Chapter 128

Lucifer's eyes opened slowly. His lower body felt sticky and warm, yet the rest of him was sore and dry. He could hear water flowing in his bathroom. Assuming it must be Elda or Marina, he jumped from his bed.

As his feet touched the ground, he stepped into another sticky patch, shaking his head.

'It's probably Marina. I know she is a very excitable girl.'

Lucifer walked towards the bathroom door with slow steps, a smile grew on his face, as he wondered if she did this on purpose, leaving her clothes near the door's entrance.

When he opened the wooden handle, the sound of water running became louder. Steam filled his vision as he took a step inside.

'There she is!'

A wet feeling greeted his feet as he approached, finally ready to have some fun. His naughty sisters did things to him in the dream world, just like this girl, in reality.

His steps were quiet as he slowly approached her. Because of the steam, he couldn't tell what colour her skin was. She looked pale but sometimes purple.

Truly lacking fear of death, he strokes the woman's shoulders softly.

The moment she felt his hands touch her, she believed he would be angry and scold her. Yet his gentle touch stroked along her neck, slid along her lips and teased her mouth and tongue like he was used to doing this.

'What's going on? Why is he playing with my lips and tongue?'

Suddenly, she felt a hard, burning hot rod press against her upper back as it rubbed close to her neck. A thick, manly scent filled her nostrils as she snorted happily.

'This naughty student... How dare he seduce his teacher! But this scent... It makes me hunger for him, it's made me wet again...'

Esther didn't speak, wondering if he knew it was her or mistook her for the arachnid or centaur. She played along to make this more fun. Her tongue coiled and sucked on his fingers.

A light slurping noise filled the bathroom. The taste of his flesh was only a little worse than his white ambrosia that nearly drove her into a frenzy.

Lucifer found the way she became obedient and sucked on his finger very pleasing, although inside his mind, this person was not Marina or Elda.

He didn't care. The woman could only be one of a few, and she didn't resist him. In fact, spurred him on to be more violent and eager.

'His fingers are so soft. I want to defile him and for him to violate me!'

The water moved with a swish, her large lamia tail wriggled under the water. Esther like to bathe at her full length and reveal her true form only then, now close to 10ft long, maybe longer.

Her back pressed against the wall as his hands slide down her body. His fingertips seemed to savour every inch of her flesh as he finally reached her breasts.

When his hands touched her soft, bouncy breasts, first he placed his hands under them and lifted, as if to check their weight.

Then slowly circled around them with two fingers getting closer to her nipples with every cycle.

'This bastard! He's teasing this old woman... It feels so good! Like a massage, but sexual...'

Esther felt his lips breath hot air into her pointed ears followed by a deep sexy whisper.

"Do you want me to play with your nipples? Look how stiff they are. Did you want to do it that bad?"

'Fucker!'

She shouted in her mind, but jolts of pleasure shot through her spine towards her entire body. The moment she tried to snap back, he brushed his fingertips against her nipples, softly rubbing and nudging them.

Her own saliva coated them as he rolled them between his finger and thumb.

A moment passed as faint pants came from her purple lips. She never felt this much just from light petting. Was it the situation, his skill, or maybe her desire to mate with him was that high?

'Ah, don't stop, crunch them! Squeeze them, softly stroke them! Make me go crazy, I don't want to fight this war... Heal my mind!'

The steam thickened as she no longer managed the tap. This helped her relax and show her true feelings and desires.

She leaned back against the bath's side; her head now hanging backwards, her golden eyes glimpsed his handsome face approaching.

Her pupils narrowed in anticipation. Would he reject her or just ravage her?

"Mmmph!?"

Esther's eyes widened. He placed his large hand on her cheek, closing her mouth with his soft, glossy red lips and kissed her softly, like a dear lover.

'Thousands of years, no male ever saw me as a maiden... How lucky. My first kiss is a handsome man young enough to be my distant descendant?'

"Nnnph!"

A few moments passed as she met his kiss with her own, parting his lips with her mouth and tasting his breath, saliva reaching shyly into his mouth with her tongue to encourage his.

"Mmmmn!"

She grasped around his head, pulling him tightly against her, as their smacking became louder, passion building with each moment.

His hands pinched and pull her hard cherry coloured nipples that caused her body to shudder, swishing the water in her bath.

"Hmmmph! Nnnph! Unnf! Shlap!"

Esther became wilder. This kiss was something she waited millennia for. Despite this, her practice and imagination helped make her seem less of a rookie

"Mmmm! aah~ Nph! Klish~ Ummn!"

Her body jittered as his right hand reached down, sliding along her belly like in a serpent pattern.

She felt as if someone cast thunder magic on each area he touched as her muscles spasmed and contracted out of her control.

Esther looked up at his handsome face as their kiss finally broke. She now felt dazed, her tongue hanging from her lips filled with sweet saliva.

'Is it over...? Ah!'

After his fingers reached her private garden, he circled her furry tuft before sliding along her flooded slit. She couldn't help being damp from the bathwater, however, this was thick, sticky and came from deep inside her.

Esther was horny.

She felt this would be the best time to stop before it went too far. Despite that thought before she could speak, his thick, rough fingers slide directly into her tight, drooling hole with ease.

The moment before she moaned out, his flesh rod pressed against her upside down lips, rubbed along her hot, sticky tongue and pushed inside her hot, sticky mouth filled with spit.

Like she was guided by second nature. Her lips wrapped around his glans with a loud splutter before she started sucking his thick, burning, meat spear, that penetrated her soft, glossy lips with loud slurps.

She dragged her snake tongue back inside slowly as she savoured his taste and his cock's sensation, rubbing along his flesh rod, slithering around leaving a trail of her drool, before she wrapped around his glans waiting for his fingers to toy with her more, gathering all the saliva in her mouth, to cause a noisy slurping and sloppy sound.

"Obuuh!? Mmmnp~ Mmmn uunnf! Obu!"

'It taste's so good... His thick, musky white milk is still inside his foreskin. I want more!'

Her hair dropped to the floor outside the bath as she half slid out of the water, now a half 69 shape. His hips, easily able to press deeper into her mouth.

A smirk came to his lips as the snake's body lifted into the air and brought her sticky, wet pussy only a few inches from his face.

"Nhh~ Nh! Obuh! Mmmph~ Mnnnhgh!"

Esther's snake tongue swirled around the back side of his glans. Her head moved at rapid speeds as her throat seemed to adjust each time he thrust inside.

Her warm and sticky flesh wrapped around his cock and squeezed on him with just the right pressure to make shudder in pleasure.

'Fuck! Who said this woman was not a pro...'

"Ugh! Agh~ Obu~ Mmmph! Guh...Uhm! Ngaah!"

Lucifer could not take a defeat. His fingers parted her pussy lips. A hot, steamy hole entered his sight as thick honey dribbled down and stained her clit.

There was no hesitation.

The moment he restarted thrusting his hips into her mouth pussy, with a loud squelching noise, his tongue licked along her slit and slurped all her tasty nectar down into his throat.

A few moments later, his tongue slid around her clit and sucked gently with his lips. Her massive tail pulled out from the bath, dripping water all over the wooden floor.

She shrank to the perfect length and wrapped herself around his body with tight coils, pressing his nose against her pussy and tongue further inside her entrance like a cock,

"Mhn~ Mgh...! Mhbn...Heh~ Heh~ Mhn...! Hhh~!"

'Ah, his cock is so thick my throat hurts... But the sensation of his glans feels nice. This is sex? I've missed so much!'

Esther felt pleasure build up in her stomach. She used her coiled body to rub against his face and force his cock deeper into her throat. Spluttering noises came from her foamy lips as drool and his pre-cum mixed into sticky white bubbles.

She shuddered and held onto the bath's side with her human hands as his tongue explored her pussy and found her sensitive spots and teased them with his tongue

'No! Don't vibrate your tongue! Something will come out! This old woman will piss herself!'

"Mmmnh~ Obuuu~ Mhbn! Mhn~ Hnhh~ Nnnph!"

The air to her brain became light, as his huge cock became lodged in her throat for several moments as his powerful hips slammed against her chin, his balls slapped her nose and eyes filling her nostrils with his thick, manly scent driving her crazy with lust.

Lucifer refused to lose, so used an idea from the sex toys in the last world he lived. First, he made his tongue vibrate at high speeds using Anima, then controlled the speed, direction, and type of vibration.

Esther had two sensitive spots close to each other, so he shifted his head rapidly from left to right. Loud squelching and splutters came from her gaping cunt as his tongue, longer than most male cocks in this world, drove her crazy.

'What!? Fuck! No!! So fucking amazing!'

"Haaah~ Ahhn! Mmmnph!!! Mhhbn! Mhn~ Hnnh! Obu! Obuh.. Ohhh!?"

She squirted madly; her coiled tail almost crushed his back and spine into pieces as her entire body convulsed. Only her head remained in place as she sucked on his thick meat club embedded halfway down her throat.

"Mmmph! Nnnph! Mhn~ Obu, obuuh! Mghh! Nnnf~ Gefu~"

'His hot cock is expanding inside my throat, I can feel his pulsating veins, filled with hot blood! The air is getting thin, but my pussy quivers in delight each moment he stops my air! Am I a pervert? Lucifer... I want you to treat me worse! Make me feel dirty, abuse me!'

Lucifer enjoyed the tight sensation of her throat that seemed to lack oxygen and sucked even harder to find air, her pussy squirted and oozed honey into his face, unable to move because of her tight tail, the pleasant, hot feeling of her sticky mouth caused him to release his pent up sperm directly into her stomach.

'I am dying! I cannot breathe, save me!? His delicious semen is going to drown me!'

He freed his arm and held her face right into his crotch, her nose buried in his balls as she snorted and created a bubble of his sperm and her drool desperately trying to swallow his load that never ended.

"Swallow it all, be a good girl, Esther. This is your food from now on. Savour it all!"

"Gefu, Oeup~ Mmmph! Mnhhhgh!? Schlurp! Schlurp~ Gepu!"

Esther's tail flopped to the ground as she landed on the floor with a wet splash, her pussy still pulsating and on display as her head flopped between his legs. Looking up at him, she opened her mouth to display what was inside.

He saw only a little of his white goo remained as she slowly drank it up in several gulps, mixing it with her own drool, finally she finished letting out a loud burp, sticking her massive snake tongue out to prove she was good and swallowed everything.

'Ah, I can still taste the great flavour of his creamy sperm in my throat and mouth! It hurts and throbs, but my pussy won't stop drooling for him!'

"Oh? So you don't even look shocked when noticed... Such a terrible teacher!"

She couldn't feel bad now, the afterglow of her continuous climax and his large serving for her meal. Nothing could cause her to feel bad right now.

"Well, you can wait if you want more. I have some Arachne to pleasure. Join me for a bath to clean your dirty face up, though."

Lucifer pressed his foot on her chest and wiped the dirt from his feet, squishing her breasts down underfoot, which caused her to spasm once more and excrete more of her thick honey.

"Mmmn!"

'Fucker! If It didn't feel this amazing... Just you wait! I will make you scream like a girl next time... Hehe, next time! So exciting! It's been so long since I looked forward to the next day... Thank you, Lucifer.'

"Gah!?"

He stood on her chest for a moment before he entered the bath, forcing all the air from her lungs. Which made her face a light climax, shuddering as her nectar stained the wall, unable to control herself, she urinated like, only earning his scornful look that made her feel even more delighted.
