an illusion, William suddenly felt that the blood around him faded.

The blood was no longer so thick that it couldn't dissolve.

Just like this, let's drink to our heart's content...

On the ground, Liu Tigger was completely mad.

With the butcher's knife in hand, he charged at Sirius with all his might.

On the other hand, Sirius's body was rapidly retreating, allowing his men to take him on.

Behind him, he smiled hideously. "At long last, you're as beautiful as a city or a tiger. It's a pity that you're at the end of your rope. You're just putting up a desperate fight."

Looking at Sirius's retreating steps, Liu Tigger's heart skipped a beat.

These steps...

Could it be that Sirius has been hiding his strength all these years?

The so-called Sirius had always been a vicious fellow who was good at scheming.

But no one had ever seen Sirius's skills.

Therefore, everyone said that Sirius did not have the strength to tie up a chicken.

But looking at this pace, it didn't seem like it was heard by people...

As Liu Tigger was thinking, the enemy had rushed over.

He rushed forward with his blood!

He didn't care whether Sirius was a human or a ghost!

Anyway, they were going to die together today!

"Why are you thinking about him?"

With every step he took, he charged forward with lightning speed.

Blood flowed like a river on the scene.

It just so happened that the hill was in the middle, lower than the surrounding height.

Along the ditch, streams of blood flowed into the blood pool.

The villagers had already lost their heads.

In his entire life, he had always been subservient. When had he ever seen such a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood?

However, all of them's eyes were red, as if there was an unspeakable joy!

It seemed that he was going to vent all the grievances he had suffered for thousands of years today.

It was good to be happy like this!

More than ten of Sirius's men had fallen.

As for the villagers, more than 50 of them had already fallen.

However, they were not afraid of death at all. Once they caught a person, a group of people would swarm up!

It was as if they were going to tear the enemy into pieces.

Killing was very slow.

However, the enemy had died a terrible death!

He was bitten to death!

This scene sent a chill down Sirius's spine!

He suddenly felt a little regretful.

If he had known that this group of people would completely go berserk, he wouldn't have played that game just now.

But now, the enemy was like an ant. Although they didn't have much fighting power, they had more people.

"Kill them all! Those who make it back alive will receive a reward of 100,000 yuan per person!" Sirius roared again.

The subordinates were refreshed and rushed up again.

The battle situation was still unresolved and fermenting.

The roar even reached the muddle-headed William's ears.

Hearing the fierce roar on the ground, William became anxious again.

However, the Needles of Ruby Flower seemed like it had been thirsty for a thousand years. It still did not stop drinking blood.

The invisible wall in his heart was still short of the last bit of strength to collapse.

"It's so fast!"

"It's so fast!"

William couldn't help roaring in his heart!

Just as William was roaring, the Needles of Ruby Flower seemed to have understood William's intentions. At this moment, all of them emitted a demonic red light!

The wall in his heart finally collapsed with a loud bang!

A force spread wildly in William's body in an instant!

He made a breakthrough!

He had broken through to Chapter 3!

Just as he was about to get excited, his eyes suddenly opened!

His whole face became ferocious!

"Oh no!"

Was he in a hurry to achieve his goal and about to be torn apart by the power that had emerged from this breakthrough?

"No, I can't!"

"I have to vent my anger right now!"

Thinking of this, William's foot suddenly stepped on the blood!

His whole body jumped out of the pond like a cannonball!

When everyone heard the strange sounds, they all looked at the Immortal Pond.

This time, everyone's goosebumps were about to fall off!

A man who was covered in blood and whose face could not be seen rushed out!

His entire body was like that of a sea of blood evil beast. It was incomparably terrifying!

What was even more soul-wrenching was!

There were many shining silver needles hanging in front of him!

This was!

The birth of the God of Blood!

"I have 100 red flowers!"

"I'll grant you a ten-thousand-year-old hell!"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 306

This thing was a human or a ghost!

What exactly is it!?

Everyone's mouths were wide open!

However, Liu Tigger's tears suddenly fell down!

"Who could have made it out of the Immortal Pond?"

"Who's the one who can show up in isolation and without help?"

It wasn't the descent of the Blood God!

"It's the return of a king!"

William!

"It's William! It's William!" Liu Tigger roared like a madman.

It seemed that he was going to shout out all the apologies in his heart just now.

Hearing William's name, Sirius's pupils constricted!

His entire body began to tremble!

Damn it!

This guy, why was he like a cockroach that couldn't be killed!

He didn't die even like this!

On the contrary, at this moment, what was going on with the grand and imposing manner?

During this period of time in the pool, just what exactly happened to him!?

Everyone stared blankly at William, who had come out of nowhere, and even forgot about the battle.

And that happened in just two seconds.

After William came out, she saw that her Needles of Ruby Flower also followed her.

And now he was hanging in front of him.

For the first time, William had a strange feeling.

It seemed that he had just experienced the breakthrough and was connected with the Needles of Ruby Flower.

It was strange. It was obviously a kind of silver needle without vitality, but it gave people a feeling that they were linked at the same time.

He was about to study carefully, but his eyes were fixed on the ground.

The moment he looked at her, his eyes turned red!

Blood flowed like streams!

The Infernal Realm was nothing more than this!

The helpless villagers appeared so helpless and pitiful in the face of Sirius and the others' butcher's knives!

William's eyes looked at Sirius!

Thanks to the surging blood qi in his body, his nameless anger immediately climbed to the peak at this moment!

He suddenly opened his hands and widened his eyes!

His voice, like that of a thousand-year-old Blood Devil, became hoarse and ghost-like!

"I have 100 red flowers!"

"I'll grant you a ten-thousand-year-old hell!"

The Needles of Ruby Flower in front of him seemed to understand William's intentions.

With a wave of William's hand!

The Needles of Ruby Flower, like a ghost in the cold night, flew towards Sirius's men like lightning!

This scene once again stunned everyone!

It was to the extent where Sirius's men didn't even have the time to dodge!

All of a sudden, small blood-red flowers blossomed on their bodies.

He didn't even make a sound.

Sirius's men all fell to the ground.

As for Sirius, he had exceeded everyone's expectations!

Unexpectedly, he caught a subordinate at lightning speed and stood in front of him to protect him.

He dodged the attack!

Everyone on the scene was speechless!

Looking at William who fell to the ground, they were completely speechless.

Just now, William's Sky Lady Scattered Flowers had actually killed half of Sirius's underlings in one fell swoop!

When William landed on the ground, she couldn't help staggering a few steps.

It seemed that the move just now had consumed all his strength.

He tried to trigger the Needles of Ruby Flower, but he found that the feeling of connection with the Needles of Ruby Flower before was like an epiphyllum, disappearing without a trace.

Was it an illusion?

William thought in silence.

Liu Tigger rushed to William's side and asked worriedly, "William, are you okay?"

William's body swayed and he forced a smile.

"I'm fine."

However, Liu Tigger looked at William with suspicion.

When William fell into the Immortal Pond, he was already at the end of his rope and had little vitality left.

But now, he could still stand.

In fact, his essence, qi, and spirit were even more powerful than before.

It was really too strange.

"Your move just now..." Liu Tigger intended to ask more.

However, he was interrupted by Sirius's voice.

"William! You're courting death!"

Sirius looked at his men. More than thirty of them had been killed by William in an instant. His eyes were also red.

A great loss!

Today, he had lost more than 100 people here!

It was a great shame!

If this were to be known by his own master, his head would be cut off!

He must kill William!

On the other hand, William grabbed the knife in Liu Tigger's hand and staggered towards Sirius in front of everyone.

"He left it to me. As for the rest, do as you please." William looked at Sirius with endless killing intent bursting out of her eyes!

This kind of killing intent was the killing intent that the Needles of Ruby Flower drank blood fast just now!

It was the true monologue that he had hidden in his heart for thousands of years!

Kill!

Kill!

Kill!

Kill this bunch of bastards in front of me!

Sirius, who was worse than that beast, was killed by his hand!

With every step he took, he gave off a strange oppressive feeling.

It seemed that there was a kind of momentum gradually rising on his body.

Even though they were wobbling as they walked, their eyes were chilling to the core!

Meanwhile, Sirius watched William walking towards him. This time, he finally stopped hiding behind him.

He also took his saber and stood out. "Leave this guy to me. You kill the others for me!"

In an instant, the two sides clashed again.

However, the only look in William's eyes was Sirius.

Kicking off the ground with his feet, he sprang out.

One stroke!

William's strike ruthlessly slashed towards Sirius's neck!

"Don't leave any extra strength!"

Just as he was about to hit the target, something unexpected happened.

Sirius's feet actually spun on the ground, and he dodged William's knife mysteriously.

On the contrary, his saber hit on William's back!

This scene was so eye-popping that everyone could not help but stare at it!

To think that Sirius would be so powerful!

A strong sense of uneasiness arose in Liu Tigger's heart!

Sure enough!

Sirius had been hiding his strength all this while!

He was good at martial arts!

William was in danger!

William's back was hit by a knife, and his blood was pouring out!

However, he did not care about his back. Instead, he fixed his eyes on Sirius.

He could also tell that Sirius's skills were far superior to Liu Tigger's!

Sirius, however, made a fool of himself on the spot and said sinisterly, "So you're also an External Strength master. I underestimated you before. Then, let me formally introduce myself. My name is Sirius, and I'm Frederick from the Heaven Martial Club."

"What!" Liu Tigger, who was standing behind him, suddenly became extremely angry when he heard this!

"William! Frederick is a famous cross-training master in Qena City first. Don't underestimate him!" Liu Tigger shouted at William.

At this time, there was a trace of regret in Liu Tigger's heart!

He had never expected Sirius to have such a high status!

"It's actually the disciple of the Frederick!"

The Immortal Frederick was a true master of martial arts!

It was far beyond what people like them, who fought in groups, could compare with.

Liu Tigger thought that he was very good at fighting, but it was only because he had a lot of experience in dealing with the enemy. He had no skills at all.

However, the martial arts practitioners were different. Their methods were not something that Liu Tigger and the others could compare with.

It was said that in his early years, Frederick alone could defeat 50 people from the Jianghu. At that time, he made a name for himself with a single battle!

However, this kind of martial dao practitioner had always been very proud and would never involve himself in the internal conflicts.

Sirius actually broke the rule.

Liu Tigger was worried about William's lifelessness when he saw William walking slowly.

The saber was suspended on the ground, clanging!

"I only have a little bit of strength left. I'll offer it to the Infernal Realm tonight."

"I'll never regret it!"

Chapter 307

William's words moved the whole audience!

The villagers of the Lantern Village were filled with tears!

There was someone who was willing to give up his life for them!

What else could they do?

In order not to live up to William's expectations!

For the continued existence of incense lanterns and incenses!

He had to pick up the butcher's knife!

Kill!

These people, with tears in their eyes, rushed out again!

As Sirius watched William slowly walking towards him, a cold light flashed in his eyes.

He suddenly began to run at a high speed.

William's heart shivered.

From just a moment ago to now, Sirius has not put in much effort.

He could be considered to be in a good condition.

But as for himself, he had already died once.
This shattered body was the only one.

Sirius was extremely vicious. He was trying to drag her down with his speed, wasn't he?

Just as William had expected, Sirius was running fast. William didn't pay attention to him before he rushed over.

Sabers went straight to William's neck!

William is like a small boat in a storm, ready to be killed by Sirius at any time.

At the scene, Liu Tigger's eyes were wide open!

He wanted to intervene, but found that he couldn't get involved at all.

And he also did not dare to intervene.

He knew William's pride.

This was the end of the relationship between William and Sirius.

It could only be him, ending it with his own hands!

"William! Wait for your victory! Let's drink together!" Liu Tigger roared with tears in his eyes. He had vented all his anger on Sirius's subordinates.

Seeing that William obviously didn't know, Sirius laughed teasingly as he ran, "What's wrong?"

You can't keep up with me?"

"I'm afraid you just stepped into External Strength, hahaha."

"I think too highly of you. How can a wild man like you compare with me?"

"It's a pity that I've hidden my skills for ten years, but you forced me out today. I was going to give Liu Tigger a surprise."

William completely ignored Sirius's words. He forced himself to concentrate.

However, he had lost too much blood.

It was not enough for him to concentrate.

In a short while, Sirius had already left gashes on William's body.

"Hahaha, stubborn resistance. I advise you to surrender as soon as possible. I will give you a chance to commit suicide. Otherwise, when you fall down, it will not be so easy for you to die," Sirius laughed loudly.

At this time, he found that William's body trembled.

"Finally, I can't hold on any longer!"

Sirius would definitely not let such an opportunity slip by!

He rushed to William's back at once!

But at this time, his pupils shrank!

William, who was about to fall down, suddenly changed direction like a god!

"Dammit!" Sirius immediately knew that he had fallen into a trap!

This damn William, he was showing weakness to the enemy!

"Damn it! I'm too careless!"

Sirius immediately ran to the side, but it was already too late!

William's knife slashed mercilessly across Sirius's neck.

However, at this crucial moment, Sirius once again revealed a sinister smile.

"Aren't you trying to trick me when you're showing weakness?" Sirius laughed out loud. Suddenly, he narrowly avoided the fatal blow.

Then, his saber stabbed fiercely toward William's body!

"Buzz buzz!" The blade entered his body!

William's shoulder was stabbed thoroughly by the knife!

Sirius's knife used all of his strength to pierce through William's shoulder.

Seeing that William was finally knocked down by him, Sirius couldn't help but laugh out loud. "Hahaha! Now let's see if you'll die!"

But all of a sudden, his laughter stopped!

He actually saw that William, who should have fallen, suddenly grabbed his blade with one hand!

William's hand was cut by the knife and began to bleed in an instant!

A smile finally appeared on William's cold face.

"You've taken advantage of me, but do you know that I've fallen into your trap?" William asked indifferently.

Sirius felt a chill run down his spine. He looked at the ice-cold and emotionless William in disbelief!

"What a lunatic!"

He was a 100% lunatic!

"How can there be such a person!"

He wanted to pull out his knife to dodge, but William held the blade tightly in his hand and didn't want Sirius to retreat!

William actually restrained Sirius's attack at the cost of his shoulder being pierced through!

Originally, Sirius's biggest advantage was speed.

At this rate, Sirius could easily exhaust William to death.

Now, his knife was caught by William.

The only thing left for them was a head-on confrontation!

The advantage of speed was instantly dissolved by William!

Sirius was truly a ruthless person. He immediately decided to abandon his knife and leave!

But this was the opportunity that William had worked hard to create. How could he let Sirius succeed!

William's other hand, which had been holding a knife, took advantage of the situation and wiped it!

Sirius's legs were fiercely kicked, and a stream of blood shot out!

Sirius let out a pained roar. He finally seized the opportunity and retreated.

Looking at Sirius who had retreated, William was unwilling to give up!

"Just as I expected, that's all I can do?"

William's knife was originally hanging down on the ground. If he wanted to raise it to scratch his neck, Sirius must have found a chance to get out of the fight.

Therefore, he could only settle for the second best. He directly took advantage of the situation and stabbed him in the legs.

However, this strike was enough to slow down Sirius's speed.

Sirius also instantly understood William's plan, and his face suddenly became ferocious!

"You son of a b*tch!"

To think that he would be forced into such a state by a dying person!

He grabbed a knife from the ground and madly chopped at William.

This time, the two of them were fighting a bloody battle with their real weapons.

"William, you won't be able to kill me! I, Sirius King, have the power! Wealth and honor are at my fingertips! My life is destined to be incomparably glorious! Go and die!" Sirius's courage had been unleashed as he frantically hacked down.

William felt that the power in his body was gradually slipping away.

His eyes turned red again.

With the power of the king in hand, was wealth in sight?

What a commoner sought was nothing more than this!

You want the royal power, don't you?

"You want to be rich, don't you?"

Go ask for it from the King of Hell!

William traded her life with Sirius's and was cut in the chest by Sirius's close-range attack!

As for William, she spat out a mouthful of blood on Sirius's face as if her blood was completely bursting out of her body!

He slashed at Sirius with his saber!

Sirius blocked with his saber!

However, it was as if William wanted to use Mount Taishan's power to completely crush Sirius. His strikes rained down on Sirius's saber!

"Rich and powerful!"

"I will kill your right to the throne!"

"I'll kill you for wealth and honor!"

"Cut!" Su Mo yelled.

"Cut!" Su Mo yelled.

"Come on, let's cut him down!"

As the last sound came down, the crowd only heard a cracking sound of metal breaking.

Sirius's saber was directly cut off by the power burst out from William's dying body!

Everyone was about to be delighted, but they were horrified to see it!

In the blink of an eye, Sirius grabbed the broken blade and stabbed it into William's stomach!

The blade went through his body!
Blood flowed like a fountain!

William did not dodge, but caught Sirius.
Under the screams of the crowd, he fell into the Immortal Pond again!

"On the way to the netherworld, this old man wants to kill you too!"

"Smash the bones and scatter the dust!"

Chapter 308

Tears streamed down the faces of the onlookers.

Just now, they saw that William was really stabbed by a knife.

"In this way, if I fall into the Immortal Pond again, will I still be alive?"

Sirius's men had been wiped out since just now.

All the people gathered around the Immortal Pond. Some of them burst into tears on the spot when they saw the two of them disappear.

The sound of the weeping was contagious.

Liu Tigger looked at the blood flowing all over the ground, thinking about what had happened tonight.

When she thought of William, she saved the village in one night.

Now, he was even risking his life to perish together with Sirius, forever ensuring peace.

A kind of bone-chilling sorrow emerged from Liu Tigger's heart. As a 1.7-meter-tall man, he also imitated the villagers and burst into tears.

He knelt beside the Immortal Pond and cried so hard that he couldn't stop himself from crying!

"William! William!" Liu Tigger roared madly toward the Immortal Pond.

The villagers in the back also roared together.

For a while, William's shout shocked the clouds!

They cried out helplessly, looking forward to some miracle.

With tears in his eyes, Liu Tigger punched the ground with one hand desperately.

"William! Come out! Don't you know how to turn the tide? Don't you know how to create miracles?"

"Then why don't you come out!"

He didn't know how long he had been shouting sorrowfully.

The smoke that was shouting outside gradually dissipated.

At the same time, the fire gradually faded away.

It was so loud that the whole Lantern Village was reduced to ashes.

However, no one could call a hero of heaven and earth back.

Liu Tigger's heart gradually cooled down. He sat down on the ground and looked at the villagers in front of him. Suddenly, his heart was filled with love and hatred.

Now, there were only 200 people left in the 300-odd-people village.

More than a hundred people had died in the battle just now.

This tragic battle had continued until the end of the lives of the Lantern Village.

"Tigger, let's go." Village Chief helped Liu Tigger to his feet shakily.

Liu Tigger wiped his tears and slowly stood up.

Everyone had already seen William's return, and there was no hope at all.

"People in Lantern Village have their own name. We will erect a tombstone of William here to worship him forever." Village Chief choked with sobs again.

The others all nodded.

There was no way for him to repay William's kindness.

Just as Liu Tigger and the others were frustrated and about to leave, the Immortal Pond, which had always been calm, suddenly stirred up a slight wave.

Liu Tigger widened his eyes and broke free from Village Chief's support. He stared at the Immortal Pond in disbelief!

The waves were getting bigger and bigger!
It was as if something was rushing out!

Liu Tigger's heart, which had been in complete despair, was beating violently at this moment!

"William!" He roared!

All the villagers gathered again. Looking at the bigger and bigger waves, they all showed incredible joy and shock in their eyes!

"William, is she really still alive?"

"He is so seriously injured. If he can survive, it will be blessed by the Gods!"

"Crash!" A clear sound of water breaking could be heard!

A man's head appeared on the Immortal Water all of a sudden!

When Liu Tigger was about to call William, he was shocked to find that the head above the water was not William!

Instead, it was Sirius!

Sirius's head was barely out of the water, and his eyes were wide open in anger!

This scene scared back many people.

Liu Tigger's tears came out again.

If it was Sirius's words, then it meant that William was really buried in the Immortal Pond.

Just when he was about to put up a desperate fight with Sirius, a hand suddenly stretched out from the surface of the water!

When the crowd saw this scene, they couldn't help but scream!

This hand seemed to be trying to destroy the heavens and the earth!

Shockingly, this hand was holding Sirius's head!

As his hand reached out to the surface of the water, Sirius's head, which had died with grievances, was completely exposed to everyone's eyes!

Then, there was another "Hua la!" sound.

A figure rushed out of the water!

"It's William! It's really William!" Liu Tigger couldn't restrain his emotions anymore and roared madly!

The person who came out was exactly William!

At this time, William was covered in blood, and her whole face was extremely ferocious!

His body fell to the ground, and the horrifying scars on his body were still visible!

He suddenly threw Sirius's head on the ground and stepped on it!

He held his fists with both hands, and his face suddenly looked up!

"Roar!" A violent and arrogant roar came from his throat!

This roar was like that of a huge beast from ancient times!

His voice was full of sorrow, as well as the hysterical pride of an expert!

When the crowd saw this, they were completely dumbfounded.

It was as if the god of war had descended from the heavens, slaughtering everyone in the world tonight, calming down the disaster of Lantern Village!

Finally, he stepped on the head!

He clenched his fists!

Howling to the sky!

This scene was deeply engraved in everyone's heart!

Liu Tigger's legs unconsciously knelt down!

The villagers around also knelt down in front of William!

The end of the Immortal Water!

King William!

A king was enthroned!

Countless years of worship!

This shocking moment had also completely become the moment when King William was crowned in Liu Tigger's heart!

Wang Zhi woke up!

After letting out this world- shaking roar, William completely fainted to the ground.

"Hurry up! Save William!" Liu Tigger picked up William and shouted.

Fortunately, there were Village Doctors in the village, so William barely saved her life.

But he had been in a coma for three days.

During this time, Sharon woke up.

She saw the ruins of the village at a glance, as well as the remnants of the villagers.

When she saw these people, her tears fell down on the spot.

Seeing them, it meant that the whole Lantern Village was saved.

And when she knew that William saved Lantern Village by himself, she was moved to tears.

She volunteered to take care of William for the past three days.

Over the past three days, the villagers had begun to rebuild their homes.

The home, which had been rebuilt on a piece of ruins, would be even more indestructible this time!

It was because a hundred villagers' souls were buried here!

They would definitely protect the Lantern Village for generations.

On this day, Sharon was changing the gauze for William, but as soon as she untied the gauze on William's body, Sharon couldn't help exclaiming!

"Dad! Come and see!" Sharon rushed straight out of the door and pulled Liu Tigger in.

Seeing William's body, Liu Tigger also cried out in surprise.

William's body was full of wounds, some of which were so deep that her bones could be seen.

Especially his abdomen was directly stabbed with a knife.

It would take at least a few months for him to recover from such serious injuries!

But now, what did Liu Tigger see?

Some of William's injuries started to hurt!

It was simply hard to believe!

"There is actually a person who can recover so fast under the sun!"

Liu Tigger thought about it for a long time, and finally he could only blame it on William, the good man, for the good man. God bless him!

What they didn't know was that there had been a great turmoil in Qena City in the past three days!

What's more, Felicity were facing the catastrophe of annihilation!
