Chapter 32

I pressed her body onto the ground, watching her breathing with excitement. She seemed to desire this deeply as her legs were wide open, showing her soaked crevice. A lust for her burned within my body. My hands grasped her thighs, parting them even more. I slowly slid down my face in-between them, kissing the insides of her thighs gently as I went down enjoying her body shuddering.

'Her skin tastes like honey. its unbearable.'

Before I reincarnated, I had never gone all the way with a woman before. However, there was one thing I'd done several times, and it had grown into something I loved doing. That was giving a woman oral pleasure.

I kissed her thighs, getting closer to her flooding garden. She grasped my hair with her hands, confused by what she wished for, sometimes pulling my face closer to her pussy and trying to push me away at other times.

"Mmm! N-no, it's dirty!" She said with a cute cry.

There was no way I'd stop here as my lips approached closer, kissing the gap of her thighs, approaching her warm centre. She was soaked, and her thick scent filled my nose. It wasn't like the women I'd been with in my last life. They had a very specific smell which would differ from each girl.

Mira smelt like spring, with a light scent of honey and fruit. I wasn't sure if this was because it was a fantasy world or if elves just smelt that way. It made me desire to taste her as my tongue traced along her slit, enjoying her warm, viscous honey. 'It's nothing like Carmilla... Altamira is so sweet, like honey.'

"Ahn! W-what are you doing!?" Mira said as she made strange noises from her mouth. Her hands gripped onto my hair even tighter. She instinctively pulled me closer and wrapped her legs over my shoulders as her waist moved lightly against my tongue's movements.

I didn't respond and only continued to trail my tongue along her wet slit like a snake. When I reached her hidden gem, my lips wrapped around it, giving a gentle kiss. The erect gem seemed to send jolts down her spine as her ass thrust into the air, pressing her cunt against my mouth with significant force.

"Mmhf"

Her honey oozed out because of her arousal as it covered my chin and seeped down. She stopped thrusting so violently as she became accustomed to me kissing her clitoris and teasing her with my tongue.

"Ahn!"

'She's really cute... I almost can't hold back.'

I pulled my mouth away with a popping sound. Her eyes had a slightly dazed look, as she had a begging look on her face.

"Don't stop... Keep going." She said, looking away from me with an apple red face.

My hand slowly slid down her legs, approaching her thighs. The feel of my fingers seemed to make her body shudder with her eyes filled with anticipation. I slid my index finger along her drenched opening to coat my fingers in her sticky honey.

"Do you want it?" I asked with a smirk.

She shook her head from side to side, too embarrassed to answer. She pulled a pillow from behind her and placed it over her face.

"Please... Make me feel good, Lucian," she said, with a muffled whisper behind the pillow.

Her warm entrance filled with honey enveloped my finger as I slowly slid into her warm hole. She was very narrow as the walls clung to my finger it felt like her inner folds were trying to suck on my finger as a loud wet noise sounded in the carriage as I pressed up to my second knuckle and felt slight resistance as the tunnel became much tighter.

'It's hard to believe such a horny little girl has never used toys before...'

"Mmmph~"

Mira was still using the pillow to muffle her moans. I could feel her insides undulating with pleasure. Once I knew she'd adjusted to my fingers being inside her, I massaged her vagina's insides with a come hither motion. Her body would. The sounds of her honey making a splurting noise before squelching when I increased the speed a little make my lust grow further.

"Ahhn~ Lucian, yes! It's nice, faster~"

She seemed addicted to the pleasure of my finger as her hips sank further onto my finger her pleasure grew allowing my finger to reach the third joint her breathing had become intense as I slid my middle finger inside now able to rub against her walls with less effort. Mira had developed her erogenous zones inside her pussy already. So her body would react, with joy each time my fingers stroked along the roof just past of her entrance.

"Mmmnn~"

The changes in her pussy became more extreme as she alternated between a constricting tightness and loosening my fingers completely as her sticky honey soaked them. I lowered my head once again and started teasing her gem with my tongue.

"Ohh myy yes!~"

My eyes looked up and caught her face peeking from behind the pillow. Her blue eyes seemed to glow with lust. She mouthed the words 'I love you, darling~' Before she grabbed my head with her hands and pressed her hips against my face and ground against me, her speed growing faster and faster.

"Ahhhn, goddess, yes! Right there! Don't stop~"

I lost the ability to breathe because of her great power. My tongue continued to circle and tease her gem whilst my fingers were massaging her pussy. The thrusts of her waist caused the splurting to become loud enough to fill the carriage and reach outside. Mira no longer seemed to care or have any sense of shyness as her body shuddered and tighten while she moaned even louder, throwing the pillow to the side.

"Fuck~" Mira screamed out before her words became a mix of moans and strange Elven words.

Her hips buckled, almost shattering my jaw with the power. I felt a huge torrent of warm fluid spray onto my chin and chest from her in several spurts. She continued to clamp down on me for several moments before her hips lowered to the makeshift bed.

gasp She couldn't even speak and only let out a loud gasp.

I simply watched her hole puckering as it ejected my fingers from her gooey hole with intense pressure. Mira had a face of complete delight. Her body relaxed as her breathing calmed down.

'I think she's ready to take this monster on now...'

My body moved forward so my hips were propping her thighs in the air. I took out the monster that was hidden and raging in my boxers. Mira's eyes showed a glint of jubilation the moment she saw it. Despite her still being half dead.

I was proud of being over 20cm in my last life, but this thing makes me feel inferior. Its girth is double my previous member, and its length is touching 30cm at least. What makes me feel strange is that in this world maybe because the developers wanted everyone to feel satisfied, the men of this world are smaller than my previous world's average by almost half.

'To think they still gave this NPC such a monster. Was this really not a hidden NTR game in the development?'

(Lucian POV end)

He slid his tip against her slit, covering himself in her honey completely. Her body would jump a little when he slid close to her gem, as it was still slightly sensitive. Lucian hadn't noticed that the girl's eyes had turned silver.

"Mmmn~" Altair let out a moan. Her voice was a little huskier than Mira, but Lucian thought she was just horny.

Altair had also endured that intense orgasm, as her body seemed to crave the cock that was rubbing against her defenceless hole. She didn't want to stop him and pleaded in her mind for him to just stick it inside her and make her a woman before her sister.

"Ahn~ It's still sensitive... Careful"

'I know it's wrong, but he made me feel such pleasures! He must take responsibility. Yes, that's it, I'm just teaching him about responsibility in life! I don't want to fuck my sister's lover nor have him impregnate me! Nothing of the sort!' Altair convinced herself as her body once again relaxed fully.

She could feel his cock's intense heat filling her body as his thick tip pried open her entrance further than ever before. Altair didn't want to do it in such a distance position as her arms stretched out and pulled Lucian onto her chest and forced her lips against his.

The kiss she desired to once again repeated. Her tongue was the one to open his mouth this time as she imitated Mira, who used her longer tongue to coil around his, as if to squeeze his delicious saliva out.

Altair had made one mistake the moment she leaned back with him. It filled her body with intense pain. It was like being stabbed by a spear between her legs. She had pulled his body higher and in doing so, his cock had fully penetrated her as they fell down together. Their intense kiss muffled the sound of her cry of pain at the feeling of his hard cock driving deeply into her body as she tried to hold back the tears that formed in the corner of her eyes.

'I was too hasty... It hurts! More than being stabbed by a blade, it burns each time his phallus moves inside of me! Kiss me! Let me forget the pain!'

"Mmmnph~ Ummnn~"

She kissed more passionately, trying to forget the pain in her body. Lucian knew women could feel great pain in their first times. He felt even more so with this leviathan dick of his. His lips and tongue comforted the cute, shuddering elf in his arms. He stroked her hair and back softly, using his arms to cradle her. Then interrupting their deep kiss with loving pecks filled with affection.

"Mmmchu~ I love you! I love you! Please forgive me, but I cannot help it!"

Altair had tears in her eyes. She felt guilt for stealing her sister's first time, but this moment would allow her to be honest and give up her strong facade.

"Ah, I love you too, so adorable I'll never let you go."

Lucian didn't care whether it was Altair or Mira. He actually found them both adorable and would make them both his even if he realised it was not Mira he was deep inside.

It felt like her pussy grasped his cock with several sticky wet hands and stroke along and suck on his shaft. He felt she was ready to start for real as his hips slowly slid out of her body. She felt he was pulling her insides out; however, the feeling was very pleasing as it sent shocks all around her body, almost causing her to scream out.

"Ahhhn!"

As his cock pulled out her vagina made a loud splurting noise that made her blush deeply and wish to die. She was thankful that it seemed to arouse Lucian, as she felt his cock throb and grow even harder in excitement.

"It's okay... You can fuck me! I'm ready to become yours, Lucian!"

The moment he heard those words, he stopped holding back. His arms clutched her back as he slammed his cock deep within her depths. She felt a mixture of intense pleasure, a stabbing pain that sent bolts of electric down her spine and the pleasing sensation of her beloved stretching her insides to match his size.

Altair felt grateful. Her mother had said how men of this world were tiny, yet the monsters and demons were large. The orcs that were feared by Elven women were not as monstrous as her lover was. Her soaked pussy adjusted to his thick rod as she clamped around his waist with her legs and whispered in his ears.

"Ravage me like an orc with your massive cock!"

Pah Pah Pah

(Mira POV)

Mira was sitting in the darkness, her hands playing with her pussy and breasts, a damp puddle below, and her fingers sticky with honey. She was not angry with her sister; She was happy the man they desired was the same.

"Mmmmm Sister! No fair monopolising his monster cock!"

She had two fingers inside her, moving in pace with Lucian, who was now fucking her so hard his hips slapped against her thighs, causing them to jiggle. Mira felt like a deviant as she was getting off to her sister using her own body to fuck the man she loved.

"Does this make me a cuckold? Mmmm~ Lucian yeah, don't stop! That speed pound me harder," Mira said as she felt another climax coming.

The moment she felt the climax, her body shone, and she vanished from the spot, leaving the dark world empty.

(Mira POV end)

"Mmmm~ Lucian yeah, don't stop! That speed pound me harder!" Mira said with her cute voice as suddenly her hips buckled.

Lucian felt her tunnel tighten around him, as if trying to encourage his orgasm. Her insides then loosened and gave him a few moments to recover, as he almost blew his load instantly.

"Haaa... Darling! Please... Deeper!" Altair said in her husky, affectionate voice as her hot breath filled his cheeks.

He looked up and saw her eyes were different. One was silver, the other blue. His mind raced, trying to think what it could mean before concluding it could wait as he grasped her hips with his hands and looked into 'their' eyes.

"I'm about to cum. I won't stop until I fill your insides. So enjoy the ride."

He said once against sliding his cock into her depths, resting his tip against her cervix. Her insides had grown longer, but his monster cock could still reach the end with some of his length still outside. He moved his hips and now pounded the sisters silly.

Pah Pah Pah

"Fuck me! Make me bear your children! This slutty elf wants your seed!" Altair said with a sultry voice.

"Mmmm! I love you. Please fill me up!" Mira said with a more affectionate voice.

Lucian didn't need telling twice as he fucked her just to reach his own climax. He slammed his hips against them with all his power, her dirty hole making sounds that caused the girls to blush, yet drove them wild with arousal.

"Mmmmm~ Fuck, it's so deep! I can feel it inside my stomach! Ahhnn~ Break me, make me squeal!"

"Lucian! Faster! mess me up, make my pussy make those dirty sounds! Mmmmmn~"

The two sisters were far too aroused to realise both of them were not speaking in their minds but using Altamira's body at the same time.

He felt her soggy tunnel was even wetter than before. Her sticky honey now coated his entire shaft and balls. The sticky feeling was pleasant and her love juices seemed to have a warming aphrodisiac effect.

Pah Pah Pah

"Oh god! Mmmmmn~ It's swelling inside me."

"Lucian! I love you. Fill me up! Make me a mother!" Mira squealed as she felt his cock swelling even further and throbbed. She tightened the grip on her legs and pulled him into a fierce kiss. Her body felt far stronger than normal as her lips and tongue overpowered Lucian instead of being at his mercy.

"Mmmmmchu~"

Mira and Lucian coiled and entangle each other's tongues as they mixed saliva in a passionate kiss. The two girls were close to climax as they felt everything doubled. Altair enjoyed the feeling of his kiss and throbbing lance deep within her.

The moment she realised it slammed her cervix, her brain filled with rejoicing and brought her closer to orgasm. Mira preferred it when he moved quickly and rubbed against her walls, making more friction.

They continued to kiss as he felt his climax closing fast. He gripped her tightly and started slamming into her pussy with harder thrusts, wanting to get as deep as possible to fulfil her wishes. He felt her climax as her insides twisted around him, no longer able to control himself.

His cock exploded with his sperm as it continued to shoot, almost endlessly swelling her insides, trying to dominate her womb.

He breathed deeply and allowed the girls to slide out of his grasp. His cock flopped out with a loud splurt of her sticky honey and popping sound as the girls' bodies spasmed on the bed. 'These girls...'

"I love you."

"I love you."

The two girls lay back with a thick pool of cum oozing from their bodies as they were completely in sync. They tried to keep holding Lucian, but felt their entire body filled with exhaustion and sleep enveloped their minds.

Lucian watched the girls falling into a deep sleep as his eyes glowed with an intense crimson glint.

'These girls are mine!'
