

Emperor 2111

Chapter 2111: Setting Off

These feelings made Jinsheng stay to teach at the academy. Though he was only one step away from being an Ancient God - a being with boundless future, he still made up his mind to do the right thing.

Li Qiye smiled and said: "Everyone was arrogant once. The academy is worthy of your effort and the future certainly won't be easy. Having a capable combatant like you is worthy of celebration."

This decision has made Jisheng much happier and smiled, recalling when his fiery self spewed out aggressive words against the teachers and left the academy. Now, this was a type of fate, becoming a teacher and dealing with students in his old age.

"And you?" Li Qiye looked at Goldloop.

He scratched his head and smiled wryly: "Haha, I do want to stay with the old geezer as my backing, but alas, I still have the old and young waiting for me back home so I have to come back and take care of them."

He was different from Jinsheng and had a responsibility to strengthen his clan. He had found their lost manual so it was time to return and lead.

"Go now, a descendant of the Wang should go back." Li Qiye casually gave him several treasures.

Goldloop was surprised to see the gifts and performed a full kowtow: "Thank you, Teacher." [1]

His clan was in decline so a revival would take a very long time. These treasures were akin to a firepit in the winter; it was perfect and crucial.

"Don't let me down now." Li Qiye nodded and accepted the ceremony.

After finishing the bows, he finally got up with a happy heart and went to the side.

"Xinxue, what about you?" He also liked this timid girl, recalling a different old friend.

"I..." She glanced at Li Qiye then at the other two, not knowing what to say.

The other two came to the academy with an agenda unlike her. She came to read and learn as an ordinary student, a purer intention. She didn't know what to do now since she would be the last one here at Study Room.

"I don't know... I'll probably just keep on reading." The second sentence had another meaning. Though she came from a powerful clan and was the oldest daughter, she didn't get along with her family and wanted to drown in the books at the academy.

Thus, she wanted to stay at this library after graduation, far away from the trouble and complication of life.

"That's fine, I'll tell the academy to let you stay here after graduation." Li Qiye nodded.

"Really?" She became ecstatic. An ordinary student like her couldn't just stay at the academy after graduation. Only the excellent ones had this option, so this was amazing news.

“Haha, little girl, congratulation, your dream is becoming true.” Goldloop laughed heartily.

She immediately gave Goldloop and Jinsheng a hug. Even the old man was smiling since he saw her growing up and was sort of a senior to her. She almost hugged Li Qiye too but quickly stopped after remembering his identity.

He gave her a quick embrace and smiled: “Try your best, little one, I’m sure you will be successful in this.”

Her face turned red and nodded continuously. Words couldn’t describe her emotions right now.

In the end, the three left and Li Qiye went to find Soaring Immortal Prince.

The prince bowed and said: “Thank you, Your Excellency, for saving Celestial.”

Li Qiye shook his head: “No need to thank me, this chess board has been prepared for a long time now, not expecting to actually use it. One can only say that greed is overwhelming even for emperors.”

The prince gently sighed. So many monarchs and High Gods didn’t hesitate to end the academy despite what it had done for them.

“The thirteen continents should be calm now after this battle.” He said. No one would dare to challenge the academy now after fully seeing its capabilities.

“As it should, but this is only the calm before the storm, the prelude before the descent of darkness.” Li Qiye said.

“It’s coming that fast?” The prince shuddered, aware of this terror.

Li Qiye nodded: “Yes, it’s very near. The dark overlords have been hiding all along, no one knew of their existences. But now, they couldn’t help but showed themselves? Outside of the greed earlier, they knew that there isn’t much time left so they wanted to take my dao heart as preparation for the winter.”

“True.” The prince nodded: “They have erased all traces of their existences in the past eras, not wanting the world to know that the shadow is always looking at the thirteen continents.”

Few knew about the existences of these beings, not even the low-level emperors. Only the top ones have heard of legends; the ones who could actually make contract were the twelve-will emperors.

Nevertheless, World and his peers wouldn’t tell the world in a reckless manner.

“A war is inevitable in the future.” Li Qiye said: “I hope that light of the academy will be eternal. As long as it is around to guide the hundred races, even if it is weak and flickering, it will be just fine as a symbol of hope in the darkness.”

“I hope so too.” The prince sighed: “We’ll certainly try our best, but what we really want is for you to guide us as the lamp.”

Li Qiye shook his head: “It’s time for me to leave. I won’t be around in the future, there’s something else I must do.”

“Where are you heading to?” The prince wasn’t surprised at all, understanding the importance of Li Qiye’s task. His father and grandfather also did the same.

“I don’t plan on participating in the final battle for now since it’s much more arduous than you can imagine. I’m going to someplace else, an untouchable world, for further research in order to reach a greater height. I must open a new page for this epoch, or it will be too hard later. Your father and grandfather have thought of this as well.”

“The mythical world that does not exist?” The prince asked. He knew many things due to his background. Both the emperors have tried to find the door to this world but due to a lack of fortune, they gave up and chose the ultimate expedition instead.

“Yes, the timing and fate weren’t right for them but I have prepared enough for a trip.” Li Qiye said.

Chapter 2112: Nonexistent World

“The nonexistent world is a thing?” The prince had heard his seniors talked about it too many times: “The reincarnation of the epochs means destruction, but that world is still an exceptional, capable of escaping from all punishments.”

He was not certain at all and would question these speculations if they didn’t come from his reliable loved ones.

The world wasn’t aware of how long an epoch was, same with weaker emperors. This was a privilege left to the twelve-will existences that could gaze through the river of time. They came to find that no epoch could escape from this cycle.

Thus, they started the expeditions in order to jump out of this rule so that they could protect their epoch.

Outside of this path, rumor has it that there was a world outside of the destruction cycle, not under the gaze of the high heaven.

It was an incalculable and unreachable world. No one knew how it was formed or what was there, hence the name - The World That Does Not Exist or Nonexistent World.

Of course, the twelve-will emperors could only have a slight idea, unable to actually visit there.

Fei and Deep South were certainly at the very top of the ladder in the thirteen continents. Their mighty power still wasn’t enough.

“Only lords of the epochs can go there?” The prince was shaken, aware of the immense difficulties.

“The lords can’t forcefully do it when the timing and luck aren’t right.” Li Qiye shook his head while pointing at his chest: “Sufficient power, luck, and a dao heart are essential for this journey.”

He paused for a bit before continuing: “Because of this, very few have made it here, and I don’t think anyone had done it in our epoch. In my opinion, our current dark overlords can’t either unless they were to have a breakthrough. But if one of them were able to take this next step, they wouldn’t be hiding in the shadow right now.”

“What kind of world is it? One with immortals?” The prince couldn’t imagine.

“Something similar to ours, not sure about immortals though.” Li Qiye said with a smile.

The prince was very interested in this matter. His father and grandfather were the strongest but they have never seen an immortal. Perhaps this level of being only belonged in the myths.

“That depends on how you define an immortal.” Li Qiye replied.

The prince contemplated for a bit. No one has ever seen one before so he didn’t know how to properly define one either, despite his great knowledge.

“Your Excellency, what is your definition?” The prince looked at Li Qiye.

Li Qiye chuckled and said: “My definition would be, indestructibility and eternal life, without resorting to external items. That’s an immortal. Anything else, regardless of how close, would only be a pseudo-immortal.” [1]

“Without using external items...” The prince took a deep breath. No one in this world could accomplish this task, at least not in his mind.

Li Qiye couldn’t do it either. His Dark Crow form satisfied the first two requirements but not the third since it needed the Longevity Grass. His current self couldn’t do so either. He hid his souls already but he would still die eventually. There were other powers available that could end him as well.

An “immortal” should be unkillable by anything and have eternal life.

“Then I don’t think one exists.” The prince smiled wryly after hearing this definition.

Li Qiye chuckled: “Indeed, but nothing is certain. Perhaps there are pseudo-immortals outside of our world.”

“Pseudo-immortal...” The prince’s eyes flashed.

“It just depends on the individual’s definition. What’s an immortal in your eyes might only be a pseudo in mine. But either way, our world definitely doesn’t have a pseudo or a real one.” Li Qiye said with a smile.

The prince sighed after hearing this. His father had indeed said that there was no immortal in their world.

“Then you are going to the Nonexistent World because...” The prince deduced.

Li Qiye was amused: “You think I’m looking for the immortals? Well, not exactly wrong because who wouldn’t chase after immortality?”

“You have been in that state before, I was simply curious.” The prince coughed, feeling slightly awkward.

“Perhaps that world really has existences of this level, but like I said, I’m going there to open a new page for this epoch. It would be nice to see these immortals as well.” Li Qiye smiled.

“I simply can’t fathom them at all.” The prince said.

"I don't know what they are like either, only that there are beings that have survived the ultimate expedition." Li Qiye continued.

The prince stared at him and commented: "I know that you're one of them."

"You are only half right." Li Qiye shook his head: "In fact, I'm not the only survivor from our own epoch."

"There are others?!!" The prince was shocked.

"That's right, even earlier than me in our epoch." Li Qiye revealed.

The prince took a deep breath after getting this confirmation. His father had told him of this before: "The legend is true then."

Fei and Deep South have speculated of this possibility before but they didn't have any concrete detail.

"How did they return?" The prince asked.

"I don't know. Personally, the final battle is probably impossible to come back from but some have made it in our epoch. There are too many questions about the first expedition, about the participants. Perhaps they were only cannon-fodders for a test." Li Qiye said with a cold smile and a profound glare.

The prince started to think about the mysterious first expedition. Logically, no one should be able to return alive from one outside of an undying being like Li Qiye. Perhaps all of the survivors were from this period.

He eventually sighed and said: "The final battle, that's probably even harder."

The prince was filled with disappointment. The top beings from all the epochs couldn't come back, including his father and grandfather. He knew them well enough to know that they weren't the type to give up halfway as deserters. Thus, their fate could be easily guessed.

"Well, I can't say either, but I believe there is one survivor from the final battle." Li Qiye said.

"Does that mean this person won?!" The prince suddenly became excited. This gave him hope for his family members.

Chapter 2113: Ancestral Nest

Not only was the prince excited about the possibility of his family being alive, the fact that someone else could survive from the final battle also meant that this epoch could still be saved.

"But if people have returned, why were their epochs still destroyed? Why couldn't they guard it?" He thought about something else.

"That's the most interesting part, and one of the reasons why I want to go to Nonexistence." Li Qiye chuckled: "If I'm correct, some have made it to the end of the ultimate expedition and left successfully."

"What? If that's the case, why didn't they return and protect their epoch?"

"No one knows." Li Qiye shook his head: "Well, leaving doesn't mean abandonment. This is why the ancient world is still around."

Many epochs have been destroyed but there were remnants, for example, Hope or the wildland. Nevertheless, there was no life in those places.

This ancient world was an exception. It certainly didn't belong to the current epoch yet it was full of life. No one knew how or why someone was able to leave it behind in this manner.

"Because of this, someone was able to reach Nonexistence from this place, no, more than just one. Nevertheless, even the lord of an epoch must go alone on this journey. Being able to take people with them would be too unbelievable." Li Qiye said.

"Wait, why didn't everything end after someone came back from the expedition? Why did they still let the cycle continue?" The prince found this illogical.

"Isn't that interesting? What would you do after reaching that height?" Li Qiye asked.

"Guard my epoch and stop the collapse." The prince immediately blurted out. This was the goal of so many wise sages. People have spent too much effort on this path, including his father and grandfather.

"But someone chose against that." Li Qiye said: "Maybe he moved his epoch or only worried about himself, or maybe, he chose to abandon everything."

"Why abandon everything?" The prince didn't get it. If he had such power, he would definitely never give up on his own epoch.

"I'm not them so I don't know." Li Qiye said flatly: "Perhaps he found that the world isn't worth saving, or perhaps he felt that something even worse would come of it. Or, he is actually guarding his epoch even now, we just don't know about it."

The prince didn't respond since he couldn't look further into this issue despite his considerable power.

"Then what would you do, Your Excellency?" He asked with a serious expression.

"You want to know whether I'll guard the epoch?" Li Qiye shook his head: "I won't, but I won't just leave either. The final battle is only the beginning for me personally, so I'll keep on fighting. That's my answer."

"Keep on fighting." The prince was shaken. Viewing the ultimate expedition as another starting point? When will it end for him?!

"That's why you all need to take care of the thirteen continents." Li Qiye said softly: "If I'm given the chance to make a choice in the future, I want to be a pioneer, opening a new door for myself."

The prince nodded, finding it unnecessary to comment any further.

Just like that, the two talked about other things, such as preparing another strategy for the academy again for the darkness in the future. It needed to survive the dark years in order to become the guiding beacon for everyone else!

"Boom!" Suddenly, a loud explosion resounded from the depth of the ancient world with chaos energy oozing out.

A nest from this place flew out, made from some unknown immortal wood. Laws and wondrous light floated around it. It seemed capable of gestating some incredible items.

A massive dragon and tiger were shouldering this nest, using the strongest technique in order to raise it. Alas, the nest didn't want to leave and dropped down again.

Detonations continued as the two beasts repeatedly struggled to move the nest.

"That's incredible." The prince praised.

All the ancestors looked over; they didn't know the ancient world still hid this level of an item.

"Look like they found it." Li Qiye smiled: "That's the ancestral nest of their races, their origin, and birthplace."

"Returning to the source..." Asura appeared and joined in: "Maybe we will be able to do that one day."

"Let's not do that." Li Qiye laughed: "Returning to the source might not be good for us, a bloody, abyssal jaw is probably waiting for a bite."

Asura was surprised but Li Qiye had no intention of elaborating.

"Up!" The two roared and used all of their power and technique, not even minding burning their longevity blood.

"Boom!" The entire ancient world trembled. Something seemed to have been uprooted completely. Next, the two were finally able to raise the nest fully to the sky.

They crossed through space and appeared above the academy while carrying the massive nest, blotting everything out.

"Your Excellency, we'll be going now." The dragon was ecstatic and told Li Qiye: "If you need us in the future, our two races will be under your command, to the death!"

Despite shouldering the heavy nest, they still bowed towards Li Qiye for what he had done for them!

This nest was too important and would change the future of their races completely.

"Go now, congratulation. Your races will prosper with many children from now, heading straight for the apex of this era."

The happy beasts roared and left with the nest.

"We should go too." Everything was done here so Li Qiye gave the command.

"Boom!" The academy once again sealed this world. It disappeared and the academy leaped out of the nine firmaments!

In the next second, the sceneries changed completely. The ancient world was nowhere to be found and they were back in Arrogance. Everything was still the same in this place.

"We're back!" The crowd rejoiced after seeing the familiar landscapes.

This naturally attracted others' attention and caused quite a stir.

Many experts didn't know what was going on with its overnight disappearance. People were nervous since it was the symbol of the hundred races.

Its return calmed people down and they quickly came to congratulate. Alas, for the sects with monarchs attacking the emperors, they were scared out of their mind. The return of the academy meant that their ancestor monarchs had been killed!

This was a terrible development for them! All they could do now was wait nervously for the inevitable wrath!

Chapter 2114: Immortal Emperor Slaughtering Formation

After the return to Arrogance, Li Qiye left the academy to see some old friends.

In a vast unknown was a large ship resembling a floating continent with mountains and rivers on top. It was virtually an independent world.

This was the vessel crafted by Li Qiye; the rest of the group used it to reach the tenth world.

"The Young Noble is back!" The people on board cheered; many rushed out to greet him.

He smiled after seeing that the group was safe and sound. Of course, he didn't worry too much because outside of the tiger and dragon, there was also Bloodbull Godfiend's group as the main fighting force.

More importantly, they had Immortal Emperors ready to help. As long as the vessel made it up here, there was no need to be afraid of an ambush from the Grand Emperors.

"Young Noble!" No one was more happy to see him than Li Shuangyan and Chen Baojiao. The two rushed up and gave him a hug for he was the most important thing to them.

He embraced them deeply. A long separation didn't change this familiar feeling at all.

He moved on to hug the rest of the group and finally made it to Allpine. He looked at the guy and became pleasantly surprised: "Looks like your cultivation had improved."

"It's all thanks to your guidance. I tried again and have formed a totem to become a High God." Allpine smiled in response. [1]

"You are a tree demon so you didn't necessarily need to go on this route." Li Qiye said with a smile.

"Right, I don't think I need to become an emperor or a High God, I can see another grand dao." Long Jingxian proudly joined in.

Li Qiye patted her head and playfully scolded: "It would be a waste of your twelve palaces not to chase after the Heaven's Wills; you're certainly talented enough to get them all."

"Please, twelve wills aren't that cool. I'm thinking about cultivating this grand dao with Wushuang; her archery and my dao can certainly slay a twelve-will emperor." She lifted her head up with this claim, full of pride.

She had an absolute advantage in terms of talents even in the thirteen continents full of geniuses. With an immortal fate, she could still look down on those with immortal bloodlines!

The biggest problem was her shaky dao heart. If she had one like Mei Suyao or Ming Yexue, no one could stop her from grabbing all twelve wills!

“Stop bragging and keep training. If you don’t get twelve wills with your lucky talents, I’m going to teach you a big lesson.” Li Qiye scolded again.

“Hmph, who needs twelve wills? I found a method to still be as strong with no need for them.” She said.

He smiled with no intention of looking down on her. If she actually tried, it would actually be quite frightening. This was a level of talents virtually unsurpassable.

Li Qiye also went to see the godfiend and Old Xian from the War God Temple. He gave them a quick look and said: “Looks like all of you have changed, so much younger now.”

It wasn’t just a joke. These two seemed to have changed with a flourishing vitality now.

“The energy in this world is incredible; no, the chaos energy, far better than the nine worlds.” The godfiend said.

He had an extraordinary bloodline so the tenth world gave him a massive boost in power.

“Allpine actually wants to start over again with his cultivation. Sigh, we old men don’t have the same determination as him, still debating on whether to do it or not.” Old Xian said seriously.

Allpine was quite old but in terms of vitality, a demon tree like him had a natural advantage over Old Xian and the godfiend.

“Everyone can walk their own path towards the dao. It’s up to you and your determination. I won’t force anything but to do so without making up your mind will result in qi deviation.” Li Qiye smilingly said.

The old men needed time to think. They saw a new horizon after coming to the tenth world. They were certainly at the top back below but now, the sky was vast and the ocean deep. There was still a long way to go for him in the tenth world.

Li Qiye met everyone and noticed: “That girl, Su Zhen, got taken away?”

Heavenguard’s Su Zhen also came with Li Qiye to the tenth world. Of course, he had his reasons for taking her.

“Right, Miss Su Zhen was taken by Immortal Emperor Mu Tian.” Su Yonghuang nodded.

Su Zhen’s emergence had a lot to do with the emperor. He left her in the nine worlds hoping that Li Qiye would train her because she had a special relationship with Immortal Emperor Qi Zhen’s branch.

Now, when Li Qiye brought her along to the tenth world, the emperor realized his goal so he decided to personally train her instead. Moreover, Li Qiye had set up an outline already, he only needed to give a little guidance.

“Alright, no need to blabber on and on, come take a look at our Immortal Emperor Slaughtering Formation already.” The fiery Long Jingxian lost patience and pulled him away.

Even the cold Sima Yujian and Bai Jianzhen couldn't help but smile after seeing the little girl wanting to show off the fruit of her effort.

"Sisters, to formation! Show this ugly Qiye our invincibility!" Jingxian called out to the rest of the group.

Li Shuangyan and the others were ready on the plain beneath the gigantic vessel with the strongest formation prepared - Emperor Slaughtering!

"Buzz." A silver arrow instantly materialized like a blooming flower radiating in the night sky. Both time and space fused with its light while dao runes paved a supreme formation.

The formation encompassed time and space, grand dao, yin and yang, reincarnation... It turned all of these affinities into a murderous tool.

This power exceeded all domains - anyone who took a step inside would instantly be slaughtered.

"Buzz." Shuangyan entered the formation and began to assert control. She was the controller in charge of its variations.

The girl was always in love with formations and had a deep understanding of them even before meeting Li Qiye.

After gaining his guidance, she improved dramatically and headed for the apex of formations.

Perhaps no one in the nine worlds could match her right now. Alas, she didn't have a stage to show off in the lower realms.

Right now, the girl has finished forming this formation, allowing her to truly show off her skills!

"Clank." Chen Baojiao's vitality erupted like the tempest with the saber in her hand. Both her sharpness and energy poured into the formation under Shuangyan's command. She became the gate guardian - anyone who wanted to defeat this formation would need to get through her first.

The two of them had impeccable teamwork without any opening and weakness. Each time Shuangyan changed the variation, Baojiao would follow up perfectly.

"Boom!" Su Yonghuang's Solar Physique at grand completion exerted its might, filling the formation with destructive capabilities. This meant that it could refine everything in the world.

Her grand dao was majestic; her dao foundation simple and pure. She was the pillar, stopping anyone from shaking the formation.

There was a jewel hanging above her head while she held a jade pendant. These artifacts boosted her real potential and made the formation reach a new height. She - as grand as a mountain - was the most suitable to be the host of the formation.

Shuangyan was the controller, Chen Baojiao the supporter, and Su Yonghuang the host. The trio brought the formation back to life.

"Poof!" The four matrons from the Blood Race joined the formation, turning into a primal source of power. They had a unique bloodline so when their vitality entered the formation, it turned into a massive ocean of blood, fueling the rest of the girls.

It didn't take long before the formation was brimming with endless power, capable of fighting till the end of heaven.

Chapter 2115: Matchless Formation

After the addition of the four matrons, Long Jingxian and Jian Wushuang were ready with their resplendent arrows. They weren't just about physical destructiveness; this was something that could destroy the grand dao as well.

When these two worked together, they were able to utilize the grand formation to boost their archery to the limit by adding their domain with the rest. Anyone who entered this formation would fall under the onslaught of their arrows - the main fighting force of the formation. There was no escaping this prison of arrows.

"Clank." Zi Cuining raised her Immortal's Blood. It intimidated the spectators with a sanguine glow - she was ready to crucify any imperial existence.

At the same time, Bai Jianzhen and Sima Yujian unsheathed their sword. Jianzhen had a majestic sword dao with an all-moving momentum. One slash could ravage the myriad eras with its extraordinary sharpness. This bloodthirst became the defining attitude of the formation.

Yujian's dao was different. Her sword dao was invisible - everywhere yet nowhere - just like her own existence.

The two of them were two polar opposites of the same dao, resulting in an incredible fusion. In addition to Zi Cuining, they became the offensive force of the formation, creating gales of blades and edges.

"Pop!" Finally, Lan Yunzhu disappeared as her dao joined the formation with pulsing radiance, something akin to the reincarnation cycle.

What was the purpose of this? The girl was able to fix time, space, and dao; any mistake or failure in the formation could be reverted.

"Boom!" With everyone in position, the formation finally exuded its final aura of massacre. Even an emperor would need to put on a serious expression when facing this formation.

"How is our formation?!" Long Jingxian gloated: "It is perfect! The fruit of our arduous effort!"

She was rightfully pleased with herself. Due to her great talents, she contributed greatly to honing this formation.

The changes didn't mean that Li Qiye's first version was weak. However, his version was suitable for just about anyone while the latter version was better fitted for the girls, allowing them to utilize it to the fullest potential!

"Perfect indeed." Li Qiye carefully judged and nodded: "The core is strong and able to accept even more power and members without difficulties. Most importantly, as long as the core is there, the formation won't completely collapse."

The power of a formation relied on the toughness of the core so the girls focused on this aspect. More importantly, since they practiced and refined it together, their teamwork was impeccable.

“Haha, so you’re saying we can kill emperors now?!” She laughed and said.

“If all of you become emperors or High Gods, the formation will be stronger.” Li Qiye chuckled.

“We might not do that. Like I said, we’ll open a unique path, no need for the throne.” She claimed once more.

Li Qiye didn’t deny this because it wasn’t an impossibility.

Li Shuangyan commented: “If Miss Mei and Senior Magu were to join us, we’ll be even more exceptional with a new variation.”

“That’s possible.” Li Qiye agreed: “It is another way to make the formation more flexible. However, all of you must take another step forward before adding the temporal affinity. The formation derived right now is very strong, but it is still far from the one controlled by Immortal Emperor Zhen Ji back then. If you reach that level on top of having Magu and Suyao, then your formation can have unlimited variations; no one would be able to break it. Thus, your cultivation needs to be stronger as well on top of adding more positions.” Li Qiye assessed the current formation and said. [1]

The current version was already immensely powerful, but he held them to an even higher standard.

If Shuangyan could control a formation to the same level as Immortal Emperor Zhen Ji, then she could be responsible for an entire domain by herself. Remember, this emperor used formations to prove his dao and was considered the greatest formation master in the nine worlds.

“Hmph, come try and see it then.” Jingxian challenged.

“Alright, I’ll play along and train you all a bit.” Li Qiye laughed and entered the formation in a domineering manner: “Defeat me and you can dominate the myriad ages!”

He believed that as long as these girls could take another step forward, the future would be quite promising!

“Boom!” His vitality erupted with the four Immortal Physiques crushing everything. His Heaven’s Will floated above, granting him absolute tyranny.

“Let’s go!” The girls felt an unprecedented urge to fight. They have polished this formation all along just to test its power today!

“Rumble!” The earth and sky trembled with rambunctious detonations as Li Qiye took the formation on by himself.

In the next several days, Li Qiye either trained the girls on the formation or taught the older men the cultivation methods of the thirteen continents.

They were the elites of the nine worlds and could shoulder great responsibilities in the future so he took the time to train them. Moreover, he meditated for better focus, waiting for the right time to climb.

On one day, he suddenly opened his eyes, interrupting the meditation session. They became profound as he gazed across the world.

He did a swift calculation and became surprised: "Strange, why is it so early, there's no way."

He began to ponder about all types of possibilities. In the end, he ordered: "Tell South Emperor to go greet the new emperor from the nine worlds. Also, send out an order - anyone who dares to interfere? Kill without mercy!"

Allpine instantly went to give the message.

"Another emperor is coming?" People glanced at each other after hearing this.

"Time's passing so fast, another one is coming." The godfiend said with a tinge of sentiment.

"No, this is very sudden." Li Qiye shook his head: "It's too early; though I came to the tenth world before the appointed time, this generation of emperor is still early."

Li Qiye didn't stay in the nine worlds so the worldly energy returned quickly. If an emperor didn't immediately go to the tenth world, the next generation would be delayed.

Remember, the nine worlds couldn't compare to the tenth. An emperor staying would require an immense amount of energy and grand dao power. Because of this, the recovery was slower when one was present.

This wasn't the case for Li Qiye. He left right away so the next Heaven's Will would come early. But according to his calculation, this was still too hasty.

Chapter 2116: New Immortal Emperor

The arrival of a new Immortal Emperor was felt by the other emperors as well, evident by the gentle ripples in the atmosphere. Ordinary people couldn't detect this minute change, but the emperors could sense it and tell that a new emperor was coming.

They were surprised as well because this was too early, not knowing what was going on in the nine worlds. Why did one come into being so fast, and why is this person ascending so quickly as well? They wanted to know the reasons behind this development.

The emperors and monarchs began to gaze across the thirteen continents. Some focused on calculating the coordinates of the ascension; the top level ones were able to do it.

However, Immortal Emperors were on patrol while South Emperor personally prepared for the reception. The Grand Emperors that have figured out the coordinates didn't dare to act recklessly.

Everyone knew that South Emperor was a disciple under the Dark Crow. His reception must be representing the will of the crow.

This being was unstoppable right now and could make emperors shudder! He recently killed more than ten emperors and made a dark overlord run for his life. Even World Emperor lost the previous time - anyone else that goes against him simply had a death wish.

"Boom!" Dazzling light oozed out with laws after someone broke through the barrier. This person ascended in a domineering manner. Nevertheless, his clothes were still tattered. One could imagine how hard the trip must have been.

The emperors from the thirteen continents were quiet before this sight. Ever since the appearance of the Dark Crow in this generation, the situation wasn't favorable for their races. Though Dao Dragon Heaven Emperor was the first to ascend then Jin Ge, South Emperor got four Primary Wills next. The Grand Emperors felt pressured because this was someone who could grab twelve wills.

Now, a newcomer was here from the nine worlds. If the three races didn't produce several more Grand Emperors, they would completely be overshadowed by the hundred races. This was before mentioning someone as terrifying as the Dark Crow on that side.

In this second, these emperors could envision a future where they were oppressed by the hundred races!

Nevertheless, they didn't recognize this newcomer. South Emperor led this person to see Li Qiye.

Li Qiye was surprised to see the new emperor. It was indeed an old acquaintance, or rather, an old enemy.

This was a man beautiful to a devilish level, more like a supreme beauty. His white robe fluttered alongside his cold temperament, akin to an apricot flower in the midst of winter. Words couldn't describe his wondrous appearance.

If he exerted his imperial pressure, it would still be imposing with a masculine air. However, he recalled his aura before Li Qiye so if he were cross-dressing, people would mistake him for a woman.

"Mei Aoxue. Hmm, I guess it's not too surprising for the descendant of the Jianlong to shoulder the Heaven's Will." Li Qiye chuckled and said after meeting him.

He had met this beautiful man back in Stone Medicine. They were enemy back then.

Icebound Young Noble - Mei Aoxue, the successor of the Jianlong, Mei Aonan's older brother.

He was relatively unknown compared to the ambitious Aonan. In fact, many didn't know of his existence in Stone Medicine, only Aonan.

Alas, the sister didn't become an emperor yet her reclusive brother actually became one? It was indeed surprising yet expected due to his talents.

"Greetings, Your Excellency." The new emperor didn't put up an act at all and bowed before Li Qiye.

"The Jianlong is now a sect with four emperors. Looks like your ancestors didn't neglect you, Tu Xuan told you?"

"Yes, Your Excellency. Ancestor Tu Xuan and Grandpa Shi gave their regards." Aoxue bowed again.

Despite being an emperor, he didn't have enough experience nor the qualification to learn about the Dark Crow. His Ancestor, Tu Xuan, spilled the beans.

Tu Xuan had participated in the fight against the Divine Beast Realm and went to see Li Qiye after the destruction of Heavenhoof, so he was aware of Li Qiye's true identity.

"Ah, you and your sister have the same master." Li Qiye nodded with a smile.

“Grandpa Shi” was his sister’s master, the golem that was exiled from Bi’an. He later became Aoxue’s dao protector.

The golem and Tu Xuan repeatedly told Aoxue to rely on Li Qiye after coming to the tenth world. He would be perfectly safe under Li Qiye’s protection regardless of how strong the hunters were.

Li Qiye started the conversation: “I had several potential guesses about the new emperor. Your little sister is one of them, so it’s a bit surprising that you’re here first.”

“Your Excellency, my sister is actually in hibernation right now, or I wouldn’t have been able to win.” Aoxue humbly said.

When Aonan lost to Li Qiye and saw his invincible means, she knew that she had lost her chance to compete. Because of this, under her master’s advice, she chose to seal herself. Her older brother also did the same.

However, Aoxue came out first while Aonan was still underground. This was how he took the new generation’s Heaven’s Will.

From now on, the Jianlong had become a sect with four emperors. There was limitless potential for them especially after the destruction of Soaring Immortal.

“No need for humility, your talents aren’t inferior to your sister, it’s just a lack of ambition.” Li Qiye disagreed.

His lack of fame didn’t mean that he wasn’t as talented as his sister. He was just as powerful, and more importantly, he adored her. If she wanted to become an emperor, then he was willing to let her win or even become her supporter. Li Qiye had also judged the guy very highly back then but he had no interest in becoming emperor.

Aoxue only smiled after hearing the praise. There was no need for arrogance since he still had a long way to go. There were many powerful beings in the tenth world.

“This is only the beginning. If you maintain your way in the future, I’m sure you’ll be brilliant. Our nine worlds do not produce weaklings! All Immortal Emperors have been chosen through trials of blood!” Li Qiye said.

“I understand.” Aoxue cupped his fist and sincerely said: “I am new here and will need your guidance and the help of the seniors.”

“Your clan’s Immortal Emperors are still alive. You can go meet them and they’ll certainly show you the rope.” Li Qiye said.

Aoxue rejoiced - he didn’t expect to still be able to see his ancestors in the tenth world.

Chapter 2117: Meeting The Mysterious Person Again

“What’s happening in the nine worlds? A new emperor is coming so early.” Li Qiye smiled, seemingly in a good mood.

Aoxue gently shook his head: "The nine worlds have enjoyed peace since you left, Your Excellency. Nothing had changed much but the world energy had become denser. In my opinion, it has something to do with the Void World. The energy in there is incomparable and is spreading out to the rest."

The Void World was naturally the area inside the Void Gate. Li Qiye had blessed it into something unique. It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that its level of energy was comparable to a primordial land, more than enough to handle all living beings in the nine worlds.

"I see." Li Qiye nodded, understanding the Void World more than anyone.

If the energy there was expanding outside, it would make sense for the Heaven's Will to form early.

The two of them talked about the nine worlds for a long time, about the events after Li Qiye's ascension and also old friends.

At the same time, Li Qiye told Aoxue about the current situation in the thirteen continents and the cultivation method here. Aoxue lacked knowledge about the thirteen continents so this conversation was quite beneficial, especially on the cultivation front.

"Go now, it'll be good to meet your ancestor emperor." Li Qiye eventually told the youth.

Aoxue stood up and bowed deeply. He then went to say goodbye to everyone else before going to find his ancestors.

"Everyone, keep training. I'll be in reclusive meditation for a bit." Li Qiye told the rest.

The others didn't wish to disturb him. Li Shuangyan's group personally guarded his room, not allowing anyone to bother him.

In fact, he was actually sealing the room in order to reach the most mysterious location in Arrogance. This place was impossible to trace since all were hidden. He stood there, waiting for someone to come.

The person finally arrived with his appearance and everything else shrouded. No one was allowed to know his identity. Even the strongest being wouldn't be able to calculate anything.

"You're late again, seems like I'm the punctual one between the two of us." Li Qiye said with a smile.

"There are even more eyes on me now than in the past. You should know how hard it is to make this trip, we shouldn't meet up too much." The mysterious person said.

"I know, this might be the last time so before leaving, I'll hand you a few things as ace cards for this world." Li Qiye said.

"You want to go to Nonexistence?" The being could guess his intention. These two visionaries have been scheming for so long and had many beliefs in common.

"Yes, I have too many things to do and can't be held back by the thirteen continents. If my goal is the final battle, then I need to go to this world. No one can be truly confident about this path; too many failures before." Li Qiye said with a serious expression.

The mysterious person was silent. He was also capable of fighting to the very end where others have failed. Alas, he had too many things to worry about unlike Li Qiye who could go all out.

“There will be no answer or an end at the final battle. No one has done it since the start of the primal chaos.” The person said.

“I know, but I have to keep going since someone has to do it. Who else are we waiting for? The dark overlords? Or the villainous heaven. Those dark overlords are simply cowards. If they do not dare to come out today, they certainly won’t do so in the future! We can’t rely on these men who won’t guard their own epoch to come out for the final battle. They only want to live a borrowed life.” Li Qiye uttered coldly.

“True.” The person sighed softly.

“The path ahead will be yours alone; I’m afraid no one will be able to work with you.” Li Qiye said: “This didn’t matter in the past, but now, the dark overlords are getting impatient. Darkness will come soon.”

“I know.” The person nodded: “You know, my path will need twelve-will emperors and Ancient Gods.”

“Yes.” Li Qiye said: “When necessary, Mortal Reversion will help you but this will expose many things, so be careful. As for Yi Ye, he can’t do much right now since he needs isolated cultivation.”

“Another step forward.” The person naturally understood this: “If Immortal Monarch Yi Ye could do this, then it would change a lot of things. We are missing emperors who can take on these dark overlords by themselves.”

“That’s why he’s doing it. If our twelve-will emperors can’t take on the overlords, the situation would be very grim. You alone won’t be able to handle the darkness for long.” Li Qiye said.

“Heaven’s Will for anima; anima to reach immortality. Twelve wills are only the beginning, the path is still so long.” The person said with a tinge of emotion.

“Anima is indeed supreme. Only truly reaching it would one be able to handle anything. Of course, it is still far off from immortality.” Li Qiye nodded.

“No need to become an immortal.” The person smiled: “Just taking these two steps alone would be enough. I don’t believe anyone can be stronger than Samsara in this world right now.”

Li Qiye replied: “That’s hard to say. Some have been slumbering for a long time while some of the fallen are trying to evolve. Ultimately, relying on external items doesn’t make one the strongest - Paragon Artifacts and Heavenly Treasures alike. If a person wants to truly jump out of the restraints, they would need to use anima. Thus, I can’t guarantee that someone from the darkness hasn’t made this leap.”

“Well, I suppose you can call such a person an immortal.” The person said.

Li Qiye disagreed: “It’s easier said than done, becoming a true immortal that is. As far as we can see, the closest are those who claim to be pseudo-immortals. Of course, we won’t see any real ones unless they were to descend from above.” [1]

The person sighed again. The world didn’t know about the dark danger looming above them or the tempestuous future.

“Since when are you so sentimental?” Li Qiye joked.

The person stared at him and said: "How about we switch place then? I'm sure you'll be sad too; I have to deal with the mess you left now." [2]

"Don't worry, people will help you. Our twelve-will emperors aren't just sitting idly by. Like Yi Ye, he just needs to take another step and his battle power will be immense." Li Qiye said.

"I hope he'll be able to truly grasp anima, we'll have another incredible general at that point, a firm pillar for the thirteen continents." The person was certain of this.

"The future is incalculable and uncontrollable, but my massacre just now had somewhat flattened the way. At the very least, the chance of having backstabbers is lowered now." Li Qiye said.

"I hope so." The person said: "What a shame, if only Flame Emperor and Min Ren are still here. If all of us work together right now, we would definitely destroy the darkness!"

"It won't change too much since the darkness is only one corner of the overarching situation. Min Ren has his own goals and is walking even further on this path. Same with Fei and Origin too." Li Qiye said.

"I guess everyone has a different view." The person added.

Each of these beings viewed the situation differently so they made different choices. Some chose to guard the epoch while others embarked on the ultimate expedition.

Chapter 2118: The Difficult Situation

"Well, all I can say is that the situation is quite unfavorable. But don't forget, you're not alone even when I leave. You still have White Crane."

"White Crane Legion." The person said: "You have brought this up back then. Ah, when you created this legion, you also destroyed the list."

"I'm the only one who knows the members in the thirteen continents." Li Qiye smiled and pointed at his head.

"However, you'll find out too." Li Qiye paused and said: "Not only you but White Crane will also move forward. Of course, you'll naturally become its leader."

"But you won't give me the list." The person smiled, understanding the Dark Crow after cooperating for so long.

"Right, it's not that I don't trust you, but we don't know who else could be potentially eavesdropping. You'll find out all the members eventually." Li Qiye chuckled.

"Then I'll look forward to it." The person didn't mind at all. Their trust was unquestionable; the guy naturally had his reasons.

"They'll appear when the time is right, just remember to not carelessly trust anyone." Li Qiye said.

"I will." The person nodded.

This legion has always been mysterious. Not to mention the nine worlds, even few in the thirteen knew about it. In fact, despite their long-running partnership, Li Qiye had never revealed any member of the legion to him.

“When to start an expedition?” The person eventually asked.

“Eventually.” Li Qiye said: “The final battle will determine everything. A few things are unpredictable too, like the Ancient Ming back then. I’m sure no one hopes for another race like that to come!”

The person became serious as well after hearing this name: “It’ll be really bad to experience another Ancient Ming.”

“Not just bad, a catastrophe!” Li Qiye said: “So that’s why the expedition will come, just not right now. I don’t want any mistake along the way.”

“But that’s not within your grasp. Even if you don’t start one, others might. For example, that great Buddha.” The person said.

“He will do one sooner or later, maybe even before me.” Li Qiye nodded: “But, he won’t be able to do it despite his confidence.”

“Don’t forget, he had prepared for this battle for a long time now, even longer than you!” The person revealed.

“I know.” Li Qiye smiled: “But longer isn’t always better. Plus, he doesn’t belong to our epoch so he’s at a great disadvantage from the very start. Otherwise, with his effort and accumulation, he would amount to even more. The final battle required our own epoch as the main banner riser, or it would be the reflection of the flower in the morning dew or the moon in the night water.”

The person contemplated for a bit and said: “If you were to win, what will you replace it with, yourself?”

“You’re overthinking it.” Li Qiye laughed and shook his head: “You think I would do something so tasteless? Plus, the world won’t change when my dirty hands take over, not much at all.”

“Then what?” The person remained tense when asking this question.

“The judgment of the heaven and earth, the only thing that is impossible to fool in this world.” Li Qiye declared.

The person’s eyes became serious and eventually replied: “Hmm, I don’t think it can be carried out!”

“Who says so?” Li Qiye answered solemnly: “You should know that it is very real, not just in theory. The thing exists but we simply can’t touch it.”

Few understood this concept for what it is, limited to using the common adage to stand for justice, more so in the mortal world. However, cultivators were gods to mortals. They didn’t need to believe in a higher power. Nevertheless, this mysterious person understood the existence of this ethereal arbitrator. The exact details remained elusive because no one could truly grasp it.

“I have toiled for generations, not for survival like those dark overlords and epoch lords that want to protect their world. All I wish for is to fight to the end!” A terrible light flashed in Li Qiye’s eyes.

“One day, people might think you will become the devil as you keep on going down this path.” The person said.

“And some might also think that I will become the high heaven, such as those hiding in order to live longer, but they don’t know that has never been my wish.” Li Qiye smiled.

The person sighed again. The Dark Crow’s thinking was always unexpected because his vision was much more insightful than others.

“Being hated as a devil or being worshiped as the high heaven? Either one’s fine. I will only be doing what I want to do, that’s all.” Li Qiye concluded.

The person looked at Li Qiye and said: “As you have said earlier, the future won’t be easy but I won’t let the current situation fall completely. I don’t care what you will do or become, devil, high heaven, judgment, whatever. Just guarantee me that a second Ancient Ming won’t appear. You are aware of the grave consequences of that happening!”

“I can’t.” Li Qiye replied: “The only thing I can guarantee you is that if a second race of that nature appears, I will be the first to cut them down, no matter where I am, alive or otherwise! Is that enough?”

The person couldn’t say anything after hearing this. This guarantee from Li Qiye was stronger than everything else.

They kept on talking about secretive plans regarding the fate of the thirteen continents! Each individual plan was incredible and would certainly astound emperors.

Eventually, the conversation was heading to an end. The person said: “I wish you luck. Maybe you will meet immortals or become one yourself. At that point, no one will be able to catch up to you.” The person sighed.

“Regardless of the future, the Dark Crow will still be the Dark Crow. The existence of immortals might not be a good thing. My becoming an immortal will not be good news either. If you catch wind of this news, I’m telling you, run as far as possible, dig yourself a hole and hide, don’t ever show up again.” Li Qiye said slowly.

It sounded like a joke but carried a realistic stench of blood.

“Alright, I’ll be the first to run then when that happens.” The person joked back.

The two of them disappeared without leaving any trace of this meeting. No seer could ever detect or calculate it.

Chapter 2119: Lunargrasp Fairy

“Someone wants to shoulder the Heaven’s Wills!” The powerful masters naturally understood the gathering of chaos and dao energies.

Of course, people weren’t too surprised because only four have done so in this generation - Dao Dragon, Jin Ge, Virtuous, and South Emperor. Outside of Dao Dragon, the other three haven’t done the second shouldering process. Wait, just two because Virtuous was dead now.

Thus, there were plenty of wills to go around. Everyone knew that several more monarchs could appear from the hundred races.

Why just the hundred races? People didn't need to waste words to understand why.

The power of the wills emerged, letting people know that someone powerful was going to take them.

"Something's different." An emperor immediately recognized something peculiar: "The scale is too grand, someone is moving all of these wills! What are they doing? Chasing away the wills or some other reasons?"

"What technique is this?! This dao is strange too." A high-level emperor could sense a majestic dao - different from everyone else. This dao was one from the beginning of the world.

"Another master is appearing?" They began to calculate but this dao was too dense and vast. There was no way of seeing through it.

"Perhaps it has something to do with a Heavenly Treasure." Another said with uncertainty.

The sheer amount of this dao and its crazy transformations were too much for one person to do. Plus, not long ago, a dark overlord came with the Death Coffin. The appearance of a second one would shock the thirteen continents.

Amidst the confusion, the wills were gathering in Arrogance, engulfing the area with chaos and energy. Each grass and leaf in the area was permeated with this force.

Divine beasts were jumping in the chaos - phoenixes and dragons. These wills were full of life and power like spirits brimming with the presence of grand dao.

The emperors became increasingly confused because such lively Heaven's Wills were practically unheard of. Even World and Profound didn't create this visual phenomenon during their ascension.

"Must have something with their cultivation dao." Finally, a high-level emperor concluded: "It's not from our dao system, so strange, similar to Immortal Dao City?"

All eyes were on the place where the wills gathered. Everyone understood that someone was about to ascend, provided that there was no interruption such as an ambush.

An ethereal figure took form in the chaos, dressed in a white robe - as transcending as a supreme immortal with features beautiful beyond description.

However, the spectators were confused because no one, emperors and geniuses alike, could recognize her.

"Weird." A knowledgeable sect master curiously wondered: "Who is that? An unknown person actually becoming an emperor?"

Others felt the same way. Someone who was about to become an emperor should be a supreme genius or a dominating master. However, no one has seen this beautiful woman before as if she had just come out of thin air.

"Lunargrasp Fairy!" However, South Emperor could recognize her.

“Empress Hong Tian in the past and Lunargrasp Fairy now, the world is so cruel.” He helplessly added.

Those not from their era would never understand how monstrous they were.

Hong Tian — the Ill-starred Conqueror, Jian Wenxin — the Ocean’s Wisdom, Mu Yueli — the Immortal’s Legacy. These brilliant women overshadowed all the men during that period. [1]

Empress Hong Tian was the least talented out of the three but also the most terrifying one. She was someone who would become fiercer as a fight went on. A battle against her would result in a bloody spectacle. No one was able to suppress her undying battle intent.

Jian Wenxin was the wisest, capable of scheming behind the curtains for a battle a thousand miles away. She normally didn’t need to fight and could still lead someone to their death.

However, Lunargrasp was the most gifted and sharp among them!

South Emperor’s talents were considered peerless but she wasn’t necessarily inferior to him.

The most dreadful thing about her was her chill-inducing murderous dao - needing only one strike to take someone down. She wasn’t a woman of many words.

Because of this, people got chills whenever they heard her name back in that era. Lunargrasp was only a literary title for she was the clutch of death! Lifegrasp would have been much more accurate.

South Emperor shook his head with a wry smile. Fairygrasp was also here - on the verge of becoming a monarch. Such an unexpected development.

Suddenly, Li Qiye emerged next to him: “You should feel pride instead. The two of you are from a majestic era with the most impressive and beautiful competition for the Heaven’s Will.”

South Emperor agreed. Their era had too many geniuses and stars. Alas, they were still overwhelmed by Empress Hong Tian and Lunargrasp Fairy.

He pitied his fellow geniuses. Just him alone was bad enough but the other three women as well?

“Well, that’s bad luck for you, being born in that era.” He said wistfully.

The competition back then was incredible, especially when Empress Hong Tian took on everyone by herself, unleashing one secret art after another and sweeping through the enemies.

No one could stop her Emperor Suppression Art so she paved her bloody path with bones of geniuses. She couldn’t become an Immortal Monarch, but she was about to write a new tale by becoming a monarch.

She remained emotionless inside the chaotic expanse, as calm as a well before her ascension. It seemed that nothing could make her happy or sad.

“Buzz.” A portal appeared not far from her. A muscular old man came out with four followers.

Divinity pulsed around him with waves of light. He stood there, seemingly capable of ruling the nine firmaments with the power of the gods.

His followers had the same aura and could crush the stars with a single swing.

“Niu Ruichang!” A monarch was surprised to see this old man.

A few High Gods felt the same way. One of them said: “Bullchief, an eleven-totem High God, ancestor of Bull Mountain, why is he here with four other gods? Does he want to take this woman down?”

The sudden appearance of this group naturally scared some of the crowd.

Lunargrasp turned and coldly stared at the uninvited guests.

“Ma’am, we come bearing no ill wills, as long as you tell us where your grand dao is from.” Bullchief said.

“And if I don’t?” She said in a cheerless manner.

“Then we must take action and force you to hand over your dao origin.” The High God’s expression darkened.

People began to wonder why a High God like him would care about the dao lineage of a nameless junior.

Chapter 2120: Bullchief High God

Though Bullchief’s interest remained a mystery, a few top emperors could tell that this woman’s lineage might have something with Immortal Dao City.

This was one of the nine Heavenly Treasures so it made sense that the High God would care so much about it.

Fairygrasp looked as imperious as a noble lady and sneered: “Don’t overestimate yourself.”

The disdainful comment made it seem as if nothing in this world could enter her sight, not even an eleven-totem High God.

People took a deep breath after hearing this. This nameless woman was quite ferocious and arrogant.

Bullchief was a big shot in all of thirteen continents and could be at the top of the experts’ list. Moreover, the four gods behind him were powerful as well.

This woman has yet to shoulder the Heaven’s Will but was already so haughty. The truth was that even after ascension, a monarch was still much weaker than a High God of this level.

“Isn’t she too much, talking like that to Bullchief?” Someone murmured.

A High God couldn’t help but comment: “He’s a leader among the High Gods, low-level emperors can’t speak in this manner towards him.”

South Emperor was amused yet pained by the situation - this woman was the same after all of these years. He looked over at Li Qiye and thought that it made sense that she was so arrogant, being pampered by the Dark Crow. His followers usually had this style to them.

Bullchief was naturally displeased to hear this. He was famous alongside Nine-sword High God in Arrogance, respected by everyone. Some low-level emperors even referred to themselves as juniors when speaking to him, let alone this nameless junior.

He sternly scolded: "Little Miss, you are very capable with a pride-worthy grand dao but there are plenty of hidden masters and invincible experts in this world. The path is long, and so is yours! Not to mention that you're yet to be a monarch, when you become one, know that there is always a higher mountain..."

She waved her sleeve and interrupted the High God's advice as a senior: "So what."

The five gods' expression turned ugly due to her domineering attitude. Even ordinary people wouldn't stand for this, let alone big shots like them.

"Junior, you're too arrogant! Do you know who you're speaking to?! You'll be afraid after learning who we are!" Someone behind Bullchief said.

"Don't know, don't care. Just some random dogs, no need to learn." She said flatly.

This High God almost vomited blood from anger as his face turned red and hot by the verbal slap.

"Wait, these words sound familiar..." A top-level emperor murmured to himself. This contemptuous attitude and domineering tone seemed to have been used before.

The majority of cultivator here was astounded. They wondered about her identity and background; was it enough to justify her arrogance?

"Ignorance can breed bravery." A High God said with a tinge of emotion: "Maybe she has just debuted recently and doesn't know who Bullchief is. She'll regret her attitude soon enough after finding out how terrible he is."

Bullchief took a deep breath to quell his fury and uttered coldly: "Little Miss, because you're a human too, I won't stop you from becoming a monarch. Nevertheless, I need to teach your uneducated and rude self a lesson! Since you're so confident, I'm sure your dao protectors are amazing. Tell them to come out so I can ask them what kind of manners they have been teaching you!"

The crowd agreed with the High God. The woman certainly had strong dao protectors in order to act like this.

"I alone am enough." She still looked down on him just like before.

"Haha! I see!" The High God - smiling yet not smiling - was tempted to kill now as his eyes flashed fiercely: "Then I'll teach you a lesson in your seniors' stead!"

"Bullchief is really mad now. This little lady is going to get it now." A High God said after seeing that smile.

"Interesting. My people need someone else to teach them a lesson?" A nonchalant voice with a touch of laziness answered before Lunargrasp could.

A seemingly ordinary man was standing next to her - cool and collected.

"Oh shit!" A top High God saw this man and his jaw nearly dropped to the ground along with his knees.

"No wonder why their attitude is so familiar." One eleven-will High God smiled wryly and no longer dared to comment on the situation.

“Who is that?” Many big shots weren’t familiar with this man since they have never met him before.

Bullchief was thunderstruck and stood there awkwardly with his mouth agape.

“Niu Ruichang, come teach me on how to educate a junior then.” The man looked at the High God and smiled deviously.

“Fool! How dare you call the High God by his name?!” A High God behind Bullchief shouted, unaware of this man’s identity.

“Tragedy befalls those without sight.” Another top-level emperor shook his head and said after seeing this.

The ordinary man ignored this person and continued to stare at Bullchief: “Ruichang, I’m waiting.”

“Boom!” Bullchief turned pale after regaining his wits and immediately kneeled down, not daring to utter a single word.

“My lord!” The High God behind him was stunned.

“Kneel...” Bullchief spoke softly. The confused High Gods also followed suit.

“Your Excellency, I might as well be blind, not knowing that you have arrived or that this fairy is under your banner. Please excuse my disrespectful tone that is worthy of death!” The High God bowed his head continuously.

Powerful and arrogant he was but this was nothing compared to the existence standing before him.

In his mind, dying was just fine. However, angering the Dark Crow had worse consequences. His disciples and perhaps his entire clan would be wiped out! This being had done this plenty of times before. Because of this, he didn’t care for prestige, reputation, and personal honor. Accepting defeat was necessary in order to save his clan and people. Plus, it wasn’t that shameful to kneel before the Dark Crow.

How many would dare to stand straight before him?
