Chapter 84

Lucian rode on Elda's back all the way to his hotel room. Many students watched the pair leave with warm eyes.

Elda felt embarrassed by their looks as she blushed and hurried into his room. His door slammed shut as she kicked it closed with her hind legs. She opened her eyes and scanned her lord's room.

'Fufu, they say our act earlier was romantic and cute. Would they feel shocked about him breeding with me moments later?'

"Shall we make time to meet your mother soon?" Lucian said in a deep voice.

'Chaos was right horse girls are justice! I might have to steal her mother, too.'

"Heh!?"

'He wants to meet my mother. What should I do? Mmmm, that reminds me... Her mark with father has faded thanks to his actions.'

"Ah, well, I just inseminated her daughter. I should at least meet her to allow her to be at ease, right?"

Her tail swayed as she trotted towards the corner and propped her human body against his shelf and lower body against the soft sheets. When they entered the room, he climbed down from her.

"O-okay! I will speak with Mother. I am sure she will be to your liking!"

'Am I trying to sell my mother to him!?'

'He keeps many copies of the same outfit. I love it though! His tight muscles... Firm ass in those tight black pants. I want to squeeze, kneed it and grasp it with my hands!'

Lucian changed his clothes slowly as she turned her head in shame. His perfect skin without blemish, tight muscles around his arms, ripped abs that she wanted to lick and fill with her drool as she pressed him down...

"Alright, I am gonna take a shower before my fight against A'dalia. Do you want to join me for another round?"

'Ah... That's it. Bend over a little more. Show mommy your pleasure stick! Mmn Just looking at it makes me want to ovulate! Lord, forgive this filthy mare!'

"Fufu, as much as I want your splendid lance inside me again. I hope you can be at full power against her. She is far more powerful than our teacher's device stated."

Elda looked at him from the corner of her eye. She felt a perverted bliss at watching his softened club sway as he removed his tight pants and white shirt. Her lips opened as her pink tongue stroked along them as she enjoyed the view of him walking towards the bathroom.

"Oh? That's interesting... I wonder why you think that, but it doesn't matter! See you soon."

'Look at his tight ass... I want him to sit on my face and fuck my throat... Ah... What bliss... If only he didn't have to fight later today! Then I could join him in the shower and receive another dose of medicine!'

Lucian took a shower as she heard water cascade onto the ground in the room beside her and his pleased hum.

— Today I kissed a centaur. She tasted like candied apples~

— I thought she was cute and so I mounted her~

— Maybe this is love, Or I'm filled with lust~

— Oh my cute centaur~

'Why is Lucifer acting like Chaos?' (Lust)

'Maybe because horse girls are justice?'

'Why are you speaking just like Chaos?' (Lust)

'Let's rail her mother!' (Chaos)

'Why can't she be a sexy elf with ripped abs!?' (Lust)

Elda explored his room to help quell her sexual desire. Her tail swayed and wafted his sheets and curtains into the air. She felt the idea of her lord teaching all the centaurs at home the genuine pleasure of sex and felt a plan form.

'Come to think of it. The centaurs back home didn't like it. My mother dubbed it her chore.'

She once asked her mother about sex after she read a book about it. Her mother just said that although males couldn't give them the pleasure of a normal woman, they could feel his affection and love to make up for it.

Her eyes saw some cute badges on the desk near his notes on mana and how to improve spell-casting without chants. She ignored the important documents, as it was rude to snoop on her master's work without permission.

Three badges in the shape of fruits and vegetables lay on the black wooden desk willed with marks from years of writing and studies. Her fingers traced the gaps and slid over the small badges.

— Carrot Badge, Chuchu's Challenge!

— Orange Badge, Alice's Challenge!

— Peach Badge, Suusuu's Challenge!

'Maybe I should make one too... A candy apple badge? Fufu!'

Splash!

Elda looked towards the bathroom door as her lord jumped into the bath. As water sounded loudly as he splashed around like a child. Once everything was quiet, she took a book from his shelf and quietly pranced over to the corner to read.

The book was called "Sultry Vampire Ancestors: Grandmother edition,"

— Bathroom, Lucian's Apartment. Lucian POV

I lay back against the backrest. Today was only half complete. With Elda as my mount, her sisters and other centaur would eventually betray their lords.

In the game, they brushed over it briefly. Thanks to his study skill he bought many books on various topics about the women around him or may meet in the future.

'The mark is only absolute when the lord satisfied all her desires. Don't worry, I will free you all as long as you're beautiful!'

'Hey... I'd like my lines back sir.' (Chaos)

'Haha, sorry, I just never expected them to be so durable. With the other girls, I need to pay attention to them and hold back, otherwise they might deform or break. I will not allow a centaur to escape! Even her mother...'

'Muscles, elves, sexy monsters!' (Lust)

Splash!

My body moved into the piping hot bath. I felt like my entire body was being cleansed. My eyes looked at the strange circle patterns on the roof. They seemed to be from the past. Before, the humans and demons waged their wars.

'This academy sure blows money easily.'

I reached out my right hand to grab something just out of my reach.

"I shouldn't have banished a good girl like Lanza... Just the mention of my sisters, even the newest human one, drives me crazy..."

'Well, you loved them too much and killed your own...!' (Lust)

'LUST!' (Chaos)

'Ah... it's okay Chaos, lust is part of me too. He knows my lust for power and sex more than me. It's the truth. In order to stop my sisters from fighting battles against the abyss, I killed the old man and caused chaos for both sides.'

'Isn't that how you came to dwell within my soul?'

'Haha... How nostalgic when your soul shattered at his final blow. Then I became we and we became you, forever.' (Chaos)

My legs stretched out with a pleasant feeling. They hung over the sides of my bath as I washed my junk with the foamy suds that Altair bought. The feel of scratching them slightly was divine. I was glad none of my women could see my vulgar actions.

My mother used to do these little things. I saw something on tv or the store and she would skip meals to buy it for me and never asked for any praise or thanks...

"Sorry, Sylvia, but even with your tampering. I will never fix my little more complex..."

'Well, we all have our kinks right Lust?' (Chaos)

'Hahaha The time she took your virginity was so amusing!' (Lust)

'Says someone called lust who will be an eternal virgin...'

'Gah!? Devour me! Right now! Take me inside and go find a giantess elf with hulking muscles!'

'Hahaha' (All three)

I finished my bath and climbed from the hot water. Steam filled the room as the reflection in the mirror became even more beautiful. I look better each day. Do the women of this world stand a chance against my beauty?

'Ah... It's back... His damn narcissistic pride!' (Lust)

'Better than him being a pessimistic loser...' (Chaos)

— Lucian POV end

Elda closed the book as she concluded. Her master and lover, Lucian, liked older women! She felt a sense of joy because she was older than him.

'Now I can ask him to save my elder sisters and my other mothers! They are beautiful, yet so unloved and wounded. Only my master's golden radiance and massive rod can save them!'

'My dear mother, you shall be the first member to join!'

She did not realise that one day she would join the Arachne clan.

Together they would create the base faith for their beloved Lucifer, Lord of dusk and madness.

The moment his wet, steamy body appeared from the bathroom door. His eyes looked at her and examined her. She could feel a blaze of desire from those golden eyes.

"Take off your clothes and prostrate yourself. I want you right now, Elda."

Woosh

Elda had no time to respond. Her bottled desire took over the moment his towel dropped to the ground. She glared at his fully erect golden rod that brimmed with a vast, robust radiance.

He was ready to give his teachings upon a sinful centaur and her garden of lust and desire.

'Ah!? This is my delusion from moments ago! Lord, you are perfect! My body is yours for the taking!'
