

Chapter 321

The others also shouted, "Yes, you're right. You've made our Bai family so shameless! Are you still a member of the Bai family? Forget your ancestors!"

"Do you mean that the Bai family can only rely on you to support ourselves?"

"You're so vicious! I didn't expect your grandmother to do this for your own good. You want to tolerate your anger and change the family for harmony? I'm really blind!"

"Wither-forth, we Bai family have worked hard to cultivate you into a talent! Well, now that you have achieved success and become famous, do you want to completely dissociate our Bai family? Are you still human?"

Felicity seemed to have been used to such scenes in the face of the censure of the crowd.

She was not afraid at all. She looked at Steven, who was most indignant, and said, "A beggar? Haha, it's too kind of you to call yourself a beggar! It's you who want to break off with me, and it's you who want to reconcile with me. Beggars are more respectable than you!"

Everyone was so angry that their faces turned red!

Felicity was getting more and more terrifying!

If it were in the past, Lin Mengya would have never imagined that she would be so heartless and heartless!

To compare the Bai family to beggars, he was even worse than beggars!

"You!" Steven was so angry that he was about to fan Felicity.

However, William suddenly stood up.

Steven's voice was like a conditioned reflex, and it darted straight to the back. With a crash, the chair fell directly to the ground.

The means he used to deal with William were really unforgettable!

At this time, Yasmine, who had been ashen-faced, suddenly said, "Okay, I promise you."

"Grandma!" Steven didn't dare to believe that his own grandma would agree to such a shameful three rules.

For the first time, Yasmine did not have her usual explosive temper. The way she looked at Felicity became extremely complicated.

She knew that Felicity had matured.

She was no longer the Felicity who used to be at the Bai family's disposal.

However, she had her own considerations when she agreed to his suggestion.

If this stalemate continued, it was possible that Felicity and the others would immediately turn tail and leave.

This was the last thing the Bai family wanted to see.

At this point in time, the Bais would have to endure no matter how much humiliation they were going to suffer if they took the step forward.

As long as he took this step and reached an agreement with Felicity, everyone would see that even if the Bai family did not do anything in the name of Felicity.

At that time, they would still be able to do business smoothly and successfully.

However, he needed an opportunity now.

Let all the people in the city know the opportunity for Felicity to make peace with the Bai family.

Thinking of this, Yasmine instinctively glanced at Steven.

If it were any other day, the smart Steven would have been the one in charge of the matter.

It was a pity that he was also an ungrateful person.

Yasmine decided to do it herself from the beginning to the end.

She cleared her throat and said, "Next week is my 80th birthday. I hope you can attend together at that time."

Felicity Maize naturally knew what she was up to.

She pondered for a moment and reluctantly agreed in the end.

When Zhang Ruolong saw that the matter had finally been settled, he was even more proud in his heart.

Was there anything easier to make money than that?

This group of idiots of the Bai family, in order to reconcile with Felicity, spent a full 200,000 yuan, hahaha.

He said with a smile, "Isn't that good? We're all family. Let's talk about it. Come on, let's raise our glasses and have a toast together."

The crowd raised their glasses. Seeing that William also raised hers, Zhang Ruolong couldn't help frowning again. He thought, "This is not a good-for-nothing man, but he is very thick-skinned. Don't you know who you are in the family? Do you have the right to raise your glass?"

However, in order not to spoil Felicity, he had to suppress the unhappiness in his heart.

Since one thing had finally passed, the Bai family could barely breathe a sigh of relief.

At this time, the dishes were served. The disgusting table manners of Zhang Ruolong and Zhang Jin were shown again. Everyone looked at them and lost their appetites.

Yasmine didn't know what to say and tried to find a conversation, "Have you heard that Bernard was killed the day before yesterday? I don't know if it's true or not. He was alive and lively just now."

Steven immediately showed a look that he knew the inside story and said, "I heard from a classmate at the funeral house that he was killed by a mysterious female devil. She died in a terrible way. But let's talk about it here. Don't talk about it everywhere, or it will lead to murder if the female devil knows about it."

Everyone looked at each other with a lingering fear in their hearts.

"Oh dear, since when did our Qena City have a female fiend? She's so terrifying."

"Everyone, be careful when you speak in the future. There's no guarantee that the female fiend's great powers will be able to hear our conversation."

"I think you're too nervous. We're in a private room. How can we be heard?"

Everyone was talking about it, and Felicity was the only one calmly drinking the drink.

Seeing this, William only wanted to laugh in her heart.

"The people you call her a devil are just listening to you under your noses, aren't they?"

However, looking at the calm face of the snow storm, William also felt a slight wave of emotion in his heart.

He had witnessed Bernard's death.

If there were no deep hatred in Felicity's heart, he would not have done such evil things.

They did live up to the promise they had made before.

"If you're full of evil, I'll accompany you to the end of your life."

Thinking of this, William raised the juice, gently clinked glasses with Felicity, and said in her ear intimately, "Come, let's propose a toast to our devil girl."

Felicity blushed and said in a soft voice, "Well, I also propose a toast to my Big Devil."

Her heart was also filled with ripples.

She once more recalled the scene of her brandishing the butcher's knife.

In the past two days, she had thought that she would be afraid and had nightmares.

After all, this was killing.

However, for some unknown reason, she had been unusually calm for the past two days. She had not inadvertently thought of this matter and had not been afraid at all.

Sometimes, when she could think about it, she didn't even feel afraid.

The only thing she felt was that she had done something that was only natural.

She thought about it for a while and finally put the blame on—

She had been led astray by her husband.

The group of people then looked at the gluttonous feast of the father and son of the Zhang family until they were once again in a mess.

Originally, Zhang Ruolong wanted to ask Felicity for money to buy a car, but at the thought that Felicity seemed to have made a big concession today, he did not mention it.

He decided to wait a few more days, until Felicity and the snow calmed down.

After a group of people finished eating and walked out of the hotel, Felicity and William naturally had to go home with William.

When William drove the red Lamborghini to the door of the hotel, his golden eyes suddenly burst into endless light!

The thing he loved most in his life was cars!

He rushed to the Lamborghini with one step, as if he was too fond of it to put it down.

Zhang Ruolong noticed that and suddenly said to Felicity, "Your niece, your uncle and your brother are going to stay in Qena City for a few days, so I have to see a good buddy. It's not convenient if you don't have a car. You can lend your car to someone in gold to drive for a few days."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 322

Hearing this, Zhang Jin immediately fought while the iron was hot, "Yes, cousin, I think your car is very good, and it fits my personality and temperament. If we walk Qena City, we can't fight all the time, right? It's too embarrassing. And it will also bring shame to you if we talk about it, right?"

Felicity's pretty face was full of frost.

These two people became more and more shameless after not seeing each other for a few years!

What's more suitable for your identity and temperament?

Do you think you're qualified?

"Hit him?"

Look at you guys, I bet you'll even complain about the high price of a bus ticket if you take a bus!

It was obvious that he had never touched a luxury car in his life, and he wanted to borrow it to squander!

Felicity looked at William, who came out of the car, and said, "This car belongs to William. I can't make a decision."

As soon as he said that, Zhang Ruolong was stunned on the spot.

He looked at William in disbelief.

However, he did not think that it was a car bought by William himself.

He subconsciously thought that it was a car Felicity gave to William.

After all, Felicity was now a popular person in Qena City. With the power in hand, it was too normal for him to afford luxury cars.

As for William.

During the banquet just now, he also roughly knew that William didn't have much work and needed to stay at home.

This was a nice remark. To put it bluntly, it meant that she was living off a woman at home.

"What the f*ck, a good-for-nothing who lives off a woman and brings shame to all men in the world, should drive a luxury car every day. It's so unfair!"

It seemed that he had to think of a way to lure the car away. In this way, he could save himself the trouble of borrowing money from Felicity to buy the car and get it in place in one step.

Zhang Jin, who was on the side, showed a look of great jealousy at William!

He didn't pay any attention to William from beginning to end.

Because he felt that a toy boy like William was not qualified to talk to him at all.

But he didn't expect this toy boy to be so successful!

"It's not a big deal to have such a good-looking wife who can have fun every night."

"There's still a car that's so cool!"

Felicity was too kind to him!

What was this man's merits? He had made Felicity and Wuxin squander their money like water!

Thinking of this, Zhang Jin said in a strange tone, "Cousin, this car must have been bought and given to him by you. Lend it to me for two days. You don't even care about this kind of kindness, do you?"

Felicity was about to argue with him to the end, but William pulled him back.

William had no pursuit for cars or other things.

He just didn't want Felicity and snow to get angry and hurt themselves.

He smiled and said, "Okay, I'll lend it to you for a few days."

After that, he threw the key to Zhang gold.

On the other hand, Zhang Jin was instantly excited!

It was a luxury car!

This was a luxurious car!

Although Zhang Jin liked cars, the best car he had ever driven in his life was a Mage Arada. He still had the cheek to use it in front of his neighbor.

This Lamborghini was something that he hadn't even touched, let alone opened it!

Now, he could actually get in a car like this, hahaha!

He even thought that he had to make good use of the car these two days. Maybe he could get some money-hungry beauties at the bar or even the club.

"Aren't all the women in the city like this?"

He was so lucky that he couldn't block it even if he wanted to.

It could be said that the good-for-nothing didn't dare to disobey him.

"Otherwise, I'll beat you up with one punch, and you'll have a bloodied face!"

He got into the car with one step and started the car. The loud sound of the engine was like a strong stimulation, making him feel like he was floating from the body to the soul.

Cool!

However, he looked at the oil table and said to William unceremoniously, "Why didn't you add any oil? Hey, give me 500 yuan, I'll go and add some oil."

Felicity and snow were on the verge of exploding with anger.

He had never seen such a thick-skinned and shameless person!

It was okay to lend William's car, but it was so cheap that it didn't even cost money!

But William smiled and threw her a few hundred yuan. She said to Felicity, "Let's go home for a walk. I haven't been shopping with you for a long time."

Felicity and Felicity were unhappy, and Zhang Ruolong behind them was almost laughing like a pig.

He really didn't have any backbone at all!

He even wanted to take a walk home.

"This guy is probably the person who is the most good at giving me a way out in the world."

If Felicity married him, he would be blind.

The whole Bai family saw William like this, and their hearts were also blooming with joy.

They had originally thought that Felicity had used the company's money to buy this car for William.

Now that they saw someone insult William, they were happy to see that.

On the road, Felicity finally couldn't help but say, "William, why did you lend the car to that bastard?"

"Is that bastard your cousin? All right, all right, I just don't want to be entangled with them. Do you think they will be willing to let it go if you don't lend them a car?" William smiled and stroked Felicity's hair.

Felicity was stunned. It was really like what William said.

"If I don't lend them to you, the bizarre father and son can grind your ears out of your ears, and maybe they will even say something that destroys your outlook and values even more."

However, Felicity and Felicity were still depressed after all.

She said to the sky "ah ah ah" three times, and then angrily said, "When the car comes back, you have to take a bath inside and outside for me."

William was speechless.

"He's got into trouble with that group of lunatics again. It's so uncomfortable! What the hell!" Felicity suddenly cursed at William.

William's soul was almost scared to death.

"Has this girl really been led astray by me?"

But I didn't say dirty words at ordinary times.

After Felicity scolded, she was in a better mood. She took the initiative to pull William's arm and said, "Go home to sleep."

On the other side, Wang Ba Step walked out.

However, both of them knew deep down that they had no choice but to do so tonight.

It was better to return the favor of Felicity's father to people like Zhang Ruolong as soon as possible.

After taking a bath, Felicity got on the bed and went off to vent his anger on his friends who were in the team guarding the ancestral grave.

William, on the other hand, came to the study.

He opened the third chapter of the 'Illusory of Study'.

Two days ago, he was still very weak, so the matter of the third chapter of the study had been delayed until tonight.

After roughly looking through the third chapter, he finally had a new understanding in his heart.

Chapter 3 It could be said to be a New World at the Start.

This indicated that William had stepped into the External Strength and had gained the systematic moves practice.

This was only a small part of the medical skills, but most of them were the "Nine Movements of Impermanence".

In other words, it was also a set of martial arts to practice his muscles and bones.

William thought, "My strength should be able to go up one more level."

That night, William was completely immersed in the first practice.

His eyes were closed, half- sleeping, half- awake, half-awake. It was as if he had just had a great dream of the ancient times.

In his dreams, the roars of dragons and neighs of horses could be heard.

What he didn't see was that the Blood Jade in his pocket, given by the village chief of the Xiangguang Village, was glowing with a faint red light along with his breath.

His skin that was exposed on the outside, something like a scale flashed and disappeared.

After a night, William finished practicing and felt refreshed. Even the injuries on her body were less painful.

He fiercely stretched his waist, and there was a sound of "crack crack crack crack" of bones whistling on his body.

But just at this moment, Felicity suddenly had a cold expression on his face as he pushed open the door and walked in.

"What's wrong?" William asked curiously.

It was early in the morning, and Felicity were just like his aunt.

"William, we shouldn't have lent the car to that bastard! He bumped into someone last night! Now, we're going to go over and wipe that bastard's ass!" Felicity's little hand patted the desk as he spoke in a huffing tone.

Chapter 323

William frowned. He had long known that Zhang Jin, a guy who had nothing to do with, would definitely get into trouble.

But he didn't expect that this disaster would come so soon.

William stood up and said to Felicity, "Let's have a meal first, then go over and see what's going on."

After breakfast, they took a taxi to Yasmine's house.

At this moment, Yasmine's family members were sitting there, and their faces were filled with anger.

They looked at the father and son of the Zhang family, who looked as if nothing had happened, and could not help feeling angry!

He had knocked her into the hospital, but now he was still in the mood to eat.

"They are really going to take over the Bai family, aren't they?"

The group of people finally arrived at Felicity's arrival.

Normally, Yasmine would have cursed them for coming so slowly.

But at this time, she did not say anything.

On the contrary, Zhang Ruolong constantly complained to Felicity, "My niece, why are you so slow?"

Felicity asked with a cold face, "What on earth happened?"

Zhang Rebecca, who had a closer relationship with Zhang Ruolong, said, "Golden went out racing after you cheered up your car last night."

"I didn't know how I met a group of people who claimed to be from the luxury car club. They thought the gold car was good, so I invited him to race together."

"Then the child named Gold was also anxious. He drove faster and knocked down a car nearby that was used to compete with him. It was bleeding all over the place. He is still in the hospital."

Felicity frowned and said, "What's the situation with the patient in the hospital now? Has he been rescued?"

Zhang Jin casually nibbled a piece of vomit and said, "I don't know. I saw that the car was knocked over, so I quickly drove back."

Felicity and Yang Shiwen were so angry that they didn't know what to say.

She took a lot of effort to calm herself down and said in a cold voice, "You hit someone, and then you drove away? Do you know that you escaped because of the accident? You are responsible for legal justice!"

Zhang Jin said matter-of-factly, "How could I not know? So I came to you early in the morning? You can help me settle this matter."

Even Yasmine felt ashamed of her shameless behavior of going so far as to ask someone else to clean up her mess even though she had made a mistake!

To put it in another way, "Ignorance fears nothing. A newborn calf is not afraid of tigers!"

Felicity wanted to leave on the spot. He didn't want to meddle in their business. He wanted them to pay for what they had done!

But obviously, Zhang Ruolong would not let Felicity and Snow leave.

He stopped Felicity and said with a smile, "Oh, niece, why do you always lose your temper? It's not a big deal. Didn't you just run away by bumping someone? Uncle, don't you know your power in Qena City? You have a high position and great power in Qena City. It's easy for you to speak to me."

Felicity and snow were so angry that they were about to cry.

She replied respectfully on the spot, "I,

Felicity, do have some power in Qena City now, but I tell you, power is greater than the law! It is against the law for Zhang Jinjin to do so! I can't help him even if I want."

Zhang Ruolong's face darkened at Hugo's words.

He narrowed his eyes and stared at Felicity, "The niece now is really arrogant. She even doesn't care about her uncle's and cousin's lives. She is really heartless."

"I don't care! A life for a life! Do you want me to go to jail for you?" Felicity gritted his teeth and said.

But this sentence reminded him of a piece of gold.

He patted his head and said, "Yes, cousin, if you don't want to help me, there's another way. I can promise you that I won't let you do anything for me."

Everyone looked at Zhang Jin.

However, Zhang Jin pointed to William and said, "Why don't you let this guy go to jail instead of me?"

"What!" Felicity almost couldn't believe what he had just heard.

"Zhang Jin has made a mistake. Not only does he not repent, but he also needs William to take the blame for him?"

How thick-skinned he was to say such shameless words!

Everyone looked at William, and the Bai family all showed a look of schadenfreude.

How golden he was! He was qualified to be a shit-stirrer.

"But, you made this shit a bit smelly."

Each and every member of the Bai family watched the scene with great interest.

William, the person in question, showed a meaningful smile.

He did not speak immediately, but looked at this clown.

Zhang Ruolong also woke up from his dream and said to Zhang Jin, "Yes! Gold, why are you so smart! What a wonderful idea! This car was originally on the name of this kid. It's reasonable for him to turn himself in. Besides, everyone present is on our side. Only he is an outsider."

How could the Bai family not know what William was capable of?

Each and every one of them was watching the father and son of the Zhang family as if they were watching a play.

Felicity and Yang Shiwen were so angry that they made them speechless.

The more Zhang Ruolong thought about it, the better he thought it was. He immediately took out his mobile phone and said, "This is the least cost-effective way, and it's his bad luck. But he has been living off a woman for so many years. Don't worry, I've been in the prison. He doesn't have to worry about three meals a day. It's just like living outside. It's all a woman living off a woman. He must be able to get used to it. I'll call the police right now."

Felicity suddenly raised his hand and hit Zhang Ruolong's mobile phone to the ground.

The phone fell to the ground, and the screen immediately cracked.

The way she looked at Zhang Ruolong finally became ruthless.

"Hehe, are you going to touch William?"

"You can have a try!"

God knows that I, Felicity, have killed people for William before!

"I've never been afraid of killing anyone again!"

"Felicity! What are you doing? I just bought the phone! You pay for it!" Zhang Ruolong saw the phone leaving cracks on the ground, and his heart ached.

"You don't need to do that for an outsider! I've been wanting to scold you for a long time! You look so good, but how many rich men can't find you? Why do you have to find a woman to live on? I'm doing this to help you make a decision as soon as possible and get rid of this loser!" Zhang Ruolong said angrily.

Her words almost caused Yasmine to laugh out loud as if she was watching a drama.

At that time, the Bai family also thought so. They wanted Felicity to marry Fernando and get rid of William, the good-for-nothing.

And then...

The ghosts of Fernando were probably still wandering in Qena City.

"Poor father and son of the Zhang family, pray for God to bless you."

"William, let's go!" Felicity pulled William's hand and was about to go outside.

On the other hand, looking at Felicity who was so heartless, Zhang Ruolong felt as if something had been knocked over in his heart.

He sneered on the spot.

"Go? Felicity, it's OK for you to go! But I can put the insulting words here. If you leave today, I promise that you will never know your father's news again in your life!"

Chapter 324

Felicity's footsteps stopped on the spot.

She instantly turned around and looked at Zhang Ruolong in disbelief!

Even William dared to believe it a little.

Did Zhang Ruolong know where Felicity's father was?

However, after thinking for a while, William thought that it was really possible.

In his early years, Felicity's father had a good relationship with Zhang Ruolong. It was normal for Zhang Ruolong to know this.

Zhang Rebecca's heart suddenly jumped, and his face became flustered, as if he had done something wrong and was exposed.

When Zhang Ruolong saw Felicity suddenly stop his steps, he suddenly showed a smug smile.

This was Zhang Ruolong's biggest bargaining chip!

However, this bargaining chip was too big. Zhang Ruolong always wanted to wait for a suitable time to ruthlessly slaughter Felicity.

Now, it seemed that she couldn't hide this from him anymore.

If Felicity had left, the gold would have definitely been taken away by the people in uniform.

He was Zhang Ruolong's only son, and he was going to succeed Zhang Ruolong.

He must not go to jail.

Felicity rushed to Zhang Ruolong and shouted, "You know my dad's whereabouts! Tell me now!"

In Felicity's heart, if there was any knot in his heart, he would be her father.

When he left in a hurry, he didn't even say a word.

He just asked her to wait at home.

He had been waiting for this for so many years.

Bai Qianxue's heart, which he had been waiting for, was as miserable as the broken ice in the snow.

Sometimes she even wondered whether her father had already passed away.

So she lied to herself.

However, Felicity and snow made it through in the end.

He had relied on his father, who he trusted since he was young, all the way to the city.

Now, he could finally know the news about his father. How could Felicity not be excited!

However, Zhang Ruolong certainly would not tell Felicity about his father directly. He looked up and said arrogantly, "Aren't you very powerful? Go and find out for yourself! You don't even recognize me as your uncle, do you? Then go."

Felicity was caught between a rock and a hard place.

At this moment, Zhang Jin's phone suddenly rang, the enormous bass cannons appearing especially ear-piercing in the quiet hall.

He picked up the phone, but he only heard it less than a minute later. Then, cold sweat suddenly broke out, and he sat down on the ground.

Zhang Ruolong's heart ached for his son. He immediately went over to hold him and asked with concern, "Golden, what's wrong with you?"

Zhang Jin's arrogant look suddenly disappeared. He said in fear, "The guy I hit just now came to our door."

"He said that he was the head of the Qena City's Hao car club. Today, he was ready to revenge for the 481 brothers in the hospital. He asked me to wash my neck at home."

This sentence made the faces of the people present become stiff.

As soon as he heard the name, he knew that the people in this luxury car club were all rich people.

Rich people usually had means.

To put it bluntly, the father and son of the Zhang family were typical farmers. What right did they have to compete with these rich people?

There was a slim chance that he would survive.

"How on earth did they know your phone number? Do they really have great magical power?" Zhang Ruolong asked gloomily.

Zhang Jin looked annoyed and said, "I met them last night. They saw that my car was good and wanted to invite me to join this luxury car club to play with them. So I filled in one of the entries into the club. There was not only my phone number, but also my address..."

"An address? What address do you have in Qena City?" Zhang Ruolong asked with a frown. "Did you write down the address of our hometown? Aren't you playing a prank on your father?"

But Zhang Jin immediately said, "How could it be possible? Would I be so stupid? At that time, I thought that if we had written down the address of our hometown, we would have been ridiculed as a countryman by those people, so I wrote down the address of the house."

"Damn it!" The Bai family had been watching the show with great interest, but when they heard this, they felt as if they had suffered a heavy blow.

Yasmine felt as if she was about to spit out a mouthful of blood.

This piece of gold was utterly devoid of conscience!

"To do bad things outside, you should leave an address for the Bai family!"

"Isn't this cheating the Bai family?"

After hearing this, Zhang Ruolong was relieved. He patted Zhang Jin's shoulder and said, "Luckily, you are smart. Otherwise, our hometown would be really ruined by others."

When Yasmine heard that, she wanted to hit him.

What's the value of that shabby house in your hometown?

"My old woman is the one who will have an accident, isn't she?"

"Damn it!"

"Do we, the Bai family, have to end this matter on behalf of them, father and son?"

The situation suddenly froze.

At this moment, an indifferent voice suddenly said, "We will help you settle this matter. If you tell the news of her father, what will you do with this business?"

The person who spoke was William, who had been silent for a long time.

Felicity was stunned and asked in a low voice, "William, do you know anyone from this so-called luxury car club?"

William smiled slightly and said in a low voice, "We don't need to know each other in Qena City."

His words made Felicity's heart thump wildly like a deer's heart.

What an arrogant husband!

Zhang Jin looked at his father expectantly and said, "Dad, you have to agree quickly. I don't want to die."

Zhang Ruolong, on the other hand, looked cold. He was weighing the pros and cons in his heart.

He didn't want to talk about such an important chip so easily even if he was beaten to death.

But if he didn't agree now, his son would definitely face a bloody disaster.

He thought for a moment and deliberately said ambiguously, "Okay, as long as you're satisfied with this matter, I'll tell you."

After that, he admired himself in his heart.

If you're satisfied, then I won't make the final decision with just one word.

At that time, as long as he said he was dissatisfied, then he would take the opportunity to blackmail them.

The money came in torrents.

That was it.

Looking at Zhang Ruolong's ever-changing face, William also laughed as if he had seen through Zhang Ruolong's mind.

"Okay, Zhang Jin hit someone. The other party didn't call the police but chose to take revenge, which means that the other party didn't intend to call the police according to law. So he will definitely not be in jail. You can rest assured now." William first said this sentence.

The crowd came to their senses one after another. "Damn!"

He was right.

Sometimes, this kid was really energetic. He suddenly thought of the point that everyone had ignored.

This point was also what worried the father and son of the Zhang family most just now.

"So? If you let my son die, I might as well send him to jail!" Zhang Ruolong's heart trembled, but he deliberately pretended that he didn't buy it and didn't want to be comforted.

At this time, William showed a confident smile. "The Extraordinariness is no longer unreasonable. You have already escaped because of the accident, so there is only one word left for love. Love is easy to solve. I believe in mediocrity and I don't need money to solve it. Zhang Jin, you go to negotiate with those people, and how much money should you pay..."

"I, William, have plenty of money!"

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 325

After William said these words, there was no wave in his heart.

He didn't think too much about it either.

This was an inconsequential matter.

First of all, he had plenty of money now, so he didn't need to compensate for it.

Secondly, if Brother Tigger took action, he would definitely be able to deal with it. However, Brother Tigger was recently in the most crucial period of recovering the underground of Qena City, William did not want to bother him.

So the compensation was the most direct way to solve the problem.

However, he suddenly realized that it was dead silent around him.

Everyone looked at themselves in shock.

What the Bai family thought was that this guy was simply getting more and more arrogant.

How much money did he have?

Millions of dollars?

Was it so easy to be a dog now?

The father and son of the Zhang Clan were also stunned.

"What the f*ck, this guy is really able to make a living by living off a woman!"

Judging from his tone of taking it for granted, it was obvious that he had long since gotten used to spending his wife's money.

Felicity seemed to be a stupid cash cow.

However, Zhang Jin's heart was still fluttering with fear. "Is what you said true? If they hurt me, can you afford it? My life is very precious!"

William smiled and said, "If you don't believe me, you can call him now to show your sincerity."

Zhang Jin also thought that this matter should be dealt with quickly, so he took out the phone and tremblingly called the other side back.

The phone was connected.

He immediately told her that he was willing to make up for the loss and settle the problem with her.

In order to show his sincerity, he even added, "It doesn't matter how much it costs. We can afford it."

Apparently, the other side was stunned.

However, a few seconds later, the person on the other end of the line said, "Okay, since you are so sincere, then I will go and find you later. However, if you dare to lie to me, hehe..."

"I don't dare! I wouldn't do it even if I were beaten to death." In front of the Bai family, Zhang Jin was arrogant, but in front of these rich people, he was as cowardly as a dog.

He hung up the phone.

Zhang Jin's face was suddenly filled with joy, and he shouted, "It's really good. Dad, I finally don't have to die."

William chuckled and pulled the snow and walked outside. "Tell me the price you have reached out to me."

Outside the room, Felicity was simply curious. "William, how do you know that the other side will definitely agree? What you said is very reasonable. Do you think you can fool your smart wife by tricking them?"

William was speechless as she looked at this smart wife.

Dear, dear, if you're smart enough, you'll be able to figure it out on your own.

"Didn't Zhang Jin just say that they bumped into each other in the racing process? Drag Racing itself is against the law, so the other party will never call the police. And they fiercely looked for Zhang Jin for the sake of regaining face. Do you believe that they would really kill people because of this little thing? It's a common thing for them to get into a car accident. So, it's the best choice to settle things with money." William said.

Felicity's eyes were glistening as soon as he thought about it.

"Ah, that makes sense."

Why didn't he think of that?

Why did his first thought was that the other party was really going to kill him?

"No, why don't I care about killing people who are angered by heaven and people?"

Damn it, William, I've been completely led astray by you.

At this time, the Bai family also fell out with each other.

Yasmine rushed to Zhang Ruolong and said fiercely, "You fucking don't allow the other party to come to my house! You have to negotiate in another place! Don't make trouble for me!"

Yasmine was afraid of getting into trouble.

Zhang Jin was shocked by her.

Yasmine thought for a moment and said, "Since William is going to take care of this matter, you can let the other party go to William's place to get money! Don't come to me! Anyway, Felicity has money and power. He is not afraid of rich people."

Zhang Ruolong thought for a moment and said to Zhang Jin, "Let's take the initiative to negotiate with the other party. When we get the money, we will take it directly to the bastard's house. We will block him at his door. He won't dare to fool us."

Zhang Jin nodded all of a sudden. "What a good move to block the door!"

After they left the Bai family, Zhang Jin first made an appointment with the other party in a coffee shop with more people.

Then, Zhang Ruolong was a little absent-minded along the way.

Zhang Jin asked, "Dad, what are you thinking?"

At this time, Zhang Ruolong showed a sly smile. "Hey hey, I'm wondering if we can get any benefits from this matter?"

Zhang Jin was stunned. "It's good that we are not dead. Do you still want to get profit?"

"Look at you! Look at you! What a coward! Do you look like a man? As the saying goes, money comes from danger. This is an opportunity to make a fortune." Obviously, Zhang Ruolong had thought it over.

"I'll teach you a few moves. Think about it. Isn't that William very good at showing off? No matter how much it costs, he will bear it all. It's going to be a big deal!"

"At that time, no matter how much the other party wants, we will agree. We can even help the other party raise the price to please the other party. Then when the other party is satisfied, we will discuss some small details with the other party."

"What details?" Zhang Jin's face was full of confusion.

Zhang Ruolong couldn't help patting Zhang Jin's head. "You are a pig! Forget it. Let me give you an example. For example, if the opposite party finally wants half a million yuan as compensation, we will go back and tell William that idiot to ask for one million yuan. If the other party is not at ease to come with us to get the money, we will discuss it in advance. He said that he will pay 1.5 million yuan. At that time, the other party offers one million yuan, and we will pay half a million yuan. Both sides make money, and the other party will definitely agree. Moreover, he can also mercilessly kill that idiot. I have seen him unhappy for a long time."

Hearing this, Zhang Jin was so excited that he couldn't help laughing. He said, "Dad, you are so awesome! You can even think of this trick."

The two of them hit it off in a flash and immediately went to find the group of people from the luxury car club with great confidence.

The two of them arrived at the cafe. Because it was in the morning, there was no one else.

They saw two people standing at the door. When they saw Zhang Jin, they immediately stretched out their fingers and said, "That's him."

The father and son of the Zhang family were not afraid of this dirty trick, so they followed the two people into the coffee shop.

In the cafe, there were seven or eight people sitting around a bar counter, smoking. The smoke was lingering.

Meanwhile, he was sitting alone on the innermost sofa. The light was dim, and he was smoking a cigar with a red light in his mouth.

The environment, the light, and the appearance were exactly the same as the boss of the villains in the movies.

When the two were brought to the front of the boss, someone immediately shouted at them, "Why don't you give a bow to our boss and say hello? Who knows where this country come from, you can actually afford to drive Lamborghini. I doubt if you stole the car!"

Zhang Ruolong immediately greeted the boss respectfully.

The eldest brother slowly walked out from the darkness, revealing his appearance.

It was the North Wind Fund, Baxter!

Chapter 326

Baxter had always been the leader of the Qena City Hotel. He led a group of rich second generations to eat and drink every day, and they had a very leisurely life.

He did not participate in the drag racing activity with Zhang Jin that night.

But when he heard that his brother had been hit and the other side had run away, he was furious.

If word of this got out, what prestige would this club have in the future?

So he decided to use this opportunity to punish the chicken as a warning to everyone that the luxury car club was not easy to be trifled with.

This was also the first time he had seen the father and son of the Zhang family.

He couldn't help but laugh as he looked at the two people in front of him, who were cowering and full of earthly air.

They were really two bumpkins. How could such a person afford to drive a Lamborghini?

"Sit down, what do you want to drink?" Baxter elegantly sat opposite them and asked.

"Well, the juice is fine," Zhang Ruolong said in a trembling voice.

Baxter sneered and said to his men, "Give them fruit juice."

Baxter looked at the two of them with great interest, but the juice in front didn't move.

This kind of person actually dared to cause an accident and escape? This was really strange.

"Speak, how do you plan to compensate for this matter?" Baxter broke the silence and asked.

Zhang Ruolong swallowed and said, "We're willing to compensate you. How much money do you think is suitable?"

Of course, Baxter would not bid first. He threw the question to the other party and asked, "How much can you pay?"

Zhang Ruolong thought for a moment and gave a high price that he thought was very high. "One million, how is it?"

However, what he got in return was Baxter's laughter.

Zhang Ruolong's face turned stiff from the laughter.

"It's a million yuan!"

One million was already a sky-high price for Zhang Ruolong and his son.

However —

"One million, are you going to send beggars away? My brother's family's wealth is tens of millions, and he is the only son of the family. If you hit him and his life is still uncertain, you can take out one million. Are you looking down on my brother or me?" At the end of his sentence, Baxter slammed the table.

Zhang Ruolong was so shocked that he almost fell to the ground.

They were not at the same level as these rich second generations at all. One million yuan was a sky-high price for them, but for the rich second generations, it was not even enough to gnaw their teeth.

"So, how much did you say?" Zhang Ruolong asked with a trembling voice.

"Three million yuan. If you don't pay a penny, you won't be able to get out of today's cafe," Baxter said.

Zhang Ruolong's head thundered!

So expensive!

However, looking at the people around him who were quite aggressive, he plucked up his courage to accept the challenge.

Anyway, that idiot had said that he would bear all the expenses.

Baxter didn't expect that these two bumpkins would agree at once, which made him more interested in the father and son of the Zhang family.

"All right. I'll leave after I pay the money." Baxter took a puff of the cigar and puffed out a thick white smoke.

How could Zhang Ruolong have money? He immediately said, "Well, we don't have money at the moment, but my niece and niece's husband promised to pay for us. My niece is Qena City..."

"I don't care who your niece is! Are you f**king tricking me?" Baxter's face was suddenly full of impatience.

His subordinate slapped directly on Zhang Ruolong's face, which made half of Zhang Ruolong's face swollen.

Zhang Ruolong didn't dare to resist and quickly explained, "Elder brother, my niece is very rich. I can take you to her house to get money now, so you can believe it, can't you? A monk can't run away from a temple."

Baxter frowned. He believed that Zhang Ruolong did not dare to lie in front of him.

"All right, I'll go with you. If you don't get the money, you'll die!" Baxter got up and was ready to go with Zhang Ruolong.

But at this time, Zhang Ruolong's little thoughts came up. He quickly grabbed Baxter and said with a smirk, "Brother, before going, can I talk to you about something?"

Baxter patted his hand in disgust and kicked him. "If you have something to say, just say it and say it!"

Zhang Ruolong immediately said, "Brother, my niece has a lot of stupid money. When we arrive at her house, can you say that I want to compensate you four million yuan?"

Baxter raised his eyebrows. He looked at Zhang Ruolong, who looked treacherous, and suddenly burst out laughing.

Baxter was an ignoble man. He understood Zhang Ruolong's meaning in an instant.

"What's wrong? Want to cheat your niece? Ha-ha, I really don't know how you became her uncle. She pays the money for you, but you still want to cheat her? Are you still a human?" Baxter said teasingly.

Seeing Baxter's reaction, Zhang Ruolong figured it out and said, "Hey, brother, my niece and my nephew-in-law are fools. They don't take it for nothing. Of course, I won't let you come here in vain. At that time, you can take 3.5 million and leave us some pocket money."

Baxter was a businessman. This kind of good deed was naturally worth it. However, he was quite displeased to see the little man in front of him.

He said with a smile, "Okay, but you have to give me a deposit first, don't you?"

Zhang Ruolong immediately nodded and said, "I know the rule. Well, I happen to have two hundred thousand yuan. I can give it to you first. Give me your account number and I'll transfer it to you right away."

These two hundred thousand yuan were all earned by Zhang Jin and Yasmine just now.

Baxter gave him a look and his men immediately reported a string of cards to Zhang Ruolong.

Zhang Jin was a little hesitant at the side. He took Zhang Ruolong's hand and whispered, "Dad, do you really want to give him 200,000 yuan first? In case this matter is not done, we don't even have 200,000 yuan."

Zhang Ruolong said to Zhang Jin unhappily, "Have you forgotten all the things I taught you before? Rich comes from danger! These are all young masters who care about face. I'll share it with him first to protect their face. As long as they are happy, things will naturally be smooth."

After that, he immediately took out two hundred thousand yuan and gave it to Baxter.

Baxter nodded and went out to drive. Under the guidance of Zhang Ruolong, a group of people went to William's house.

Baxter had never been to the Lu Family, so he naturally did not know that this was his big brother's home.

Baxter's gang was parking the car. The father and son of the Zhang family got off first and knocked on the door.

"Open the door, my niece! It's me. I've brought people from the luxury car club here. Prepare the money." Zhang Ruolong shouted as he knocked hard on the door.

The door opened. It was William. He was wearing an apron and preparing for lunch.

When Zhang Ruolong saw William like this, he couldn't help but laugh. He said to Zhang Jin, who was next to him, "Son, I'll teach you another lesson. A man is always upright. Don't be like this coward in front of you, doing laundry and cooking. Don't behave like a man, understand?"

Zhang Jin nodded immediately.

At this time, Baxter and others came up from behind.

When he saw that the person in front of him turned out to be William, his eyes lit up and his whole person became excited!
