

Emperor 2971

Chapter 2971: New Page

Li Qiye, in his rune form, continued to flow in the dimension within the scripture. The danger of losing himself was ever-present.

He chose a dangerous path. In fact, he only needed to search the dao for comprehension next to the source instead of becoming a part of the scripture.

Of course, the bull and the others had no idea that something so perilous was taking place. Even if they knew, they wouldn't have been able to help him either.

Even if the bull was strong enough to drag the coffin out of the chaotic temporal flow, it wouldn't be able to save Li Qiye inside the scripture.

Sun and moon didn't exist in this space. Eventually, a faint figure slowly emerged among the dazzling expanse - as faint as a candle in the wind. It pulsed back and forth, just one gust would be enough to extinguish.

However, the figure persevered and gradually became clearer. Yes, Li Qiye had finally come out of the source of time.

He turned into a rune there and lingered around for an unknown amount of time due to a lack of flow in that place.

The coffin stuck in the chaotic temporal flow also stopped. It stabilized next to Li Qiye, no longer moving around.

A supreme witnessing this sight would have cold sweat streaming down their back. Even the strongest supreme wouldn't be able to do this.

This went beyond understanding the time affinity. He had fused himself into the time source for enlightenment and came back unscathed - a testament to the might of his dao heart.

He sat quietly next to the coffin as if he has always been here, not moving an inch.

He opened his eyes and slightly moved his upper torso.

"Buzz." Numerous dimensions vibrated as a result.

"Pop!" Space opened and he pulled the coffin back from that deep dimension.

"A new epoch and a new heavenly scripture. Let's use this as an outline." He said while touching the diamond-like coffin.

He had obtained its profundity and had a full grasp of this scripture after becoming a part of it. In a sense, the scripture was now a part of him.

He closed his eyes once more and his body lit up. The strands of light emanated from him weren't that bright but looked so real and tangible. They looked like crystal needles, seemingly made from the temporal affinity.

The coffin harmonized with him and sent out its runes.

Remember, inside this coffin were countless sealed dimensions and history with no end in sight.

However, these ancient runes in the room right now were the ones found in the source - the essences of Time Scripture. They looked happy like carps leaping out of the water.

“Buzz.” Li Qiye became brighter with a dao maelstrom appearing in front of his chest.

“Buzz.” The carp-like runes leaped out of the water and floated around Li Qiye at an increasing pace.

“Boom!” He released his grand dao and ordered these ancient runes to compile themselves into a supreme chapter. This supreme chapter then fused into his grand dao, becoming one with him.

Dao runes emerged all over his skin, making it look like he had been splashed by ink from top to bottom. It’s just that the ink was a bright shade in this case instead of black.

Lastly, the supreme chapter entered into the coffin once more, returning to the source.

“It’s finished.” He opened his eyes and said.

A monumental change had taken place today. Alas, no one was none the wiser because Li Qiye had sealed this area.

They also didn’t know that the curtain was slowly being lifted. A new epoch was growing. When the time was right, it would replace the old epoch for a new golden age.

A new scripture was undoubtedly present since Li Qiye had opened a new page. It was Time no longer.

He began meditating again to refine his grand dao.

Sky Pass became rowdier during his isolated cultivation. The excitement didn’t die after the end of the auction.

Next came the feast of their commander, Tai Yinxi. Many big shots in Immortal Lineage were invited.

The arrival of some has caused quite a stir. For example - Metalkin War God, Brightking Buddha, and Violet Dragon Empress.

“A gathering of heroes.” A spectator commented after seeing these big shots.

Only someone like Tai Yinxi could invite so many big shots successfully.

“I heard someone from Five Element Mountain is coming too.” Another rumor spread.

“What? Five Element Mountain?!” Everyone, regardless of their status, became startled.

“Is it true? People from that sect haven’t come out in a long time.” An Everlasting asked.

“It’s true, someone very amazing from there too!” A knowledgeable person confirmed.

“Dang, Tai Yinxi actually got someone from there to come.” Another took a deep breath.

Of course, many members took pride in being invited.

“Being able to meet someone from Five Element can be a great opportunity.” One emperor became emotional.

“Well, there must be something big going on for Tai Yinxi to do so. It is indeed a good opportunity.” A big shot thought about something else.

“I mean, is it really surprising? I thought Tai Yinxi was from Five Element himself.” Another added.

There have been rumors of Tai Yinxi being from Five Element Mountain. This event might have just proved it.

Of course, he was from a side branch, not the main branch. This was still amazing enough because this sect rarely recruited disciples from the outside world. Maybe five or so in the last million years.

Being recruited as an outsider actually showed Tai Yinxi’s talents since he was recognized by Five Element Mountain.

Later on, he went to Academy of Light and never bragged about his background. This made people question the validity of this rumor.

Now, he has to be from there since very few people in Immortal Lineage could successfully get Five Element Mountain involved.

Chapter 2972: Five Element Mountain

Respect and silence were the first two reactions whenever Five Element Mountain was brought up in Immortal Lineage.

There have been plenty of progenitors in history and people had different answers to the question about the strongest one.

Some would say the first progenitor, Bao Pu, would be the strongest one. Another popular answer would be the brilliant Gao Yang or Fire Ancestor who started the famous expedition...

However, in terms of one era or a system with the strongest progenitors? People would think of Five Element Mountain first.

Due to the ancient finding date of this system, there were very few records about its progenitors. There wasn’t only one either, unlike the majority of systems. There were at least two.

Just imagine, two progenitors appearing at the same time and creating an immortal-level system? Quite hard to believe.

It wasn’t rare for two or three progenitors to show up in each generation in Immortal Lineage. However, each system normally only had one.

In order to become a progenitor, a cultivator must stop following the path of those before them - leaping out of their current dao system.

For example, Orchid Sage came from Strong Grass but couldn't stick with it after becoming a progenitor. He must leave in order to have his own legacy and go even further.

Strong Grass no longer had the means to gestate him, just like a shallow pond being unable to contain a true dragon.

Five Element was an exception with at least two progenitors for its founders. Moreover, rumor has it that it even had two dao sources.

A system should only have one because two would definitely cause a conflict, tearing the system asunder.

There were numerous explanations for this unique property in this system. First, the two progenitors might have been twins with a connected heart and mind. That's why they became progenitors at the same time to start Five Element Mountain.

Another stated that they were husband and wife. With love came solidarity and harmonization with a dual cultivation dao.

The most excessive one believed that it didn't only have two but rather, five progenitors. They proved their dao at the same time, meaning that the system actually had five dao sources.

Of course, no one believed this last one due to the mere impossibility.

However, the sect having at least two progenitors from the same era became widely accepted.

Later on, it produced more incredible masters, one of whom was on the same level as Fardao - Lotus Ancestor.

Lotus Ancestor followed the same framework of Five Element yet still managed to prove his dao and reached the apex - nothing short of a miracle.

Many other systems tried to copy his path. Why? Because in order to become a progenitor, one must jump out of their system. However, Lotus Ancestor improved the dao of the previous progenitors, making it even better.

So many systems wanted to have multiple progenitors. Having two would boost their power by several folds.

Alas, for millions of years, no one else has been able to replicate this task.

This, in turn, allowed Five Element Mountain to be above all the other systems. Rumor has it that Lotus Ancestor was still there in the sect. Thus, it had a character on the same level as Fardao in this world.

A living immortal-level progenitor... No other system could top this.

However, Five Element rarely involved itself with worldly affairs. People didn't even know where it was located.

This didn't affect its unique position. Even though it had no disciples, everyone still viewed it as the top system.

Furthermore, it meant that if a disciple from the main branch there were to come out, something big was happening soon enough.

One known disciple of Five Element was Tai Yinxi right now. He wasn't part of the main branch, only an outer disciple training there for several years.

Nevertheless, this outer disciple still became a top existence in Immortal Lineage, a Supreme Everlasting.

From this, one could see how powerful and terrifying Five Element was.

Now, a big shot from there was here in Sky Pass? The world rightfully became startled and kept on talking about it.

The date of the feast finally arrived. The invited big shots made their way into Tai Yinxi's residence.

His mansion was quite large and impressive, located in a corner of Sky Pass.

Of course, as a Supreme Everlasting and the commander of Sky Pass, it wasn't unreasonable for him to have such a nice place.

Li Qiye finished his cultivation as well and came out. Bai Jinning then told him about the feast.

"Mmm, that brat? I guess we can go get some free food there." The bull remained unimpressed by the feast.

Others were nothing but respectful towards Tai Yinxi but the bull viewed him as a clever brat.

"Come, I need something from him." Li Qiye smiled and said.

"Let's go!" The bull took his disciple along as well.

Liu Yanbai looked quite good after dressing up - golden hair, bright blue eyes, and an exotic aura.

The group made it outside of the residence. The bull looked at the place and laughed: "The brat got rich in recent years, I suppose. Gotta bark up his tree since it's time for him to pay me back."

His mansion was heavily guarded with soldiers from Sky Pass Legion everywhere. Bai Jinning was a captain and had prepared a spot for Li Qiye.

However, there were two more people now - the bull and Yanbai. This made it a little difficult for her since this particular party was very exclusive.

Jinning greeted the guards by the gate, wanting to bring everyone in.

A while later, she returned and told the group: "We only have one invitation letter so the guards will only let the young noble in."

She was only a captain with no influence to speak of. Getting that one spot was hard enough already.

"What? This brat dares to put on an act before me? I'm gonna crush his place." The bull became annoyed right away.

This attracted the sharp glares from the guards nearby.

“What are you looking at?!” The bull glared back and said: “I’ll beat you all up too!”

The guards’ expression soured. Who would dare to cause trouble at the mansion of their commander?

Some started walking over to block the group from moving forward, looking awfully hostile.

Chapter 2973: Seeing The Mysterious Girl Again

The guards were exasperated with the bull. Causing trouble in Sky Pass was one thing but disrespecting their commander was far worse.

This was the territory of their legion. Even the fiercest person would need to tuck their tail between their legs, let alone purposely provoking them.

In fact, this wasn’t only limited to this area. Sky Pass Legion and Tai Yinxi were respected everywhere in Immortal Lineage.

Tai Yinxi was one of the strongest masters in this world, enough to look down on the world. Moreover, he had friends everywhere. In other words, provoking him was the same as poking at a beehive.

They glared at the haughty bull while gripping their sword hilt, ready to go.

Strangely enough, the bull didn’t give a damn and said: “You wanna go? Come, come, bring your entire legion with you! I’ll let you train for a bit, let’s see how much that brat has learned since he’s so arrogant now.”

Bai Jinning smiled wryly, aware that a fight was inevitable. The legion wouldn’t let anyone disrespect them here.

Alas, there was nothing she could do. These guards wouldn’t listen to a mere captain like her.

“Hmph, our legion protects the border for generations and will not stand this!” A guard scowled, seemingly the leader of this group. He gripped his saber with a murderous flash in his eyes.

Li Qiye only smiled, perhaps content to watch the show. On the other hand, the stubborn bull shouted: “A good dog does not block the way. We’ve been nice enough to not make Tai Yinxi come out here to greet us! That’s already giving him plenty of face!”

“Boom!” The bull sent the leader flying right away.

“Clank! Clank! Clank!” The guards hurriedly unsheathed their swords and sabers, surrounding the group with haste. A battle could break out at any moment.

“Ahem.” A cough suddenly interrupted the two sides.

A master and servant appeared - the two women Li Qiye had met on the street before.

The master still hid her appearance while her maid still dressed like a man.

The guards were surprised to see their sudden appearance. They quickly put down their weapons and respectfully lowered their head, not daring to breathe loudly.

“It’s a non-issue, no need to resort to weapons.” The mysterious girl’s voice was very pleasant yet left no room for questioning.

“Fellow Daoist Li, we meet again.” She looked at Li Qiye.

Though her face was shrouded, one could still see that she was smiling and very friendly towards him.

“Fate always arranges a second meeting.” Li Qiye said.

“Right, we will cross paths again.” The girl nodded and walked into the mansion. She then added: “Sir Yin is always hospitable and will not refuse a guest.”

As they were leaving, the maid stared at Li Qiye as if he was a bad guy, a thief of sorts. She looked to be on guard against him.

Li Qiye met her gaze and smirked. This only served to annoy her further but she didn’t say anything.

“We’re going.” He then told the group and entered the mansion.

The guards kept their head lowered, no longer stopping them this time.

The de-escalation let Jinning heave a sigh of relief. She naturally didn’t want to see a fight between Li Qiye and her legion.

The master and maid were nowhere to be found inside the mansion. After all, the place was just too big.

“I heard that those two are the guests from Five Element.” Jinning quietly told them. She heard it from her colleagues.

Li Qiye didn’t care too much and only smiled in response.

“Five Element Mountain, huh? Looks like it can’t sit still any longer. The water is very deep.” The bull murmured, gazing at the distance.

The haughty bull became serious when talking about this system, no longer showing the same disdain towards all.

“I heard Five Element is above all systems. Many progenitors would come to visit that place; some even stay there for a bit to seek the dao.” Bai Jinning said quietly.

Many in the legions knew about the legends of Five Element because of their commander.

“It’s not bad. Calling it a miracle isn’t an exaggeration.” The bull nodded.

It paused for a bit before adding: “However, times are changing. This is Sir’s era now. Five Element is no longer the top dog. A dragon needs to coil, a tiger needs to let him ride as he pleases. Everyone else are mere insects that need to worship him.”

“You’re only good at being a sycophant.” Li Qiye shook his head.

The bull’s skin was unreasonably thick. It began teaching Liu Yanbai: “Disciple, remember this well, later on, wherever and whatever the occasion, just make sure to latch onto Sir. The world has no boundaries and restrictions under his protection. You can do whatever you want. In fact, call him 'Uncle' from now on. It's more intimate that way."

"Uncle." The inexperienced girl naturally listened to her master and nodded.

Her voice was soft enough already, so this "uncle" from her was enough to make people go soft.

"I'm still young!" Unfortunately, it didn't work on Li Qiye. He grimaced and glared at the bull.

"Hehe, I know, but she can't call you brother because that would put me above you in terms of seniority, I would be taking advantage of you then, Sir, and I do not dare to do that." The bull revealed its reasoning.

Li Qiye didn't say anything else, seemingly agreeing.

"We're here, that's Frightened Star Pavilion ahead." Jinning told the group.

In front of them was a pavilion reaching the stars. A youth leading fellow disciples served as the reception.

He looked quite gallant, clearly talented, not to mention a majestic aura around him.

"Young Lord." Jinning bowed after seeing him.

He was Tai Yinxi's son, Tai Xuanfeng, the young lord of Sky Pass. His father personally taught him so he was quite powerful despite his young age. An old adage was apt in this case - a tiger wouldn't give birth to a dog.

He was quite famous right now. In terms of power, he was on the same level as Flying Sword Marvel and the others.

"Captain Bai, this gentleman and lady are..?" Xuanfeng recognized Bai Jinning but not the rest.

He knew all the esteemed guests, especially the younger talents. However, this was his first time seeing Li Qiye so he became curious.

Chapter 2974: Seven-ring God

During his moment of confusion, a guard hurried over and whispered into his ear. His expression changed a bit while listening.

He then cupped his fist and smiled towards Li Qiye: "So you are Young Noble Li. It is an honor and please excuse our lack of reception."

Li Qiye smiled and walked into Frightened Star Pavilion.

The bull walked past Xuanfeng and glanced back at him: "A bit like your father back then, not bad at all. Some potential there."

Xuanfeng didn't figure out the bull's identity but still chose to smile back despite its condescending tone.

He was still a big shot nowadays. Many older experts acted humble before him; this was his first time being spoken to like this.

After this group went inside, Xuanfeng ordered a guard: “Go report this to father, hurry.”

Meanwhile, the group was teleported to the highest level of the pavilion after entering the entrance.

They were now standing inside a new area with numerous buildings and pavilions. They looked like blooming lotuses beneath a starry sky.

This place was no longer Sky Pass but deeper in space. One could see the stars inches above them, hence the pavilion’s name. One could frighten the stars just by speaking loudly here.

The buildings varying in height were specifically arranged to form a formation, looking very mysterious.

Inside each pavilion were banquets with guests sitting down already. They came from all over the world - demons, celestials, metalkins, fireys... [Fireys will be the noun for members of the fire tribe for the sake of readability and brevity. [/ref]

The guests here had exceptional auras and brimming with divinity. All of them were clearly lords, sect masters, and top True Gods from the previous generations.

After all, Tai Yinxi only invited the most influential figures.

Li Qiye looked around and noticed the highest pavilion. Only the top figures were actually there - Supreme True Emperor, Holyfrost True Emperor, Flying Sword Marvel...

These were the strongest emperors and Everlastings right now in Immortal Lineage, the so-called apex existences.

Others wouldn’t dare to sit there unless they believed they were at that level. They chose the other pavilions instead.

The mysterious master-servant duo was also in there. Everyone came over to greet these two including Supreme from High Sun and Holyfrost from the academy. Even the arrogant Flying Sword Marvel came over to greet them.

She was definitely from Five Element. That’s the only sect strong enough to command respect from the rest.

“Billionaire Li is here too.” Someone recognized Li Qiye’s group right away.

Li Qiye and his nickname became quite famous after the previous auction.

“What is he here for?” Some experts grimaced, becoming a bit unhappy.

They knew he was rich and a big spender. No one else here was on the same level, not even a young master like Tang Ben.

However, this person stinks of money was invited too? Remember, they considered an invitation from Tai Yinxi to be an honor. Thus, they felt strange that someone like Li Qiye would be able to participate as well.

“How did he get an invitation letter?” A sect master raised his brows.

A nameless junior like Li Qiye shouldn’t have been invited to this feast in their opinion.

“Maybe he bought one? After all, a sky-high price can definitely get you a letter.” A clan master sneered. Some started thinking and thought that this clan master made sense. Perhaps if Billionaire Li had offered someone a billion or more, some might have been willing to sell him their spot.

Li Qiye glanced over at the mysterious girl and she nodded back to greet him.

He smiled and started heading for the highest pavilion. The ones in there were all looking at him now.

“Hmph, this isn’t the place for you.” Someone blocked his path, glaring at him with disdain.

It was none other than Guan Yunpeng, the successor of Strong Grass and the junior brother of Orchid Sage.

“You again, Horsey? Your skin is quite thick for you to still show up in public.” The bull laughed and said.

Yunpeng turned red after seeing the bull. Being ridden by it was the most humiliating experience in his life.

“Hmph, demonspawn, you can’t do as you please here.” Yunpeng regained his confidence and arched his chest.

An old man appeared behind him just like a specter. Though he had converged his aura, his divine ring was still faintly pulsing.

“Seven-ring God.” An expert quietly said, recognizing the old man right away.

“Guan Yunshen’s First Disciple.” Many were shaken to see his pulsing ring.

No wonder why Yunpeng dared to come looking for trouble. He got a strong backup this time - a powerful Epoch Eternal.

He never forgot about the humiliation prior and swore to have vengeance at all costs. Thus, he asked his senior brother to help him.

“Scram if you want to live.” Li Qiye didn’t bat an eye.

“You think having dirty money is everything? There are plenty of people stronger and richer than you in this world.” Yunpeng uttered coldly.

“They’re all insignificant. Scram.” Li Qiye retorted.

“Benefactor, you are incorrect and disrespectful for saying this.” The left child said: “Sir Yin invited the heroes of the world here, don’t be impudent...”

“Very few can call themselves heroes, the likes of you are more similar to dogs.” Li Qiye looked at them and said.

“You!” The two monks had an ugly grimace, becoming furious.

This feud attracted the attention of many guests. No one would be able to restrain their anger after being called “dogs”, definitely not these two monks.

Be mindful of its owner before kicking a dog. Even if these two monks were average, their master was famous on top of being the abbot of Lankavatara Temple.

He was clearly disrespecting Brightking Buddha as well.

“Ignorant fool, you can’t back up your words!” Guan Yunpeng jumped in to help the two monks: “You deserve death for insulting the heroes participating in Sir Yin’s event!”

Chapter 2975: Death

Guan Yunpeng’s arrogant style was deeply rooted in his noble upbringing. Though his cultivation was nothing compared to the big shots here, his status as the junior brother of Orchid Sage allowed him to be on the same level as them.

“Slap the annoying brat.” Li Qiye nonchalantly ordered.

“Bam! Bam! Bam!” Yunpeng got struck by a dozen slaps in no time at all. He started seeing stars; blood oozed out of his mouth along with both rows of teeth when he tried to speak.

The scene became soundless. All eyes were on Li Qiye now.

Causing trouble at this feast was quite bold. This was the same as not giving Tai Yinxi any face - something most in Immortal Lineage wouldn’t dare to do.

“Little animal, you court death!” Yunpeng roared and took out a painting scroll.

“Don’t!” Seven-ring God tried to stop him.

It was too late. The furious youth rolled out the painting, revealing only one word written on it - Suppress.

The character didn’t have that many lines but still contained a majestic power.

“Boom!” The character descended on Li Qiye like a thousand mountains with a billowing progenitorial aura.

It was as if a progenitor was attacking right now; some of the spectators became frozen.

The stars in this dimension trembled; the pavilions sank down a bit, unable to withstand this force.

Gasps and deep breaths could be heard from the spectators.

“An authentic scroll from Orchid Sage himself!” A big shot shouted.

Yes, Orchid Sage wrote the word and instilled in it a mighty power.

“Just a fox exploiting the tiger’s might.” Li Qiye commented and raised one hand into the sky.

He tore the firmament apart along with the myriad realms. Nothing else mattered beneath his grasp.

The character instantly crumbled and the scroll was ripped to pieces by his palm.

“Ugh...” Guan Yunpeng was held up by his neck before anyone could react; his feet kicking back and forth and his eyes turning white.

“Don’t hurt him!” Seven-ring God activated all seven of his halos. They spread and created a domain of power.

“Evil creature, halt!” Both the monks started chanting Buddhist mantras and became shrouded in a bright radiance. This radiance then rushed towards Li Qiye.

The two showed their true form. The left child was a long-armed ape and the right child was a black pupa. They had a Buddhist disk behind their head, looking like two enlightened demons.

“Ra!” Their weapon of choice was a massive Buddhist pestle.

“Boom!” Some stars above crumbled as a result. The two pestles accompanied by Buddhist brilliance and chanting came crashing down on Li Qiye.

“Die!” Seven-ring God was in a hurry to save Yunpeng so he fused his halos into a seal. It turned into a supreme mountain, also flying towards Li Qiye.

“Rumble!” The trio’s combined attack nearly crushed one of the closest pavilions, alarming the experts inside.

They were undoubtedly powerful, living up to their fame. Alas, this wasn’t enough to warrant Li Qiye’s attention.

“So be it, I’ll grant your death wishes.” Li Qiye said, then formed a mudra. He flipped it over and the resulting seal came pressing down.

“Boom!” This casual mudra had enough power to suppress the gods and devils for ages. Everything would turn to ashes in the blink of an eye.

“Rumble!” It annihilated both the Buddhist radiance along with the halos and continued heading for the three combatants.

“No!!” All three started screaming and summoned their strongest treasures while utilizing their mightiest merit laws in an attempt to destroy the incoming seal.

Unfortunately, how could fireflies compare to the luminous moon?

Blood poured down like the rain after a burst of miserable screams. The three were instantly slaughtered by Li Qiye’s seal. Resistance was futile.

Drops of blood fell on the wooden railings of the nearby pavilions - truly a stunning sight to behold.

The stench of blood filled the area and wouldn’t dissipate. Moreover, the atmosphere has become tense to the extreme. The masters here exchanged glances with each other.

Li Qiye had killed the two monks with no regard for their master. Doing so meant becoming an enemy with both Brightking Buddha and Lankavatara Temple. No, all of Buddhism.

Moreover, he killed Seven-ring God too, offending Strong Grass in the process.

Many took a deep breath after realizing that Billionaire Li wasn't only rich but also mighty. Most importantly, he was a merciless man who would kill after a single disagreement.

"What, what do you want?!" Guan Yunpeng gasped for breath and said.

"You tell me. You wanted to kill me earlier, who is killing who now?" Li Qiye smiled.

"Don't, don't be insane!" Yunpeng was scared out of his mind. His life was in someone else's hand right now so he couldn't be arrogant like always.

"I, I, am the successor of Strong Grass, my father is Guan Yunshen, my senior brother is Orchid Sage..." The pale youth stated his backing.

"Idiot, so what if Orchid Sage is your senior brother? He doesn't like having an idiot like you around, I'm sure." Li Qiye shook his head.

"Kill, kill me and my senior brother will avenge me! Our Strong Grass will hunt you down, you, you'll have nowhere to hide!" Yunpeng shrieked louder after seeing that Li Qiye was unimpressed.

Of course, Li Qiye was an exception. Others certainly shuddered after hearing the title, Orchid Sage. This person was still an invincible progenitor.

"Orchid Sage owes Guan Yunshen a great debt." A spectator quietly said.

Everyone knew that Yunshen had taught Orchid Sage before. Orchid Sage would have no choice but to seek vengeance in order to repay this favor.

They thought that it was unwise to have a progenitor as an enemy over Guan Yunpeng. No one would do something like this.

"Let's find out." Li Qiye chuckled and slowly closed his fingers.

"You! Senior Brother, save me-" The frightened youth pissed in his pants and cried for help.

"Pop!" Li Qiye rendered him into a bloody mist.

Chapter 2976: As Easy As Pie

The red mist scattered to the wind, leaving the crowd in rumination.

In recent days, everyone in Sky Pass has heard of Billionaire Li and his crazy bids. Now, his action was arguably fiercer, offending two powerful systems in Immortal Lineage.

He looked nonchalant and brushed off his sleeves as if he had only swatted some flies. No one dared to stand in his path any longer, aware that this guy was a monster.

They watched him move up the highest pavilion towards the mysterious girl.

Meanwhile, the maid named Jing'er stared at Li Qiye with her big and round eyes, being cautious as if he was a thief.

Supreme gave his regards while Holyfrost got up to greet Li Qiye. She considered him as an ally because he used to be a student at Repentance Institution so they were both from Academy of Light.

Li Qiye got in front of the mysterious girl and sat down without any hesitation with a smile on his face. Though the others were prestigious, they still didn't dare to sit close to her. This wasn't the case for Li Qiye.

The atmosphere became quieter after this bold act. One could hear the drop of a needle now.

The big shots here knew her background and showed nothing but respect towards her. Li Qiye, on the other hand, showed zero courtesy and reservation.

"Hmph, you can't sit there." Flying Sword Marvel scowled, still having the same enmity towards him.

"There's no spot in this world that I can't sit." Li Qiye smiled, not bothering to look at her.

"Only a progenitor can sit there, you're not qualified!" She retorted.

"Speak for yourself." Li Qiye ignored her and continued staring at the mysterious girl.

"Fellow Daoist, act politely before the goddess." A young True God close by spoke.

He had an unmatched style as if each wave of his hand could erect myriad domains. He seemed to be blessed by the sages and protected by the gods.

This powerful youth was named Shen Guzhan. He came from Border of God and was on the same level as Holyfrost and Metalkin War God.

"Your name is goddess?" Li Qiye ignored the youth and asked the mysterious girl instead.

"That's just people joking around." She smiled in response: "My name is Hui Qingxuan. You can call me Qingxuan if you don't mind."

People could feel an elegant smile though she was shrouded. The smile contained boundless charisma, enough to charm everyone.

Everyone became startled by her reaction. The older big shots couldn't believe it, thinking that they have misheard. Their eyes darted back and forth between her and Li Qiye in confusion.

Keep in mind that this girl was as prestigious as a progenitor. However, she didn't seem to mind Li Qiye assuming the same seniority level at all.

She was indeed from Five Element Mountain and wasn't a regular disciple either. She was part of the main branch, acting as its successor. Therefore, people called her "Five Element Goddess."

They haven't seen her face but still knew of her prestigious background. They didn't know her real name because it would be improper and disrespectful to ask for it.

Now, she told Li Qiye her name on her own volition to the astonishment of the crowd.

Some geniuses felt jealous as well. Five Element Mountain has always been mysterious and unreachable.

Now, the appearance of the goddess was a chance for everyone to get close. After all, earning her favor meant a future full of potential.

In fact, if they could make her fall in love, they could even become a progenitor in the future. It's certainly not impossible for Five Element Mountain to groom a progenitor.

"Hui Qingxuan? Nice name, I like it." Li Qiye casually smiled. Alas, his attitude right now was considered disrespectful by others. [1]

The maid behind Qinghuan gave him the side-eye. This was her first time seeing a man acting so nonchalant and speaking so much in front of her lady. In her opinion, no one was worthy of her lady.

"My heart can't handle your compliments." Qingxuan's voice was pleasant; one could never get tired of listening to her. Her elegance naturally made people want to stick around forever.

Li Qiye assessed her meticulously without holding back. His rude gaze wanted to find out everything about her.

"How vulgar." Shen Guzhan critiqued.

Supreme and Holyfrost could only smile wryly, having seen his arrogance and domineering style before. Flying Sword Marvel scowled, clearly dissatisfied with him.

"Decent cultivation, you have indeed learned the majority of arts from Five Element." Li Qiye withdrew his gaze.

Some became frozen after hearing this. Though Qingxuan hasn't shown her true power and cultivation before, everyone here was smart enough to know that she far exceeded them - virtually unfathomable.

Otherwise, she wouldn't have been able to become the successor of Five Element. Some even believed that she could be on the same level as Orchid Sage and Luminous Master, capable of contending against them.

"You're too kind. I am but a firefly compared to your radiance, Dao Brother. Your battle against the three emperors on Sacred Mountain was brilliant." She responded.

"As easy as pie." Li Qiye smiled before adding: "Hmm... a girl like you is very adorable indeed."

"That's him, that's Fiercest! The guy who killed Goldtypha True Emperor and the others!" A shocked spectator realized who Li Qiye was after hearing Qingxuan.

"So that's Fiercest? No wonder why he's so haughty." Many have heard of Fiercest before. A person who killed three emperors was qualified to act in this manner.

"It is an honor to be praised by you." Qingxuan answered. One could tell that she was smiling beneath the concealment.

"A smart girl is always so lovely yet can be rare. If I were to pick someone in Immortal Lineage, you would definitely be a top candidate." Li Qiye joked.

Chapter 2977: Good Graces

Such flippant flirting astounded the crowd. It required wanton arrogance.

Everyone took a deep breath and stared at Five Element Goddess, thinking that she would become furious and teach Li Qiye a lesson.

Remember, her status was comparable to the two progenitors. The oldest ancestors right now would still venerate her.

Li Qiye's comment about wanting her to be his woman was the same as offending all of Five Element Mountain.

In fact, some have said that they would rather offend a progenitor rather than Five Element. This was far more insane than challenging Luminous Master.

"This brat must be tired of living." Someone murmured.

"There's no place to hide if Five Element wishes to pursue this. No one would grant him shelter either." An Eternal added.

"A frog wanting to eat swan meat." Flying Sword Marvel said.

"So shameless and lacking self-awareness." Shen Guzhan chimed in. His eyes flashed with animosity towards Li Qiye.

Li Qiye ignored them and only smiled at the goddess.

"Yes, that sounds good." The bull seized the opportunity and laughed: "Sir, you and the bloodline of Five Element will birth an immortal child with limitless potential."

"Goddess, what do you think about this?" It then turned towards her and asked, seemingly impatient.

In the bull's opinion, nothing would be better than Li Qiye leaving an offspring behind in Immortal Lineage, especially with such a good match. The child would be the greatest in an epoch, completely unmatched.

"I've had enough of this!" Shen Guzhan snorted and exuded his divinity towards the bull like a supreme god.

"Fardao is a one-and-only genius in history but his descendants are only mediocre at best." The bull didn't care at all as it waved its hoof around.

This look of disdain exasperated Guzhan. His eyes lit up with all-piercing rays.

Border of God was the system under Fardao. He was the only person who started a system without becoming a progenitor - another miracle of the ages.

Others would naturally respect the youth due to his background, just not the bull and Li Qiye.

Jing'er has been doing nothing outside of shooting unfriendly glances at Li Qiye while standing behind Hui Qingxuan.

"So egotistic." She finally commented.

On the other hand, Hui Qingxuan remained friendly and smiled: "It is an honor to be considered by you, Dao Brother."

No one expected this response from her. All of the emperors and older experts stared at Li Qiye in disbelief.

In fact, her lack of a furious reaction meant that she had pretty much accepted his offer. Thus, jaws dropped to the ground.

“How, how can this be?” A dumbstruck listener said.

In their opinion, Li Qiye should be dead right now for teasing her in such a blatant manner and she shouldn’t be so nonchalant.

They started looking around. She still didn’t have a dao companion so some predicted that Five Element Mountain wanted to let her look for a potential husband on this trip.

Because of this, so many big shots became excited since they had talented juniors. Perhaps there was a shot.

A few powerful emperors and Everlastings harbored this intention, not only because of Five Element Mountain but also because she was indeed a peerless woman. Having a wife like her would be the fortune of a lifetime.

They tried to court her, albeit in a gentlemanly and non-aggressive style. Unfortunately, she has been keeping a distance from everyone until now, Li Qiye. He suddenly became everyone’s love rival.

“That’s awesome to hear!” The bull became excited: “Hehehe, when are you two marrying then? I’ll drag that old tree demon to the ceremony for a drink too, it’s best to have a baby as soon as possible!”

The bull couldn’t wait for a marriage between these two. Later on, even if Li Qiye were to leave Immortal Lineage, that baby would be well taken care of. It would have the bull, the tree demon, and Five Element Mountain.

This baby would definitely reign over Three Immortals with a radiance illuminating one era after another, hence the bull’s excitement in being a teacher of such a majestic being.

“Stop fantasizing.” Li Qiye kicked the bull straight out of the pavilion.

It climbed back in right away and said: “Goddess, what do you think about him? He’s not a bad choice, definitely the best in history.”

Qingxuan only smiled after hearing this; her eyes resembling running water still fixated on Li Qiye.

“Dao Brother, how about visiting Five Element Mountain when you have time? The seniors there all wish to see your impeccable style.” She asked.

“Isn’t this too fast?!” People breathed in deeply after hearing this.

She hasn’t invited anyone else back to her system before. Normally, only progenitors could go there. Those invited were all top and brilliant existences of their era.

Now, the successor of Five Element was inviting this fella? She spoke as if she had agreed to the marriage and was ready for him to meet her family.

All of this was happening too quickly for the crowd to take.

"I don't get it..." The older Everlastings lost hope in their juniors having a chance with her.

The young ones right now who had a crush on her could tell that she favored Li Qiye.

"Why?" One young Everlasting couldn't accept it.

They were young and powerful yet couldn't earn her attention. On the other hand, a vulgar person like Li Qiye got it in no time at all?

They thought that they weren't inferior compared to him at all. So why did he win?

In just a short time, jealous stares were sent his way.

Chapter 2978: Tai Yinxi

Everyone desired to earn Five Element Goddess' love, brilliant emperors and Everlastings included. Nothing could be better than having her as a dao companion.

There were many women in this world, some great beauties too. However, they paled in comparison to the goddess.

This development happened too quickly and caught them off guard.

"Sure, I'll visit Five Element later if I have time." Li Qiye agreed without hesitating.

"I'll be waiting." Qingxuan's actions and style seemed to be natural and without pretense. Others couldn't help admiring her.

"Sooner better than later." The bull laughed: "If it's a good thing, why not do it as early as possible? Marry fast and have a baby quicker..."

It knew that Li Qiye would leave soon so there wasn't that much time left if they didn't get married right away.

"Scram." Another kick from Li Qiye sent it out of the balcony but it still shamelessly climbed back in.

A few didn't know what to think of this strange creature. Holyfrost, on the other hand, didn't feel the same way.

She didn't know all the details about the bull but many ancestors in the system revered the bull. They told stories of brilliant geniuses and emperors suffering to its mischievousness.

But now, it looked like it had a good relationship with Li Qiye. Therefore, she realized that she had still been underestimating the bull.

"His Excellency, the Commander of Sky Pass, is here!" An announcer roared.

Two groups of soldiers escorted an old man into the pavilion, marching in an orderly fashion.

The old man was still full of spirit despite his gray hair. His eyes were as bright as the sun and moon or the gathering of a thousand stars.

He had concealed his invincible aura but each step was as sonorous as thunder. Any gesture of his could beckon a storm.

He was Tai Yinxi, a Supreme Everlasting!

“Gentlemen, thank you for visiting my humble abode and excuse any lack of reception shown so far.” Tai Yinxi cupped his fist towards the guests in the various pavilions.”

Everyone stood up and returned the gesture.

Though there were ancestors and powerful emperors among the crowd, none dared to show any slight towards Tai Yinxi.

His background was one thing but just his power alone was awe-inspiring enough. A Supreme Everlasting was a being standing on the same level as a progenitor.

A half-step like Flying Sword Marvel was far inferior. Some grand-completion Everlastings or those at the peak of this realm only had the same seniority level and fame as a progenitor, not the power.

However, Tai Yinxi has been at the supreme level for numerous years. He had the capabilities to fight one.

Therefore, his status was equal to the two contemporary progenitors. Of course, it would be hard to know which of them was the strongest.

“The brat is old enough to need to put on an act now.” The bull only gave Yinxi a quick glance, not paying too much attention.

Many stared at it, thinking that it was being too disrespectful. No one else here would dare to make a comment like this.

Tai Yinxi noticed the bull and quickly walked over to bow deeply towards the bull: “Senior, please forgive me for not greeting you earlier. My apology.”

“Okay, no need to flatter me.” The bull waved its hoof but was clearly enjoying the attention.

“I do not dare to forget the kindness you’ve shown when teaching me back then. I simply didn’t know that you have left Sacred Mountain or I would have received you a million miles ahead.” Yinxi continued.

“Haha, I was going to trample your crappy house but since you’re being respectful enough, I will spare you this time.” It laughed, no longer feeling annoyed like before.

Tai Yinxi was slightly embarrassed but still felt much better. He knew that if the bull wanted to do it, he could only watch the thing trample his mansion.

Many started pondering after seeing Tai Yinxi’s respectful attitude towards the bull.

Of course, the guards earlier had cold sweat everywhere. They disrespected the bull earlier but now, their commander was assuming the role of a junior before this thing.

Tai Yinxi had his reasons for doing so. He had joined the academy during his youth and was smart enough to get some pointers from the bull. That's why he viewed the bull as a senior and had nothing but gratitude towards it.

"Goddess." He then bowed towards Five Element Goddess.

People didn't find this surprising either. He was an outer disciple of Five Element while she was its successor. This ceremony was warranted.

"Elder Yin, this is Young Noble Li. You might need his help in the future." She stood up and nodded.

Yinxi shuddered in response. He had a good idea of her power and actual influence. Only a few in this world could be viewed so highly by her to warrant this grand introduction.

This man named Li Qiye was definitely extraordinary.

"It is my honor to meet you, Young Noble Li." Yinxi bowed towards him: "I heard you are from Repentance Institution. I was also a student at the academy, fortunate enough to learn many things there. I suppose we share the same alma mater then."

He was quick-witted enough to build a relationship with Li Qiye, using the fact that they had the same school.

He had Li Qiye's information prior to this. For example, that the guy had killed three emperors.

This was an impressive showing of power but still not enough for Yinxi to care.

Many others could have done the same thing. For example - Holyfrost, Supreme, Metalkin War God, Violet Dragon Empress.

Such power was still far below his. On the other hand, this introduction from Five Element Goddess changed everything.

Meanwhile, the young ones were still envious, especially those who had a crush on the goddess.

"Bow now, it is an honor for you to see him. You might need his protection later." The bull laughed and added.

Yinxi became emotional. Since the bull had taught him before, he knew just how mighty this creature was. This meant that Li Qiye was as deep as an abyss.

He decided to get on his knees because he was a practical person, grounded in reality.

"Rise, no need for bothersome rites." Li Qiye waved his sleeve after sitting there and accepting the bow.

The spectators became more curious about Li Qiye's identity and his abilities. A few masters have been trying to see through him for a while now. Alas, they couldn't see anything special.

Thus, they still had skepticism, thinking that he wasn't on the same level as Luminous Master and Orchid Sage.

Chapter 2979: Prophecy

Tai Yinxi then shifted his focus towards the guests and said: "I'll get straight to the point for inviting everyone here today..."

He paused for a bit and looked at everyone: "A few days ago, there was a calamity and Sky Pass stood at the forefront..."

Everyone became emotional, even the strongest beings here.

That event was truly frightening - something massive akin to a meteor flying out of Uncrossable Expanse almost like the heaven falling down - more than enough to crush numerous systems.

Billions of living beings and top masters were scared out of their mind, feeling powerless.

The powerful True Emperors and Everlastings might have been able to escape. Alas, they wouldn't be able to protect their sects and systems.

"Fortunately, it was only a scare since the meteor only passed by Sky Pass and disappeared into Sky Ruins instead." Tai Yinxi had a solemn expression.

His attitude was understandable. Sky Pass was certainly the first to be struck by any calamity from outside Immortal Lineage. As its commander, he no longer dared to take this lightly - always ready for a great battle. He shouldered great responsibilities in this place.

"Alas, who knows what will happen in the future? I'm sure everyone remembers the previous descent of darkness along with Jade-zenith Progenitor's prophecy - the heavenly change heralds a monster. Thus, it's not looking too optimistic."

The crowd was moved again, feeling a chill coursing down their spine. The dark descent nearly turned everything evil with its influence.

That was utterly frightening and unexpected - starting and ending so quickly almost like a dream.

Some even believed that it was only an illusion, not a real event. Others said that it was a prelude to a calamity.

Regardless of whether the event was real or not, it still made everyone nervous.

Fortunately, peace came after and people calmed down again until the meteor several days ago. Once again, nothing came of it.

Alas, Tai Yinxi was bringing it up again so the listeners felt the same dread once more.

"So the meteor is the heavenly change mentioned in the prophecy?" One big shot asked.

Jade-zenith was a mysterious progenitor from a previous generation, known to be still alive.

Everyone knew that she could gaze into the future and calculate its general flow. If the prophecy came from her, it would definitely be correct.

"Amitabha. This prophecy truly came from our progenitor, no question about it." A monk stood up and revealed. He wore an old kasaya that has turned white from being washed too many times.

His age looked to be up there unlike his starry eyes. These eyes belonged on a twenty-year-old youth, not an old monk.

Li Qiye had seen him before back in Immortal Demon. The guy threatened him at that point.

“Master Dajue.” Many were shaken to see him. Some Everlastings stood up and bowed with respect.

“The previous teacher of the state.” One of them revealed.

He hailed from Heaven Calculating Kingdom, previously serving as the national teacher. However, he had retired for a long time.

Heaven Calculating Kingdom was one of the strongest sects within Jade-zenith System. It was created by a disciple of Jade-zenith Progenitor, versed in calculation and source-seering.

Master Dajue was even more incredible. His trigram style divination was considered to be the best in Immortal Lineage. Some believed that he was only second to Jade-zenith Progenitor.

“The heavenly change heralds a monster is what our progenitor said.” Master Dajue placed his palms together and said: “However, I have a different interpretation. I don’t think this change is from outside or above Immortal Lineage. And, the monster might not be an external darkness or devil either. It could be a title.”

He stared straight at Li Qiye after saying this.

“What does he mean?” People exchanged glances of confusion.

A few followed his gaze and stared at Li Qiye as well. Some smart people got his point.

“It wouldn’t be an unreasonable interpretation. Billionaire Li also has another title, Fiercest. It shares the same characters as monster. Is Jade-zenith Progenitor referring to him?” A big shot whispered.

“Are you saying Billionaire Li is actually the biggest threat to Immortal Lineage? Or is the prophecy pointing at someone else?” Discussions sprung up.

Meanwhile, Li Qiye seemed immune to the gossip about him.

“So what if I share that title?” Li Qiye smiled and shook his head: “Idiot, your divination art is foolish and you are throwing away your progenitor’s reputation. Don’t claim to be able to read the future if you’re blind.”

Some gasped after hearing this diss from Li Qiye. The monk’s calculation art was as good as can be. Emperors and Everlastings have come to him for help. Thus, this critique appeared inaccurate and too strong.

“I don’t agree, Master Dajue’s art is recognized by all. The blunt comment is unwarranted.” One Eternal said.

“I agree that my cultivation is weak but this is my own interpretation of the progenitor’s prophecy. I’m not specifically aiming at you alone either, Benefactor. However, nothing is certain and you might still become a calamity. I have observed you before, brutal and prone to massacres. If darkness really comes, you might seriously damage Immortal Lineage.” The monk didn’t become angry.

Some actually agreed with this statement, especially those who had knowledge about Li Qiye's murderous conduct. This fella might actually conspire with the darkness or become its blade.

"We need to destroy all those wanting to be part of the darkness." Shen Guzhan said seriously: "It's a necessary precaution for the sake of protecting Immortal Lineage."

The crowd started thinking. If Li Qiye was indeed the monster in the prophecy, he might really become part of the calamity.

Why not take the initiative instead of giving him more time to grow alongside the darkness?

Chapter 2980: Different Interpretations

Shen Guzhan was as direct as can be. Everyone started staring at Li Qiye but no one made a move.

Some big shots agreed because Jade-zenith Progenitor would never be wrong.

If this Fiercest was the same monster prophesied, he would definitely become a calamity later on.

In fact, some were willing to preemptively take him down first, breaking the egg before it hatches. They would rather kill ten thousand innocent than to miss one criminal.

Nevertheless, they wouldn't dare to act recklessly. First, Li Qiye might be more powerful than them.

Secondly, they saw how much the goddess liked him. Causing trouble now was the same as antagonizing her and Five Element Mountain. Anyone with a hint of intelligence wouldn't dare to do so.

"Come then." Li Qiye smiled, not giving a damn about Shen Guzhan.

This naturally exasperated the youth, leaving him with an ugly expression. He wasn't used to being treated in this manner due to his power and background.

"Senior Brother Dajue, I have a completely different interpretation." A pleasant voice came from a girl moving into the spotlight.

She wore a green dress with a veil shrouding her face. Her eyes were bright enough to illuminate the night sky.

Her name was Xu Xiaojin and once said that she was connected by fate with Li Qiye back in Immortal Demon.

"Miss Xu of Heaven Calculating Pavilion." Tai Yinxi cupped his fist and greeted her.

"The pavilion?!" Some were surprised to hear this. A few stood up in order to take a better look at her.

"So a disciple from the pavilion is out too in this generation." Some emperors and Everlastings quietly discussed among themselves.

The pavilion had great influence in Immortal Lineage, revered by many.

Jade-zenith Dao System had plenty of individual sects and kingdoms - for example, Heaven Calculating Kingdom.

The kingdom was created by a disciple of Jade-zenith,, meaning that it was also one of her legacies. However, the ultimate branch still belonged to the pavilion. The reason was very simple - Jade-zenith herself was staying here.

Its location remained unknown. No one could enter without being invited.

The disciples from pavilions rarely came out. Nevertheless, the pavilion remained the main representative of the system despite Heaven Calculating Kingdom being so strong.

That's why her appearance stirred the crowd. To a certain extent, the pavilion represented the will of this great progenitor.

Many began cupping their fist to greet her. For millions of years, numerous big shots desired an audience with the pavilion in order to inquire about the future. Unfortunately, most have been refused.

"Brother Dajue, my interpretation of the progenitor's prophecy is the exact opposite of yours. Immortal Lineage relies on Young Noble Li, he is our hope. Thus, the characters for monster here are indeed pointing at Young Noble Li, but our progenitor is saying that he'll be the one to stop the incoming waves." Xu Xiaojin said.

People exchanged glances and pondered. They didn't know which was more trustworthy.

Both have inherited the arts of Jade-zenith Progenitor. On one hand, Master Dajue was the probably second best seer right now, only second to the progenitor.

On the other hand, Xu Xiaojin came from the pavilion where the progenitor resides. Thus, the pavilion was above the kingdom in terms of status.

Since she was allowed to enter the world, it meant that she had reached a brilliant level or the pavilion wouldn't have allowed it.

The two interpretations were different or rather, completely opposite from each other - hence the confusion among the crowd.

In terms of status, they would definitely pick Master Dajue since he has been famous for a long time. Moreover, numerous people have asked him for advice before and were rarely let down.

On the contrary, the girl seemed to have the progenitor behind her.

"Junior Sister, what you say is reasonable but I maintain my own view. This pertains to all of Immortal Lineage and trillions of living beings, we can't afford to be careless. Just one wrong step and the abyss will consume us." Master Dajue said.

"Right." Many big shots nodded in agreement. They would rather kill an innocent rather than to miss a potential evil-doer. Too much was at stake here to let mercy be an influence.

"I disagree, Senior Brother." She shook her head and solemnly responded: "We should only be calculating the future and examine its momentum. Interfering with the world is not what we should do. It is the opposite of our original aspiration. Revealing the wish of heaven will incite a tribulation."

“We need to change the mandate of heaven for the sake of the people. I am willing to accept the worst of all tribulations.” The monk retorted.

“Okay, okay, stop wasting time.” Li Qiye interrupted the two of them: “Your calculation art is an embarrassment, don’t try to show off here. I can be more accurate while guessing with my eyes close. Scram to the side.”

Everyone exchanged glances after. Some have become on guard towards Li Qiye despite the conflicting interpretations.

“Amitabha...” The monk chanted in response.

“Ami your sister.” Li Qiye lost his patience and waved his hand: “So what if I’m the monster, come and take me down then. I’ll beat all of you into submission so there will be no more eyesores.”

Such a domineering statement astounded the crowd. He didn’t give a damn about anyone else in the world.

There were several invincible emperors and powerful Everlastings present on top of a great master in Tai Yinxi. He made it sound as if he could swat them away like flies.

This naturally infuriated the majority of the audience. Some glared at him; others had an aggressive flash in their eyes.

“Wanna fight then? Come, the more the merrier so I can get this over with.” Li Qiye didn’t mind at all and smiled.

His attitude did a number on the crowd, causing a few to scowl in response.

“Are you challenging all of us here alone?” Shen Guzhan coldly uttered.

“Indeed.” Li Qiye smiled and said: “Come, I’ll just need to use one hand.” He raised one hand forward after saying this.

The crowd didn’t know what to do right now, flabbergasted by what could only be described as insane arrogance.

Those dissatisfied with him were at an impasse, not knowing whether to attack or not. Both choices seemed unwise.
