Chapter 631

When Lily came out, everyone looked at her.

Mrs. Livingstone was the first to ask, "Is the child okay?"

Thomas looked at her angrily as if she had just killed his child... However, Lily ignored these two people and walked straight to Nora.

One had to know that Lily was considered a famous surgeon outside.

When had she been treated so slowly by others? Oh, except for her boss.

Just like now, she had already walked to Nora, but Nora still did not speak.

She could only say, "Boss, I've successfully taken the DNA sample, the patient's child is fine."

Nora's reply was, "Okay"

She yawned widely.

Lily: "..."

Thomas, who was beside him, glared at her.

"You said that there's no problem, but how can I trust you? I've already asked how to do amniotic fluid puncture. Forget about one month, even at four months the probability of a miscarriage is very high!"

Nora looked at him slowly.

"It's highly unlikely that anything would go wrong when Lily is the one performing such a small procedure."

Thomas: "?"

Nora glanced at the report and could not be bothered with this woman. She threw the report to her.

Mrs. Livingstone immediately took it.

After taking a look, she was stunned and frowned tightly.

Jessica, who was accompanying Helen, walked over at the right time.

When she saw Mrs. Livingstone's disbelieving expression, she walked to her and said, "This child is almost four months old. Now that the results are out... Mrs. Livingstone, you should believe it, right?"

Hearing her words, Mrs. Livingstone suddenly looked up.

She did not dare to believe this report and said, "Impossible. After I found out that Cecelia was pregnant, I personally took her to the hospital for another checkup! It was indeed a month old!"

How could she not know how long Cecelia was pregnant for? She had suspected it before, so she specially took Cecelia to the hospital.

Yesterday, before Thomas got a divorce, she had done a fresh checkup.

As soon as she said this, Jessica asked, "Which hospital did you go to?"

Mrs. Livingstone said, "New York Women's and Children's Hospital."

After the angry roar, Cecelia kept her mouth shut.

"This child is yours. What nonsense are you talking about?"

Smack! A slap landed ruthlessly.

Thomas roared, "This child isn't mine! The evidence is conclusive now, but you're still lying here?! Tell me, whose child is this?!"

"It's yours..."

Cecelia refused to speak.

"F*ck, I'll beat you to death!"

Thomas could not stand it anymore.

Even in front of so many people, he began to curse.

The ward was instantly in chaos.

Then, medical staff rushed in and said that Cecelia was pregnant, urging Thomas not to do anything.

Outside the ward.

Mrs. Livingstone stood there in a daze.

These words entered Nora's ears, making her very uncomfortable.

She did not understand why, but when she heard others say that about Xander, she felt that although she was right, these bad words were too much for a child.

Her eyes turned cold suddenly and she sneered.

"Do you think it's really that easy to treat his weak semen?"

Mrs.Livingstone was stunned and asked, "What do you mean?"

Nora had already lowered her eyes and did not want to speak anymore.

Thomas had been overly indulgent and had serious kidney deficiency.

His weak semen had already reached the level of sterilization.

This illness was really difficult to treat.

However! If he wanted a child, she had an alternative medicine pill.

When Jessica heard this, her expression instantly changed. However, she suppressed her laughter and regained her calmness in an instant.

"Mrs. Livingstone, your words are a little frivolous. Before us, other families have had quadruplets, quintuplets, and sextuplets. They have all been on the news. Why are you only focusing on our triplets?"

When she said this, her voice was very low. She clearly did not want it to be made public.

Mrs. Livingstone began to count.

"There are not many twins in wealthy families, let alone triplets. But in the past few years, there have been a total of seven pairs of triplets in wealthy families. The first is yours, the next is your second sister's, and then yours again. Your second sister even gave birth to quadruplets. Your family has a lot of children. Your mother gave birth to them. You and your second sister are also twins. We don't have any doubts, we only exclaim how awesome your genes are. However, following that, the Lloyds also gave birth to twins. The strange thing was that be it the man or the woman, there was no precedent of them having multiple births. When I asked around, I learned that the mother of the girl from the Lloyds was your mother's half-sister! It was only because the two of them did not live together since they were young that the outside world did not know about their relationship."

At this point, Mrs. Livingstone smiled and continued, " And..."

She explained the origins of the seven triplets clearly.

In the end, she said, "Therefore, your family must have a way to have triplets. Tell me, I will never slander Helen outside in the future! Also, once she gets her dowry back, I can also share a portion of her shared assets with Thomas."

When Helen got a divorce, she had only brought back her own dowry.

But actually, her dowry and the Livingstones' assets had earned a lot of money over the years.

Logically speaking, Helen should get a bonus.

Hearing this, Jessica was stunned and did not answer for a moment.

After a moment, she sighed.

"Actually, it was six years ago. I had once saved a lunatic. He was wearing ragged clothes and fainted from hunger on the way. Then, I gave him some food and some money. In order to repay me, that person gave me a formula." Jessica sighed.

"At first, I did not believe in that formula. I brought it home for my mother who knew a little about alternative medicine. After taking a look, she said that it was a divine medicine. Therefore, she got me to make a few pills. When we wanted children after marriage, we ate one pill and really gave birth to triplets."

At this point, Jessica continued, "Later on, I gave it to my second sister. She also gave birth to triplets. However, my second sister was more greedy. She ate two during her second pregnancy, so she gave birth to quadruplets..."

Nora: "?"

This could still be controlled? She hesitated for a moment.

"What did that lunatic look like?"

At the mention of a crazy person, she thought of a possibility. It was Old Maddy who was still in the hospital and being taken care of by Lily.

Ever since Old Maddy's food poisoning incident, he had been in the hospital.

Later on, Nora taught Lily the method of acupuncture and asked her to continue treating Old Maddy. Speaking of which...

Not only did Lily have to perform acupuncture on Old Maddy regularly, but she also had to drug Quentin regularly.

She also had to constantly do DNA tests and restore the DNA sequencing to its original state before using it to compare samples...

She was really busy.

Yes, remember to give Lily a raise! While Nora was thinking about this, Jessica said, "He looked like a normal person. He looked quite dirty, but I didn't take a photo."

Nora took out her phone and found Old Maddy's photo to show her.

"Is this the person?"

Jessica looked at the disfigured person and immediately shook her head.

"No. The lunatic I saved spoke incoherently, but he wasn't disfigured. I still remember that there was a huge mole on his left cheek, and there was a strand of hair on the mole."

Old Maddy had been disfigured more than twenty years ago.

However, Jessica had saved the person six years ago.

The note should have been written a long time ago.

The edges had been worn down to the point of being dilapidated.It had been protected very well by the Stewarts.

The piece of paper was probably very old.It was slightly yellowish as if it would disintegrate with a light tug.

Nora was silent for a moment before suddenly asking, "Can I have this piece of paper?"

Jessica sensed Nora's expression and knew that the matter seemed to be a little serious.

She said, "Sure.Actually, we have already recorded the formula on this piece of paper.We kept this piece of paper to commemorate it."

This piece of paper was meaningless to the Stewarts.Nora nodded.She carefully folded the piece of paper following the creases and placed it in her pocket.

When she looked up again, she looked at Jessica and thanked her.

Jessica said, "I should be the one thanking you.However, please keep this between us."

If everyone came looking for their secret medicine, it would be troublesome.

Nora understood, so she nodded.She did not stay long with Justin.

Before leaving, Justin suddenly stopped in his tracks and looked at Jessica.

"If there's anything in the future, you can directly come to me"

This was a promise Justin made to her.

After all, although Nora had helped the Stewarts, it was hard for Jessica to take out the formula to repay her.

Now that Jessica was being so cooperative, the Hunts could not ignore them.

Furthermore, if Jessica did not give the formula to Mrs. Livingstone, she would probably become enemies with them.

Justin's words were also a promise to the Stewarts for their protection.

The Hunts would not stand on the Livingstones' side! Jessica heaved a sigh of relief.

The reason she was so cooperative was that she hoped that the Hunts and Smith would not interfere in this matter. The Stewarts and her husband's family were not afraid of the Livingstones.

The words were from Yvette, but it did not mean that the person who had schemed against her back then was Yvette.

However, it meant that the lunatic at least knew Yvette.

The person who had schemed against her for her pregnancy back then was definitely Trueman.

Otherwise, Ruth would not have had a photo of her and Justin...

Furthermore, if her mother's person had schemed against her to get her pregnant, then it was impossible for Trueman to know the entire truth.

Nora frowned. Her head was filled with confusion.

What happened back then was like a mystery.

What was going on? Why was her mother's formula in the hands of that old man? And did she give birth to twins or triplets back then?! At this moment, her questions were like a tangled ball of thread that could not be resolved.

Nora took a deep breath and suppressed the confusion in her heart. She then walked out of the door and went downstairs. She realized that Justin was sitting on the sofa with a serious expression while Melissa was also looking amiable.

The two of them should have had a pleasant conversation just now.

Nora greeted Melissa before leaving the Andersons with Justin.

When he saw Nora's gaze, Justin stood up and went out with her.

The man sat in the driver's seat again.

Melissa then heaved a sigh of relief. She smiled and watched as the two of them left.

When she went upstairs, she saw that Mrs. Anderson was standing by the window, staring at their departing figures.

Melissa saw the worry on Mrs. Anderson's face and could not help but say, "Mom, Mr. Hunt seems to be very good to Nora.

You should be relieved! Why are you still so worried?"

Mrs. Anderson sighed.

"I'm just afraid that one day, Nora will suddenly disappear like Yvette." Melissa was taken aback.

"I'm so angry, I'm so angry.Jumbo, are you fighting with a wild beast ? You stayed in the jungle for so long, don't you see that the middle lane has already opened up! There's so much HP are you blind?"

Although Cherry was very fierce when she scolded people in her childish voice, it was funny to see her dancing on the sofa.

"I think he might be a Buddhist who can't bear to kill."

Xander stood behind Cherry's sofa and played the supporting role.

Cherry rolled her eyes and turned around with her back to Xander. It was obvious that she did not want to talk to him.

"Can you shut up?"

Xander stuck out his tongue and closed his eyes. He stood there obediently.

Cherry continued the next group battle.

"Jumbo! I'm an ADC, do you know what an ADC is? Why are you stealing from my minions? Don't you know I'm looking for more resources?"

She had just finished complaining when Xander said again, "This guy probably died of poverty in his previous life, so he wants whatever money he sees in this life."

Cherry was in a fit of anger. She nodded immediately.

"You have a point!"

However, as soon as she finished speaking, she suddenly realized who had said those words. Cherry immediately rolled her eyes and glanced at Xander. She tilted her head and said in a childish voice, "Can you not talk to me?"

Xander stabbed his elbows into the sofa and hung his chin.

His chubby face was held in his hands.

"But there's only you and me in this house. If I don't talk to you, who will I talk to?"

Cherry: "...The butler!"

"Tsk, I'm not talking to him."

Xander continued to look at Cherry.

"I just want to talk to you."

Cherry: She rolled her eyes again and stood up from the sofa. She strode upstairs with Xander following behind her.

"What are you going to do Cherry: "I'll play upstairs."

Xander nodded.

"I think it's quieter upstairs too. It's too noisy with people coming and going downstairs."

The two of them went up to the second floor one after another and arrived in front of Cherry's room.

Cherry walked in and Xander was about to follow when Cherry suddenly turned around and looked into the distance.

"Daddy!"

Xander suddenly looked over but realized that there was no one there. He turned around to see Cherry's door close with a bang.
