Chapter 177 56: Approaching Humans!

'These girls are delightful siblings! They fought each other with so much anger. This cute girl Alua keeps clenching her ass cheeks when her butt touches my forearm. Such a shy little girl.'

Moments later, Emura leapt into the air, dropped from the roof of his mansion, and smashed into the ground. Her chest expanded as she heaved from her deep breaths. She watched the man she loved with two girls sitting on his muscular arms in glee as he took them flying around the training ground. His handsome smile greeted all the girls and showed off his firm muscles.

'Seriously.... Are you going to make them all obsessed with you? Lucifer.... It's not been a day, and I can see two girls with the same glint as Marina!'

"My lord! Why did you run off? It was so hard to catch you. Look at how sweaty and out of breath I am!"

'Yeah, right! This woman is a liar! Do not believe her, master!' The girls in training yelled in their hearts.

Emura acted all cute, which caused the other women to feel strange. This woman is the one that beats them daily if they don't meet the quota. Some shuddered the moment they heard his voice. Then suddenly, Emura glared at them, which caused them to all dash away and squeal.

'Hmmm, something tells me my lizard maid likes to bully the weak! I must spank her later!'

'Yes! Please spank me!' Emura thought.

"Sorry, I saw these two fighting with an interesting technique."

Lucifer spun around and floated towards Emura as his wings flapped. The two girls blushed a bright red. Then shuddered in fear from Emura and her fierce gaze.

'Big sister, should we get down? What do we do!?'

'Ah, little sister, you look so adorable with those fearful eyes! But big sister cannot save you from that monster!'

'You two are going to get it! I will beat you both till you piss blood!' Emura thought while watching the two women.

"I see, my lord; these girls rarely see such a handsome and charming male. They might become crazed and push you down. So let's leave here for now, and when they become full maids, you can meet them?"

Her face smiled like an angel to make him agree. She pretended to be kind to make the maids shut up. The moment she wanted to continue, a loud sound interrupted her. Then several Arachne dashed towards them at high speed. They used their white webs to traverse between the stone buildings.

"Maid chief!"(Neru)

"Maid chief!" (Meru)

Two cute small-sized Arachne hung upside down and spoke to Emura; these girls were too young to go to war and became junior scouts.

"Ah, handsome guy!" (Neru)

"Handsome guy!" (Meru)

Lucifer watched the two identical girls and wondered if there was something in the water to make so many sisters. He gave them both a cute smile and waved; the girl with blue hair on the right gave a cheeky smile and waved back. "Ehehe! The handsome guy smiled at me, big sis!"

"Ah, no fair! Handsome guy! Me too!" (Neru)

"Girls! Could you stop with this nonsense for now? Please tell me, what exactly is the matter?"

The two, Arachne exclaimed. "Ah!? We forgot!" before they turned the right way and acted seriously. Lucifer never mentioned he could see both girls' hairy forbidden gardens. He wondered why they looked so fluffy, as their skirts were upside down. He smiled as they both performed the cute salute with their eight legs bending low.

"There were reports of bad guys in the south!" (Neru)

"Bad guys to the south!" (Meru)

"I see; what bad guys. Were the monsters or demons, maybe humans?"

Emura closed her eyes and took a deep breath. She stopped acting like a fool and snapped her eyes back open. Her attitude became relaxed because her master had returned. She coaxed the girls and looked into their information. Her eyes narrowed before she looked towards the black wall.

"Okay, you two, please head back and stay in your positions like good girls."

"Yes, ma'am! Handsome guy, see you later!" (Meru)

"Mmm, goodbye, Handsome guy!" (Neru)

'Hmmm, it seems the humans are faster than I thought. Do you think I should do a preemptive strike?'

Lucifer pondered to himself in silence. Emura started contacting the surrounding maids; some were the girls who first greeted him on arrival as they spoke in a weird language. He ignored their speech and paced on the spot; somehow, it didn't feel right to attack, and thus he waited for more information.

'I don't like missing vital information; reading the reports of the past few days will help me learn the bigger picture.'

While he was distracted, his hand reached over and stroked the plump ass of Emura as she let out a yelp. Lucifer always seemed more relaxed when his hands caressed a woman's soft rump. She shuddered in the middle of speaking, which caused the other maids to blush and look towards that hand with a jealous gaze.

'I wish that were my ass he fondled.'

"Ahn~ Please go; I will follow soon!" (Draconic)

She spoke high-pitched as the other girls dashed away with blushing faces. The two girls revealed that a large troop of humans were close. For the past few days, they would send several scouts to seek gaps in the mountains or places they could take advantage of.

'His hand feels good, but I must focus on the bigger picture.'

"Forgive me, lord, but I have important business to take care of! You can punish me as you see fit later!"

Pah!

Emura broke her heart as she patted away his lewd hand with her powerful red tail. He looked at her with an open mouth and stole his candy. She then gave a pout before she turned away and dashed towards the centre of the city. "Hmph!"

Lucifer stopped acting like a pervert as his eyes narrowed. He looked towards the enormous black walls before he flapped his wings several times. The tremendous gust of wind sent him shooting into the air. His body rushed towards the gate faster than anyone could follow him.

"I am glad she gave priority to the city."

He stepped down on top of a watchtower. His eyes narrowed, and he looked into the distance. He could see an advanced force of human knights marching towards his city much sooner than usual. "Huh, it seems we have less time than I thought. I am glad we flew back quickly. Otherwise, I might have lost Emura forever."
