

CEO's Escaping Ex-wife Chapter 23

Ling Ouwen took out a cheque from his suit pocket and stuffed it into her chest. "You did well yesterday. Here's 500,000 dollars. Consider it your tip. "

"Ling Ouwen!"

He had a ghostly smile on his face, and his handsome face was so handsome that it made people unable to breathe. However, Lin Wanyan did not want to see this face that everyone liked because the moment he appeared, she felt very humiliated. Did he treat her as a prostitute?

"No need, didn't you say so? I'm your wife, it's normal for me to sleep with you. Leave your tip to the women outside, I don't need it. " Lin Wanyan casually tossed the cheque to the side and said coldly.

Ling Ouwen raised his eyebrows and said casually. "Why did I hear that your father and your brother are going to be chased out? Are you sure you don't want to use this money to pay tuition and hospitalization fees? You're really cruel. "

Lin Wanyan bit her lower lip and glared at him. He clearly knew that she urgently needed money, but he still used this kind of method to humiliate her.

"Your performance yesterday was not bad. 500,000 yuan is already a lot. And you are not a virgin. Those women outside, even if they are virgins, do not have this price " Ling Ouwen stood on the bedside and looked at her high and mighty, his eyes filled with coldness.

Lin Wanyan forcefully pinched her palm to suppress her desire to get angry. She forced out a smile and said calmly, "You are really generous. Why don't you be more generous and hand over the GI project to Lin's Group as well? Anyway, you don't care about that bit of money. "

She clearly knew that if she did not take down this project, Yao Chunhua would definitely not let go of her family. Furthermore, she also did not want the company that Lin Yan had painstakingly built to be destroyed.

"Lin Wanyan, do you know how many companies are competing for this project? I have already decided to work with Hua's Group for that project. What do you think Lin Family has to compete with Hua's Group?" Ling Ouwen said with disdain. Obviously, he didn't intend to give that project to her.

Lin Wanyan bit her lower lip tightly. Her eyes were moist and she felt extremely wronged.

"What exactly do I want to do to make you give that project to Lin's Group? I have already begged you, is it not enough? Furthermore, I have satisfied you last night. "Lin Wanyan looked at the traces of him left on her body and instantly felt that she was too humble.

She could only listen to his words. She had no other choice.

But even so, he still refused to agree to her.

Ling Ouwen looked at her indifferently. Suddenly, he narrowed his eyes and used a commanding tone to say to her, "Come here!"

Lin Wanyan's eyes lit up when she heard this word. She was just about to walk over. She found that she was completely naked. She looked around and finally found her pyjamas in the corner. She could only wrap her blanket around her pajamas and pick them up. She quickly turned her back to him and put on her pyjamas. She walked in front of Ling Ouwen.

"Help me put on my clothes. " Ling Ouwen said coldly. He stood there and stretched out his muscular arm. He was like a high and mighty king, waiting for her to change his clothes.

Lin Wanyan stood in front of him and was stunned. Not to mention helping her put on her clothes. She had never even worn a tie for him. Besides, he was only wearing a towel now. She didn't know if he was wearing underwear or not. She couldn't accept helping him wear pants.

"With your attitude, you still want the GI project? You're just helping me change my clothes. You're not that noble, are you?" Ling Ouwen saw that she didn't move and snorted coldly. His expression darkened, and there was a trace of displeasure in his words.

"No. I was just thinking about what clothes to pick for you. "

After saying that, Lin Wanyan hurriedly went to the wardrobe to choose clothes. Although he did not live here, he still had a few spare sets of clothes.

She took a look and chose a dark blue suit and a white shirt. That set of clothes suited his temperament very well.

She put the clothes on the bed, and he trembled as he reached out his hand, wanting to close his eyes and take off the towel on his body.

"Do you want to close your eyes to help me put on my clothes?"

Ling Ouwen's cold voice sounded above her head again, scaring her so much that she immediately opened her eyes. She pulled with both hands and pulled the towel away.

After that.

Then, she saw his naked lower body.

"Pervert!" Lin Wanyan immediately covered her eyes and screamed.

"What are you screaming for? Didn't you use it happily yesterday? Now you are acting reserved again. Hurry up, I don't have much patience. " Ling Ouwen said impatiently, his dark eyes staring intently at her crimson face.
