

Dragon King 471

Chapter 471: Swimsuit Battle! (1.3 for 1 Chapter)

“La, la, la... la, la, la...” Zhao Yanzi sat in Zhao Hongyu’s SUV and hummed joyously.

She still clearly remembered the expression on Luo Ying’s face when she left their home last night. Thinking of this, Zhao Yanzi couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

She was initially worried that Zhao Guang would punish her, but she didn’t expect Zhao Guang to send away Luo Ying and not scold her at all.

Zhao Guang just asked her to pay attention to safety when they were out today.

She successfully passed as top three in her class, so Zhao Hongyu promised to take her to the seaside to play. Of course, this beach was certainly not beside East Ocean City; they were going to take their private yacht to go somewhere further.

The black SUV drove along the coastline, and the clean body shined with a glowing light. It flowed smoothly into the neighborhood on the seaside and to the door of Hao Ren’s house.

“Hongyu!”

Seeing a big black car appearing outside the door, Yue Yang who was in a casual t-shirt came out to welcome the guests.

“Yue Yang!” Zhao Hongyu rolled down the window and waved. “Are the kids all ready?”

“They’re all up and having breakfast.” Yue Yang walked over to the car and said with a smile.

Hao Ren was not young, but Yue Yang still didn’t look old, especially with her elegant temperament. It made her comparable to Zhao Hongyu. When they were together, they looked like sisters.

“Morning, Auntie!” Zhao Yanzi who was in a good mood put her head out and greeted crisply.

“Good girl.” Yue Yang reached into the car and rubbed Zhao Yanzi’s face.

Yue Yang was particularly fond of this little daughter-in-law, even more so than Zhao Hongyu.

Zhao Yanzi stuck out her tongue and sat back.

“Mr. Hao is not going?” Zhao Hongyu asked.

“He...” Yue Yang seemed helpless. “He is sulking with me. But he has been really busy recently. Yesterday, I helped him sort out the quarterly summary and stayed up until midnight writing it.”

Zhao Hongyu smiled and said, “Same for our family, saying that he is busy with work, so he can’t go.”

She knew that Yue Yang and Hao Zhonghua were fighting recently, and the focus of this conflict laid between Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi. They were fighting over who was more suitable for Hao Ren.

“It’s fine that they don’t come; we two will have good conversations,” Yue Yang said with a smile.

“Yes! Let them go!” Zhao Hongyu said as well; she was a little upset about Zhao Guang too.

Men were always busy with their careers, and they didn’t care as much about their families.

In this regard, Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu were still very similar.

“Ren, Yujia, are you ready?” Yue Yang turned her head and shouted to the house.

“Coming...”

Hao Ren, Xie Yujia, Lu Linlin, and Lu Lili answered in unison and ran out of the house.

They were all dressed in very relaxed and casual wear, and the girls more beautiful than the other.

A few days ago, Zhao Hongyu changed to a new car, jumping from a five-seat SUV to the seven-seat SUV. It was larger and more spacious.

The main reason was that during this time when she drove the studio staff to inspect the construction project, the big car could fit in a few more people.

Since they were going out to play today, this big car fit in all the kids

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili brought a travel bag which contained swim rings and swimsuits, and they put it in the trunk of the car.

Then, they each took one of Hao Ren’s arms and sat in the last row of the car.

Hao Zhonghua was going to complete the quarterly report for the Ocean Research Institute soon, and then he would take Hao Ren to the U.S. to see his old friends, Xie Yujia’s mom and dad.

Yue Yang wanted Hao Ren and Zhao Yanzi to go on a holiday, and Hao Zhonghua wanted Hao Ren to spend the summer vacation in the U.S. The two of them argued and wouldn’t participate in each other’s activities.

However, in the end, Zhao Hongyu was softer and more tolerant. She was taking Xie Yujia and the Lu sisters out to play together, and then she would bring them to the U.S.

Zhao Hongyu’s maternal aura not only shined on Zhao Yanzi but also on Xie Yujia and the other girls around Hao Ren.

The black SUV drove toward the dock a few kilometers away.

Just half an hour later, a red Ferrari came to the door of Hao Ren’s home.

“Ding dong... Ding dong...” Su Han who was wearing a black and white business suit pressed on the doorbell.

She wore a black short skirt and a white shirt today because she went to the staff meeting at East Ocean University. In this typical office lady attire, who knew how many male teachers’ attention she had attracted, not to mention the beautiful legs in stockings under her skirt and her very full chest that forced her to unbutton the two upmost buttons of the shirt.

Unfortunately, Hao Ren couldn’t see Su Han in this black and white business suit.

In this outfit, if she bent her back a little, Hao Ren would have a nosebleed.

“Hey, Han!” Grandma carried a big bag and walked out of the house.

She knew that Su Han was driving her to the countryside today. So, once she sent Hao Ren and the girls out of the door, she sat in the living room, waiting for Su Han.

“Grandma.” Su Han smiled.

She was two to three years older than Xie Yujia, so she looked more mature and elegant.

Grandma stood at the door and looked at Su Han who was in the red Ferrari, and she liked her heartily...

“Hoho... Han is really beautiful today.” Grandma pulled out a big pair of sunglasses from her pocket, put it on, and sat in the red Ferrari confidently.

Who said that Grandma wasn't fashionable...

Su Han started the Ferrari, drove out of the seaside community smoothly, and then entered the highway.

This smooth process made Grandma soon fell asleep in her sunglasses...

A red energy sphere slowly surrounded the red Ferrari, and the car was gradually lifted from the road, flying to the sky.

Upon a closer look, there was a white longsword at the bottom of the red Ferrari.

Such an overbearing act of carrying a Ferrari in the sky could only be done by an inspector like Su Han.

The Ferrari moved in a straight line, crossing the mountains and rivers and dashing in the direction of the rural area of Zhejiang that Grandma mentioned.

At this time, Zhao Hongyu took everyone to the dock.

This dock was not the terminal of freight ships; it was the dock near the tourist district.

Attached to the poles on the shore, there were some speedboats for tourists to take. The owners greeted tourists with enthusiasm.

Now entering summer, the beaches of the East Ocean were welcoming the peak season of tourism. Young men and women in swimsuits could be seen everywhere.

Hao Ren's group, who all wore short-sleeved casual clothes became the odd ones out on the beach.

“Hey, beauty! Speedboat, 80 yuan an hour!”

“Over here! My boat is newer than his! Also 80 yuan an hour!”

“The seven of you is enough to pack my boat! My boat is the largest! 120 yuan an hour! You sit together! 200 for two hours! Big boat, come on!”

“My boat is the fastest, sit on mine!”

Seeing Hao Ren and his group coming to the dock, the owners who were sitting in the speedboats shouted.

Since Hao Ren and others were not wearing swimsuits, they were not going to play in the water. Also, they were all dressed very beautifully, showing others that they were well-off.

As the group walked over, the competition between these owners of the speedboats was even more intense.

Boom! Boom!

At this moment, a white yacht not far from the dock broke through the waves and floated to the shore, precisely docking on the side of the board that extends out of the dock.

Elder Sun who was in a brown Tang suit stood on the deck in front of the yacht and waved.

The owners of the speedboats who wanted to do business with Hao Ren were all dumbfounded.

There were some speedboats here to attract passengers, but the people here had never seen a private yacht docking here!

Whoosh! Six black-suited men jumped out of the deck of the yacht and stood on either side of the dock.

Even though the speedboat owners had seen all kinds of characters while doing business, they had never seen this kind of arrangement and hurriedly jumped back to their speedboats.

In fact, they had to. The black-suited men left no space for them on the dock anyways.

“Old Sun, why call over so many people?” Zhao Hongyu frowned, looking somewhat dissatisfied.

Elder Sun cupped his hands in front of his chest and smiled. “These are the elites of Sun Yun Martial Arts Dojo, ensuring the safety of the two ladies.”

Visitors at the beach all saw the super luxurious yacht and the black-suited men, and they all turned their eyes to them.

“There is no need to make a big scene. You stay, let everyone else go,” Zhao Hongyu said.

Her words were calm but emanated a majestic sensation.

Elder Sun looked to the left, then to the right. “All of you, go back!”

The six black-suited men cupped their hands and walked to the beach.

On the hot seaside, their black suits immediately caught the attention of many tourists.

Zhao Hongyu put away the majesty, smiled at Yue Yang, and said, “This is the founder of Sun Yun Martial Arts Dojo, Mr. Sun Yun. This yacht is also borrowed from him.”

“Hello.” Yue Yang reached out her hand.

“Hello, Mrs. Hao.” Elder Sun didn’t dare to shake hands and just cupped his hands. Then, he turned to make way and humbly put out his right hand. “Two ladies, please board the yacht.”

Yue Yang smiled softly, took Zhao Hongyu's arm, and stepped onto the deck of the yacht.

Yue Yang knew that this Mr. Sun Yun, who opened the chains of martial arts dojo all over the country, was a rich person.

However, from all aspects, she felt like he was obeying Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu, which made her speculate that the Mingri Group was behind the scenes of the Sun Yun Martial Arts Dojo.

Zhao Yanzi cheered and jumped on the deck of the yacht. Zhao Hongyu told Yue Yang that this yacht was Elder Sun's, but Zhao Yanzi knew very clearly that this yacht belonged to the Mingri Group.

Normally, Elder Sun was in charge of it.

Zhao Hongyu was afraid that Zhao Yanzi would get too proud, so she rarely took this yacht out.

This time, it was summer vacation, and Zhao Yanzi's performance at school was excellent, so Zhao Hongyu was willing to bring it out.

"Be careful!" Hao Ren grabbed Xie Yujia's smooth arm.

"En..." Xie Yujia nodded softly, holding Hao Ren's palm and carefully moving over to the yacht. Her parents opened factories in the U.S. Thus, she wasn't from a poor family. However, things like yachts were the toys of the super-rich.

"Haha, this is fun!" Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were not afraid at all, holding hands and jumping onto the deck playfully.

Ever since they came out of the East Ocean Dragon Palace, they had never gone on a boat, especially this very modern and luxurious yacht which was like a small house.

"Now that the ladies are sitting still, I'm going to sail now," Elder Sun said heartily.

"Thank you, Mr. Sun!" Yue Yang said.

She and Hao Zhonghua often went abroad, and she had taken all kinds of yachts of some foreign rich friends. Therefore, she could immediately tell that this 20-meter-long, medium-sized yacht was not cheap.

However, since Zhao Hongyu said that the yacht was Mr. Sun's, Yue Yang believed it. The fact that Zhao Hongyu could borrow this yacht was already quite remarkable.

In East Ocean City, the number of private yachts wasn't more than three.

Thinking of this, Yue Yang suddenly had some concerns...

"The wealth of Zhao Yanzi's family is far better than ours. Now that Zi is going to become our daughter-in-law... Is it right or wrong? Is it that... Is Xie Yujia more suitable for Hao Ren? Our families' situations are similar..." Yue Yang thought to herself.

"Yue Yang." Zhao Hongyu pointed to the large ocean in front. "In 50 kilometers ahead of us, there is a small island called Coral Island. It is a tourist attraction jointly developed by the Mingri Group and the municipality. It has just been created this year and is not open to public yet."

“That must be very beautiful.” Yue Yang smiled.

The yacht banged and made a massive white wave, rushing toward the east.

“Damn, they’re too rich!” The owners of the speedboats couldn’t help but shout as the wave swayed their boats.

Zhao Hongyu stood on the deck and looked at the expansive ocean, letting the ocean breeze blow over her beautiful face.

In fact, not only the Coral Island 50 kilometers away but also thousands of kilometers extending eastward was the territory of the East Ocean Dragon Clan.

All the treasures on and under the sea belonged to the East Ocean Dragon Palace!

No matter how much modern science and technology improved, it just took away a small amount of wealth from the ocean.

The East Ocean Dragon Clan was as wealthy as a country, and it was no joke. Zhao Yanzi looked fierce on the outside, but compared with her family background, she was already really low-key.

Zhao Hongyu was silent as she thought, “It is almost time to let Hao Ren, the Fuma and the Commanding General of East Ocean, to see how wide his territory is.”

Chapter 472: Being Surrounded by Swimsuits!

Zhao Yanzi couldn’t stand the sun outside, so she blocked her forehead with her hand and went into the glass cabin of the yacht.

The cabin was covered with high-quality red rugs and had teak bulkheads, several antique paintings, and a wooden table with a set of teacups.

Every item could be described using one word – luxurious!

Since Zhao Hongyu and Zhao Guang were very strict with Zhao Yanzi’s discipline, Zhao Yanzi could never show off his family’s wealth at school, and she couldn’t mention that her family owned a private yacht.

However, a young girl like her still liked to show off. So, when Xie Yujia went on her family’s yacht, she was still a little proud.

In fact, before she knew Hao Ren, Zhao Guang and Zhao Hongyu would let Elder Sun drive the yacht and bring Zhao Yanzi to the island to play every summer. In the past, Premier Xia, Elder Xingyue, and Zhao Kuo often accompanied the dragon king’s family for the trips.

Although it sounded like playing, it was a patrol of the territory of the East Ocean Dragon Clan. The East Ocean Dragon Clan controlled hundreds of islands. Even on the mortal level, there were more than a dozen islands directly owned by the Mingri Group.

From the perspective of the East Ocean Dragon Palace, all the islands on East Ocean were controlled by the East Ocean Dragon Clan. From the standpoint of the Mingri Group, there were more than a dozen private islands owned by Zhao Kuo's family.

"Gongzi, let's make some tea!" Lu Linlin, who was wearing a fancy blue shirt and a miniskirt, took the initiative to walk in front of the elegant wooden table and picked up the teapot and tea leaves.

Lu Lili, who wore the same clothes as Lu Linlin, was dragged by the enthusiastic Lu Linlin to the table.

When it came to making tea, they were masters. It was only because Hao Ren's family did not have good tea sets, so they have never had the opportunity to perform their skills.

They picked up the teapot and the teacup skillfully and moved them in a dazzling way.

The Lu sisters were fresh and natural, just like two vibrant jasmine flowers. As they performed tea art, their four white arms were like butterflies that were flying, and they were smiling happily, which was pleasing to the eye.

Xie Yujia smiled happily and sat next to Hao Ren.

In the past, she thought the Lu sisters were very willful and didn't like them very much. But gradually as they interacted more, she thought that the two of them were very cute.

Zhao Yanzi opened her big eyes and didn't expect so much art in making tea. When she used to come on the yacht, Premier Xia also made tea, but it was nowhere near as eye-pleasing as Lu Linlin and Lu Lili's skill.

"Gongzi, please drink tea!" Lu Linlin and Lu Lili held two cups of tea at the same time and sent them to Hao Ren.

The tea was light golden, and the strong aroma was coming from the cup.

Hao Ren took over the small porcelain cup from Lu Lili's soft hands and tasted it.

Suddenly, the fragrance spread from the tip of his tongue to his throat, and it was inexplicably moist.

Lu Lili smiled shyly while Lu Linlin pouted in disappointment.

It turned out that Hao Ren took Lu Lili's teacup, meaning that Lu Linlin lost to Lu Lili.

Seeing their vivid expressions, Hao Ren smiled.

In fact, he could hardly tell who the elder sister was and who the younger sister was. In the past, Lu Linlin had a single ponytail, and Lu Lili had two pigtailed. Today they hurried out of the door, so they simply put their hair down. They both looked the same, beautiful and lively.

"Big Zhumu, Little Zhumu, please drink some tea." Lu Linlin and Lu Lili then brought teacups to Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi.

Zhao Yanzi pouted and muttered, "Who is the Little Zhumu..."

However, when she tasted the tea that the Lu sisters made, she immediately shut her mouth.

It was too fragrant... Premier Xia's tea was incomparable!

She closed her mouth tightly and savored the thick aroma and faint sweetness between the lips and teeth.

It was also Xie Yujia's first time tasting such good tea. While she was surprised, she was also happy.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili saw the three of them immersed in the tea and grinned victoriously.

Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu, who were standing on the deck in the ocean breeze, turned and saw them drinking tea in the glass cabin. They smiled at each other and walked into the cabin together.

"Mom! You have to drink this tea; it's very good!" Zhao Yanzi yelled at Zhao Hongyu.

Zhao Hongyu smiled lightly as Lu Linlin and Lu Lili immediately brought over two small porcelain cups to her and Yue Yang.

Zhao Hongyu stuck up her little finger elegantly, picked up the teacup, and took a small sip of tea.

"It's great," Zhao Hongyu said with amazement.

Hao Ren looked at her and thought that if Zhao Yanzi could learn half the elegance of her mom, it would be fantastic.

Yue Yang also took a small sip. This tea was the best she ever tasted, and she couldn't help but look at Lu Linlin and Lu Lili differently, thinking that these two girls were not so simple.

Xie Yujia paid attention to Yue Yang's movements and looks and thought, "If I can have half of the temperament as Hao Ren's mom, how wonderful it would be."

The white yacht, riding on the waves and breaking wind, traveled on the sea at a speed of about 50 kilometers per hour.

At this rate, they could reach Coral Island in an hour.

With the beautiful weather, the view and the scene on the ocean were even more spectacular.

Yue Yang had been busy with work and rarely rested. Now, she could finally relax.

"It's a bit hot!"

Zhao Yanzi could no longer see the coast from here and immediately turned to the bottom cabin.

In this medium-sized luxury yacht, the cabin above the first floor was the lounge. People could watch TV, drink tea, and chat. A floor below were the bedrooms, bathrooms, and conference rooms.

Zhao Yanzi went to the bedroom. She was impatient and went to the bedroom to change clothes.

Zhao Hongyu and Yue Yang continued to drink tea and chat, Hao Ren looked fascinated by the ocean outside the cabin, and Lu Linlin and Lu Lili surrounded Xie Yujia for some girl talk. It was clear that the Lu sisters wanted to seize the opportunity to improve relations with Xie Yujia. After all, Xie Yujia was the Big Zhumu.

Tatata... The sound of footsteps appeared.

Zhao Yanzi, who wore a shoulder-strap swimsuit with a Winnie the Pooh on it, appeared in the cabin on the first floor. She was petite, and her silky black hair covered her round shoulders; she looked very cute.

The swimsuit also had some small folds like a skirt around her butt, adding to her overall cuteness.

However, the petite body did not mean that she still looked like a little girl. She had the kind of curve that was close to maturity, so Hao Ren could not help but take a few more looks.

“Oh, Zi is very beautiful,” Yue Yang praised.

“Auntie...” Zhao Yanzi ran to Yue Yang’s arms shyly, hiding her round chest.

“Haha, let’s change clothes too!” Lu Linlin pulled up Lu Lili, grabbed the black bag in the cabin, and entered the bedroom.

Knowing that they would go to the beach the next day, they especially went to the city to buy swimsuits. When they saw Zhao Yanzi wearing a beautiful swimsuit, they couldn’t wait to show theirs.

Hao Ren sipped the tea in the small porcelain cup and could hardly conceal his expectation.

After almost two minutes, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili, both holding hands, walked up the stairs.

One of them had a long ponytail, and the other had two pigtails. Under the beautiful faces were the thin shoulders and the s*xxy collarbones.

As they walked up, the full chests, slender arms, and smooth flat bellies were also revealed.

Their swimsuits were three-point bikinis. The fabric was tight on their skin and made them very s*xxy, and there were two lively octopus patterns on the chest.

“Oh...” Seeing the octopuses on their chests, Hao Ren hurriedly picked up the emptied teacup and pretended to drink to cover up his embarrassment.

As they swayed and walked up further, the Lu sisters’ exquisite slender waists and beautiful long legs were exposed in front of Hao Ren.

Lu Lili with the two pigtails was somewhat shy. But except for Hao Ren, who was a man, the other people in the room were all women, which finally ebbed her shyness a little.

As they walked around, their hair swayed behind them, creating a special temptation.

Zhao Yanzi looked at Lu Linlin and Lu Lili and then looked down at her one-piece swimsuit. She suddenly felt defeated.

“Hehe, Yujia still has not changed into her swimsuit?” Zhao Hongyu looked at Lu Linlin and Lu Lili and then turned to Xie Yujia.

She treated the girls as her own daughters, so she was happy to see the Lu sisters being so beautiful.

“Oh, oh...” Xie Yujia shrank her shoulders and stood up. She was a little too embarrassed to think about changing into her swimsuit.

Although when she was a child, she often followed Hao Ren in a small shirt and little underwear, now she was 18 years old.

She bent down and went to the bedroom, and Hao Ren quickly filled himself with tea and put his gaze to the ocean outside. He couldn't appear to be looking forward to it too much.

Not knowing if three minutes or five minutes had passed, Xie Yujia came back up.

Hao Ren turned his head and saw Xie Yujia wearing a black two-piece swimsuit. The difference between this swimsuit and the three-point bikini was that the bottom piece was not a triangle but at a flat angle. However, since Xie Yujia's swimsuit was of a dynamic stretch fabric, her body stretched it out and showed perfect curves, even more so than Lu Linlin and Lu Lili's.

Due to nervousness, her face was pink, and her two shiny eyes did not know where to look.

"Hehe, Yujia has a really nice figure," Zhao Hongyu said.

Indeed, among the four girls, Xie Yujia's body displayed the most feminine soft beauty. Zhao Yanzi's was cute, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were s*xy, and Xie Yujia's was beautiful.

"Auntie, you are overpraising me." Xie Yujia walked over with a red face and sat in the chair next to Zhao Hongyu. She put two thin arms on her thighs and blocked her chest. She did not know that this only made her figure more beautiful.

"Humph, humph, humph!" Zhao Yanzi snorted three times, regretting that she didn't want to give Hao Ren too much to look at and didn't buy a three-point style bikini.

However, she never thought that she would lose in the swimsuit battle.

"We're arriving soon. Ren, aren't you changing into your swimming trunks?" Zhao Hongyu asked.

"This..." Hao Ren saw the eyes of the six females looking at himself and immediately felt very stressful.

"I... will go and change." Hao Ren stood up; his legs were slightly trembling.

Having just admired Xie Yujia's swimsuits, now he had to accept their judging gazes.

He entered the bedroom that had its door still open, and he saw his swimming trunks in the black bag at the door.

Outside the porthole were constantly oscillating waves. In fact, this bedroom was at the bottom of the boat.

The sun shined on the waves and came in through the portholes. It was a beautiful scene.

On the soft bed, Hao Ren saw the undergarments the girls had just taken off. These clothes, which were touching the body, were randomly spread out on the bed, and there was a mysterious feeling in combination with the sunlight and waves.

"Cough...cough..."

Although no one was around, Hao Ren coughed twice in embarrassment. Then, he sat down on the edge of the bed and took off his clothes.

He hurriedly put on his dark blue swimming trunks and then quickly left the room that still had the girls' bodily fragrance. If he stayed for too long, what would the girls think?

Stepping on the stairs, he went back to the cabin, only to see Zhao Hongyu and the girls staring at him as if they were holding a trial. They sat in a circle along the plastic-steel glass of the cabin, staring at Hao Ren who just came out from the bottom compartment.

Hao Ren had a feeling of being surrounded.

He bought the swim trunks when he took a swimming class at the university a year ago. It seemed to be a bit small to wear now.

At that time, he and Zhou Liren took a swimming class together. Zhou Liren specially bought two of the tightest triangle swim trunks, which they tried to use to attract girls...

However, they didn't expect that the male students and female students took separated classes...

In this tight swimming trunks, Hao Ren felt a bit awkward. He didn't know to stand or to sit.

He did not expect that in just a year, the swimming trunks became even tighter than before. It felt like it strained him a little and that they would immediately tear open...

"Ren is also very s*xy," Zhao Hongyu looked at Hao Ren and said with a smile.

"This... this..." Hao Ren scratched his head and opened the glass door to stand outside in a hurry.

Zhao Yanzi, Xie Yujia, the Lu sisters, and Yue Yang all followed Hao Ren's strong back with their eyes.

"Hao Ren's body... is not worse than those fitness coaches... especially his strong thighs and the elastic hips..." Yue Yang suddenly became a little proud of her son.

Splash... Hao Ren couldn't bear their burning gaze. He stretched his hands and leaped into the ocean.

Chapter 473: Most Shameless... Little White!

"Ren!" Yue Yang rushed to the deck when she saw Hao Ren jumping into the sea.

She saw Hao Ren splashing waves by the yacht and swimming in the water with agile movements as if he were a dragon in shallow waters.

"This kid..." Yue Yang was relieved. She didn't expect Hao Ren's swimming skills to improve by so much.

"Haha!"

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili let out a series of joyful laughter, and they plunged into the sea in a graceful angle like two white dolphins.

They waved their beautiful limbs.

In no time, they were by Hao Ren side, one on the left and the other on the right. They were like two beautiful mermaids swimming by the dragon.

Sun Elder was stirring the yacht. He quickly slowed it down when he saw Hao Ren and the Lu sisters in the water.

The boat idled on the sea.

"I didn't think that Lu Linlin and Lu Lili could swim so well." Yue Yang smiled as she grabbed the railing.

Hao Ren paddled deeper into the sea, and Lu Linlin and Lu Lili dived down after Hao Ren.

Xie Yujia looked at Hao Ren enviously. She couldn't swim as well as Hao Ren, so she didn't dare to jump recklessly into this endless sea.

Zhao Yanzi could swim quite well but was not as crazy as Lu Linlin and Lu Lili. She didn't follow Hao Ren because she believed that girls should hold back a bit more.

Half a minute later, Hao Ren popped his head out of the water.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili laughed joyfully behind Hao Ren, swimming even swifter than him.

There was a beautiful spot called Sky Lake where they used to live. They would often go bathe or play around in the water there, so this type of calm sea was no problem for them.

Hao Ren swam around the floating yacht and climbed up at a corner.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were all wet when they returned to the deck, and they helped each other to wipe off the water on their cheeks as water fell from their hair.

With the bright sunlight, they looked even prettier.

Yue Yang couldn't help admitting to herself that these twins were beautiful.

Vroom... Elder Sun had restarted the yacht's engine.

Hao Ren went up to the top floor of the yacht. He opened a folding chair and lied down comfortably.

He jumped into the sea to wet his swim trunks so that it wouldn't be uncomfortably tight. Now after the short swim, he returned to the boat to enjoy the sun in comfort.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili lied on the folding chairs beside Hao Ren, trying to keep him for themselves. They were sitting under the umbrella and crossed their long legs.

When they smiled, their eyes curved like a half moon.

Hao Ren didn't know whether he should be happy or unhappy with the two sisters following him around so closely...

It would take another half hour to reach Coral Island, so Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi also found chairs to lie down in. Their bodies were used to this temperature now, and they enjoyed their sunbaths.

If anyone drove passed this yacht and saw Hao Ren in between the four beautiful on the top deck, they would probably shout out, "Shameless!"

A green island gradually appeared before their eyes.

The white rocks on the edges of the island had little holes in them since the waves washed them for years.

Also, most of the trees were over 100-year-old. The tree roots wrapped around the rocks, and the tree branches hung over the sea.

From afar, it looked as if these trees were making the island float in mid-air.

Not far ahead was a pier with a three-leveled white cruise ship docked.

Elder Sun drove the yacht over, and staffs, who wore colorful shirts, immediately came over to help with the anchoring and secure the boat.

The sky was blue, the sand was soft, and the trees were green. It was a hundred times prettier than the beach at East Ocean City.

It was the first time Xie Yujia saw such a beautiful island. It was unbelievable to her, especially since this beautiful island was only 50 kilometers away from the East Ocean City.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili jumped off from the yacht and onto the beach. They landed on soft sand and left small footprints on the beach.

Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu came out of the cabin. They had already changed into their swimsuits. Although they weren't as young as the girls, they looked mature in a beautiful way.

Yue Yang had a good attitude toward life, and she maintained herself fairly well and did not look like a woman in her forties. Zhao Hongyu looked even younger than Yue Yang.

Yue Yang was well-known in her circle as she was the famous Zhao Zhonghua's wife, so her relationships with other people were relatively simple.

Zhao Hongyu was an architect, so she met with different entrepreneurs and business people. Some didn't even know that she had a daughter who was in her teens. They all tried to pursue her since she was so beautiful. Of course, after Zhao Hongyu mentioned that she was the wife of the Mingri Group's CEO, those people all backed off.

"Mrs. Zhao!"

At this moment, the staffs all bowed as they saw Zhao Hongyu.

This Coral Island was developed by Mingri Group. In a sense, Zhao Hongyu was the owner of this resort island. These employees who were all well-paid knew who she was.

"Are the rooms ready?" Zhao Hongyu asked.

"We've got everything ready, Madam," one of the staff members responded.

"Mr. Sun, are you not coming?" Zhao Hongyu turned her head around and asked Elder Sun who drove the boat.

"I don't like sunbathing, so I'll just relax on the yacht." Elder Sun responded.

Zhao Hongyu nodded. Just when she was about to lead them to the hotel, a white shadow suddenly jumped out from the yacht.

Little White wriggled its tail. It jumped onto the sand and curled its fluffy body by Xie Yujia's shaved legs. Then, it jumped right into her arms.

Elder Sun who was still on the yacht was a bit shocked to see Little White. Even he did not know when this demon beast had sneaked on.

"Ruff, Ruff... Ruff..." Little White let out cute noises in Xie Yujia's arms. Then, it stood in her arms and jumped into Zhao Yanzi's arms.

All the girls were in their swimsuits, and Little White was taking advantage of the girls...

"You little thing... so shameless..." Hao Ren clenched his teeth as he thought, "Wait until you successfully transform into your human form... I'll beat you up!"

Little White was a Bin-level demob beast, and it could only reach level 6 at best while only level 10 demon beasts could transform. It seemed like Hao Ren only had wishful thinking.

"Ah... you're still licking me!" Zhao Yanzi twisted her neck a bit as she held Little White in her hands. Although she couldn't help but scream, she smiled from the ticklish licks.

"Damn... Little White, you thief! You've stolen the fruit of my labor!" Hao Ren cried in his mind.

Chapter 474: Broke*ss?

Stepping on Zhao Yanzi's chest with its back legs, Little White stuck out its red, sandpapery tongue and began licking her small, tender neck intimately.

"How dare you make advances toward the girls!" Hao Ren couldn't stand it anymore. He picked up Little White by its neck and threw it onto the beach.

Wagging its head, Little White did not seem ashamed one bit.

Its meticulous planning proved its high intelligence. By swimming on the surface of the ocean, it had long reached the deck of the yacht and was quietly hiding behind the lifesavers, all the way until they arrived at the island.

This way, when it finally came out, Hao Ren couldn't send it back.

"Let's go; we can drop off our things at the hotel first." Zhao Hongyu suggested casually.

Now in her swimsuit, Zhao Hongyu looked even younger than usual.

Yue Yang suddenly felt fortunate that Hao Zhonghua did not come with them; men in their thirties or forties would have no resistance to a mature beauty like Zhao Hongyu.

Sticking up its butt, Little White dashed forward in excitement.

Close to the beach, there was a five-star hotel consisted of 20 floors. The shape of this building was not cubic like most typical buildings. Instead, it was shaped like a sea snail and was rotating slowly.

With this design, it allowed most of the rooms in the hotel to have access to ocean views from various angles. Moreover, such design had made the building itself an exquisite view of the island, becoming one with the natural landscape.

Following behind her, Hao Ren could tell from Zhao Hongyu's confident strides that all of the structures on the island must have been designed by Zhao Hongyu herself.

He had been studying architecture under Zhao Hongyu for some time now. The more he learned, the more he realized that Zhao Hongyu's design philosophy was incredibly profound and unfathomable. Even if she weren't the wife of the East Ocean Dragon King, she would still become one of the top architects in this world.

"Behind the hotel, there are 52 single-story villas. The small villas can be rented, but they're not for sale. Their construction is not yet completed, so we'll be staying at the hotel today. But in the future, this will become a great resort!" Zhao Hongyu explained as she walked.

Nodding her head, Yue Yang admired Zhao Hongyu even more now. Even though she could see how gentle but career-driven Zhao Hongyu was, Yue Yang had no way of knowing that such elegance was a result of a few hundred years of cultivation.

In actuality, Zhao Hongyu thought even more highly of Yue Yang.

The decoration of the five-star hotel was grand and luxurious. The suites that Zhao Hongyu had reserved was on the top floor, and they had the most splendid view of all.

"The girls can stay with us. Ren, you can stay in a suite on your own," Zhao Hongyu said to Hao Ren as they arrived at the top floor. When she was talking to Hao Ren, she pointed at a suite beside the big presidential suite.

"Sure..." Hao Ren nodded as her lips twitched lightly.

"Such a tragedy... to be separated by them..." he thought.

"Little White is staying with me!" Zhao Yanzi demanded loudly.

"I know, I know!" Zhao Hongyu caressed Zhao Yanzi's head dotingly.

Even Little White seemed to have a higher status than Hao Ren now. At the thought of that, the glance that Hao Ren shot toward Little White was full of 'murderous intent'.

However, wagging its tail, Little White looked back at Hao Ren with a little proud expression as it blinked its big watery eyes.

Soon, Zhao Hongyu and the others brought their stuff into the presidential suite, while Hao Ren entered his suite after acquiring the key card from Zhao Hongyu.

Since his suite was right next to a presidential suite, the furnishings were also of outstanding quality. Still, it was a lot smaller in size, and it was more like a suite for bodyguards of important figures who stayed in the presidential suite.

Looking out from the floor-to-ceiling window, the boundless ocean was magnificent. The island appeared like a piece of round-shaped emerald, ornamented on the silky blue ocean.

Also, from the view above, the small villas that were in their last stage of construction were like white seashells popping up one by one, very beautifully allocated.

As his swim trunks gradually dried up, it started tightening and hurting Hao Ren's waist. Since the others hadn't come out of the presidential suite yet, Hao Ren took the elevator down to the shop on the main floor to purchase a set of new swim trunks.

"Haha, isn't this my fellow schoolmate, Mr. Hao?" A seemingly familiar voice came from the hotel lobby right behind Hao Ren.

As Hao Ren turned around and looked out from the glass door of the shop, he saw Huang Xujie standing outside of the shop in his sunglasses and a Hawaiian shirt.

Hao Ren was slightly surprised to see him here. However, he thought back to the cruise ship by the pier and understood that the island was open but in its testing phase; it hadn't been broadly promoted yet.

Considering the fact that Huang Xujie was the son of the deputy mayor who was in charge of East Ocean City's economy, it wouldn't be difficult for him to obtain an excursion ticket to Coral Island. Hence, it wasn't all that strange for him to appear here.

"What are you getting? I'll pay for it." Huang Xujie offered quite sincerely as he walked in.

Hao Ren ignored him. He continued browsing through the shelves for a moment and said, "That black one over there."

"Yes." The young sales clerk took out a set of brand-new swim trunks and laid it out in front of Hao Ren.

While searching his body, Hao Ren suddenly realized that he was only wearing his swim trunks and forgot to bring his wallet with him.

"How much is it? It's on me." Taking out his wallet from the Hawaiian shirt, Huang Xujie offered again.

If only Hao Ren didn't know about Huang Xujie's true nature, he would honestly believe that Huang Xujie was not a bad person.

Nonetheless, he knew that Huang Xujie was merely trying to please him.

At school, Huang Xujie was unable to put aside his pride. But now that there were no other students here, he desperately wanted to become close with Hao Ren, trying hard to heal their relationship. This was all because Hao Ren was the son of Hao Zhonghua and Yue Yang, and either one of the two was a big enough figure to shock the East Ocean City.

"No!" Hao Ren turned to the sales clerk and asked, "Can I put it on my room?"

Just as the sales clerk was about to refuse, he saw the golden key card Hao Ren had strapped along his wrist with a rubber band and immediately agreed. "Yes, Sir. You can use your key card and pay for all of your purchases at the end of your stay."

"Great!" Hao Ren picked up the swim trunks while handing over his key card for the sales clerk to keep on file.

"Huang Xujie, who are you talking to?"

At this moment, a distinctly sharp voice echoed through the lobby outside of the shop.

Hao Ren turned and saw that Lin Li, the girl from Class Three from the same program, walking toward the entrance of the shop in a bikini.

Lin Li seemed confused for a second as she saw Hao Ren standing behind Huang Xujie. Then, she said in a slightly upset but charming tone, "Why are you talking to this broke*ss? The room is ready; let's go!"

Lin Li's dad was a businessman who worked in the clothing industry.

He owned a big factory and had associations with some of the officials in the municipal government. This time, Lin Li was able to get excursion tickets through her dad's connections. As they were on summer vacation, she was ecstatic to be able to get Huang Xujie to come with her.

Although she was shocked to see Hao Ren here, she was immediately convinced that Hao Ren was there for a summer job.

"No matter what type of reputation Hao Ren had been racking up in school these days, he is a child from an ordinary family after all. Maybe he does have a rich relative who lived abroad, had come to pick him up a few times, and even lent him their Ferrari, the money still belongs to the rich relative. Hao Ren might have some fun while riding in luxury cars, but he is still just a commoner," she thought.

"I want this bikini! My chest measurement is 85!"

Just as Lin Li was walking over to Huang Xujie and blocking off Hao Ren's view, a clear and resonant voice came around from another corner of the shop.

Hao Ren's glance traveled through the small gap between the shoulders of Huang Xujie and Lin Li and landed on Zhao Yanzi who was in her one-piece swimsuit. Standing in the women's swimsuit section and on her toes, Zhao Yanzi was pointing at a green three-point bikini at the very top.

Standing in front of Hao Ren, Lin Li noticed Hao Ren's blatant gaze and took two steps back. She thought Hao Ren was looking at her and felt that her exquisite body would be a waste for someone like Hao Ren to look at.

As 'the most popular girl at school', she had many pursuers in the school, especially those in the Engineering Program. How could she allow someone like Hao Ren to see her in a bikini so easily?

In fact, Hao Ren's gaze did not linger on her body at all. Rather, he was secretly amused by Zhao Yanzi. This girl came down early to get a new bikini just because she was afraid that Xie Yujia and the twins might outshine her.

“What are you laughing at...” Lin Li took a few more steps back as she found Hao Ren’s smile to be a little creepy. She glared at Hao Ren furiously and thought, “This idiot! He must be having some perverted thoughts upon seeing my body!”

“Huang Xujie, how come you’re not reacting to this at all!” Lin Li was even angrier at Huang Xujia for being insensitive and slow.

After their final exams, she finally got Huang Xujie to agree to be her boyfriend and to go on this trip to Coral Island, which was not officially open to the public. Yet, Huang Xujie had no reaction at all to Hao Ren peeking at his girlfriend’s body!

At the moment, Huang Xujie had followed Hao Ren’s gaze and turned to look at the young girl shopping for swimsuits.

He did not seem to have much of an impression of this young girl. Nonetheless, this girl who looked quite a few years younger had an immature body that was full of liveliness, and her every single movement was radiating cuteness and youth!

While on her toes and anxiously waiting for the sales clerk to bring out the bikini she selected, Zhao Yanzi suddenly detected the gazes on her and turned around at once.

She first met eyes with Hao Ren, and then she noticed Huang Xujie’s gaze. Instantly, her face was filled with redness. Widening her eyes, she shouted, “What are you staring at!?”

“Here’s the money!” After throwing out a few 100-yuan bills onto the counter, Zhao Yanzi picked up the bikini that the sales clerk brought out and ran out of the shop toward the women’s washroom located by the side of the lobby.

Still staring at Zhao Yanzi’s back, Huang Xujie was blanking out. He usually had no interest in girls so young, but he found this girl who had glowing cheeks to be so adorable and pretty!

“Hao Ren, you are here! I was wondering why you didn’t answer the door.”

Outside of the glass door of the shop, Xie Yujia said as she started walking over in her two-piece swimsuit.

Upon hearing Xie Yujia’s voice, both Huang Xujie and Lin Li turned their heads around.

Seeing the two, Xie Yujia paused her steps for a bit.

In her black swimsuit, Xie Yujia’s perfect body was beautifully displayed. Standing right next to Lin Li, Huang Xujie was unable to contain himself and instantly fastened his eyes on Xie Yujia.

He had come into contact with Xie Yujia in the school office a few times, but little did he know that Xie Yujia had such a flawless body underneath her usually conservative outfits!

On the other hand, Lin Li who was the self-proclaimed most popular girl at the school was now immensely inferior in comparison to Xie Yujia!

“I bought new swim trunks. Let’s go.” Hao Ren walked out and put his hand around Xie Yujia’s small hand as they strolled toward the hotel’s revolving door.

He could not stand any other men checking Xie Yujia out!

Meanwhile, Lin Li was left standing there in disbelief.

“Did this broke*ss seriously get a beauty like Xie Yujia to become his girlfriend as the rumors said?” she thought.

Chapter 475: Honeymoon~

It was breezy on the beach where the beach umbrellas looked like mushrooms growing out of the sand. The coconut trees swayed in the sea breeze, adding a tropical feel to the scene.

“You can find a spot to sit down while I go and change into my new swim trunks.” Hao Ren let go of Xie Yujia’s hand and said.

“Ok...” Xie Yujia nodded and watched him jog toward the washroom in the distance.

She was about to find a spot to rest when Huang Xujie walked out of the hotel and smiled. “Hehe, Schoolmate Xie, why are you ignoring us?”

After knowing Hao Ren’s background, Huang Xujie knew he was no match for him. Since Hao Ren ignored him, he tried to find a breakthrough with Xie Yujia.

Walking beside Huang Xujie, Lin Li’s face turned dark. After all, Xie Yujia recently started to dress up and turned even more beautiful. At the same time, her popularity in their university seemed to have surpassed Lin Li’s. The students in school paid more attention to her, especially after she was rumored to be Hao Ren’s girlfriend.

In short, Xie Yujia was more popular than Lin Li.

However, despite her beauty, Xie Yujia was only an ordinary person, not in the same circle as Lin Li whose family was worth tens of millions of yuan.

What did Huang Xujie mean by talking to such an ordinary girl instead of keeping her company? She liked Huang Xujie, but her family was no less powerful than Huang Xujie’s!

“Well, you have fun,” Xie Yujia nodded slightly and gave them a strange answer before walking to a shaded chair on the beach.

A moment later, Hao Ren had changed into his new swim trunks and dumped the cheap old pair before walking out of the washroom.

From a distance, he saw Huang Xujie bothering Xie Yujia.

Displeased, he jogged back to Xie Yujia’s side.

Hao Ren’s new swim trunks were a pair of elastic boxer shorts, which was more fitting compared with before, showing his explosive muscles.

As a member of his middle school track team, his leg muscles had always been strong. After the recent hard practice of the fundamental boxing techniques, the muscles all over his body were in a perfect state, making him look magnificent in the high-quality swim trunks.

Of course, his body looked natural, unlike those brawny men with huge muscles.

Seeing Hao Ren running over to them, Huang Xujie swallowed back his words.

Hao Ren's figure seemed ordinary under clothes, but now he looked much stronger than Huang Xujie. Lin Li who was standing by Huang Xujie was a little surprised to see Hao Ren's great figure in the new swim trunks, thinking, "This ordinary person has a good figure."

"Let's go." Hao Ren put his arm around Xie Yujia's back gently and led her to the beach, ignoring Huang Xujie and Lin Li.

"Humph! What are you arrogant about!" Lin Li yelled in resentment.

"Hao Ren's good figure is probably the result of his hard work as a labor worker in his free time, and it's definitely not as elegant as our bodies since we train in the gyms." At this self-hypnotic thought, Lin Li immediately felt better.

Wearing the low-profile black swim trunks, Hao Ren showed his dashing male figure. Beside him, Xie Yujia's black two-piece swimsuit revealed her great womanly charms.

One was strong and muscular while the other was soft and curvy. Their swimsuits were of the same fabric and same color, making them look like a couple.

Hao Ren realized this, and he felt a little awkward. He picked a pair of black swim trunks without thinking, and he didn't anticipate this.

With Hao Ren's arm on her bare back, Xie Yujia blushed since their skins were touching. Their matching swimsuits, movements, and steps made them look like a pair of newly-wed couples on their honeymoon.

The people who were enjoying the sun on the beach all looked toward them. After all, a handsome man with a beautiful woman was always an eye-catching sight.

Since the Coral Island was still in its testing phase, only top-tier elites in East Ocean City were allowed here, which explained the smaller number of people on the island compared with the other beaches in the city.

"Gongzi! Gongzi!"

Waving their hands, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili ran from the hotel.

Wearing s*xy bikinis, they flew to Hao Ren like two butterflies, leaving two strings of footprints in the sand.

The people who had been looking at Hao Ren and Xie Yujia were also interested when they saw Lu Linlin and Lu Lili.

It was rare to see twins, especially such beautiful twins.

In bikinis, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili showed their flawless, smooth skin like a pair of artistic statues worthy of collection.

Kicking up fine sands, they ran to Hao Ren's side and almost crashed into his arms if he didn't step aside with Xie Yujia in his arms.

Behind them, Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu who were wearing sunglasses and holding umbrellas also came out of the hotel.

Wearing swimsuits, beach sandals, and two pieces of gauze cloths around their waists, they walked out of the hotel with sunscreen on.

Lying on the beach above water-proof pads, the mid-aged men's eyes lit up. It was nice to watch the young girls, but they were tempted at the sight of Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu.

However, some sharp-eyed men immediately recognized that the woman on the left was Zhao Hongyu, the wife of Mingri Group's CEO and the general manager of the Coral Island, and the woman on the right was Yue Yang, the 'Science Queen' who had recently returned from abroad and was now living in East Ocean City.

They couldn't afford to mess with either of these women and immediately looked away, wondering how these two women had become good friends.

"Where's Zi?" Zhao Hongyu walked to Hao Ren's side and looked around before asking.

"I suppose she'll come out soon." Hao Ren looked toward the hotel.

Sure enough, the moment he said that, Zhao Yanzi walked out of the hotel wearing a green bikini.

Similar to the bikinis the Lu sisters wore, Zhao Yanzi's bikini was purely green without any patterns. Three silk strings were decorating the bikini, and it felt like the bikini would fall if someone pulled on the strings lightly.

"Size 85" Hao Ren remembered the number Zhao Yanzi told the sales clerk.

Chapter 476: A Big Blow~

Zhao Yanzi ran toward Zhao Hongyu while the short green silk strings fluttered around her cute body, accentuating the vivacity of her figure.

The mid-aged men who had been peeking at Zhao Hongyu knew she had a young daughter, and some of them had even seen Zhao Yanzi before at banquets. They envied her for having such a cute and pretty girl.

The only thing that they were wondered about was the identity of that young man with her.

"Who is he? And why are there so many beautiful women around him?"

"Haha, you changed into a new swimsuit." Yue Yang saw through Zhan Yanzi's thoughts and pinched her pink cheek. "It's beautiful."

Zhao Yanzi lifted her head proudly and gave Yue Yang a sweet smile. Indeed, after changing out of her one-piece swimsuit and into this s*xxy bikini with strings, she looked much more alluring with her smooth skin and well-proportioned figure.

Even Yue Yang had seen through Zhao Yanzi, let alone Zhao Hongyu.

With a smile, Zhao Hongyu said to Hao Ren, "Your mom and I will sit over there. You guys have fun."

"Ren, go and buy some drinks." Yue Yang added.

As the only man in the group, Hao Ren was naturally the one to run errands.

"Ok..." Nodding, Hao Ren walked toward the nearby shop.

With almost all the people in the area watching him, Hao Ren felt exposed and took the opportunity to take a break. After all, men stared at him with envy, and women looked at him in surprise.

However, after Hao Ren walked for ten steps, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili ran after him and held his arms on either side, saying simultaneously, "We'll go with Gongzi!"

While holding Hao Ren's arms, the Lu sisters' smooth arms and bellies clung to Hao Ren's arms while their soft chests pressed against his arms as well. It was too tempting!

Looking at their clinging figures, Yue Yang shook her head helplessly, thinking that Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were a bit too bold.

However, on the second thought, she guessed that the young people nowadays were probably all like this... This also went to show that her son was quite an attractive man.

Meanwhile, Huang Xujie had finished the registration in the hotel lobby and was walking out from the rotating door.

He was stupefied when he saw Lu Linlin and Lu Lili, two super beauties, clinging to Hao Ren's arms on the beach.

He could accept the fact that Hao Ren and Xie Yujia were vacationing here, but he was crushed at the intimate scene between Lu Linlin, Lu Lili, and Hao Ren.

After all, Xie Yujia was an ordinary girl before, and she recently turned attractive all of a sudden, making the guys regret missing the opportunity to pursue her.

However, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were undoubtedly the most popular girls at school, to begin with!

In the eyes of the male students, the celestial beauties ignored all the guys and didn't care to speak with them. But now, they were holding Hao Ren's arms intimately while wearing bikinis!

Huang Xujie also tried to pursue them, but he didn't have any chance to get close.

After knowing that they were granddaughters of Lu Qing, the Vice Principal, he didn't dare to make a move.

Now, the Lu sisters who had been calling Hao Ren Gongzi 'jokingly' in school were holding his arms as if he was their boyfriend!

If it were only one of them, it was still somewhat acceptable. But now, both of the sisters were holding Hao Ren's arms intimately!

Standing by Huang Xujie, Lin Li was burning with jealousy, and she bumped Huang Xujie's arm with hers.

She was surprised to see Lu Linlin and Lu Lili here, and more so when she saw the intimacy they had with Hao Ren. However, she thought, "What's the use of beauty? My family is rich and does big business!"

As she was angry, she suddenly spotted a beautiful woman on the beach, and she immediately ran toward her while pulling Huang Xujie behind her.

"Hongyu, I sure envy you. You look to be in your twenties, and your skin looks so smooth and tender without applying any cosmetics."

"Yue Yang, I envy you for keeping such a great figure with a grown son... Hehe, I think it's the result of Mr. Hao's good care of you."

"He only has eyes on his research work and is fighting with me right now. You've got no extra fat on your belly; do you usually keep fit at the gym?"

As Zhao Hongyu and Yue Yang were complimenting each other, they saw a young girl rushed to their side while pulling a boy behind her.

"Auntie Zhao!" Lin Li greeted Zhao Hongyu with a stiff smile.

"You are..." Lying on the beach chair, Zhao Hongyu looked at Lin Li in bafflement.

"Oh. I'm Lin Tianyang's daughter. I just saw you and came to say hello. I saw you once. Do you remember me?" Lin Li kept her awkward smile and said.

"Oh..." Zhao Hongyu didn't quite remember her, but she pretended to recognize her out of politeness.

"You are here to play as well?"

She had some impression of Lin Tianyang.

Last month, when Mingri Group signed a 20-million-yuan contract with an apparel distributor named Lin Tianyang, she was there to see the signing.

The ten-million level deals looked big in the eyes of ordinary people, but it was a tiny one for Mingri Group. Zhao Hongyu couldn't have attended the event if she weren't bored.

"Yes, Auntie Zhao. This is my boyfriend, Huang Xujie," Lin Li introduced happily.

Zhao Hongyu looked up at Huang Xujie and nodded calmly. "We've met."

Seeing Zhao Hongyu's lack of interest, Lin Li forced another smile and said, "Auntie, I won't disturb you anymore. I'll go and hang out with him!"

"Ok. Enjoy yourselves!" Zhao Hongyu waved her hand.

"Thank you, Auntie!" Lin Li answered with a soft tone before walking away with Huang Xujie.

After talking a few steps, she whispered to Huang Xujie excitedly, "Did you see that? The woman is the wife of Mingri Group's CEO and my father's business partner. I know her, and she knows me!"

Undoubtedly, Zhao Guang, the CEO of Mingri Group was the wealthiest man in East Ocean City. From Lin Li's perspective, the fact that Zhao Hongyu knew her was compelling proof of her status in the upper class!

In her mind, people like Xie Yujia, Lu Linlin, and Lu Lili were beneath her!

As the son of a deputy mayor, Huang Xujie should ignore the ordinary beauties and stay with her, a privileged girl!

Lying on the beach chair, Zhao Hongyu's sharp ears picked up Lin Li's words and frowned with displeasure.

She pretended that she knew Lin Li out of politeness, and she didn't expect that the girl to show off with it.

"Hu..." Huang Xujie exhaled deeply.

"What's wrong?" Lin Li lifted her head proudly.

She thought Huang Xujie had been holding his breath due to his nervousness of seeing Zhao Hongyu.

"What on earth are you thinking about?" Impatient, Huang Xujie glared at Lin Li and said. Everyone said that beauty was inversely proportional to intelligence, but he felt like Lin Li was the dumbest one even though she was not the prettiest!

He had been feeling low with Hao Ren's sudden emergence this term, and he reluctantly agreed to be the boyfriend of Lin Li who was not bad looking and had been pursuing him with passion.

However, he didn't think she was this stupid!

Compared with Lu Linlin and Lu Lili, Lin Li was just low!

"You can find someone else. This is the end of our relationship!" Frustrated, Huang Xujie threw off Lin Li's hand and said at her viciously.

"Huang Xujie, what's wrong with you!" Lin Li asked in bafflement.

Meanwhile, Hao Ren walked to the side of Zhao Hongyu and Yue Yang in the company of Lu Linlin and Lu Lili.

As he placed the drinks and ice creams on the square table between them, Zhao Hongyu sat up immediately and helped him put down the items with a pleased smile.

At this sight, Lin Li froze as if she had been struck by a lightning bolt.

She was pleased when Zhao Hongyu said that she knew her, but to her surprise, Hao Ren was invited here by Zhao Hongyu!

From the looks of it, Hao Ren and Zhao Hongyu were not just acquaintances but close like a family!

A family!

Lin Li shivered, wondering if Hao Ren's wealthy relative was the CEO of Mingri Group!

"Great! We have ice cream!" Zhao Yanzi who had been picking shells on the beach ran over happily at the sight of Hao Ren's return.

Huang Xujie who was trying to dump Lin Li gaped in astonishment at this sight.

He realized that this super pretty and cute girl was Zhao Hongyu's daughter.

In the bikini, her figure was many times more mature than before, and her face looked so cute that he didn't recognize her before.

At the Dragon Boat Festival, Hao Ren's family and Zhao Guang's family had been together. And this time on the beach, Hao Ren also came to play with Zhao Guang's family. This all showed that the relationship between the two families was extraordinary!

Surrounded by a big group of beauties, many smooth arms reaching out across Hao Ren arms and chest to get to the drinks and ice creams. It was a joyous and happy scene!

"How... how did he..." Lin Li looked toward them in bafflement.

"You are such a dumb girl!" Huang Xujie stared at her in displeasure.

No matter if it was intelligence, figure, looks or personality, Lin Li was no match for any of the girls around Hao Ren.

Suddenly, Huang Xujie regretted coming here and hated Lin Li who invited him.

Compared with the celestial beauties around Hao Ren, Lin Li was really... inferior!

Chapter 477: I Just Like You~

Ruff! Ruff!

After a fun swim in the ocean, Little White got back to the beach before racing toward Hao Ren.

"Little White, behave. I'll feed you!" Zhao Yanzi bent down and opened the wrapper of an ice cream cone before placing it before Little White. Her smooth and tight skin, as well as her smile, made her look adorable.

Hah! Hah! Little White stuck out its long tongue and licked the ice cream happily.

Hao Ren looked at it helplessly, wondering when he could receive the same treatment.

"Gongzi! Take one, too!"

While he was thinking this, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili brought an ice cream cone to his mouth.

"Ugh... Let me." Not daring to bite the ice cream directly out of their hands, Hao Ren retreated one step and took it from them.

Seeing his reaction, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili covered their mouths and giggled.

Clap! Clap... After swallowing the ice cream in a few bites, Little White shook its body.

The sea water on its fur was instantly gone, and it looked smooth and bright again.

However, Hao Ren who was standing beside it looked disheveled, wet with the sea water Little White had shaken off.

Looking up at Hao Ren with its round black eyes, Little White knew he would grab it and immediately ran to the distance.

Not far from them, Huang Xujie who had been watching them saw Little White running toward his direction. He suddenly remembered the incident a few days ago and immediately turned to run.

Roar... Little White let out a loud bark and showed its fangs.

This little animal that was the size of a palm had extremely sharp white teeth, and Huang Xujie sprinted and fled into the hotel, afraid it would bite his ankle.

Ruff Ruff... Little White put on its cute face and wriggled its tail enthusiastically after.

“Wow! Such a cute puppy!” Some pretty girls in bikinis who were walking out from the rotating door of the hotel saw Little White and picked it up.

Ruff Ruff... Little White behaved even cuter and barked rhythmically, making the pretty girls fight to hold it.

“Damn! So shameless!”

Seeing Little White’s antics, Hao Ren scolded it silently.

However, since Zhen Congming had gone to visit Wu Luoxue and didn’t come to the beach, Little White was indeed bored with no one playing with it.

“Ok. You guys go and have fun.” Zhao Hongyu waved her hand.

“Ok!” Zhao Yanzi spread her arms and ran into the ocean barefooted.

At this moment, a big wave rose.

Alarmed, Zhao Yanzi immediately turned and ran back.

Boom! The merciless wave pushed her down.

As he laughed at her misfortune, Hao Ren ran over to pull her up before jumping into the ocean.

While the sun rose gradually, the wind on the ocean also picked up, and the ocean waves got bigger. However, Hao Ren jumped into the ocean and swam with ease as if the waves didn’t bother him at all.

Xie Yujia got into the ocean, slowly testing the water. She was then quickly pushed back by the waves and decided to stay in the shallow water area of the beach, allowing the waves to brush her legs gently.

As the princess of the East Ocean Dragon Clan, Zhao Yanzi excelled in swimming although she couldn't control the waves without her dragon core or dharma treasures.

Seeing Hao Ren swimming freely in the ocean, she jumped in immediately.

Hand in hand, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili walked into the water. The warm seawater pushed against them and nurtured their skin, and they felt like it was more comfortable than the icy Sky Lake where they used to play at the Above Realm.

Boom! Another big wave crashed over.

Many bold young people were pushed back to the beach by the waves.

Only Hao Ren, Lu Linlin, Lu Lili, and Zhao Yanzi were still bobbing on the ocean like buoys.

Suddenly, a teenager who was surfing was smashed off his board by the huge wave, and the lifeguard standing on the beach immediately swam toward him.

Hao Ren who was closer to the teenager quickly swam over and pushed him toward the beach following the force of the waves.

Seeing the surfboard that was washed to his side by the waves, Hao Ren was struck with an idea and stepped onto the surfboard.

When another wave came, he followed the force of the wave and surfed on it.

"Huh?" Yue Yang who was talking with Zhao Hongyu about skincare looked into the distance and exclaimed in surprise.

She didn't think that Hao Ren's swimming skills would be so great. More astonishing, she didn't expect Hao Ren to learn how to surf.

She had neglected him for one year while she was abroad, doing climate research, and he had learned so many skills.

A big wave came after the small wave, and Hao Ren maneuvered the surfboard and rode on the surging tide, surfing in the center of the vortex formed by the big waves.

"Wow!" The crowd on the beach gasped.

"The teenager who was surfing a few moments ago only rode a few meters on the small waves, but this young man wearing black swim trunks is surfing like magic," they thought.

Even Lin Li who stayed on the beach was dumbfounded.

"Surfing is a game for the wealthy people, but Hao Ren can surf so well..." she thought.

Riding on the last of the waves, Hao Ren returned to the beach on the surfboard as if he was flying. He lifted one foot and tilted the surfboard, returning it to the teenager.

Amazed, the teenager took the surfboard from Hao Ren as he stared at him with admiration.

Hao Ren smiled gently and walked back into the ocean to continue his swim.

After all, he cultivated the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll which allowed him to fly in the sky on sword energies. It was a piece of cake for him to surf on the waves.

His great skills earned the silent admiration from the young men from the rich and powerful families on the beach while the girls looked at him with adoration...

Standing on the beach, Xie Yujia smiled joyously at Hao Ren's behavior, liking his true self.

In the eyes of the girls, Hao Ren was like the boy next door, shy, ordinary with a bit of talent, kind, cautious, and bashful.

He was never proud and discouraged, but he would stand up when someone messed with him or the people around him.

The warm ocean water rushed around Xie Yujia's ankles while she laughed at the scene where Lu Linlin and Lu Lili chasing after Hao Ren in the ocean.

She liked Hao Ren more each day, and her only wish was to stay with him.

The day filled with happiness passed gradually while the sun slowly moved from the east to the west.

When the ocean water turned cold, Coral Island was dyed in a mysterious golden color by the beautiful setting sun.

The people on vacation all changed out of swimsuits into shirts or dresses, walking on the beach to watch the sunset.

A truly beautiful place could present several different types of gorgeous views, and Coral Island was one of such places.

Zhao Hongyu and the others were also walking on the beach. She and Yue Yang took the lead while talking animatedly with each other, and Little White ran around them energetically.

Hao Ren and Xie Yujia walked behind them, enjoying the beautiful view of the sunset, and Lu Linlin and Lu Lili whispered to each other hand in hand.

As to Zhao Yanzi, she was exhausted by the activities during the day and had gone to sleep in her room after dinner.

Ka! Ka... Hao Ren's sandals left shallow marks in the sand while he walked with Xie Yujia shoulder to shoulder, silently watching their shadows move in parallel under the setting sun.

Walking in the front of the group, Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu were still talking; an entire day hadn't exhausted their topics.

"Ren!" Zhao Hongyu suddenly turned her head and called Hao Ren.

Hao Ren stopped immediately and looked at her in surprise.

Subconsciously, Xie Yujia also stopped and stood beside with Hao Ren.

"Let's talk for a bit," Zhao Hongyu looked at Hao Ren from five to six meters away and said.

Yue Yang also nodded at Hao Ren.

“Ok...” Feeling uneasy, Hao Ren walked forward.

Meanwhile, Yue Yang lightly took Xie Yujia’s hand and said, “Yujia, Linlin, Lili, let’s head back to the hotel and rest!”

Obviously, she wanted to leave Hao Ren and Zhao Hongyu the space to talk privately.

A trace of worry appeared on Xie Yujia’s pretty face, but she followed Yue Yang back to the hotel.

Standing on the beach with her hands crossed behind her back, Zhao Hongyu looked at the group while Yue Yang took the three girls back to the hotel.

Then, she turned around and said, “I need to say something to you in private.”

“Ok...” Hao Ren was suddenly nervous.

Despite her gentleness and subtleness, Zhao Hongyu had a strong mind as the Dragon Queen of the East Ocean Dragon Clan. Hao Ren knew that Zhao Hongyu was someone with her own ideas. On some occasions, Zhao Guang had to listen to her.

Zhao Hongyu resumed her slow walk in the ocean breeze. “The fact is that I like Yujia quite a lot, and I know you two were playmates when you were little, right?”

“Yeah.” Hao Ren adjusted his steps to Zhao Hongyu’s slow pace and walked with her.

In his simple shirt, he looked manly in the evening breeze on the beach.

“Zi is too naughty and needs discipline sometimes,” Zhao Hongyu said.

“She’s still young...” Hao Ren said.

“Not so young,” Zhao Hongyu corrected him gently. “I think of Yujia as my own daughter and hope Zi will take her as an older sister. I know you are cultivating hard and doing your best in everything.”

Hao Ren remained silent as he walked with her.

“I have only a small request which is that you have to treat Zi well in the future. As to the other stuff you do, I don’t care.” Zhao Hongyu suddenly turned her head and stared at Hao Ren.

Hao Ren got nervous under her stare. “I’ll be good to Zi.”

Zhao Hongyu smiled. “That’s enough for me.”

Suddenly, a gust of ocean wind blew up the sand, making the people on the beach close their eyes.

Zhao Hongyu lifted her right hand casually, and a red energy sphere was created while the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting appeared under her feet, taking her and Hao Ren toward the ocean rapidly.

Chapter 478: Demon Sea

“Auntie, this is...” Hao Ren was surprised.

“As the Commanding General of our East Ocean Dragon Clan, you should know the boundaries of our territory, right?” Zhao Hongyu smiled slightly while the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting swept up a long wave.

On the surface of the ocean appeared sporadic islands.

Some islands emitted red auras, naturally protected by array formations and undetectable by mortals. With the great speed of the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting, they soon arrived deep into the ocean which couldn't be reached by mortals.

“Greetings to Dragon Queen!”

The shouts rose around them when a group of soldiers emerged from the sea.

Nodding slightly at them, Zhao Hongyu steered the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting and flew over them.

“Controlled by the East Ocean Dragon Clan, these islands act as scout stations, and the soldiers guarding this area will organize counter-attacks upon seeing enemies,” Zhao Hongyu explained.

The East Ocean Dragon Clan controlled over a vast region, and it didn't mean that no one guarded the places far from the palace. In fact, all the ocean territory was guarded by hidden soldiers from the East Ocean Dragon Clan, and any outside cultivators would be detected immediately as soon as they enter.

While the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting flew at the great speed, Hao Ren released his spiritual senses and found that there were indeed troops hiding under the surging waves of the ocean.

Judging from the vast territory, he could imagine the number of soldiers East Ocean had.

Wherever the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting went, the East Ocean soldiers who were hiding in the ocean would come out in lines and greet.

Each summer, Zhao Hongyu would do her routine inspection while Zhao Yanzi was on summer vacation.

The size of the territory of the East Ocean Dragon Clan was greater than Hao Ren had imagined, and they hadn't reached the boundary after flying for half an hour at the great speed of the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting.

“Ren, you must be aware that you are not only responsible for Zi's happiness but also the livelihood of the tens of millions of members of the East Ocean.”

“Ok...” Hao Ren suddenly felt the burden on his shoulders became heavier.

In the future, he could take over not only the elders and the senior generals of the East Ocean Dragon Clan but also the low-ranked soldiers who were guarding the territory of the East Ocean Dragon Clan.

“The end of East Ocean's territory is in front of us,” Zhao Hongyu said.

Hao Ren stretched his neck and looked hard into the distance.

He looked in the direction that Zhao Hongyu pointed, but he could see nothing like a physical boundary.

The River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting beneath them slowed down gradually and finally hovered above the ocean surface.

Around them, everything was quiet without any generals or soldiers coming out to greet them.

“This... is the east border of the East Ocean.” Zhao Hongyu pointed at a small island before them and said, “With the Immortal Spirit Island as the boundary, the anything to the west belongs to the East Ocean Dragon Clan while the area in the east is... Demon Sea.”

Zhao Hongyu put special emphasis on the two words, Demon Sea.

Demon Sea... Hao Ren found the name familiar as if he had heard it from somewhere.

“The area of the Demon Sea is about the combined territories controlled by the four ocean dragon clans. Situated in the center of the four ocean dragon clans, it’s a forbidden area for both the dragon cultivators and human cultivators,” Zhao Hongyu explained slowly.

“Demon beasts?” Hao Ren asked tentatively.

Zhao Hongyu nodded. “Millions of demon beasts live in the Demon Sea, and it has lots of rival forces. Unlike Little White, many of them are transformed already with strength at least equivalent to the Nascent Soul Realm.”

Hao Ren thought for a while and vaguely remembered that Zhen Congming came from the Demon Sea.

“The Demon Sea is in peace with our East Ocean Dragon Clan, right?” Hao Ren asked.

Zhao Hongyu smiled helplessly. “The biggest reason that the four ocean dragon clans formed a close alliance is to guard against the Demon Sea. Most of the demon beasts in the Demon Sea is powerful, and the four ocean dragon clans have reached the agreement to guard against the Demon Sea with joint forces, preventing them from breaking out of the territory of the Demon Sea and threatening the safety of the four ocean dragon clans.”

“Demon kings... Are there such things?” Hao Ren suddenly remembered something and asked.

“Once a demon beast could transform, it could rule one piece of territory and call itself a king. There are thousands of demon kings, big and small, in the Demon Sea,” Zhao Hongyu said.

“Damn! They sound powerful, but there are just too many of them! They couldn’t be that powerful!” Hao Ren thought.

“The top-ten demon kings rule the ten most powerful forces, and it’s said that each of them has the strength equivalent to or greater than that of that Soul Formation Realm, and they could never die or be killed,” Zhao Hongyu said.

“More powerful than the Soul Formation Realm...” Hao Ren immediately corrected his previous impression.

He had witnessed the great power of the old Grandma and experienced the strength of the old man living in the Kunlun Mountain. Now, he wondered about the power of the ten strongest demon kings in the Demon Sea...

“Of course, we got the information from some small demon kings. In the territory of our East Ocean Dragon Palace, there are dozens of demon kings. They have small forces, and they were squeezed out of the Demon Sea. They had nowhere to go and sought shelter in our East Ocean Dragon Clan,” Zhao Hongyu said slowly.

While they were talking, huge waves suddenly rose from the peaceful ocean.

Hundreds of East Ocean soldiers with long spears stepped on the waves and stabbed toward the surface of the sea.

Suddenly, a dozen or so of black monsters like brutal bulls charged up, and they shot black light toward the soldiers of East Ocean.

Bang! Bang... The hundreds of soldiers fought the dozen or so monsters fiercely and couldn't gain the upper hand.

One soldier wearing white armor was stabbed by the hard horn of a brutal bull, and blood instantly splashed out. Meanwhile, these monsters ran wild on the sea surface and scattered the formation of the East Ocean soldiers.

They had been fighting at the bottom of the sea, which gave the illusion of peace on the sea surface. As the battle escalated, they rushed out of the sea!

With a wave of his right hand, Hao Ren shot out dozens of sword energies toward the brutal bulls.

The brutal bulls turned to Hao Ren with a red light flashing in their eyes. If Hao Ren had been a mortal instead of a Gen-level cultivator, he would be terrified.

Dang! Dang... Sword energies hit the hard horns of the brutal bulls, and some of them were bounced off.

Also, some sword energies pierced their bodies but couldn't cut them into pieces, making them even fiercer.

They all rushed toward Hao Ren.

Hao Ren was surprised that his Gen-level sword energies which were equivalent to that of the top-tier Core Formation Realm couldn't kill these demon beasts.

“Three Talents Heaven Earth! Initiate!”

The 320 sword energies suddenly formed three loops and connected, crashing toward the brutal bulls.

With the five-elemental sword energies connecting, the sword arrays' powers significantly increased.

With an explosion of five-colored light, the arrays cut down all the brutal black bulls.

Splash! Splash... The corpses of the brutal bulls dropped into the ocean.

“Thank you, Dragon Queen, for saving us!” Hundreds of soldiers yelled toward the direction of the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting.

“It wasn't me.” Zhao Hongyu waved her hand. “It's East Ocean's Commanding General who saved you!”

Hearing her words, the soldiers all looked at Hao Ren in surprise.

They had been guarding the boundary of the East Ocean and had little information from back home. They didn't get to attend the dinner banquet during the Dragon God Festival but knew from sources back home that Third Lord was no longer the Commanding General, and the person who took his place was the young Fuma who was also very powerful.

Seeing Hao Ren and hearing the words from Zhao Hongyu, they knew that this young man who helped them was indeed the new Commanding General of East Ocean!

"I have an elixir pill. Take it this moment." After taking out a Detox Pill from his necklace, Hao Ren handed it to the soldier whose belly had been stabbed open by a demon beast.

The soldier was a tough guy who was still alive despite the big wound in his belly.

Pale-faced, this soldier thought he couldn't make it, but the Commanding General handed an elixir pill to him.

Although he didn't know how to make elixir pills, he smelled the intense nature essence from the elixir pill and knew it was not a low-leveled one.

In fact, this elixir pill was a level 4 elixir pill made by Xie Yujia, and it was something the sects on Fifth Heaven would fight for.

"Take it immediately," Hao Ren urged him when he saw the hesitation on the soldier's face.

"Thank you, Commanding General!" The soldier looked at Hao Ren gratefully and swallowed the elixir pill.

The moment the elixir pill entered his stomach, the wound began to heal visibly.

Looking at the young and powerful Commanding General, this soldier suddenly burst into tears.

"General Liu... General Liu... He..."

The surrounding soldiers all looked sad.

After looking around, Hao Ren saw no general among them and knew the demon beasts must have killed their general.

The guarding of the boundary between the East Ocean and the Demon Sea was the most dangerous task that was shared by the soldiers of East Ocean in turns. Despite all this, some of them would die in the conflicts each year.

The fierce demon beasts in the Demon Sea would launch sneak attacks on the patrolling East Ocean soldiers, and the soldiers couldn't back off since their retreat would mean dozens of meters of expansion of the Demon Sea's territory!

It was fortunate that the mighty demon beasts lived in the center of the Demon Sea while the demon beasts living near the boundary were comparatively low-leveled ones.

After a moment of consideration, Hao Ren took out a bottle of elixir pills.

"These are some Essence Replenishment Pills which are beneficial to both cultivations and wound healing. You guys use them according to your needs."

He placed the porcelain bottle containing the elixir pills into the hand of the soldier who just got wounded, and it was meant for the whole team to share.

Essence Replenishment Pills... The soldiers looked at each other in shock

The people who excelled in cultivation would try to become an elder of the dragon clan, and the ones who were less talented but still stronger were at least generals.

However, the ordinary soldiers couldn't get more powerful than Zhen-level due to their lack of talent, and they couldn't get many resources.

That was why they only had heard about the Essence Replenishment Pills but never saw one before, not to mention taking them!

Hua! Hua... After a few seconds of pause, hundreds of soldiers all kneeled before Hao Ren and said "Thank you for giving us the pills, Commanding General! We swear we'll protect East Ocean with our lives!" The uniform chant resonated in the area.

Not able to face such a great show of respect, Hao Ren immediately returned to Zhao Hongyu's side and waved at them.

Chapter 479: Top Ten Demon Kings

Under the gazes of the hundreds of East Ocean soldiers, Hao Ren and Zhao Hongyu headed back on the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting.

In fact, it would take them more than one day to circle around the East Ocean Dragon Clan's territory even on the fast River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting. By taking Hao Ren to the Immortal Spirit Island on the east boundary of East Ocean, Zhao Hongyu showed him the vast ocean area that was under their control.

After the human cultivators went on and above Fifth Heaven, the land fell to the hands of the dragon cultivators. But even without the newly gained land, the territory of the East Ocean Dragon Clan was still huge.

Even ancient emperors had no more territory than that!

"Can we build array formations around the Immortal Spirit Island?" Hao Ren asked Zhao Hongyu as they stood on the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting,

"It's useless..." Zhao Hongyu shook her head. "The boundary between the Demon Sea and the East Ocean Dragon Clan is very long, and no array formation is big enough to engulf the whole area. Besides, even array formations can't withstand the attacks of the demon beasts."

After a moment of consideration, she continued, "In fact, the four ocean dragon palaces discussed such an idea as you just mentioned, but sealing up the entire Demon Sea will turn it into a super big prison, and it's hard to predict the reactions of the top ten demon kings who pretty much control the Demon Sea."

Hao Ren froze for a moment and knew that his solution was too simple

“The top ten demon kings in the Demon Sea are fighting each other and have no time to deal with the situation of the surrounding areas. But if the four ocean dragon palaces built an array formation around the Demon Sea and turned it into a prison... In fact, the area around the Demon Sea is a battlefield where we train the soldiers. Under the watch of the Dragon God Shrine, the dragon cultivators only battle each other but couldn't really get that life-and-death experience, and the hundreds of years of peace on First Heaven has weakened the combat ability of the Dragon Tribe. However, as the core combat forces of the Dragon Tribe, the four ocean dragon palaces must maintain their fierce combat abilities, and the Demon Sea was a place that could let the generals and soldiers experience life-and-death situations,” Zhao Hongyu said calmly.

After hearing Zhao Hongyu's explanation, Hao Ren froze for a moment and then realized that this set up was the best for East Ocean.

It may be a good idea to build array formations to solve the problem permanently with the least casualties, but the troops of East Ocean would gradually lose combat power without enough real battles.

If enemies invaded them one day, how could the troops of East Ocean defend against them?

He suddenly remembered that in Zhao Kuo's Heavenly Tribulation, tens of thousands of soldiers withstood the heavenly lightning with such great courage. That could only be obtained from life-and-death experience.

“When Zhao Kuo was the Commanding General, he spent most of his time blocking the demon beasts' attacks and suppressing rebellions. We don't worry about the more powerful demon beasts, but some small demon kings would try to invade and occupy a portion of the territories of the East Ocean Dragon Clan each year with hundreds and sometimes thousands of demon beasts. Zhao Kuo's job was to beat them hard and push them back to the Demon Sea.”

Then, Zhao Hongyu turned to look at Hao Ren. “One day, you will go into battles and kill enemies.”

Zhao Kuo who was a master at peak Qian-level, so he had the power to suppress the demon kings who lived at the edge of the Demon Sea and those who had surrendered to the East Ocean Dragon Clan. However, Hao Ren's current strength...

“Recently, the Demon Sea has been quiet, and the area around it has seen no conflicts in the past five to six years, probably a result of internal fights in the Demon Sea.

“Due to the recent peace, the West Ocean Dragon Clan has the energy and military force to mess with us.” Zhao Hongyu looked angry.

After all, among the four ocean dragon palaces, the West Ocean Dragon Palace under Oldman Zeng's control was the most aggressive one, and the moment the Demon Sea quieted down, he began to make moves against the East Ocean Dragon Palace.

Meanwhile, Hao Ren thought of something else.

“No matter if it is the Demon Sea or the West Ocean Dragon Clan, strength spoke the loudest on First Heaven.”

“Auntie, is the Kunlun Mountain equivalent to the Nine Dragon Palace on First Heaven?” Hao Ren asked.

“The Kunlun Mountain...” After some thinking, Zhao Hongyu answered, “The Kunlun Mountain is the holy land of the cultivation sects. When the human cultivators moved to Fifth Heaven, only the Kunlun Mountain was left on the First Heaven as the result of negotiations.”

Seeing the bafflement on Hao Ren’s face, she continued, “Strictly speaking, the dragon cultivators occupy the majority of the land and ocean, but there are some other forces around such as the Kunlun Mountain, the Demon Sea, and the Remote Immortal Mountain.

“As the birthplace of the human cultivation, the Kunlun Mountain has always been the forbidden area for the dragon cultivators and ordinary human cultivators. It’s said that only the Soul Formation Realm cultivators are qualified to enter Kunlun.

“The Demon Sea is the territory of the demon beasts, and many high-leveled demon beasts live in there. The demon beasts which can transform into human forms are also called demon cultivators, and the most powerful ones who occupy territories in the deep ocean are demon kings.

“The Remote Immortal Mountains are the immortal islands on the Demon Sea. Despite their origin from the Kunlun Mountain, the people on the islands are far away from the land, and they have almost no connection with the cultivation sects. As a result, they weren’t involved in the great war between the five-elemental dragon cultivators and human cultivation sects. They are on their own and referred to hermit cultivators.”

Soul Formation Realm cultivators, demon cultivators, and hermit cultivators...

After Zhao Hongyu’s explanation, Hao Ren had a clear understanding of their relationships.

According to this classification, Zhen Congming could be called a demon cultivator. However, he had just transformed into the human form, and his realm was between Kan-level and Li-level. Therefore, he was a very weak demon cultivator.

The demon beasts who reached level 10 needed to pass the Heavenly Tribulation before they could transform into humans. Then, they must pass another Heavenly Tribulation when they reached the equivalent of peak Qian-level or Nascent Soul Realm...

As the blessed creatures of the Heavenly Dao, the dragon cultivators were born with dragon cores to help them cultivate.

However, the demon beasts could only cultivate on their own. They had to first obtain intelligence and pass the Heavenly Tribulation before cultivating again. It was much more difficult for them to reach peak Qian-level compared with dragon cultivators.

How mighty are the top ten demon kings who were dominating in the Demon Sea!

“Hehe, don’t worry. The demon beasts and demon kings in the Demon Sea have no interest in the land because of the nature essence intensity in the Demon Sea is much greater than the land. They must stay in the Demon Sea to progress faster.”

Zhao Hongyu said with a smile when she saw the surprised look on Hao Ren's face.

Hao Ren smiled and thought about Little White who knew nothing but following the girls; it would probably be killed with a slap if it was tossed into the Demon Sea.

Zhao Hongyu turned her fingers slightly, and the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting lowered while a red energy sphere appeared automatically, allowing them to dive to the bottom of the ocean.

"Greetings to Dragon Queen!"

Uniformed chants sounded immediately.

Zhao Hongyu put away the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting and stood on a rock at the bottom of the ocean.

Hao Ren looked around and found that they were in front of a big military base where over 80 giant military tents were set up.

"This is the newly-appointed Commanding General, Hao Ren," Zhao Hongyu glanced at Hao Ren by her side and said.

"Greetings to Commanding General!"

Tens of thousands of soldiers and dozens of generals kneeled on one knee and cupped their hands.

"Thanks for your hard work!" After a moment of consideration, Hao Ren yelled back.

Hua! Hua... The soldiers and generals stood up as one.

Compared with the soldiers who attended the banquet in the East Ocean Dragon Palace during the Dragon Boat Festival, these soldiers and generals stationed at the frontier looked sharper.

Each soldier was tightly dressed, and the weapons in their hands were very sharp while the archers kept the bows and arrows with them. Hao Ren looked at them in silent admiration.

As to the generals, some wore white armor, and some wore golden armor; each of them looked serious.

From the looks of it, Hao Ren knew that they didn't just put on the armors hastily for this temporary occasion.

This base was one of the thousands of military bases around the territory of the East Ocean Dragon Clan. The moment Zhao Hongyu entered the sea, they all stood in lines to greet her, showing that they had been observing the situation above the sea surface all this time.

From this military camp alone, Hao Re could tell that the other thousands of the military bases were similar, and they must have strict military disciplines where all the soldiers and generals were doing their duty well.

Seeing this scene, Hao Ren couldn't help but admire Zhao Kuo's strict management of the troops.

"Let's go," Zhao Hongyu said.

The River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting spread out again, carrying Hao Ren and Zhao Hongyu up to the surface of the ocean.

“Farewell, Dragon Queen! Farewell, Commanding General!”

Tens of thousands of soldiers and generals chanted altogether.

Zhao Hongyu turned the River-Mountain Qian-Kun Painting to its fastest speed, and it took them only half an hour to return to Coral Island.

One hour had passed, and the sun had set.

In the vague night scene of the Coral Island, the five-star hotel was brightly lit like a bright conch in the dark night.

Zhao Hongyu didn't say anything else to Hao Ren since she believed Hao Ren understood what she wanted to tell him.

They took the elevator to the top floor of the hotel.

Yue Yang was drinking wine with the girls in the presidential suite, and she was in a good mood.

Little White moved around her feet, eager for a taste of the wine.

However, only a few licks later, it couldn't stand still anymore.

“Hongyu, you are back?” Seeing Zhao Hongyu's return, Yue Yang asked with a smile.

“Yes...” Zhao Hongyu smiled slightly. “Why didn't you invite me to drink with you?”

“Auntie, cheers!” Lu Linlin immediately picked up one glass and placed it before Zhao Hongyu.

They were all a bit drunk, but they were in a good mood.

“Ren, have a good night,” Zhao Hongyu turned back and said to Hao Ren who stood at the entrance.

“Oh... Ok.” Looking at the red-faced girls, Hao Ren scratched his head and walked to his own suite in loneliness.

Click.

The door to the presidential suite closed, and crisp laughs sounded.

“The women rule...” Hao Ren took out his key card and sighed helplessly.

Chapter 480: Failed Poison Pill Plan

The presidential suite was soundproofed, and Hao Ren had no idea how crazy of a time they were having.

Although it seemed like all Zhao Hongyu had to handle was only some trivial matters at home and to run a world-famous architectural studio, she was stressful.

Yue Yang, on the other hand, was a strong woman in everybody's eyes, and she also had tremendous stress from both work and family.

As they both let go of their statuses, they could definitely get along with Xie Yujia and the others with their youthful look and mentality...

"Ah, differences between males and females," Hao Ren thought. Even if they were having fun all night, he still couldn't join.

Hao Ren opened the window and let in the fresh air of the island. He sat down with his legs crossed and started cultivating.

He comprehended a lot of things while patrolling the territory of East Ocean with Zhao Hongyu today.

Although the East Ocean Dragon Clan seemed peaceful, strong enemies were waiting for a chance to attack, and the situation was far more complicated than he expected.

The East Ocean Dragon Clan was the head of the four ocean dragon clans in name. If a war were to break out, the East Ocean Dragon Clan would be the first to bear the burn.

With great power comes great responsibility...

Pure nature essences entered Hao Ren's body and exited from his acupoints.

The cultivation of the five elemental essences was required to practice the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll, and it led to slow cultivation progress.

Hao Ren cultivated non-stop every night.

In comparison, he was almost as hard-working as Su Han.

The sun rose slowly from the east side of the ocean.

Hao Ren who sat down in his room all night could easily watch the sunrise through the giant windows.

The red sun gradually rose up and lit up the whole world.

The suites located on the top floor of this five-star hotel had the best views. If a couple saw such a beautiful sunrise from this suite, it would definitely be something that was worth remembering for the rest of their lives.

Yet... Hao Ren looked at the room and let out a long sigh.

A night of cultivation did not open any opening on the dragon core.

"Ren, time for breakfast!"

Yue Yang knocked on the door and yelled.

"Coming..." Hao Ren rubbed his eyes intentionally and pretended to have just woken up.

Then, he put on a jacket and opened the door.

Zhao Hongyu, Yue Yang, and the four girls were all wearing swimsuits.

“Let’s go,” Zhao Hongyu smiled at Hao Ren.

Ruff, ruff... Ruff, ruff...

Little White was standing by Xie Yujia, and it jumped up and down excitedly as if it was mocking Hao Ren since it spent the night in the presidential suite.

Hao Ren smacked its head and followed the girls to the restaurant on the third floor.

Many men were jealous of Hao Ren who was eating with a table full of beautiful women.

“Did you sleep well last night?” At the buffet area, Xie Yujia passed Hao Ren a glass of milk and asked.

“Um, not bad. What about you?” Hao Ren asked her.

“We were drinking for a bit, and everyone was having fun.” Xie Yujia’s face was slightly red. She continued, “I wanted to stay with you for a little bit last night, but I thought it wouldn’t be appropriate.”

“It’s okay; I can sleep alone.”

Hao Ren suddenly realized that what he said could be misinterpreted.

As expected, Xie Yujia’s face turned from slightly red to bright red.

After she handed Hao Ren that glass of milk, she went silent and continued to grab food.

“This stupid mouth, that’s why two years in university and still single...”

Xie Yujia said she wanted to find Hao Ren because she didn’t want him to be lonely, but Hao Ren’s comment made it seem like she was trying to sleep with him, which, was definitely not what she meant.

“Gongzi!”

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were both holding a plate of meat and sat down on both sides of Hao Ren.

They had a slight fragrance around them, and they looked lively in bikinis.

“Gongzi, we were going to come to find you last night!” they said sweetly while cutting the meat on their plates.

“Uh...” Hao Ren looked at them and didn’t know what to say.

“Uncle!” Zhao Yanzi who was wearing her green bikini sat in front of Hao Ren and asked, “How was your sleep last night?”

“How late did you guys stay up?” Hao Ren asked in reply.

“Around... 12!” Zhao Yanzi tilted her head and continued, “I wanted to come and find you, but I was with my mom and was too scared to sneak out.”

Hao Ren looked at the girls speechlessly and thought, “You guys planned this and are trying to tease me, aren’t you?”

Not far away, Yue Yang and Xie Yujia were both holding their plates and walking back side-by-side. It looked like they were mother and daughter.

“How about... tonight...” Zhao Yanzi leaned forward and grinned.

In fact, she really wanted to stay with Hao Ren and tease him.

Although Hao Ren had always talked to her like he was older, he was actually very shy. It would be fun teasing him all night, wouldn't it?

“What are you talking about, we are leaving today!” Zhao Hongyu came by and lightly slapped Zhao Yanzi's head.

Zhao Yanzi covered her head with her hands immediately and pretended to be in pain. Her natural reaction made her look extremely cute.

“We are leaving today?” Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were a bit surprised as well.

They came along this time with a carefully designed ‘Poison Pill Plan’.

Yet, they did not expect that they would only stay on this beautiful island for just one night.

“Yeah. Do you guys want to stay for a few more days?” Zhao Hongyu asked with a smile.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili had nothing to say in reply.

Hao Ren did not know their thoughts nor their plans. He shook his head and smiled as he saw their reluctant looks.

The sceneries at the Coral Island were absolutely gorgeous. Hao Ren was certain that after a year of development, the island would become a popular vacation spot.

By that time, it would become a hotspot in the country and even the entire southeast Asia.

It seemed like Yue Yang and Zhao Hongyu had a lot to talk about. They walked along the coast and chatted at the same time.

On the other hand, Zhao Yanzi and the rest went to the diving area at the back of Coral Island.

Coral Island, just like its name said, had many corals around it.

Although the diving area wasn't open to the public, they were allowed to enter because of Zhao Hongyu.

Even though Xie Yujia wasn't good at swimming in the ocean, she was fine with the peaceful water in that area.

“Gongzi, try the water first!”

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili suddenly pushed Hao Ren from behind.

Hao Ren was caught off guard and fell into the water, and Lu Linlin and Lu Lili stood on the shore and giggled.

When Xie Yujia saw Hao Ren being embarrassed, she couldn't help but laugh as well. This area behind the island was like a super clear swimming pool away from the energetic ocean waves.

Xie Yujia tested the water temperature with her toes and slowly slid down the rocks into the ocean water.

Xie Yujia was already very beautiful in her black bikini.

After entering the water, she seemed even more beautiful under the sparkling reflection of the ocean.

She slowly swam toward Hao Ren.

Compared to the Lu sisters, Xie Yujia had a better figure. Under the slow and gentle waves of the ocean, her skin looked even clearer and tenderer.

"Hey! Uncle!" Zhao Yanzi was not pleased when she saw Hao Ren staring at Xie Yujia.

Plop! She jumped into the water like a cannonball and created a two-meter-high wave.

Just like a little white dragon in the water, Zhao Yanzi swam to Hao Ren in an instant and punched him in the chest.

However, under the resistance of the ocean water, her punch turned into a gentle push when her fist touched Hao Ren's chest.

Hao Ren grabbed Zhao Yanzi's fist and pulled her toward himself. However, with the extra momentum in the water, their bodies touched each other in the ocean water.

Zhao Yanzi was wearing a bikini, and Hao Ren was only wearing black swim trunks. Their skins touched, and Hao Ren's arm even touched Zhao Yanzi's chest, causing the latter who was fierce to blush instantly.

"Ouch!"

Hao Ren suddenly shouted in pain.

It was Zhao Yanzi who bit into his shoulder after Hao Ren accidentally touched her.

"Humph!" Zhao Yanzi then kicked Hao Ren's chest and swam backward.

All these years, she had never been touched in the chest by a man, especially when she was wearing a bikini!

Toom! Toom!

The Lu sister jumped into the water as well. They lined up together and swam quickly toward Hao Ren like two mermaids.

"Haha, Gongzi made a very unwise move!" They gloated over Hao Ren's misfortune.

On the other hand, Xie Yujia shook her head and smiled as she swung her arms and swam toward Hao Ren.

Zhao Yanzi who was still angry suddenly saw Hao Ren being surrounded by the three beautiful girls. She slapped the water forcefully and swam back to Hao Ren unwillingly.

Hao Ren inhaled and dived into the water, and Lu Linlin and Lu Lili smiled and followed.

Xie Yujia, on the other hand, activated the Life-Death Notes and pushed herself into the water as well.

“Oh, okay, ignore me!” Zhao Yanzi smacked the water angrily as she turned around and dived into the water too.

Because of the refraction, everything under the ocean water seemed exceptionally beautiful.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were swimming on Hao Ren’s two sides, and their hair was fluttering like ribbons and looked very beautiful.

Xie Yujia’s skin seemed whiter and more hydrated in the water, and her face looked even more elegant as tiny bubbles stayed on her delicate skin.

Zhao Yanzi who was chasing from behind rushed toward Xie Yujia who was being stared at Hao Ren and stared back with her fierce eyes.

“Uh... Fierce Wifey...”

All Hao Ren could do was to look away.

He dived deeper.

The water temperature was supposed to get colder as they dived deeper.

However, perhaps it was because of the Light Splitting Sword Shadow Scroll, or because it might be Lu Linlin and Lu Lili, Hao Ren felt that the water wasn’t as cold as before. In fact, it was very warm.

A field of natural corals appeared in front of their eyes.

There were corals in various colors such as blue, black, white, and yellow. Of course, the red corals were the most beautiful.

Xie Yujia was pleasantly surprised since it was her first time seeing real corals.

She reached out and carefully touched these different colored and shaped corals.

Since Zhao Yanzi lived in the East Ocean Dragon Palace in the past, she had seen countless corals before. She had even seen many corals that were over 10,000 years old.

However, because of the beautiful sceneries on this island, it felt different seeing these corals that were unexplored before.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili had seen many flashy treasures before, but swimming between the corals in the ocean made it feel particularly interesting.

They were both very good at swimming since they could swim very fast. With just a light stroke of their arms and legs, they could move around agilely.

Corals, pearls, and ambers were different types of treasures, and they had very high medicinal values and collection values.

Lu Linlin and Lu Lili circled at the bottom of the sea and swam by Hao Ren’s sides.

On the other hand, Xie Yujia swam between the corals. She was so gentle that fishes laid down their guards and swam around her.

A few beautiful fishes swam past her fingers as Xie Yujia lifted her hands, and some fishes even deliberately stayed on her palms.

Zhao Yanzi tried to mimic Xie Yujia's actions and spread her arms.

However, the fishes around her immediately swam away, which made her stamp her foot angrily under the sea.

Hao Ren was swimming forward in the sea, and he suddenly felt two soft lips on his cheeks.

Hao Ren turned his head and saw Lu Linlin and Lu Lili swimming away like two frightened fishes.

Because of their slim figures, Lu Linlin and Lu Lili were very agile in the water. Hao Ren knew he wouldn't be able to catch them, so he had to let them 'take advantage of him'.

As Hao Ren swam toward the girls, he gently grabbed Xie Yujia's hand and Zhao Yanzi's arm.

Xie Yujia gazed at Hao Ren with her beautiful eyes and held onto Hao Ren's palm. Her palm was soft and was very comfortable to hold.

However, Zhao Yanzi tried to pull her arm away from Hao Ren. However, it was no use, so she let Hao Ren hold her.

Boom!

Hao Ren suddenly released two sword energies under his feet, and he was moving very fast like a jet under the water.

Due to the enormous impulsive force, Xie Yujia and Zhao Yanzi were pushed against Hao Ren.

However, they were extremely excited since they were dashing under the sea. It was thrilling, to say the least.

Bang, bang, bang...

A white wave appeared on the sea surface as Hao Ren took them around the entire coast flying into the sky.
